Legislative history

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Real Property Regulations 2009.

3—Interpretation

In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

Act means the Real Property Act 1886;

check search of a certificate of title, is an inspection of the certificate of title to ascertain—

- (a) whether there are any documents lodged in respect of, but not registered on, the certificate of title; or
- (b) whether any documents have been registered on the certificate of title within the period of 90 days prior to the inspection;

Mount Lofty Catchment Area means the part of the State delineated in G.R.O. Plan No. 180 of 1992 and described in that plan as "Water Supply Protection Zone"; road includes a street.

Part 2—Land division

4—Transactions excluded from unlawful division provisions

The following classes of transactions are excluded from the provisions of section 223LB of the Act:

- (a) the granting of, and all dealings with, a lease of part of an allotment;
- (b) the granting of, and all dealings with, a licence in respect of part of an allotment;
- (c) the granting, selling, transferring, conveying, mortgaging or encumbering of an estate or interest in part of an allotment if the transaction—
 - (i) is necessary to enable the deposit of a plan of division under Part 19AB of the Act to proceed; or
 - (ii) is 1 to which the Crown, whether in right of the State or the Commonwealth, is a party; or
 - (iii) involves or is incidental to the acquisition of land for the purposes of an authorised undertaking referred to in the Land Acquisition Act 1969; or
 - (iv) involves a lawfully existing lease or licence and where any subsequent transaction or dealing, including any transaction or dealing which has occurred at any time prior to the commencement of this regulation is in respect of the whole of the land comprised in that lawfully existing lease;
- (d) the granting, selling, transferring, conveying, mortgaging or encumbering of an estate or interest in land comprising part of an allotment if—
 - (i) the land is to be used for widening or adding to an existing road, road reserve or drainage reserve; and
 - (ii) after becoming part of the road, road reserve or drainage reserve, the land will be vested in the Crown, a Minister of the Crown, an instrumentality or agency of the Crown or a council.

5—Certificate of licensed surveyor

- (1) The certificate of a licensed surveyor that must accompany an application for the division of land must be included on the plan of division that accompanies the application and must comply with regulation 20 of the Survey Regulations 2007 made under the Survey Act 1992.
- (2) Subject to subregulation (4), a certificate of a licensed surveyor is not required under section 223LD(3)(b) of the Act if—
 - (a) the application is for the division of the land into no more than 2 allotments; and
 - (b) the land is not within, or partly within, an area declared to be a designated survey area under the Survey Act 1992; and
 - (c) party wall rights are not created by the division; and
 - (d) there is no new boundary created by the division that defines an existing line of occupation or is located by reference to a physical structure or feature located on or below the surface of the land; and
 - (e) the division does not involve the creation of a new road or the substantial widening of an existing road; and
 - (f) the land is not designated primarily for shopping, commercial, office or business use in the relevant Development Plan under the Development Act 1993, and is not used or intended to be used primarily for such purposes.
- (3) For the purposes of subregulation (2)(a), any widening of an existing road that is considered by the Registrar-General to be minor, will not be counted as a separate allotment in relation to a plan of division of land.
- (4) In a particular case the Registrar-General may require the certificate of a licensed surveyor to be provided in relation to a plan of division even though the requirement for the certificate is excluded by subregulation (2).

6—Applications for which section 51 certificate not required

An application for the division of land where that division is excluded from the definition of development by Schedule 3 of the Development Regulations 2008 is prescribed for the purposes of section 223LD(5a) of the Act.

7—Consent to plans of division

A certificate of consent is not required under section 223LH of the Act in relation to a division of land that is required to give effect to an acquisition of land under the Land Acquisition Act 1969, unless the Registrar-General specifically requires such a certificate.

8—Examination of plan

As part of the Registrar-General's obligation to administer the Act and the regulations, the Registrar-General must examine the plan of division accompanying an application for division and must not accept the plan for deposit unless he or she is satisfied with it.

9—Notification on deposit of plan

- (1) After the Registrar-General deposits a plan of division in the Lands Titles Registration Office he or she must—
 - (a) notify the applicant or the applicant's agent in writing of the deposit; and
 - (b) notify the council for the area in which the land is situated in writing of the deposit and send a copy of the deposited plan to the council.
- (2) A notification or other document required to be given under this regulation may be sent by electronic means.

Part 3—Land amalgamation

10—Examination of plan

As part of the Registrar-General's obligation to administer the Act and the regulations, the Registrar-General must examine a plan of amalgamation accompanying an application for amalgamation and must not accept the plan unless he or she is satisfied with it.

11—Notification of amalgamation

- (1) After amalgamation of allotments under Part 19AB Division 3 of the Act the Registrar-General must notify the Minister for Infrastructure and the council for the area in which the land is situated in writing of the amalgamation and must send a copy of the plan (if any) that accompanied the application to the Minister and the council.
- (2) A notification or other document required to be given under this regulation may be sent by electronic means.

Part 4—Certification of instruments

12—Classes of instruments

The following classes of instruments are prescribed under section 273(2) of the Act:

- (a) applications for amalgamation of land (except where the benefit of an easement is extended to other land upon the amalgamation);
- (b) applications for division of land where deposit of the plan of division in the Lands Titles Registration Office will not—
 - (i) vest an estate or interest in land in any person, except for the following:
 - (A) a street, road, thoroughfare, reserve or other similar open space that vests in a council or other authority or reverts to the Crown; or
 - (B) an easement that vests in an authority or entity under section 223LG of the Act; or
 - (ii) discharge or extinguish an estate or interest;
- (c) applications for the issue of a summons by the Registrar-General;
- (d) applications for new certificates of title;

- (e) applications to withdraw an instrument from registration;
- (f) applications to withdraw plans of survey;
- (g) applications to withdraw a Registrar-General's caveat;
- (h) applications to the Registrar-General by the Minister for the time being administering the Crown Lands Act 1929, under that Act or any other Act;
- (i) applications to register agreements under section 57 of the Development Act 1993;
- (j) applications to rectify certificates of title by consent pursuant to section 223J of the Act;
- (k) certificates of alteration issued pursuant to section 66A of the Crown Lands Act 1929;
- (l) certificates issued pursuant to section 66B of the Crown Lands Act 1929;
- (m) closed road title certificate issued pursuant to section 26 of the Roads (Opening and Closing) Act 1991;
- (n) informal documents issued pursuant to section 247 of the Act;
- (o) notices of acquisition under the Land Acquisition Act 1969;
- (p) notices of intention to acquire land under the Land Acquisition Act 1969;
- (q) notifications of declaration by councils of public roads under the Local Government Act 1999;
- (r) Registrar-General's caveats.

Part 5—Miscellaneous

13—Plans and maps to comply with guidelines

A plan or map lodged with the Registrar-General for the purposes of the Act must comply with any requirements specified in guidelines issued, from time to time, by the Registrar-General.

14—Persons on whom notice must be served under Schedule 1 of Act

The Registrar-General must serve notice under clause 1(1)(b) of Schedule 1 of the Act on all persons who have, or claim, an estate or interest in the land of whom he or she knows or could reasonably be expected to know.

15—Persons whose consents are required under Schedule 1 of Act

The consents of all persons who have, or claim, an estate or interest in the land of whom the Registrar-General knows or could reasonably be expected to know are required under clause 1(2)(c) of Schedule 1 of the Act.

16—Fees payable to Registrar-General

- (1) The fees set out in Schedule 1 are payable to the Registrar-General.

- (2) If the amount of the registration fee payable in respect of a transfer is to be based on the value of the transfer assessed under the Stamp Duties Act 1923, the amount of the registration fee must be based on that value despite—
 - (a) a pending reassessment under section 10 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996; or
 - (b) a pending objection or appeal against the assessment under section 82 or 92 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.
- (3) If the assessed value is reduced as a result of a reassessment by the Commissioner under section 10 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996, the Registrar-General must refund the difference between the registration fee paid and the registration fee that would have been payable in accordance with the reassessed value.
- (4) If the assessed value is reduced as a result of an objection under section 82 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 or an appeal under section 92 of that Act, the Registrar-General must refund the difference between the registration fee paid and the registration fee that would have been payable in accordance with the reassessed value, together with interest calculated on a daily basis from the date of lodgment of the transfer for registration until the date on which the difference is refunded at the market rate applying from time to time under Part 5 Division 1 of that Act.
