INDEX OF SOUTH AUSTRALIAN LEGISLATION

31 DECEMBER 1996

Printed and published, by authority, by
M. E. JONES, Acting Government Printer, South Australia

1997

This publication is available as part of the 1996 annual volume of South Australian Statutes or may be purchased separately from the State Information Centre, Australis Centre, 77 Grenfell Street, Adelaide (08) 8204 1900.

The information in this index is updated fortnightly on a cumulative basis by the publication South Australian Legislation Update which is available from the Attorney-General's Department, GPO Box 464, Adelaide 5001 (08) 8207 1646.

The index has been prepared by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office researching primary sources from 1976.

Although the index is published annually on a cumulative basis, it is recommended that previous indexes be kept to enable details of repealed legislation to be found.

General Outline

The index lists Acts of the South Australian Parliament that are in force and Acts that have been repealed or have expired since 31 December 1975.

The index does not include Appropriation Acts or Supply Acts.

Acts that have amended other Acts (including Statutes Amendment Acts and Statute Law Revision Acts) are listed under the Act or Acts amended. Acts amending public general Acts before 1 January 1976 are recorded in the 1975 consolidation of South Australian Statutes and are not recorded in this index.

Each repeal Act and each amending Act that has repealed an Act since 31 December 1975 is included with its date of operation as a means of identifying the date of the repeal. (The date of operation of an amending Act is set out opposite the number of the amending Act in the entry for the principal Act amended.)

Where the name of an Act has been changed since 1975 both names are included.

The index includes information up to 31 December 1996.

Acts of limited interest

The Acts marked with an asterisk are Acts that are in force but are not included in the South Australian Statutes and Consolidation Service. The majority of these Acts are either of local or restricted application or are private Acts. Some public Acts of general application are excluded from the consolidation service because they are not of general interest and these are treated as limited Acts in the index and marked with an asterisk. An example is the Housing Agreement Acts of 1978 and 1981. The current Housing Agreement Act 1991 is included in the consolidation service and is included in the index as a public general Act. Acts that are not currently in operation but that have not been repealed such as the Income Tax Acts are also regarded as being of limited interest. Acts such as the Companies (Application of Laws) Act 1982 that have been superseded are entered in the same way as repealed Acts.

The only information included with Acts of limited interest is the number and year of the Act and the number and year of any amending Acts whether passed before or after 1 January 1976.

Repeal of Acts and revocation of Regulations and Rules

If necessary the edition of the index for the year in which an Act is repealed will include the Act with its amending Acts, legislative history, regulations and other details in order to provide a record of all relevant information in relation to the Act up to the time of repeal. Subsequent editions of the index will only record the name of the Act and the name of the Act that repealed it.

The same system will be used in respect of regulations and rules that are revoked and regulations that have expired.

The operation of section 11 of the Acts Interpretation Act should be kept in mind. Subject to that section a regulation in force under an Act ceases to operate upon the repeal of the Act. Section 11 provides that where the regulation could have been made under the repealing Act the regulation will remain in force. Regulations usually remain in force for a relatively short period under this provision until new regulations have been made under the repealing Act. Subject to the earlier comments, regulations under a repealed Act will be removed from the index when the Act is removed even though they may remain in force by virtue of section 11.

A regulation is impliedly revoked when the section of the Act under which it was made is repealed and not replaced with a similar provision. This does not happen very often and it is beyond the scope of the index to identify and record each instance of it. However if and when such an implied revocation comes to our notice it will be included.

Proclamations and notices

The index includes reference to some but not all of the categories of proclamations and notices appearing in the Gazettes of 1985 and subsequent years. Reference to the other categories has been excluded because of the need to keep the index to a reasonable size and because they are considered to be of minor importance or available from some other source. The index for the 1989 annual volume of South Australian Statutes should be consulted for information in respect of proclamations and notices made before 1.1.85.

The section number under which a proclamation or notice is made and the Gazette reference are recorded. Two or more proclamations or notices under the same provision of an Act frequently appear on the same page of the Gazette. When this occurs only one entry is recorded in the index.

CASE ANNOTATIONS:

s 10	Discretion exercisable by bail authority	McLeod v Fauser (1986) 42 SASR 356 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Held, the rule that bail will not be granted pending the decision of an appeal against conviction or sentence for an indictable crime unless the circumstances are exceptional does not apply in the case of an appeal against the severity of a sentence imposed by a court of summary jurisdiction. Farquar v Fleet (1989) 50 SASR 490 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, on a bail application or review the applicant is to be granted bail, prima facie, unless the factors set out in s 10 persuade the bail authority or Court of Review otherwise.
s 13	Procedure on arrest	R v Clark (1986) 23 A Crim R 303 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Interaction between the Bail Act 1985 s 13 and the Summary Offences Act 1953 s 78 discussed and considered.
s 19	Estreatment	Zagar v Wright (1986) 41 SASR 452 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, there is no right of appeal to the Supreme Court against the refusal of an application for remission or reduction of a forfeiture order, made consequent on a breach of bail terms. R v Rigney (No. 2) (1988) 49 SASR 389 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Ruling on applications under the Bail Act. There is no power under the Bail Act 1985 (which is to be treated as a code) to order payment by instalments, nor is there power to fix a term of imprisonment in default of payment of any sum forfeited. Sweatman v Le Griffin (1988) 50 SASR 379 35A Crim R 113 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Application for relief against forfeiture. The court when it ordered forfeiture was acting as a court of summary jurisdiction pursuant to the Bail Act 1985 s 19(1)(b). The application to rescind or revise under s 19(3) of the Act took the same character as the earlier order, so that there was power to state a case.

Inclusion of the cost of materials in the statements for the purpose of recouping only the actual cost, in the circumstances of acquiring the materials as a favour to the appellants, where no amount was sought over and above the actual cost for the time and expense incurred in the acquisition, could not amount to the charging of a fee or the seeking of a reward within s 21(3)(a).* 2. The fee of $10 per hour was in the nature of wages within s 21(4) as there was no component in the fee other than the provision of labour and skill.

s 4	Interpretation	Santos Ltd v Pipelines Authority (SA) (1996) 66 SASR 38 (SA Sup Ct FC): A "dispute" in the context of s 4 exists once a claim is advanced by one party and rejected by the other. A "disagreement" as to price is a dispute within the meaning of the Act, as is a "difference". s 38	Judicial review of awards	Sabemo (SA) Pty Ltd v A/W Engineering Pty Ltd (1992) 9 BCL 280 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held, the arbitrator erred in law in making an assessment based on his own view of what the cost of the variation may be, or could have been. If the arbitrator had a basis for an estimate, he should have disclosed it and given the appellant's counsel the opportunity of meeting it with argument; he could not use any special knowledge to make good a deficiency in the evidence. Ballantyne v Electricity Trust of SA (1994) 62 SASR 133 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, a contention raised by ETSA was incidental to the arbitration despite its abandonment later. The arbitrator's rejection of jurisdiction to deal with the costs of investigating the other fire (which had been the subject of the abandoned contention) was an error of law on the face of the award. The determination of the question of law on appeal was "likely to add substantially to the certainty of commercial law" for the purposes of s 38(5)(b)(ii). Accordingly, appeal lay against the decision of the arbitrator. Leighton Contractors Pty Ltd v South Australian Superannuation Fund Investment Trust (1994) 63 SASR 444 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): Held, leave to appeal from the award of an arbitrator will only be granted in the circumstances prescribed in s 38(5). The applicant for leave must satisfy both paras (a) and (b) of s 38(5).

s 6	Application of this Act	Edwards v Victorian Producers Co-Operative Co Ltd (1993) ASC 58,397 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. The amount agreed to be lent is irrelevant in determining the amount of the principal for the purpose of s 6(3) of the Act. 2. Where there are successive amounts of credit, it is necessary to aggregate the amounts for the purpose of determining the applicability of the Act. The Act applies up to the point at which the aggregate exceeds the prescribed amount but it then ceases to apply, notwithstanding that the principal outstanding may later be reduced to or under the prescribed amount. 3. The principal for the purpose of s 6(3) is the aggregate of all amounts of credit advanced under the credit contract less payments or repayments by the debtor prior to the stage at which the prescribed amount is exceeded.
s 25	Right of appeal	Mobitel Pty Ltd v Dun and Bradstreet (Australia) Pty Ltd (1979) 22 SASR 288 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the right of appeal to the Supreme Court was against a decision of the Tribunal. No right of appeal exists against a decision of the Chairman of the Tribunal upon a preliminary matter of law. s 28	Obligation to be licensed	Webb v Action Home Loan Pty Ltd (1985) 82 FLR 200; 63 ALR 113 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the activities of the Adelaide branch of a company based in Queensland was subject to the SA Consumer Credit Act 1972 because, among other reasons, the defendant carried on a business as a credit provider in SA within the meaning of s 28.
s 29	Application for a licence	Club Resorts (Finance) Pty Ltd v Commercial Tribunal (SA) (1992) ASC 57,752 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): The words "fit and proper person" should not be given a narrow construction. A propensity to make misleading representations in the making of consumer contracts may be sufficient although the mere use of high pressure sales techniques may not.
s 36	Tribunal to exercise disciplinary powers	R v The Credit Tribunal and Others; Ex parte General Motors Acceptance Corporation Australia (1977): see s 40. s 40	Form of credit contract	R v The Credit Tribunal and Others; Ex parte General Motors Acceptance Corporation Australia (1977) 15 SASR 482 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, that the Credit Tribunal had jurisdiction under s 36 of the Act to inquire into the question of the use by the company of a blank contract contrary to the provisions of s 40 of the Act. Mercantile Credits Ltd v Comblas and Another (1982) 56 ALJR 499; 40 ALR 75 (PC): Held, ambiguity which arose by reference to a credit contract as a "consumer mortgage" was further compounded by s 40(5) and the Regulations there-under which refer to both the Consumer Credit Act 1972 and the Consumer Transactions Act 1972. It was contrary to the spirit of s 40 that a liability of such importance as that of having one's goods seized and sold by the lender, should not be stated expressly in the contract, rather than incorporated into it deviously.

s 27	Notice to be given to consumer when goods repossessed	Citicorp Australia Ltd v BS Stilwell Ford Pty Ltd (1979) 21 SASR 142 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Local Court: The effect and operation of s 27 considered. Spence v Roberts: see s 28.
s 28	Possession of goods to be retained for certain period	Spence v Roberts (1995) ASC 56,464 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): A borrower failed to make the first payment due under a loan agreement. The lender then arranged repossession of certain equipment and machinery, the subject of a bill of sale. The goods were later sold. Held: 1. The seizure and sale were in breach of ss 27 & 28 which require certain preliminaries including notice in writing of an intention to take possession of goods. The borrower was thus denied an opportunity to remedy the default. 2. The unlawfulness of the seizure and sale did not invalidate the loan agreement but entitled to borrower to damages.
s 36	Bona fide purchase for value	Gurr and Ainsworth v Esanda Ltd (1981) 28 SASR 297 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J) Appeal from Local Court: Held, protection under s 36(1) from having to pay a pre-existing mortgage over a truck purchased by G and A, was forfeited by s 36(2) since G and A's business activities, which had on seven or eight occasions included organising the sale of a truck, amounted to trading in trucks. The meaning of the expression "trades in goods of that description", considered.

s 4	Interpretation	R v Catanzaritti, re "produce": see s 32.
s 32	Prohibition of manufacture, production, sale or supply of drug of dependence or prohibited substance	R v Scali (1986) 40 SASR 597 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the presumption in s 32(3) applied with respect to the sentencing process as well as to the determination of criminal liability. R v Catanzaritti (1987) 74 SASR 579 (Ct. of Crim. App): Held, the offence of producing a drug, constituted by s 32(1)(a), included its cultivation, by reason of the definition of "produce" in s 4. R v Davidson: see s 52.
	Prohibition of manufacture, sale, etc., of drug of dependence or prohibited substance	DPP Reference No. 2 of 1995 (1995) 82 A Crim R 263 (SA Sup Ct FC): The offence "to take part in the sale" of a substance contrary to s 32(1)(d) does not require proof of an actual sale. The subsection embraces situations in which a sale has been made but it also extends to activities which precede an actual sale, provided that a sale is in contemplation. Moreover, a person taking part in the sale will include not only the intended vendor but also his/her associates who are, relevantly, participants in the operation or who have the appropriate connection with the operation. s 39	Prosecution for simple possession offence	R v Young (1987) 47 SASR 525; 27 A Crim R 85; 79 ALR 441 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the prohibition in s 39 is attracted by the character of the prosecution not the nature of the offence of which the offender is convicted.
s 45a	Expiation of simple cannabis offences	R v Offord (1991) 53 A Crim R 475 (SA Sup Ct FC): The appellant's possession of 400 grams of cannabis harvested from 5 plants for his personal use which led to a conviction of possession for supply was not an offence "arising out of" the cultivation of cannabis and it was not a simple cannabis offence. The phrase should be interpreted as meaning either "consisting of" cultivation or "directly connected with" cultivation. Anderson v The Queen (1993) 67 ALJR 911; 117 ALR 1 (HC) Appeal to High Court against a conviction for cultivation of cannabis plants "for commercial purposes". Held, where the Crown wishes to rely on an alleged but disputed factual circumstance as aggravating the offence, the ordinary rule puts the onus on the Crown to establish the existence of that circumstance with the ordinary criminal standard of proof (ie beyond reasonable doubt).

s 52	Power to search, seize, etc.	Tran Nominees Pty Ltd v Scheffler (1986) 42 SASR 361; sub nom Ryan v Tran Nominees Pty Ltd 22 A Crim R 274 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the warrant on its face failed to disclose compliance with the requirements of s 52(5) and was invalid. R v Davidson (1991) 54 SASR 580 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Consideration of the scope of power to search, and exercise of discretion to reject evidence. Mammone v Chaplin (1991) 54 A Crim R 163 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): The prosecution is required to prove as an objective fact, that a member of the police force suspected that a substance was in a vehicle. Hearsay evidence may be relied on in establishing whether the police suspected on reasonable grounds. The powers in s 52(9) are to be read disjunctively. Gibson v Ellis (1992) 59 SASR 420 (SA Sup Ct FC): Section 52(7) qualifies s 68 of the Summary Offences Act 1953 (power to stop, search and detain) in relation to searches justified by s 52(6). See Gibson v Ellis (s 68 Summary Offences Act 1953).

Act generally		Pancontinental Mining Ltd v Burns (1994) 14 ACSR 545 (Fed Ct of Aus von Doussa J): The scheme of the Corporations (South Australia) Act 1990 is to apply the Commonwealth administrative laws, as the laws of the Commonwealth, to the Corporations Law of South Australia. In effect, the State Act seeks to vest in the authorities of the Commonwealth and their officers who have jurisdiction under Commonwealth administrative law a jurisdiction and function as authorities and officers of the Commonwealth.
s 44	Cross-vesting–transfer of proceedings	JN Taylor Finance Pty Ltd (In Liq) v BCF (Bond Corp Finance) Ltd (1991) 4 ACSR 483 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): Held, that s 44 requires a determination as to which of the two courts is more appropriate. Section 44 assumes that both courts are appropriate for one reason or another. If the plaintiff has lawfully chosen one forum, and if there is no indication of forum shopping, and if there is no demonstrable advantage of one forum over another, the court will not lightly transfer the proceedings from the forum originally chosen by the plaintiff. To that extent, the defendant may have some kind of onus to discharge. But at the end of the day, the task for the court is to weigh the relevant advantages and disadvantages in determining whether an order for transfer should be made.
s 85	Operation of Companies (SA) Code in relation to "matters arising before commencement of this section"	The Duke Group Ltd (In Liq) v Arthur Young (Reg) (1991) 5 ACSR 347; 7 ACLC 1,107 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that by virtue of s 85(1), a Company ordered to be wound up in Victoria under the Companies (Victoria) Code was able to file a copy of the order in the Supreme Court of South Australia pursuant to s 465 Companies (SA) Code so that third party proceedings issued against it in South Australia before 1/1/91 could be stayed, notwithstanding that the filing took place after the Corporations Law (SA) came into effect.

s 19	Correctional institutions to be under the control of the Minister	Sandery v South Australia: see s 36.
s 21	Day on which sentence of imprisonment commences	R v Bugg (1987) 46 SASR 40 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, ss 21 and 65 required the fixing of a non-parole period only when the sentence of imprisonment exceeds one year. Discussed, the ambit and effect of ss 21 and 65 where a person is sentenced to two periods of imprisonment of less than 12 months each, for offences against Commonwealth and State Laws. R v Jamieson (1988) 50 SASR 130 (Ct Crim App FC) Appeal from sentence of Supreme Court: Held, the sentencing judge's statutory power under s 21, to order that a sentence commence on a date prior to that of the commencement of the relevant sitting, is generally to allow for incorporation into the sentence periods spent in custody prior to the date of passing sentence.
s 22	Assignment of prisoners to particular correctional institutions	Sandery v South Australia: see s 36.
s 24	Chief Executive Officer has custody of prisoners	Fricker v Dawes (1992) 57 SASR 494 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Section 24 gives the prison manager an absolute discretion that may not be reviewed by the court in the ordinary case. Reviewable perhaps only on the grounds that it is inconsistent with other provisions of the Act or made in bad faith.
s 25	Transfer of prisoners	Sandery v South Australia: see s 36.
s 36	Power to keep a prisoner apart from all other prisoners	Sandery v South Australia (1987) 48 SASR 500 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) Application for judicial review: Held, separate confinement could only be imposed in accordance with s 36. No residual power was conferred by ss 22 and 25 in the plaintiff's particular circumstances. Whilst s 19 vested general control in the Minister, such residual power was not unqualified and could not be exercised in a manner and for a purpose running counter to legislative intention. Forrest v South Australia (1989) 39 A Crim R 326 (SA Sup Ct Duggan J): The Permanent Head of the Department of Correctional Services, upon being satisfied of any of the matters referred to in s 36(3)(c) is permitted to direct segregation for a period not exceeding 14 days. By s 36(4), a limit of two months is fixed in respect of any one extension. Bromley v SA (1990) 55 SASR 309 (SA Sup Ct Duggan J): Held, that a direction for segregation under s 36 was unlawful where the written notice did not provide a clear and proper understanding of the reasons for the direction of segregation.
s 50	Escape	R v Forrest: see s 65.
s 65	Court shall fix or extend non-parole periods	R v Thomas (1986) 41 SASR 566; 84 FLR 420; 24 A Crim R 404; 67 ALR 497 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the fixing of non-parole period where prisoner sentenced to terms of imprisonment for offences against both Commonwealth and State laws. Flentjar v Wright (1986) 42 SASR 246 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, factors to be considered when determining whether there is special reason for not fixing a non-parole period under s 65(2).

		R v Becker (1986) 43 SASR 309 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Discussed, power of the court to fix a fresh non-parole period where prisoner sentenced interstate for offence committed in breach of parole. R v Bugg: see s 21. R v Forrest (1987) 46 SASR 75 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the effect of ss 50, 65 and 74a on a non-parole period of an offender sentenced while in custody for an earlier offence and subject to an existing non-parole period. Held, if at the time of sentence for escape, the offender is on parole, s 74a applies, not s 50(2). Houghagen v Charra (1988) 50 SASR 419 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Justices Appeal: Held, s 65(1)(b) requires the Court to consider whether the non-parole period should be extended - when an additional sentence has been imposed - but does not direct that it should be extended in all cases.
s 66	Board must order release on parole at end of non-parole period	Mackie v South Australia (1985) 20 A Crim R 455 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, where a non-parole period expires and the prisoner either accepts conditions of parole proposed to the prisoner, or is not invited to accept such conditions, the prisoner is entitled to release on parole (subject to the conditions in s 66(2)(a)) even where the Parole Board has not ordered the release.
s 74	Suspension of parole while serving imprisonment for offence committed before release on parole	R v Forrest: see s 65.
s 75	Automatic cancellation of parole upon imprisonment for offence committed while on parole	Galang v Rowbottom (1992) 58 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Calculation of unexpired balance of the sentence for the purposes of s 75. Hayes v Brookes (1992) 60 SASR 87 (SA Sup Ct Duggan J): Held: 1. There is power to suspend a term of imprisonment imposed in respect of an offence committed while a person is on parole. 2. The Act (s 75(1)) provides that automatic cancellation of parole will only occur if the sentence of imprisonment for the offence committed while on parole is not suspended. 3. Section 31(2) of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988, which provides that any term of imprisonment imposed for an offence committed while on parole is cumulative on the sentence in respect of which parole was granted, only applies to an unsuspended custodial sentence.
s 79	Remission for certain life prisoners and prisoners serving sentences exceeding three months	R v G (1986) 43 SASR 503 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, whether the provisions of s 79 apply to a person whose sentence comprises a term of detention until age of 18 followed by a term of imprisonment.

s 4	Interpretation	Battista v Cooper (1976) 14 SASR 225: Applicants suffering shock and emotional disturbance due to the murder of their husband and father were persons to whom compensation might be ordered to be paid under s 4 of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act, 1969-1974.

R v Backo; In Re Hand (1977) 16 SASR 541 (SA Sup Ct Bright J) Criminal Trial: The court may withhold the making of an award of compensation to an injured person under s 4 of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act, 1969-1974 because that person had provoked the assault. However, once an award has been made then compensation is not to be reduced by reason of provocative conduct by the injured person.

In Re Gage and Bird (1978) 19 SASR 239 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Application under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Held, that combined physical revulsion and contemporaneous mental shock caused by rape constituted an "injury" within the meaning of s 4 of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act, 1969-1974. Upheld an appeal in In Re Bird (1979) 21 SASR 76 (SA Sup Ct FC).

Brown v Ween (1979) 21 SASR 72 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Application under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: When an award of compensation is made pursuant to s 4 of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act 1969-1974, the compensation may be reduced by reason of the behaviour of the injured person.

Morrison v Groom (1979) 21 SASR 153 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that the court of summary jurisdiction has jurisdiction to make an order for compensation under s 4 of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act 1969-1974 for a child injured by a dog against the owner of the dog.

Delaney v Celon (1980) 24 SASR 443 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Claim under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Consideration and discussion of the extent to which emotional upset, with consequent ill effects, is an "injury" within the meaning of s 4.

Dale v Chenoweth (1980) 24 SASR 510 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Claim under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Held, that the cost of replacement of dentures is an item in respect of which compensation may be awarded under that Act.

Sanders v Rowden and the State of South Australia (1980) 24 SASR 547 (SA Sup Ct Mr Commissioner Rice) Claim under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Held, an applicant who had been raped and who subsequently suffered from emotional distress and fear had suffered an "injury" within the meaning of s 4, and was entitled to an award of compensation.

Lamb v Miller (1981) 26 SASR 563 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Applications for compensation under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Consideration of the principles upon which compensation should be awarded to the father, mother and two sisters of a girl who had been murdered should be assessed.

V v McDonald (1981) 28 SASR 489 (SA Sup Ct Williams J) Application under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: A woman who had been raped and as a consequence suffered revulsion and mental shock was awarded the full amount payable under the Act.

T v South Australia (1992) Aust Torts Reports 61,326 (SA Sup Ct FC): It is impracticable and undesirable to attempt to develop precise definitions or identify ranges of practical situations which fall within the concept of "injury". Whilst the statute has in contemplation something more than mere sorrow or grief, the court is required to contrast the condition of the victim before and after the crime. Where there is more than a transient deleterious effect upon mental health and well being that adversely affects the normal enjoyment of life that person has sustained "mental injury".

s 6 Application of this Act

In Re Gollan: see s 7.

s 7 Applications for compensation

In Re Gollan (1979) 21 SASR 79 Application under Criminal Injuries Compensation Act: Held, that grief and concern were not "injury" within the meaning of s 7 of the Act. Hence, compensation could not be claimed for grief and/or concern.

Delaney v Celon (1980) 24 SASR: A claim as a victim (rather than a dependant of a victim) of an offence is limited to compensation in respect of physical or mental injury suffered by the claimant and does not extend to compensation for financial loss suffered as a result of the death of a victim of the offence.

		R v Newman; Ex parte Gregory (1981) 29 SASR 89 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, where a victim of an offence makes an application under s 7 and that offence was committed by two or more offenders who have been tried in different courts, application for compensation may be made to any one of the courts before which one of the offenders was tried. Clark v Clauson (1982) 33 SASR 18 (note) (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Held, where an assessment for compensation exceeds $10,000, s 7(8)(a) applies. Boyle v Morshead (1983) SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the provisions of s 7(8)(a) and (b) must be read cumulatively. Loter v Bruza (1983) 32 SASR 333 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J): Guidelines for determining the compensation to be awarded under s 7, where the injured victim's conduct has allegedly contributed to the injury. Schmidt v State of South Australia (1985) 37 SASR 570 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, appeal against decision not to make an order for compensation under s 7(9a) dismissed because Schmidt had failed, without good reason, to report the offence to the police within a reasonable time and that failure had significantly hindered the police's investigations into the offence. R v Newman; Ex parte Gregory (1981) 29 SASR 89 (SA Sup Ct FC) Mandamus: The application of the expression "appropriate court" in s 7(4) considered. P v South Australia (1992) 60 A Crim R 286 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the assessment of damages awarded under s 7 is compensatory and includes aggravated damages but does not include exemplary damages. South Australia v Bole (1995) 64 SASR 379 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that when ascribing the numerical value which the court is obliged to ascribe under s 7(8)(a)(ii) the appropriate procedure is to compare the non-financial losses suffered by the claimant against the worst possible non-financial loss that anyone could suffer as the victim of an offence. s 9	Joint offences	R v Newman; Ex parte Gregory (1981) 29 SASR 89 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the effect and intention of s 9 is merely to limit the Crown's liability, in respect of injury suffered, to one award of compensation. McKenzie v Donald and State of South Australia (1985) 37 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, several rapes committed by one offender on one victim over a period of six hours constituted a single incident within the meaning of s 9(2) and therefore the victim was entitled only to one order for compensation.
s 11	Satisfaction of orders by Attorney- General	Hodgkinson v State of South Australia (1983) 35 SASR 190 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, in the absence of indications that the claimant's next friend had received or was likely to receive compensation payment from another source, there was no basis on which the Attorney-General could form an opinion to decline to satisfy the order. McKenzie v Donald and State of South Australia (1985) 37 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, an application for compensation may be heard and determined notwithstanding that an appeal against conviction of the offence in question may be pending and undetermined. Bartlett v South Australia (1985) 40 SASR 149 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, where a health fund refused to meet hospital and medical expenses of an applicant there was no basis on which the Attorney-General could form an opinion to deduct those expenses under s 11(2). Kingston-Lee v Hunt and Others and the State of South Australia (1986) 42 SASR 136 (SA St Ct FC): Held, under s 11(3) the Attorney-General had a right to recover in full from any of several offenders any payment made from the General Revenue of the State in pursuance of a compensation order made under the Act.

s 5	Interpretation	R v Corkin (No. 2) (1988) 50 SASR 285 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Rulings in the course of a criminal trial: Regarding the definition of "sexual intercourse", actual penetration of the vagina with the tongue was not necessary to constitute cunnilingus. Rien v The Queen (1995) 63 SASR 503 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the usual meaning of "fellatio" is sexual stimulation of the penis by oral contact and while this may include penetration of the mouth by the penis it is not a necessary condition. s 14	Causing death by dangerous driving	R v Stehbens (1976) 14 SASR 240 (SA Sup Ct FC): The extent to which a trial judge in imposing sentence is bound to take the view of the facts most favourable to the prisoner, or may act on her/his own view of the facts, considered and discussed.

		R v Hill (1976) 14 SASR 507 (SA Sup Ct FC): Observations as to the penalty to be imposed for the offence of causing death by driving a motor vehicle in a manner dangerous to the public, where the manner of driving was heedless but not reckless.
		R v Little (1976) 14 SASR 556 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Direction to be given to a jury upon a charge of causing death by driving in a manner dangerous to the public, considered and discussed.
		R v Boll (1983) 33 SASR 321 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, factors to be taken into account in imposing sentence for the offence of causing death by driving a motor vehicle contrary to s 14.
s 15	Self-defence	Branson v South Australian Police Force (1993) 60 SASR 325 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): Held, the test for the application of the defence of self-defence under s 15(1) of the Act is to ask whether the prosecution had excluded as a reasonable possibility that the accused genuinely believed in the need to use force and whether he believed the force to be necessary and reasonable. Reasonableness only attaches to the force used. The defence is available where the force the accused sought to repel was lawful but it is not confined to a reasonable response to an unlawful attack.
		R v Gillman (1994) 62 SASR 460 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the concept of a genuine belief for the purposes of s 15 carries with it the necessity for the jury to consider not only what an accused person may say as to his belief but whether in all the circumstances that stated belief was genuine. Per curiam: s 15(2) as drafted is unworkable and ought to be repealed and either redrafted in a way to make it clear what is intended or repealed to allow the common law principles set out in s 15(2)(a) to operate.
s 18	Attempts	R v Duvivier (1982) 29 SASR 217; 5 A Crim R 89 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. Provocation is a defence to a charge of attempted murder. 2. Rejection of the possibility of convicting of attempted manslaughter where the charge is attempted murder (and the defence of provocation is open and has not been negatived by the prosecution).
s 19a	Dangerous driving causing death	R v Kamleh (1990) 51 A Crim R 435; sub nom Kamleh v The Queen 12 MVR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Observations as to the test of liability under the provisions and directions to the jury.
		R v Kroon (1990) 52 A Crim R 15; sub nom Kroon v The Queen 12 MVR 483 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held that: 1. A driver cannot be convicted of causing death or bodily injury by dangerous driving in respect of a period during which the driver is asleep. 2. Observations as to the test of liability under s 19a.
s 21	Wounding etc., with intent to do grievous bodily harm	R v Marshall (1987) 26 A Crim R 259 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed the ambit and applicability of the felony murder rule. s 29	Acts endangering life or creating risk of grievous bodily harm	Bedi v The Queen (1993) 61 SASR 269 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, in order to convict an accused in respect of charges of endangering life contrary to s 29(1), the jury would have to be satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the accused knew that the discharging of a firearm was likely to endanger life and that he either intended such a consequence or was recklessly indifferent to its occurrence. In determining these aspects of the accused's state of mind, it was essential for the jury to consider the effects of alcohol and drugs when there was evidence of intoxication.
s 38	Injuring persons by dangerous or negligent riding or driving	R v Ackland; Ex parte Tepper (1985) 38 SASR 371 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a court of summary jurisdiction does not have jurisdiction to hear and determine a charge of an offence under s 38.
s 40	Assaults occasioning harm	Coulter v The Queen (1988) 164 CLR 350; 62 ALJR 74; 30 A Crim R 471; 76 ALR 365 (HC): Held, to obtain a conviction on a charge (brought under s 40) of assault occasioning actual bodily harm, it is not necessary for the Crown to prove specific intent to cause actual bodily harm. s 48	Rape	R v Sherrin (No 2) (1979) 21 SASR 250 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: In summing up upon a trial of rape, the trial judge should direct the jury in the terms laid down in s 48(1). He may then assist the jury with further directions, but it is undesirable for the trial judge to substitute for the words of the section a gloss or paraphrase of his/her own.
		R v Egan (1985) 15 A Crim R 20 (SA Sup Ct FC): The meaning of "recklessly indifferent", discussed.

		R v Athanasiadis (1990) 51 A Crim R 292 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that: 1. "Reckless indifference" within s 48 exists where the accused has sexual intercourse with another person without the consent of that other, having no belief that the alleged victim is consenting and not caring whether the alleged victim is consenting or not. 2. On the evidence, the trial Judge's use of the expression "uncaring, not caring" in direction to the jury was a sufficient explanation of the concept of reckless indifference in his direction to the jury.
s 49	Unlawful sexual intercourse	R v Beattie (1981) 26 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Trial: Consideration and discussion of: 1. The directions to be given to the jury upon a trial for rape where the prosecutrix is a mentally deficient woman and the defence of consent is raised. 2. The interpretation and application of the provisions of s 49(6).
s 58	Acts of gross indecency	Ayles v The Queen: see s 270A.
s 59	Abduction of male or female person	R v Hussey (1980) 23 SASR 178 (SA Sup Ct FC): The factors to be taken into account in imposing sentence for an offence under s 59, and the legislative history of that section, considered and discussed.
s 63	Procuring persons to be prostitutes	R v Williams (1978) 19 SASR 423 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Elements of the offence of endeavouring a person to become a common prostitute contrary to s 63, considered and discussed.
s 73	Offences involving sexual intercourse	R v L (1991) 174 CLR 379 (High Ct FC): Respondent facing trial on two counts of rape of his wife. Held per curiam, s 73(3) was not invalid by reason of inconsistency with s 114(2) of the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth) or with any other provision of that Act or the Marriage Act 1961 (Cth). Section 73(3) does no more than rebut any presumption there might be that a party to a marriage had consented to sexual intercourse with the other party to the marriage.
s 77a	Detention of persons incapable of controlling sexual instincts	R v O'Shea (1982) 31 SASR 129; 8 A Crim R 219 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, circumstances in which a direction should be given by a trial judge under s 77a. R v Kiltie (1986) 41 SASR 52 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the meaning of "mental condition" in s 77a(1). O'Shea v Parole Board of South Australia (1987) 61 ALJR 477; 73 ALR 1 (HC): Discussed: 1. Effect of a licence issued pursuant to s 77a(7a). 2. Scope of the Parole Board's power under s 77a. 3. Effect of apprehension under s 77a(7c) using a defective warrant. 4. Whether, under s 77a(7c) the Parole Board is required to give a hearing before authorising a detainee's return to custody. R v Hodge (1987) 48 SASR 91; 31 A Crim R 200 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed: 1. Whether a medical practitioner submitting a report to the court under s 77a should be subject to cross-examination. 2. The correct procedure for taking the oath, by such medical practitioners. 3. Requirements to be met before a report can provide a legal basis for an order under s 77a. 4. How to construe s 77a, in particular s 77a(4). 5. Other factors to be taken into account before making an order under s 77a.
s 84	Preliminary	R v Jones (1979) 22 SASR 583 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the words "with intent thereby to injure.....any person" in s 84(c) include injury to a person by burning his property.

s 85	Sentencing for attempted arson	R v Teremoana (1990) 54 SASR 30 (SA Sup Ct FC) Held, that it is not a universal rule that the judge, when sentencing for the offence specifically charged in the information, may never have regard to relevant actions of the defendant that, strictly speaking, constituted separate offences. If they were offences of lesser gravity than the offence of which the defendant had been convicted, then it would be a matter of degree and fairness whether they may properly be taken into account as a part of the circumstances surrounding the offence charged. Accordingly, while a state of mind that could support a conviction under s 29 or 31 should not be taken into account in sentencing a defendant under s 85, the court may take into account a relevant state of mind that falls short of the requirements of those sections. Tziavrangos v Hayes (1991) 55 SASR 416; 53 A Crim R 220 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, that the words "recklessly indifferent" in s 85(3) involve proof by the prosecution of advertence by the accused to the risk of the consequence that some property might be damaged.
	Damaging property	Durward v Harding (1993) 61 SASR 283 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, when a charge of unlawfully damaging property contrary to s 85(3) proceeds on the basis of reckless indifference, proof of such indifference requires proof of knowledge of the existence of the property, existence of a risk that the conduct may damage the property, an awareness of that risk, and proceeding with the conduct notwithstanding the risk. The proper test is a subjective test. s 86	Possession of object with intent to damage property	Clayton v Mutual Community General Insurance Pty Ltd (1995) 8 ANZ Insurance Cases 75,941 (SA Sup Ct FC): Appellant's husband committed suicide by deliberately igniting petrol fumes in a car in a carport. The resulting fire caused damage to house. Held, the deceased did not have lawful authority to damage the jointly held car and was therefore a breach of s 86 and was an unlawful act. (The respondent's liability was thus excluded under the insurance policy.)
s 86A	Using motor vehicle without consent	Walker v SA Police (1993) 61 SASR 159 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): The appellant aged 19 who was on parole pleaded guilty to two offences of illegal interference with a motor vehicle contrary to s 86A. Prior to July 1992, the offence was constituted by s 44 of Road Traffic Act 1961 and the appellant had four prior offences under that Act. Appellant appealed against his sentence of 3 months' imprisonment for each offence. Allowing the appeal, the court held that the appellant benefited from the repeal of s 44 of Road Traffic Act as had he been charged under that Act he would be regarded as a subsequent offender and liable to a minimum penalty of imprisonment.
s 90	Placing inflammable material for the purpose of causing a fire	R v Stewart (1983) 34 SASR 394 (SA Sup Ct King CJ): How to construe s 90, discussed.
s 131	Simple larceny	South Australian Police v Begg (1994) 62 SASR 498 (SA Sup Ct Nyland J): Section 134 does not create a separate offence of larceny. Where the prosecution elects to proceed under s 131 rather than s 134, the prosecution chooses between different penalties and not offences. Once the prosecution has elected to proceed under s 131 the prosecution is bound by the maximum penalty set by s 131. Wunsch v South Australian Police: see s 134.
s 134	(repealed)	Wunsch v South Australian Police (1995) 64 SASR 203 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held: 1. Sections 131 and 134 proceed on the footing that the offence of "simple larceny" exists independently and each section merely modifies the incidents of the penalty, with s 134 aimed at the aggravating situation of recidivism. 2. It was not an abuse of process to charge simple larceny when from the outset it was clear the prosecution was relying on s 134 and the indictment had designated the offence a minor indictable offence. 3. It was not an abuse of process for the prosecution to rely on a stale conviction to invoke s 134. The staleness of the conviction was relevant in respect of sentence.
s 156	Assault with intent to rob - felony	R v Cooper, Jones and Harris: see s 158.

s 158	Robbery with violence	R v Cooper, Jones and Harris (1978) 17 SASR 472 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: The offences created by s 156 and s 158(b) are separate and distinct offences. R v Kruger: see s 270.
s 160	Demanding money etc., with menaces by force, with intent to steal	Chamberlain v Thow (1986) 42 SASR 301 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, a court of summary jurisdiction does not have jurisdiction to hear and determine a charge of an offence under s 160.
s 172	Being found by night, armed, or in possession of housebreaking implements	R v Korac (1978) 18 SASR 317 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The passage "without lawful excuse" relates to "other implements of housebreaking" as well as to the implements named in the section. Also, upon proof by the Crown that the "other implement" can be useful for housebreaking, the onus is upon the accused to prove lawful excuse.
s 176	Larceny and embezzlement by clerks and servants	McGrath v Higgins (1976) 13 SASR 365 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ): Held, that a charge of stealing under s 176 whilst the accused was an adult could not be heard concurrently with a charge under s 176 laid when the accused was a juvenile. Such offences could only be heard under the procedure laid down in s 36 of the Juvenile Courts Act 1971.
s 181	Verdict of larceny where embezzlement charged, and vice versa	R v Harper (1984) 14 A Crim R 414 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): The effect of the section is to require a person charged with embezzlement to make his answer if there is evidence on which a jury could properly convict of either embezzlement or larceny as a servant. s 189	Directors of companies fraudulently appropriating property	R v Johnson (1979) 22 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The meaning of the expression body corporate or public company, considered. A/G's Reference (No 1 of 1985) (1985) 41 SASR 147; 19 A Crim R 436: Held, cheques drawn on an account of an incorporated company constitute, or are capable of being "property of a body corporate" within the meaning of s 189. Discussed, how further to construe s 189. A/G's Reference (No. 3 of 1987) (1987) 48 SASR 1; 30 A Crim R 343 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed: 1. Whether company property required to be "entrusted" to a director before the director could be guilty of an offence under s 189. 2. Whether "misappropriation" was a misdescription of the offence under s 189.
s 195	False pretences	R v Timperon (No 2) (1976) 15 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Elements of the crime of false pretences, considered and discussed.
s 196	Receiving where principal guilty of felony	R v Fallon (1981) 28 SASR 394; 4 A Crim R 411 (SA Sup Ct FC): The meaning to be attributed to the expression "knowing the same to have been stolen" in s 196, considered.
s 200	Admissibility of evidence	R v Phan (1990) 54 SASR 561 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that: 1. The appellant's plea of not guilty put in issue the element of guilty knowledge. Consequently the evidence was admissible. 2. The trial judge was correct in refusing to sever the counts and admitting the evidence under s 200.
s 214	Deeds, wills, bills of exchange, etc.	R v Cubbon (1984) 34 SASR 596 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a minor forgery offence should not, when fixing a penalty, be viewed in the perspective of the maximum sentence under s 214. Noble v Police (1994) 70 A Crim R 560 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, where an accused by way of defence to charges of forging and uttering contrary to s 214 asserted that she believed she had a claim of right, that claim of right defence attached to the belief in the entitlement.
s 234	Demanding property upon forged instruments	R v Kastratovic (1985) 19 A Crim R 28 (SA Sup Ct FC): Mental elements of the offence to be proved, discussed.
s 268	Accessories after the fact	R v White (1977) 16 SASR 571 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Principles to be applied in imposing sentence for the offence of being an accessory after the fact to a felony, considered and discussed. R v Mills (1977) 16 SASR 581 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Application of the principle that the maximum sentence should be reserved for the worst case of its kind to the offence of being an accessory after the fact to a felony, considered and discussed.

s 270	Punishment for certain offences	R v Kruger (1977) 17 SASR 214 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The maximum penalty to be imposed upon conviction for such an offence is imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years. Radak v Daire (1982) 30 SASR 60 (SA Sup Ct Walters J): Discussed: 1. Factors to be taken into account in determining the penalty to be imposed for the offence of keeping a common bawdy house, under s 270(1)(b). 2. Factors to be proved to establish a charge under s 270(1)(b). R v Debelis (1984) 36 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, section 61 of the Police Offences Act 1953 did not impliedly repeal, in part, s 270.
s 270A	Attempts	Ayles v The Queen (1993) 66 A Crim R 302 (SA Sup Ct FC): Appellant was convicted under ss 58(1)(b) and 270A(2) of attempting to procure a child to commit an act of gross indecency. Held, that an attempt to procure an act of gross indecency can be committed by words without any physical application of force or contact. There was sufficient evidence for the jury to consider whether the appellant had committed the offence. s 277	General provisions as to informations	Police v Schaffer (1994) 72 A Crim R 242 (Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, the common law requirement that it is necessary to prove that goods alleged to have been stolen were the property of a named person has been abrogated by the combined effect of s 277(2) and Sched 3, r 6(1) of the Act. The same rules must apply where the charge is simple larceny and the offence is triable summarily.
s 278	Joinder of charges	R v Killick (1980) 24 SASR 137 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Held, that four counts of armed robbery where joined in the one information since there was a sufficient nexus between all the alleged offences for them to form "a series of offences of the same or similar character" within the meaning of s 278. R v Miller (1980) 25 SASR 170 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Criminal Appeal: Consideration and discussion of the propriety of the joinder in one information of seven counts of murder, where the circumstances of the offence are of a similar nature. Sutton v R (1984) 58 ALJR 60; 51 ALR 435 (HC): Charges for more than one felony may be joined in the same information under s 278 only if evidence of the other charges is relevant in a way other than as showing that the accused had a propensity for, or a disposition to, commit crime, or crime of a particular kind, or that he was the kind of person likely to commit the crime charged. R v Armstrong (1990) 48 A Crim R 358; 54 SASR 207 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, application for separate trials was properly refused as all the evidence which the Crown proposed to lead on one count could be admissible as evidence tending to prove guilt on each individual count. Discussion of the tests for similar fact evidence and for whether or not joinder is justified. Held, desirable for trial Judge to give appropriate warning to the jury in respect of propensity evidence, but failure to do so in the circumstances was not fatal. R v Luczkowski (1990) 54 SASR 169 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held, that the similarity of related offences may be found, not only in the legal elements of the offences in question, but also from the facts which constituted them and the circumstances in which, and the relationships out of which, they arise. s 285A	Certain questions of law may be determined before jury empanelled	R v Wagner [No. 2] (1993) 68 A Crim R 81 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J) Applicant was charged with war crimes during World War II under a Commonwealth Act. Held: 1. Under the Judiciary Act 1903 of the Commonwealth, s 285A of the Act applies to the hearing of a charge under the War Crimes Act 1945 of the Commonwealth. 2. Section 285A of the Act should be read so as to include applications for a stay of proceedings.
s 288B	Right of reply	R v Karounas (1995) 77 A Crim R 479 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 288B establishes a clear right to a final address by counsel for prosecution irrespective of whether the accused is represented. The Act fixes the order of addresses irrespective of whether the accused calls evidence.

s 293	Insanity affecting capacity to plead	R v Forrester (1982) 31 SASR 312; 7 A Crim R 167 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Held, the appropriate procedure to ascertain whether the accused was still insane under s 293(1) or had become fit to plead was to empanel a fresh jury to determine that question. s 299a	Orders as to firearms and offensive weapons	Daire v Raphael (1983) 35 SASR 302 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Discussed, circumstances under which it is appropriate for an order to be made under s 299a.
s 302	Court to have regard to remission in fixing sentence or non-parole period	R v King (1988) 48 SASR 557 (SA Sup Ct FC) A/G's appeal against sentence: The application of s 302 in terms of the appropriate sentence range, considered.
s 310	Sentence or imprisonment may be made cumulative	R v Spiero (1979) 22 SASR 543 (SA Sup Ct FC): Section 310 precludes the ordering of more than one cumulative sentence for felony. R v Knight (1981) 26 SASR 573 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Observations as to the necessity of deterrent sentences of imprisonment, and as to the imposition of consecutive sentences, for offences of armed robbery. R v Shannon (1982) 32 SASR 5; 7 A Crim R 457 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, whether s 310 constitutes a statutory prohibition against imposing three consecutive sentences.
s 328a	Abolition of presumption of marital coercion	Goddard v Osborne (1978) 18 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The nature and elements of the defences of duress and marital coercion, and the applicability of the marital coercion defence in a court of summary jurisdiction, considered and discussed. Brennan v Bass (1984) 35 SASR 311 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, the defence of marital coercion provided by s 328a is available only to a lawfully married wife and does not extend to a de facto wife.
s 330	Prisoner not to sue	Milera v Wilson (1980) 23 SASR 485 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from Local Court: Held, the Local Court had no jurisdiction to hear and determine an action for conversion brought by a prisoner. Bromley v Dawes (1983) 34 SASR 73 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, per Legoe J: A claim for damages for wrongful imprisonment or trespass to the person does not fall within the ambit of an action "for the recovery of any property, debt, or damages whatsoever" within s 330.
s 350	Questions of law may be reserved	R v Parry (1980) 23 SASR 187 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Held, it was not competent for a trial judge to discharge the jury and reserve a question for the consideration of the Full Court at the close of the Crown case. The right of a Judge to state a case for consideration of the Full Court, considered and discussed. Questions of Law Reserved on Acquittal (No 2 of 1993) (1993) 61 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, under s 350(1a) of the Act, the Full Ct of the Supreme Court has jurisdiction to hear a question of law referred to it by a trial judge in respect of a federal offence. The reservation procedure is not contrary to the right to trial by jury guaranteed by s 80 of the Constitution. Case stated by Director of Public Prosecutions (No. 2 of 1993) (1993) 70 A Crim R 323 (SA Sup Ct FC): The procedure in s 350(1a) whereby the trial judge reserves questions of law for the Court of Appeal does not offend s 80 of the Constitution. The verdict of the jury is not affected. Section 350(2a) expressly provides that the determination of the Full Court does not invalidate or otherwise affect the acquittal.
s 352	Right of appeal in criminal cases	R v Bitter (1981) 27 SASR 183 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Observations as to the principles to be applied by the Court of Criminal Appeal in determining an appeal by the Attorney- General, against inadequacy of sentence. R v Flaherty (1981) 28 SASR 105; 4 A Crim R 28 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Observations as to the principles to be applied in determining an appeal by the Attorney-General, against inadequacy of sentence. A/G v Tichy (1982) 30 SASR 84 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, an appeal brought under s 352(2) must, according to the Acts Interpretation Act 1915, s 27, be brought "with all convenient speed".

		R v Spiers (1983) 34 SASR 546 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, per Mitchell ACJ: The right of appeal in s 352(2) does not extend to the Attorney- General a right to appeal against a refusal of a judge to order that a suspension of sentence be revoked under s 9(4) of the Offenders Probation Act 1913. Taylor v A/G (SA) (1991) 53 A Crim R 166 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that an order of forfeiture made under the Crimes (Confiscation of Profits) Act 1986 is an order that falls within the definition of sentence in the Criminal Law Consolidation Act, so that with leave of the Full Court, there is a right of appeal under s 352. DPP v Pepicelli (1993) 60 SASR 520 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, although s 352 does not impose a time limit on the exercise of a right of appeal, the obligation is to proceed with all convenient speed. The question of time and any delay ought to be considered first and separately from the merits of the appeal. s 353	Determination of appeals in ordinary cases	R v Johnson (1979) 22 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The test to be applied in determining whether or not a criminal appeal should be dismissed, on the grounds that no substantial miscarriage of justice occurred, notwithstanding a misdirection by the trial Judge in summing up, considered and discussed. Whitehorn v R (1983) 57 ALJR 809; 49 ALR 448 (HC): Held, appeal against a conviction of indecent assault allowed pursuant to s 353. R v Egan (1985) 15 A Crim R 20 (SA Sup Ct FC): Onus of proof in showing miscarriage of justice, discussed. R v Miller (1980) 25 SASR 170 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The application of the proviso to s 353(1) that the Full Court may dismiss an appeal if it considers that no substantial miscarriage of justice has actually occurred, considered and discussed. R v Drinkwater (1981) 27 SASR 396 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Held, the direction given by the trial judge was favourable to the accused, and could not in the circumstances constitute a misdirection. R v Costi (1987) 48 SASR 269 (Ct of Crim App) Appeal against conviction and sentence: Although the trial judge erred, a reasonable jury hearing the evidence and the correct directions must have convicted. The proviso to s 353(1) should be applied. R v Nixon (1993) 66 A Crim R (SA Sup Ct FC): Held (by maj), s 353 of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act does not prevent the Court applying s 18A of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988.
s 357	Time for appealing	Coulter v The Queen (1988) 164 CLR 350; 62 ALJR 74; 30 A Crim R 471; 76 ALR 365 (HC): Held, s 357 did not confer rights either to present oral argument or for the applicant to be present at the hearing of his application. s 359	Supplemental powers of Court	R v J (1992) 59 SASR 145; 64 A Crim R 441 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the proviso contained in s 359 of Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935 in relation to "evidence that was not given at the trial" is only concerned with evidence relating to the commission of the offence or the personal circumstances of the accused.
s 364	Admission of appellant to bail and custody when attending Court	R v Fabry (1978) 18 SASR 479 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: In directing that the time of a sentence of imprisonment shall run notwithstanding an unsuccessful appeal or application for leave to appeal the court has power to direct that the time shall run in part. R v Lavery (No 3) (1979) 20 SASR 472 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal. The provisions of s 364(3), that the time of a sentence of imprisonment shall not run pending the determination of an appeal or application for leave to appeal are intended to serve as a check on frivolous appeals. Ordinarily time will not run, but the Court has a discretion to allow time to run, either in full or in part. R v Thompson (1979) 22 SASR 12 (SA Sup Ct FC): Consideration of principles under which the Court of Criminal Appeal should act in determining whether a direction should be given that a sentence of imprisonment run notwithstanding the dismissal of an appeal.

		R v Malvaso (No. 2) (1989) 50 SASR 541 (SA Sup Ct FC) Application to the Court of Criminal Appeal: Held, the word "appellant" in s 364(3) includes both a respondent to a Crown appeal and an applicant to the High Court. s 367	Powers which may be exercised by a Judge of the Court	Malvaso v R (1989) 64 ALJR 44 (High Court): Where an appeal to the Full Court had been undertaken by the Attorney-General under the mistaken impression that leave had been granted under s 367, when in fact it had not been granted, the determination must be set aside, as the appeal itself was incompetent.
Rules under the Criminal Law Consolidation Act
Rule 25	Rules of court	Coulter v R (1988) 164 CLR 350; 62 ALJR 74; 30 A Crim R 471; 76 ALR 365 (HC): Held, rule 25 was validly made under s 368.
Rule 4A	Application for an extension of time for leave to appeal	R v Trotter (1979) 22 SASR 64 (SA Sup Ct Walters J): The principles upon which an application for an extension of time for leave to appeal should be determined and the effect of rule 4A in relation to such an application, considered and discussed.

s 10	Matters to which a sentencing court should have regard	R v Adami (1989) 51 SASR 229 (SA Sup Ct FC): Section 10(n) is a declaratory provision and does not produce a change in the law, so that the probable effect of a sentence upon dependants is still relevant only in exceptional cases.
s 12	Court to have regard to remission in fixing sentence or non-parole period	Hoare v R (1989) 86 ALR 361; 63 ALJR 505 (High Court of Aust) Application for special leave to appeal: Section 12 requires no more than the court "have regard to" remissions, its construction should be like that of s 302 of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act, 1935.
s 13	Order for payment of pecuniary sum not to be made in certain circumstances	Davies v White (1991) 53 A Crim R 92 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, that the offence was not a trifling offence for the purpose of s 17, but the terms of s 13 provided good reason for the court to reduce the minimum fine.
s 16	Imposition of penalty without conviction	Cresswell v Bates (1989) 9 MVR 176 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that the minimum period of licence disqualification for a breach of s 47b(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1961 cannot be ameliorated by s 16 of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988. Glover v Zourondis (1990) 48 A Crim R 118 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) see also Fisheries Act ss 34 and 66. The power in s 16 to impose a fine without conviction is available only when the offence carries no other penalty in addition to the fine. Janz v Woolven (1990) 55 SASR 239; 49 A Crim R 284; 12 MVR 153 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the power under s 16 cannot be exercised so as to avoid the mandatory licence disqualification under s 47b(3) of the Road Traffic Act, 1961.
s 17	Reduction of minimum penalty	Davies v White (1991): see s 13.
s 18	Court may add or substitute certain penalties	Toon v Hall (1993) 59 SASR 137 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, proceedings under the Service and Execution of Process Act 1901 of the Commonwealth do not enable a court in SA to exercise the powers under s 18 of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988.
s 18A	Sentencing for multiple offences	R v Nixon (1993) 66 A Crim R 83 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held (by maj), s 18A of the Act permits the Court of Criminal Appeal to set aside orders for cumulative sentences and to substitute a single all-embracing sentence for three offences of armed robbery, even if that will involve a longer term of imprisonment than was imposed for one of those offences. (See also note on s 353 of Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935).
s 31	Cumulative sentences	Hayes v Brookes: see note on s 75 of Correctional Services Act 1982.
s 32	Sentencing - non-parole period	R v Armstrong (1990) 54 SASR 207; 48 A Crim R 358 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that a District Court judge had properly declined to fix a non-parole period under s 35(5), where it was necessary to take into account a prior conviction for murder and the consequent life sentence. This allowed the prisoner to make application under s 32(3), to the Supreme Court which was the more appropriate forum.

		R v Addabo (1990) 53 SASR 449; 47 A Crim R 329 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J) affirmed (1990) 48 A Crim R 172 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, whilst legislative amendments subsequent to the original sentencing was something less than minimum non-parole period fixed by trial Judge and become the maximum period the respondent was to serve, that non-parole period could not be extended on that ground. Grounds for exercising discretion to extend non-parole period, discussed. R v Byron (1992) 59 SASR 132; 64 A Crim R 140 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a prisoner serving a life sentence may be punished for further offences by having the non-parole period extended under s 32(1).
	Duty of court to fix or extend non-parole periods	R v Ashdown (1994) 72 A Crim R 63 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the duty imposed by s 32(1) could not be ignored or waived because of a confident expectation that a suspended sentence of imprisonment was not likely to be served, and it was not a matter within s 32(5).
s 42	Conditions of bond	Kerry v Henderson (1990): see s 53.
s 53	Compensation	Kerry v Henderson (1990) 55 SASR 42 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Held: 1. The power of a court to order compensation to a victim in a criminal matter is statutory. 2. The power to order compensation under s 42(1)(g)(ii) or s 53 does not encompass the power to order the payment of interest in addition to the repayment of moneys taken.
s 57	Non-compliance with bond	Tarasenko v Boylan (1992) 58 SASR 587 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the provisions of s 57(4) are mandatory and require the judge to determine and impose penalties for the summary offences which constitute the breach of bond. s 58	Orders that a court may make on breach of bond	Leech v Koko (1989) 51 SASR 131 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): The power contained in s 58(4) to reduce the term of a suspended sentence may include the power to extinguish such a term altogether. Gollan v The Queen (1992) 57 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that where, due to delay in an application to estreat, and offender has served his period of imprisonment and re-established his life, special circumstances exist for the purposes of s 58(4) to reduce the original sentence. Stanitzki v Higgins (1994) 72 A Crim R 445 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): In 1987, when 18 years old and an amphetamine addict, the appellant was convicted of attempted larceny and sentenced to 4 months imprisonment, conditional on a bond and community service. He entered into the bond fully intending to go interstate and start afresh to overcome his addiction. He did not intend to re-offend but when he returned to SA, he was arrested and ordered to serve the sentence. The appeal was allowed and it was held: 1. While what was done was reprehensible and a deceit of the court meriting stern censure, the motive was for his rehabilitation which in fact occurred. There were clear grounds to excuse the breach. 2. In any event, the appellant's rehabilitation constituted "special circumstances" within s 58(4) justifying a reduction in the term of the suspended sentence.
s 68	Remission of pecuniary sum	Hurley v Shore (1992) 58 SASR 181 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, when considering an application under s 68 a court is obliged to satisfy itself that no other order under Part IX would be appropriate.
Part V	BONDS	Janz v Woolvern (1990) 49 A Crim R 284 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that although the powers contained in Part V of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988 may be exercised to mitigate the penalties of fine and imprisonment provided for in ss 47 and 47b of the Road Traffic Act, the power not to record a conviction may not be used to avoid the penalty of mandatory licence disqualification.

s 4	Definitions	Keane v Salisbury City (1995) 88 LGERA 39 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, the addition to an existing residential building of a verandah was "building work" for the purposes of s 4(1) because it was in the nature of the erection of a "structure or portion of a building" and was therefore "development" requiring development approval. Gawler & Barossa Jockey Club v Gawler Town Corporation (1995) 88 LGERA 97 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, for the purposes of s 4(1)(h) a proposed use of advertising signs would constitute development as defined only if the use was an act or activity in relation to land.
s 57	Land management agreements	Tarca v Hambrook (1995) 86 LGERA 56 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): Held, whether development should be permitted to proceed, should, as a general rule, be determined without reference to a Land Management Agreement, which may be entered into under s 61 of the repealed Planning Act 1982 (now s 57 of Development Act 1993). The purpose of such agreements is limited; they should not be used where parties other than the owner of land have rights of occupancy over the land.

Act generally		Keane v Salisbury City (1995) 87 LGERA 203 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the ERD Court does not have jurisdiction to grant declaratory relief unless the subject matter of the desired declaration is within the jurisdiction conferred on the Court by the Environment, Resources and Development Court Act in respect of, inter alia, town planning and development appeals and summary jurisdiction in respect of specified offences. Whether proposed building work required development consent was not a matter within the jurisdiction of the Court and a declaration thereto was not available. Pitt v Environment, Resources and Development Court (1995) 88 LGERA 204 (SA Sup Ct FC): On appeal from a refusal by the ERD Court to join objectors as parties to a transitional appeal pending before it. Held, ordering joinder - s 24(2) of the Statutes Repeal and Amendment (Development) Act 1993 preserves the right of appeal for proceedings commenced under the City of Adelaide Development Control Act 1976 but applies the procedure of the new ERD Court to transitional proceedings. The power under s 17(1) of the Environment, Resources and Development Court Act to join a person as a party to proceedings is procedural in nature and the exercise of the power under s 17(1) is discretionary. (s 17 Parties).
s 30	Right of appeal	Marion City Corporation v Kassere Pty Ltd (1994) 86 LGERA 41 (SA Sup Ct FC): An application for planning approval for horse stables at the rear of residential buildings in the vicinity of Morphettville Racecourse was granted on appeal made under the repealed Planning Act 1982, but heard and determined by the Environment, Resources and Development Court under the Environment, Resources and Development Court Act 1993. In a case stated to the Full Court of the Supreme Court as to the applicable law on an application for leave to appeal and a purported appeal, held, the entitlement of the parties to appeal was governed by s 30 of Environment, Resources and Development Court Act which provides for an appeal as of right to the Full Court on a question of law and by leave on a question of fact.

s 6	Interpretative provisions	Yfantidis v Jones (1993) 61 SASR 458 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): Held, the refusal of microsurgery to improve fertility on the ground that the woman must be either married or in a de facto relationship of 2 years or more was discrimination, notwithstanding that there was an additional medical reason for that refusal, and both reasons were of equal importance. By reason of s 6(2), a "substantial reason" for that refusal was the woman's marital status and that constituted a breach of s 29(5).
s 29	Definition of "discriminate"	Yfantidis v Jones: see s 6.
s 71	Exemptions	Smith v St John Ambulance Australia SA Inc: see s 98.
s 96	Quantum of damages	Donhardt v Holmes (1989) 54 SASR 58 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Held, that damages were entirely at large and in the absence of error or proof that the award was not manifestly excessive, the award should not be interfered with on appeal. s 98	Appeal	Smith v St John Ambulance Australia SA Inc (1992) 162 LSJS 404 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): An appeal to the Supreme Court from the Equal Opportunity Tribunal is not a hearing and is not confined to questions of law. On appeal upheld the finding of the Tribunal that the applicant's exclusion from employment as an ambulance driver on the basis of failing a colour blindness test was reasonable within s 71.

s. 59d Gaz 5.7.90 p232

s 9	Evidence without formality	R v Meier (1982) 30 SASR 126 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the scope and operation of s 9, in particular, whether this section authorized the trial judge to permit a ten year-old boy to give unsworn evidence.
s 12	Evidence of young children	A-G's Reference (No 2 of 1987) (1987) 46 SASR 275 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, pursuant to s 12, a child under ten is not permitted to give evidence on oath or affirmation, even in circumstances where such a child is otherwise competent to do so. A-G's Reference No 1 of 1988 (1988) 49 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the amended provisions of the Evidence Act, which came into force on 1 May 1988, did not apply to the conduct of a trial commenced after that date in respect of offences committed prior to it, as the repealed provisions conferred substantive rights. R v Schlaefer (1992) 57 SASR 423 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussion of examination required by trial judge to be satisfied that a child "understands the obligation of an oath".

s 18	Accused persons competent to give evidence	R v Pfitzner (1976) 15 SASR 171 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: An allegation by the accused that the police officers had obtained a confession from him by the use of violence involved an imputation upon their character. Therefore, the accused was liable to be cross-examined upon past convictions. R v Bradshaw (1978) 18 SASR 83 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The admissibility of evidence tendered by an accused regarding prior convictions, considered and discussed. R v Beech (1978) 20 SASR 410 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Consideration and discussion of the circumstances in which cross-examination of an accused as to his previous convictions should be permitted. R v Karan and Dwyer (1980) 26 SASR 408 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Criminal Trial: Prior to commencement of the defence, the trial judge at a criminal trial has power to rule whether cross-examination of the accused as to his character will be permitted. However, such a ruling must be subject to the right of a judge to vary it if the accused should give evidence and the circumstances upon which the judge made the ruling, alter. R v Corak (1982) 30 SASR 404 (SA Sup Ct FC) Discussed, the scope and effect of s 18(1)(vi)(c) - "evidence" includes evidence against a co-accused notwithstanding that the accused person giving evidence has no hostile intent towards the co-accused. R v Vuckov (1986) 40 SASR 498 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed: 1. Whether rules of admissibility apply to the voir dire, specifically, whether an accused is protected by s 18(1)(vi) against cross-examination as to his past on the voir dire. 2. The scope of s 18(1)(vi). R v Siebel (1992) 59 A Crim R 105 (SA Sup Ct FC): Any comment that the accused person has failed to contradict prosecution witnesses, or to provide an alternative version of events, or that he has not given evidence is prohibited by s 18(1) II. Such an infringement cannot be lightly overlooked and the court must ensure that the comment could not reasonably be supposed to have affected the result.
s 21	Provisions governing competence and compellability of close relatives of accused persons	Priestwood v Shuttleworth (1985) 39 SASR 125; 19 A Crim R 123 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Held, a close relative of the defendant was entitled to apply under s 21 for an exemption from the obligation to give evidence against the defendant, notwithstanding the provisions of s 245 of the Community Welfare Act 1972.
	Competence and compellability of witnesses	R v C (1993) 60 SASR 467 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the failure to make a witness aware of the protection afforded to a close relative under s 21 is an irregularity in the trial proceedings of which an accused can take advantage. s 29	Cross-examination as to previous statements in writing	R v Walker (1993) 61 SASR 260 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 29 is confined to statements either written by the witness or, if not prepared by the witness, then at least adopted in specified ways by the witness, so as to make the statements those of the witness. The words "reduced into writing" cannot be interpreted so as to include the writing of another person unconfirmed by the witness. Where the transcript of the evidence of a witness in other proceedings was not verified or adopted in any way by the witness the transcript was not admissible.
s 34a	Proof of commission of offence	Monaghan v Glynde Auto Wreckers (1972) 39 SAIR (Pt 2) 1145 (SA Ind Magistrate): Three prior convictions of an employee dismissed for larceny admitted under s 34a in a claim by the employee for under payment of wages.
s 34c	Admissibility of documentary evidence as to facts in issue	In Re Practitioners of the Supreme Court (1980) 26 SASR 275 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motions: Notes taken and transcribed by a shorthand writer of evidence given upon a criminal trial in Victoria are not admissible in evidence in a South Australian Court.

		Wombat Nominees Pty Ltd v De Tullio (1990) 98 ALR 307 (Fed Ct of Aust O'Loughlin J): Re s 34c reception into evidence of statements in documents where direct oral evidence is admissible. Relevant considerations, as to whether or not it is "reasonably practicable" to secure attendance of witness, focus on the circumstances of the litigant. Re s 34c(3) held, that a witness did not have an "interest" with respect to a "fact which the [his/her] statement might tend to establish" under s 34c(3), if he/she would neither benefit nor suffer from any facts established in the outcome of the proceedings, that were facts addressed in his/her statement. Sianis v Barlow: see s 45b.
s 34ca	Statement of victim of sexual offence who is a young child	R v Corkin (1989) 50 SASR 580 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal against conviction: Per King CJ: the effect of s 34ca is not to enlarge the ambit of admissible complaints, but to enlarge the purposes for which they are admissible. It permits admissible evidence of a complaint of a young child (in a sexual case) to be used as evidence of the facts stated in the complaint, whether or not the child gives evidence of those facts.
s 34e	Proof of instrument to validity of which attestation is necessary	In the Estate of Gwynne (1988) 48 SASR 209 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, admitting the will to Probate, that the notation was admissible under s 34c and due to the Wills Act, s 34e did not apply.
s 34f	Presumption as to documents twenty years old	Burnside Sub-Branch RSSILA Inc v Burnside Memorial Bowling Club Inc: see s 45a.
s 34i	Evidence in sexual cases	R v Byczko (No 1) (1977) 16 SASR 506 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: As a matter of practice, a warning to the jury against acting on the uncorroborated evidence of a prosecutrix should be given in all sexual cases, though failure to give such a warning did not automatically vitiate a conviction. R v Gun; ex parte Stephenson (1977) 17 SASR 165 (SA Sup Ct FC): The interpretation and application of s 34i which provides that evidence of the sexual experiences and sexual morality of the alleged victim shall not be adduced except by leave of the judge, considered and discussed. R v Gray, Adams, Brannon and Knox (1977) 17 SASR 534 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Criminal Trial: The circumstances in which, in proceedings in which a person is charged with a sexual offence, leave should be given to cross-examine the alleged victim as to her previous sexual experience, considered and discussed. R v Robertson and Mikhailov (1978) 17 SASR 479 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Criminal Trial: Leave granted to cross-examine the prosecutrix as to previous sexual experiences, but restricted to matters directly relevant to her consent. R v De Angelis (1979) 20 SASR 288 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: The application of the provisions of s 34i regarding the inadmissibility of evidence relating to the sexual experiences of an alleged victim, or the sexual morality of the alleged victim, considered and discussed. R v Kooyman & Robertson (1979) 22 SASR 376 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, that cries and utterances were not "statements" within the meaning of s 34i. Meaning of the term "statement" considered. R v Henderson (1983) 37 SASR 288; 11 A Crim R 235 (SA Sup Ct, FC) Discussed cursorily: what amounts to a "statement" for the purposes of s 34i. R v Gallagher (1986) 41 SASR 73 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the amendment in 1984 of s 34i had the effect of restoring the common law rule as to the admissibility of a complaint of the commission of a sexual offence. R v G (1987) 24 A Crim R 370 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Discussed, the effect of s 34i(5). R v Pahuja (1987) 49 SASR 191 (Ct of Crim App FC) Appeal: Per Cox and Johnston JJ: s 34i(5) does not abolish the rule requiring a warning to the jury against acting on the uncorroborated evidence of a child, whether or not the evidence is given in a sexual case.

		R v Atkins (1988) 50 SASR 272 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Consideration as to whether or not a direction or warning should have been given by the trial judge, about the possible lack of corroborative evidence, in a child sexual case. R v Corkin (No. 2) (1988) 50 SASR 285 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Rulings in the course of a criminal trial: Held, despite s 34i(5), it is necessary, in a child sexual case, to give a warning that it is unsafe to convict the accused on uncorroborated evidence. Consideration of conflicting curial remarks in R v Pahuja (above) and R v Atkins (above). R v Do (1990) 54 SASR 543 (SA Sup Ct FC) Held, s 34i(5) does not affect the rule of practice that a trial judge should caution the jury with respect to the danger of convicting upon the uncorroborated evidence of a young child. Non-compliance with the rule will lead to the conviction being set aside only if it can be shown there has been a substantial miscarriage of justice. Case Stated by Director of Public Prosecutions (No. 1 of 1993) (1993) 66 A Crim R 259 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the effect of s 34i(5) of the Act is that it is an error for a trial judge to caution a jury in terms which relate the warning to the generality of complainants in sexual cases as distinct from the complainant in a particular case. It is an error to state that the warning is given as a matter of law or arises from the experience of the law or the courts.
s 35	Judicial notice of legislative instruments	Stevenson v Brown (1992) 59 SAIR 389 (SA Indus Ct): Held, that a code of practice proclaimed pursuant to s 17a of the Lifts and Cranes Act 1985 was a "legislative instrument" and, thus, a document of which judicial notice had to be taken and which did not need to be tendered specifically to the court.
s 36	Proof of votes and proceedings Parliament	Wright v Lewis (1990) 53 SASR 416 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 36 of the Evidence Act clearly establishes the statutory right to produce and tender Hansard to the courts as evidence of the proceedings within Parliament.
s 45a	Admission of business records in evidence	R v Perry (No 3) (1981) 28 SASR 112 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed, what constitutes a "business record" within s 45a. see s 45b. R v Perry (No 4) (1981) 28 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed: 1. The territorial operation of s 45a. 2. What constitutes a "business record" within s 45a. 3. (Re: forensic evidence See s 45b) Whether statements of opinion are excluded under s 45a, and what amounts to a statement of fact for the purposes of s 45a. R v Nicholson (1984) 12 A Crim R 231 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, what constitutes a "business record" under s 45a. R v Eade (1984) 14 A Crim R 186 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, what constitutes a "business record" under s 45a. Ryan v ETSA (No 2) (1987) 47 SASR 239 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held, s 45a has the effect of rendering admissible material which might have been objectionable as hearsay, had it been the subject of oral evidence. Sianis v Barlow: see s 45b. Residues Treatment and Trading Co Ltd v Southern Resources Ltd (1989) 15 ACLR 416; 7 ACLC 608 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, the annual report of a company was admissible in evidence as a public document. Consideration of its admissibility as a business record under the Evidence Act. The Duke Group Ltd (In Liq) v Arthur Young (1990) 3 ACSR 420 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): The meaning of "business record", "use" considered. Burnside Sub-Branch RSSILA Inc v Burnside Memorial Bowling Club Inc (1990) 58 SASR 324 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a carbon copy of a document was not a copy but a duplicate original which did not require statutory support as it was admitted as original and not secondary evidence. Sections 45a and 45b are to be given relatively wide interpretation. Considered: s 45b.

		Duke Group Ltd (In Liq) v Pilmer (1994) 15 ACSR 255 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held, if the court concludes that any of the reasons set out in s 45A(2) exist, the document cannot be admitted into evidence. This does not suggest that there is any discretion to be exercised, only a matter of judgment. s 45b	Admission of certain documents in evidence	R v Perry (No 3) (1981) 28 SASR 112 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, medical records admissible as "business records" under s 45a and as apparently genuine documents purporting to contain questions of fact under s 45b. R v Perry (No 4) (1981) 28 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, a report by the Victorian Police Department was admissible as evidence under s 45a and under ss 45a and 45b as evidence of any facts that might be inferred from the report. Discussed, whether statements of opinion are excluded under s 45a, and what amounts to a statement of fact for the purposes of s 45b. R v Calabria (1982) 31 SASR 423; 7 A Crim R 207 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, how to construe the words "the person by whom, or at whose direction, the document was prepared", in s 45b(2). Ryan v ETSA (No 2) (1987) 47 SASR 239 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Discussed: 1. Hearsay material is not admissible pursuant to s 45b. 2. Requirements to be met before a document is admissible under s 45b(2). Sianis v Barlow (1987) 48 SASR 469 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Action for damages: Held, a medical questionnaire, not completed in the plaintiff's own hand, nor recognised by him, was not admissible under s 34c of the Evidence Act. Although admissible under ss 45a and 45b, it lacked weight due to its doubtful accuracy. The Duke Group Ltd (In Liq) v Arthur Young (1990) 3 ACSR 147; 9 ACLC 49 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, s 45b should not be construed narrowly or technically; the courts have the widest discretion as to which documents should be admitted.
s 46	Interpretation	R v Nicholson (1984) 12 A Crim R 231 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, what constitutes a "banking record" under s 46. Griffiths v Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Ltd (1990) 53 SASR 256 (SA Sup Ct FC): A computer print-out of banking information is capable of becoming in due course a "banking record" within the meaning of s 46. R v Nicholson (1984) 12 A Crim R 231 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, to be admissible under s 47, a banking record must be compiled in the ordinary course of an Australian bank's business. ANZ Banking Group Ltd v Griffiths (1988) 49 SASR 385 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Held, a document produced by a computer from information concerning banking transactions recorded and stored by a bank upon such a computer was a copy of a banking record within the meaning of s 46 Act and admissible pursuant to s 47. R v Pfennig: see s 59b.
s 47	Admission of banking record in evidence	R v Pfennig: see s 59b.
s 49	Power to order inspection of banking records etc	In re an Application by the Companies Auditors Board (1981) 27 SASR 196 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, that an application by originating summons was an appropriate procedure for the Companies Auditors Board to follow in order to initiate proceedings in the Supreme Court.
s 59a	Interpretation	R V Pfennig: see s 59b.
s 59b	Admissibility of computer output	Mehesz v Redman (1979) 21 SASR 569 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the evidence required to render admissible the results of a blood test performed by an auto-lab data analyser and the general admissibility of computer-generated evidence.

		Mehesz v Redman (No 2) (1980) 26 SASR 244 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the admissibility in evidence of the results of scientific tests, and in particular, the result of a blood analysis test performed by means of an auto-lab data analyser. R v Weatherall (1981) 27 SASR 238 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Criminal trial: The provisions of s 59b do not restrict the admissibility of computer-generated evidence, and such evidence may be admitted if the common law requirements as to admissibility have been satisfied. R v Pfennig (1992) Judgment No. S3420 unreported (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Ruling on the voir dire: Computer output generated by a bank showing transactions for a particular day constitute records of the bank. The records are admissible as banking records without the need for further proof. R v Jarrett (1994) 73 A Crim R 160 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held: 1. Expert testimony in respect of DNA analyses, where relevant to a fact in issue and of probative value, is admissible evidence and should be admitted even though challenged. It is a matter for the jury, properly directed, to decide whether such evidence should be accepted. 2. Whether or not the expert witness employed well-recognised and accepted techniques or undertook the work competently is a matter for the jury and it is not appropriate to have a pre-trial hearing to determine its admissibility. 3. There may be circumstances where expert evidence may be excluded on the ground that its probative value is slight and is outweighed by substantial prejudice to the accused if admitted. However, that principle does not apply where the expert evidence is admissible but is contested and difficult to understand. 4. Here, computer generated evidence was admissible. The prosecution had complied with the requirements of s 59B.
s 64	Proof of matters of history, science, etc.	Slatter v Kyalde Pty Ltd (1979) 22 SASR 196 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): A judge is authorized by s 64 to refer, of his own motion, to actuarial tables not tendered in evidence and not containing any controversial material. Casley-Smith v FS Evans and Sons Pty Ltd (No 4) (1988) 49 SASR 339 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Consideration and discussion of the threshold tests to be satisfied under s 64 and the judicial discretion afforded by the section.
s 69	Power to suppress publication of evidence, etc.	Miller v Samuels (1979) 22 SASR 271 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Circumstances in which a special magistrate should exercise the power to forbid publication of evidence. In re a Prosecution under the Customs Act (1980) 24 SASR 453 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Originating summons: The circumstances in which an order should be made under s 69 prohibiting publication of the name of a person concerned in proceedings before a court considered and discussed. B v Tuncks (1980) 24 SASR 532 (SA Sup Ct, Cox J) Appeal from order of Special Justice: The circumstances in which an order should be made under s 69 prohibiting publication of the name of the defendant to a complaint in a court of summary jurisdiction, considered and discussed. K v Silk (1981) 26 SASR 360 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Section 69 authorises the court in an appropriate case to forbid the publication not merely of the name of a person but of the name by which that person traded when he did not trade under his own name. J v Holmes (1981) 28 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell AJ) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, it is only in rare circumstances that an order prohibiting publication of the name of a person charged with a sexual offence will be made after the case has been committed to trial. A-G v Kernahan (1981) 28 SASR 313(SA Sup Ct FC): Held, contravention of an order made under 69(1)(d) or (e) is, by reason of the provisions of s 71, punishable summarily, and the Supreme Court has no power to punish such contravention as a contempt of court. See s 71. X v Ford (1983) 33 SASR 155 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Discussed, the circumstances in which an order should be made under s 69.

		G v The Queen (1984) 35 SASR 349 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed: 1. The circumstances in which an order should be made under s 69. 2. The procedure to be followed upon appeal to the Supreme Court against a refusal by a court of summary jurisdiction or magistrate to make such an order. R v Lennon (1985) 38 SASR 356 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, factors to be taken into account in determining whether an order under s 69 should be made.
s 69a	Suppression orders	Advertiser Newspapers Ltd v F (1985) 38 SASR 367 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): Discussed, construction of s 69a, and factors to be taken into account in determining whether an order under s 69a should be made. Re Prosecutions under Controlled Substances Act (No 1) (1987) 26 A Crim R 183 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): Discussed: 1. Factors to be taken into account by the court in determining whether a suppression order should be made. 2. Duration of suppression order. 3. Whether representatives of the media were entitled to be present and heard at an application under s 69a. Re Southern Television Corporation Pty Ltd (1987) 45 SASR 50 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J): Held, under s 69a(5) a "suppression order" includes an interim suppression order. Discussed, whether an appeal could lie against an interim order which, not being a determination of the application on the merits, could not involve an improper exercise of a discretion. Re Prosecutions under Controlled Substances Act (No 3) (1987) 47 SASR 227; 28 A Crim R 300 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Discussed: 1. The effect of s 69a, and whether the criteria established by well-known authorities that antedate the insertion of s 69a still govern the court's exercise of discretion under s 69a. 2. The application of s 69a. Roget v Flavel (1987) 47 SASR 402 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussed: the meaning of "publication" under s 69a. Heading v M (1987) 49 SASR 168 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, there was no presumption one way or the other as to whether a suppression order under s 69a should be made. Further evidence should not be permitted on hearings under s 69a unless it was shown to be plainly necessary. K v Bates (1988) 48 SASR 316 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal: Held, an appellant charged with ill-treatment of former residents of a boarding house was entitled to an order prohibiting publication of her name because the public interest was not of great weight in that case. Re F (1989) 51 SASR 141 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, undue hardship to an applicant who is not a member of the classes of persons specified in s 69a(1)(b) does not constitute "prejudice to the proper administration of justice" within the meaning of s 69a. Martin v M (1991) 54 A Crim R 173 (SA Sup Ct FC): The word "victim" in the section is not to be given a strained interpretation. Simply to show that someone has been adversely affected in some way by the commission of a crime is insufficient. The phrase "in civil or criminal proceedings" should not be given an unrestricted application. s 71	Penalty for non-compliance with order	A-G v Kernahan (1981) 28 SASR 313 (SA Sup Ct FC): Disobedience of an order under s 69 forbidding the publication of specified evidence or the name of a person in the proceedings is, by reason of the provisions of s 71 punishable summarily and the Supreme Court has no power to punish such contravention as a contempt of court. Nationwide News Pty Ltd v Bitter (1985) 38 SASR 390 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held, mens rea is not an essential ingredient of an offence against the provisions of s 71(2).

s 14	Application of this Act to fisheries in accordance with arrangements	Port MacDonnell Professional Fishermen's Association Inc v South Australia (1989) 63 ALJR 67 (High Ct): Held, s 14 was not inconsistent with any law of the Commonwealth, nor did it exceed State extra-territorial legislative power.

s 23	Delegation	Ormerod v Blaslov (1989) 52 SASR 263 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Held, s 23(1) which permitted the Minister to delegate his powers "to the Director or any other officer" had to be interpreted expansively, having regard to the legislation as a whole, so that the word "or" had to be read conjunctively.
s 28	Fishing licences	Kelly v Kelly (1988) 48 SASR 115 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ) Action: Held, an abalone authority obtained under the Fisheries Act 1982, in substitution for an authority obtained under the Fisheries Act 1971 did not become a partnership asset where the Act came into effect after the partnership had dissolved. Further, the authority was property personal to the holder of it, and therefore did not become partnership assets.
	Powers of fisheries officers	Ritter v Glover (1990) 52 SASR 534 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held, it is necessary to establish beyond reasonable doubt in any prosecution for an offence under s 28(4) that in giving a direction, the fisheries officer gave it reasonably suspecting that one or more of the circumstances adverted to in s 28(1)(a) or (b) of the Act existed. Glover v Zouroudis (1990) 54 SASR 200 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Observations on the appropriate procedure to be followed to confirm a seizure and forfeiture order under s 28. See s 66.
s 34	Persons and boats engaged or used in fisheries to be licensed	Lukin Enterprises Pty Ltd v Director of Fisheries (1986) 42 SASR 463 (SA Sup Ct FC): The Director of Fisheries had no power to derogate from an original grant of a licence to take tuna and salmon from a fishery by the imposition of a subsequent condition. Considered: ss 5, 37, 43, 46. Glover v Corigliano and Anor (1992) 59 SASR 190 (SA Sup Ct FC): For an offence to be committed against s 34(1), it must be proved that the person engaged in the fishing activity not covered by the licence had in mind the "purpose" of trade or business at the time the scale fish were illegally taken. Glover v Zouroudis (1990): see s 66.
s 41	Offence of engaging in certain fishing activities	Ferraro v Glover: see s 66.
s 44	Offences with respect to sale, purchase or possession of fish	Glover v Corigliano and Anor (1992) 59 SASR 190 (SA Sup Ct FC): The mere delivery of fish to a fish processor where the fish have been taken illegally is not sufficient to establish sale of fish for the purposes of an offence under s 44(1). It must be proved that there was an intention to enter into a contract of sale. s 46	Regulations relating to fisheries and fishing	Minister for Primary Industries v Lawrie (1995) 64 SASR 359 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that Regulation No. 166/1994 made pursuant to s 46 is a valid regulation having regard to the object and purpose of the Act. It could not be said that the regulation could not have been adopted as the means of attaining the ends indicated by the provisions which created the power.
s 56	Suspension or cancellation of authorities by courts	Clark v Glover (1992) 58 SASR 571 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, where charges on separate complaints are heard together with convictions following on pleas of guilty, the first conviction is not a prior conviction for the purposes of the Fisheries Act 1982. Section 56(3) must be construed as referring to a conviction recorded before the commission of the offence resulting in the conviction first referred to in s 56(3).
s 66	Additional penalty based upon value of fish taken unlawfully	Ferraro v Glover (1988) 50 SASR 154 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, where the defendant was convicted of taking under-sized fish contrary to s 41, the additional penalty could not be imposed as it was related to the wholesale value of the fish at the time taken and there could not be a wholesale value for under-sized fish. Ferraro v Glover (No 2) (1989) 45 A Crim R 95 (SA Sup Ct White J): Both ss 41 and 66 are parts of the overall penalty and s 75(5) of the Justices Act applies equally to fixed fines and calculated fines (additional penalties). Glover v Haseldine (1990) 48 A Crim R 118 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, when sentencing for offences under the Fisheries Act, the Court cannot, pursuant to s 16 of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988, decline to record a conviction and impose a fine, as the additional pecuniary penalty provided for in s 66 is a penalty in addition to a fine within s 16 of the Sentencing Act.

Glover v Zouroudis (1990) 54 SASR 200 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held:
1. It is erroneous in point of law to resort to s 16 of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988 and to decline to record a conviction in order to avoid the imposition of the additional penalty to be imposed upon a conviction under s 66.
2. Section 66 only seeks to impose an additional penalty when a person is convicted of an offence "involving the taking of fish" and the taking of fish is not an essential ingredient of s 34(2) of the Fisheries Act. The offence of putting a vessel to sea without a licensed master contrary to s 34(2) is not an offence in respect of which the taking of fish is an essential element so that the court does not have a discretion to not convict pursuant to s 16 of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act.

s 18	Standards with which food must comply	Coles Myer Ltd v Catt (1992) (SA Sup Ct FC) 58 SASR 298 Appeal against conviction for selling food not fit for consumption. Fly baked into cake, mixture not covered. Held, dismissing the appeal, once the food was contaminated the defendant is guilty unless they can show that they have taken "all possible precautions" to prevent flies in their food. "Possible" to be distinguished from "reasonable". "Possible" means things within the defendant's power or capacity and includes covering the cake mix and inspecting the finished cakes.
s 30	Defence	Coles Myer Ltd v Catt (1992) 58 SASR 298 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the defendant bears the onus of establishing, on the balance of probabilities, that it could not, by taking all possible precautions, have prevented the occurrence of the events that constituted the offence against the Act. Consideration of "all possible".
Food Hygiene Regulations 1990
s 3	Interpretation	Catt v Woolworths (SA) Ltd (1994) 63 SASR 145 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. The word "sell" when used in the regulations (reg 11(1)) is not used in the extended meaning given to it by s 3 of the Act as to do so would produce absurd results. 2. The fixing of liability on the handler of goods for sale which are delivered not completely wrapped or packed makes it clear that the act of selling constituting the offence must be selling in the ordinary sense. 3. The word "delivery" in reg 11(1) of the regulations must be interpreted having regard to the purpose of the regulation and will include where the customer is authorised to select from a self-serve situation.

s 31	Eligibility for appointment	Fryar v Systems Services Pty Ltd (1995) 130 ALR 168 (Indus Relations Ct of Aus FC): Held, section 31 of the State Act falls short of providing a remedy equal to that provided under the Industrial Relations Act 1988 of the Commonwealth. The State Act does not provide for the vindication of a legal right; it merely empowers the Industrial Commission of SA to make reinstatement or compensation orders where it is "of the opinion that the dismissal of the applicant was harsh, unjust or unreasonable".

s 107	Question to be determined at hearing	Cavuoto v Colgate-Palmolive Pty Ltd (1995) AILR 8/10 (SA Indus Relations Ct FC): Held: 1. The Act casts the ultimate onus on the worker to establish that a dismissal is harsh, unjust or unreasonable. 2. Section 107(1) does not contemplate that there is an onus on an employer to establish that a termination was not harsh, unjust or unreasonable. Rather, the necessity on the part of the employer to establish that the reason for the termination was valid is just part of the balancing exercise to be determined by the Commission in determining an unfair dismissal application. 3. Chapter 3 of Part 6 of the Act is not rendered wholly or partially invalid by reason of the operation of s 109 of the Cth Constitution on the basis of inconsistency with the termination provisions of the Industrial Relations Act 1988 (Cth).
s 191	Appeal to Supreme Court	Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Corporation v Commercial Motor Industries Pty Ltd (1995) AILR 8029 (SA Sup Ct FC): The Supreme Court can grant leave to bring a full appeal from any decision of the Full Court of the Industrial Relations Court under s 191.

s 3	Interpretation	R v Adams: see s 6.
s 6	Criminal inquests to be tried by jury	R v Adams (1995) 66 SASR 284 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, it is clear that ss 102 & 107 Summary Procedure Act and s 9 District Court Act provide that one or more summary offences may, subject to the usual rules, be charged in an information alleging the commission of an indictable offence and all may be tried in the District Court. For these purposes, "indictable offence" in ss 3 & 6 Juries Act, includes a summary offence included in such information and could therefore be tried by judge and jury.
s 55a	Power to excuse juror during trial	R v Gray, Adams, Brannon and Knox (1977): 17 SASR 534: An application for a juror, who knew the step-father of the prosecutrix but not the prosecutrix, to be excused, was not within s 55a.
		R v McDonald: see s 56.
s 56	Trial may be continued notwithstanding that the jury may be reduced in number	R v Gray, Adams, Brannon and Knox: see s 55a.

		R v McDonald (1979) 21 SASR 198 (SA Sup Ct FC): The power given to the judge to order that a juror be excused from further attendance may be exercised by the judge whether or not the juror has made an application to be excused. The meaning of "excused" and the circumstances in which the power to excuse a juror from further attendance, considered.
s 57	Number of jurors required to agree upon verdicts in criminal inquests	R v Hamitov (1979) 21 SASR 596 (SA Sup CT FC): Held, the power to discharge a jury given to a trial judge under s 57(2) is a discretionary power and the judge is not required to bring the jury back forthwith upon the expiration of four hours to inquire whether they need more time for deliberation.

s 5	Transfer of proceedings	Sherrin v MJ Sherrin Pty Ltd (1992) Unreported No 3561 (SA Sup Ct Olssen J): Plaintiff's claim for provision of will in NSW. The executor and many of the parties were residents in NSW. The claim was founded on SA legislation and the principal claims did not involve interstate defendants. Held, on balance, not in the interests of justice to transfer proceedings to NSW. In the marriage of Schmidt (1995) FLC 82,109 (Fam Ct of Aust Murray J): Held, an applicant for a transfer of proceedings under s 5(4) must establish that the cross-vested claim forms the most substantial part of the proceedings and that State law will be the law most applied. Provided there is no reason why "in the interests of justice" the order should not be made, the applicant will then be entitled to an order transferring the proceedings.
s 11(3)	Conduct of proceedings	Abrook v Paterson (1995) 58 FCR 293 (Fed Ct of Aus, Branson J): The purpose of s 11(3) is to ensure that any steps taken, including orders made, in the transferor court are, subject to any order of the transferee court, to be treated and enforced as if such steps were taken or orders were made in the transferee court, thereby obviating the need to obtain fresh orders in the transferee court. Section 11(3) is not concerned with the manner in which pleadings are interpreted and they must therefore be construed by reference to the rules of court governing the pleading at the time at which it is filed.

s 6	Interpretation	Palais Parking Station Pty Ltd v Shea (1976) 13 SASR 240 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, the Director-General of Medical Services was "the authority" within the meaning of the Land Acquisition Act and was authorised to acquire the land pursuant to the provisions of that Act. Palais Parking Station Pty Ltd v Shea (1977) 16 SASR 350 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Wells J: When a person is, or is not, "the Authority" with respect to the combined operation of the past and present Land Acquisition Acts, as per s 7. Minister's power of appointment in relation to the holding of land for public purposes, discussed and considered.
s 7	Application	Palais Parking v Shea: see s 6.

s 15	Acquisition by agreement, etc.	Christies Stone Quarries Pty Ltd and Christies Sands Pty Ltd v Corporation of the City of Tea Tree Gully (1979) 22 SASR 224 SA Sup Ct Wells J) Disputed claim for compensation: Despite the fact that a notice of intention to acquire land was not proceeded with, the occupier of the land incurred loss. Consideration of the principles upon which compensation should be assessed pursuant to s 15.
s 16	Notice of acquisition	Emerald Quarry Industries Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Highways (1976) 14 SASR 486 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Whatever the true nature of a claimant's interest in a piece of land, that interest is revoked by publication of an acquisition notice. s 18	Claims to compensation	Emerald Quarry Industries Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Highways (1976) 14 SASR 486 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: The basis upon which a claim for compensation should be determined, considered and discussed. McInnes and Anor v Commissioner of Highways: see s 25.
s 19	Authority must offer compensation	Minister for the Environment v Florence (1979) 21 SASR 108 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): An authority acquiring land is bound by the offer of compensation made by the authority, as required by s 19 of that Act at the time of service of notice of the acquisition of the land.
s 24	Entry into possession	Smith v Minister of Education (1978) 19 SASR 411 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Wells J: Held, an application for ejectment was made when the summons for an order for ejectment was issued.
s 25	Principles of compensation	Emerald Quarry Industries Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Highways (1976) 14 SASR 486: Held, section 25(h) was applicable to land acquired in which the claimant had no interest, but a statutory right. Emerald Quarry Industries Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Highways (No 2) (1978) 18 SASR 438 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Claim for compensation: Consideration and discussion of the principles to be applied in assessing compensation where a business was terminated in consequence of the acquisition of land. The meaning of "the value of the land" in s 25(b) considered. Commissioner of Highways v Shipp Bros Pty Ltd (1978) 19 SASR 215 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Disputed claim for compensation: Consideration and discussion of the principles to be applied in the assessment of compensation where the acquisition of land has led to the destruction of a business. Bloomfield Pty Ltd v Minister of Works (1978) 20 SASR 67 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Disputed claim for compensation: Held, for the purposes of valuing land for assessment of compensation, its potential for sub-division might properly be taken into account. Gill v State Planning Authority (1979) 20 SASR 580 (SA Sup Ct FC) Question of law: Application of s 25 to land not under the State Planning Authority, considered and discussed. Kiley v Minister of Water Resources (1981) 27 SASR 274 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, section 25(h)(c) is not applicable to land which is unlikely to gain planning approval. Sterling Finances Ltd v Minister of Water Resources (1984) 35 SASR 208; 52 LGRA 289 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Discussed, the applicability, operation and effect of s 25(h)(c) in determining the compensation for land compulsorily acquired. Adelaide Clinic Holdings Pty Ltd v Minister for Water Resources (1988) 65 LGRA 410 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): In assessing compensation under s 25(a), it was wrong in principle to determine the highest and best use of resumed land by comparison of the notional market value for commercial development on the one hand, and residential development on the other. Longeranong Pty Ltd v ETSA (1990) 71 LGRA 316 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that a resuming authority cannot be permitted to bypass the legislation by a unilateral undertaking in its notice of acquisition. Factors in estimating compensation - assessment of value of land "taken". Gugusheff v South Australian Urban Land Trust (1990) 55 SASR 268 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Considered: 1. The time lapse for sub-division of land. 2. Factors in estimating compensation.

		McInnes and Anor v Commissioner of Highways (1992) 165 LSJS 124 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Land was acquired adjacent to hotel for by-pass road and hotel consequently suffered loss of trade. Held, ss 18 and 25 are limited to a consideration of loss occasioned by the actual acquisition of a specific parcel of land. The loss of profits and value of hotel arose from the by-pass and not from the acquisition of the land and was therefore not compensable.
s 33	Compensation	South Australian Land Commission v Perry (1977) 15 SASR 315 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that the interest payable on compensation under s 33, was simple interest and not compound interest.

s 54	Interpretation	JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney (1988) 48 SASR 381 (SA Sup Ct, FC) Held, the maintenance of a small booth at a swimming centre where sweets and small items of swimwear were sold was sufficient to render the demised premises "shop premises" within the meaning of the Act. See s 68.
s 55	Application of Part	JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney: see s 68.
		Ory v Betamore Pty Ltd (No 1) (1990) 54 SASR 331 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): The effect of s 55 is that if a pre- amendment commercial tenancy agreement is extended, renewed, assigned or otherwise transferred after the amendments have come into force, the new Pt IV will apply, not merely to the provision that deals with the extension, renewal, assignment or transfer, but to the whole of the agreement.

		Ory v Betamore Pty Ltd (No 2) (1990) 54 SASR 331 at 339 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, where a contract note for the sale of land included an agreement that it was subject to the vendor taking a lease of the property, and the parties some months later executed a lease, it could not be said that a lease was granted by the contract note so as to come within the exception in s 55(2)(a), to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Commercial Tribunal. s 56	Jurisdiction of commercial Tribunal under this Part	Hemruth Advertising Pty Ltd v Karafotias (1988) 46 SASR 532 (SA Sup Ct Lunn J): Discussed, the exclusivity of the jurisdiction of the Commercial Tribunal. JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney: see s 68. Tessari v Bais Pty Ltd (1990) 54 SASR 274 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held, the jurisdiction of the Commercial Tenancy Tribunal is limited, pursuant to s 56(1), to claims arising under or in respect of commercial tenancy agreements and does not include a claim under or in respect of a guarantee even though the guarantor has guaranteed the obligations of a party to such an agreement. Ory v Betamore Pty Ltd (No 1) (1990) 54 SASR 331 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): By s 56, the grant of jurisdiction to the Commercial Tribunal is comprehensive and does not permit an interpretation that would preserve the right to seek a declaration in the Supreme Court as to the interpretation of a lease.
s 57	Limitation on amounts payable with respect to entering into, extending or renewing a commercial tenancy agreement	Coventry & Others v Caltex Oil (Aust) Pty Ltd (1991) 57 SASR 110 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): By lease agreement the plaintiffs were required to pay a "franchise fee" in addition to rent in return for premises and Caltex products. Held, s 57(1) does not intend to prohibit every kind of payment made by the tenant apart from rent, security bond or operating expense. The franchise fee is charged for the licence to sell Caltex products and is therefore not a payment for or in relation to the entry of the lease. Gogos v Christopoulos (1994) 62 SASR 184 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held (by maj), section 57(1) has no application to the payment of a premium by an outgoing tenant in respect of the cancellation of an existing tenancy and the grant of a fresh tenancy to a purchaser of a business previously conducted by the vendor on the premises. It applies to payments by an existing tenant as consideration for an extension on renewal of an existing tenancy and by a prospective tenant. The prohibition in s 57 is to be read together with and in the light of the scheme of s 63; s 63 attaching to a different set of factual circumstances than s 57.
s 66	Implied warranty that premises reasonably fit for business of tenant	JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney (1988) 48 SASR 381 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, Where the tenant had become tenant by an assignment, there was no obligation upon the landlord to effect repairs pursuant to the provisions of s 66, as that section only applied to an agreement entered into after the Act came into operation, and an assignee of a lease could not be said to "enter into" the agreement. JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney: see s 68.
s 68	Power of Tribunal to act in any matter	Hemruth Advertising Pty Ltd v Karafotias (1988) 46 SASR 532 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ): Held, the Commercial Tribunal has, under s 68(5), power to grant interim and interlocutory injunctions. JF Hillam Pty Ltd v Mooney (1988) 48 SASR 381 (SA Sup Ct) Appeal: Held, the Landlord and Tenant Act did not apply to a lease of an indoor swimming centre because the commercial tenancy did not fall within the meaning of "shop premises" in ss 54 and 55 of the Act.

s 7	Interpretation	Kelly v Kelly (1988) 48 SASR 115 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ) Action: By virtue of the definition of "court" in s 7, exclusive jurisdiction under Part VIII of the Act is vested in the Land and Valuation Division of the Supreme Court and an order for partition and sale cannot be made in the ordinary civil jurisdiction.

s 26	Contracts for sale of land to be in writing	Pattison v Mann (1976) 13 SASR 34: The question whether there was a sufficient contract in writing, or acts of part performance, to satisfy the requirement of s 26. Deanshaw v Marshall (1978) 20 SASR 146 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Actions: Whether acts of part performance of an oral contract are sufficient to satisfy the requirements of s 26, considered and discussed.
s 41	Execution and attestation of deeds	Rose v Commissioner of Stamps (1979) 22 SASR 84 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Held, a document not sealed or delivered was not required to be treated as a deed by reason of the provisions of s 41.
s 45	Obligation to transfer instead of re-conveying	Excel Finance Corporation Ltd v Commonwealth Bank of Australia (1988) 48 SASR 225 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ): Held, s 45(1) did not apply to preclude a second mortgagee obtaining from the first mortgagee in possession a transfer of the first mortgage pursuant to s 131 of the Real Property Act. s 55A	Enforcement of rights against mortgagor	Eadie v Braun (1978) 20 SASR 190 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Originating summons: The meaning of the notice requirements for valid notice of breach of covenant, considered and discussed. Kirkman v Frost (1978) 20 SASR 192 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Originating summons: Held, notice of a breach of covenant was valid if served at a mortgagor's place of abode, even where the memorandum of mortgage stipulated that the notice be served at the mortgagor's place of business. Hindmarsh Building Society v Manhire (1979) 20 SASR 206 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Originating summons: A notice of intention to exercise power of sale which stipulated no time limit within which the mortgagor was to remedy her/his breach of covenant, was defective. Lamshed v Plakakis (1988) 47 SASR 316 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Discussed, the ambit, effect and requirements of s 55a. State Bank of South Australia v Jeltes (1988) 49 SASR 307 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Appeal from a master: Held, there must be a breach of the mortgage before a mortgagee can lawfully take action under s 55a. On default of the mortgagor, a notice may be issued by the mortgagee in terms that non-compliance with it establishes a breach. A second notice must be in terms that comply with s 55a. This is so even under a mortgage where moneys are payable on demand. National Australia Bank v Zollo (1992) 59 SASR 76 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held: 1. Pursuant to s 55a(2), the whole indebtedness could not fall due prior to the date otherwise reserved until there had first been compliance with the notice provisions set out in s 55a(1). 2. Whilst mere overstatement of the amount does not invalidate a proper notice, the documents contained an incorrect assertion that the whole of the indebtedness had fallen due. No other breach was alleged and an order for possession was therefore inappropriate. Commonwealth Bank of Australia v Saunders (1995) 64 SASR 428 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 55A does not require the service of any notice prior to the notice specified in s 55A. What the section does require is an antecedent breach of covenant or condition in the mortgage by the mortgagor. Whether such a breach can take place without the service of a notice on the mortgagor, or the making of an adequate demand in some other way, will depend in each case on the terms of the mortgage agreement.
s 69	Power to order partition sale instead of partition	Tansell v Tansell (1977) 19 SASR 165 (SA Sup Ct FC) Questions of law: Held, the Supreme Court had no jurisdiction to entertain a husband's application for sale and division of the matrimonial home after the wife had invoked the jurisdiction of the Family Court by her application for an order for exclusive occupancy of the property.

s 3	Interpretation	Dezsery Cleaning Service Pty Ltd v Milos (1977) 44 SAIR (Pt 2) 1408 (SA Indus Ct Haese J): Held, an application by an employer pursuant to s 53(2) of the Workers Compensation Act 1971 was an "action" as defined in s 3. Section 48 held to be not applicable. Coleman v Redapple Restaurants Pty Ltd: see s 47: distinguished.
s 35	Actions on simple contract and in tort	Cliff v Quinn: see s 36.
s 36	Personal injuries	Carslake v Guardian Assurance Company (1977) 15 SASR 378 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Local Court: Held, the three year time limitation under the Limitation of Actions Act, commences upon giving notice to an insurer. Footner v Broken Hill Associated Smelters: see s 48. Cliff v Quinn (1988) 54 SASR 151 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. The wife's action was founded in tort under s 34 of the Wrongs Act, and prima facie fell within the time limit in s 35 of the Limitation of Actions Act, but it also fell within a narrower sub-class of action in respect of "personal injuries to ... (a) person" to which s 36 of the Limitation of Actions Act applied, so that the special time limit of three years would prevail over the general time limit of six years. 2. The wife's cause of action accrued when the loss first appeared, which was the date of the accident. 3. Rule 53.03 Supreme Court Rules 1987 did not override the time limit in s 36. WorkCover v Mapstone (1993) 60 SAIR 801 (SA Indus Ct FC): Held: 1. A claim for indemnity by Workcover under s 54 of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986, is not a claim on behalf of a worker who had been injured in a motor vehicle accident within s 127 of the Motor Vehicles Act 1959. 2. The right to claim indemnity does not depend on the worker complying with s 127 of the Motor Vehicles Act. 3. The indemnity claim is not barred by the fact the worker's claim for damages would be barred under s 36 of the Limitation of Actions Act 1936 and no extension of time had been sought by the worker within s 48 of the Limitation of Actions Act. 4. The relevant provisions of s 48(1) of the Limitation of Actions Act is for the purposes of claims under s 54(5) & (7) of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986.
s 37	Slander and penalties	In Re Claridge House Ltd (In Liq) (1981) 28 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct FC): In an action under s 367b of the Companies Act, the time limit in s 37 does not apply, since the former provision is procedural in nature.

s 46a	Extension of period of limitation where cause of action survives	Blomme v Sutton (1989) 52 SASR 576 (SA Sup Ct FC): The provisions of s 46a do not apply to the claim for loss of dependency which is an alternative claim to that for the benefit of the estate. s 47	Extension of certain periods of limitation	Coleman v Redapple Restaurants Pty Ltd (Limitation of Actions) Case (1975) 42 SAIR (Pt 1) 990 (SA Indus Ct FC): Held, s 47(2)(d) interpreted to refer to a limitation which, having regard to the type of action under consideration, is in all the circumstances and in the eyes of any reasonable person a necessary adjunct. Section 47 has no application to s 15(1)(e) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1972. Section 48 does apply to s 15(1)(e). Johannessen v Miller: see s 48. R v Di Fazio: see s 48. Cummins Diesel Sales & Service Pty Ltd v State Government Insurance Commission (1982) 49 SAIR (Pt 2) 817 (SA Indus Ct): Held, the time limit prescribed by s 5(9) of the Workers Compensation Act 1980 (SA) was "essential" within the meaning of s 47(2)(d). The Queen v Police Appeal Board: see s 48. Meverley v Commane: see s 48. Re Litchfield (1989) 51 SASR 87 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 47(2)(d) has application to the time limit prescribed by s 95 of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act, with the result that the general extension made by s 47 cannot apply to that time limit.
s 48	General power to extend periods of limitation	Dezsery Cleaning Service Pty Ltd v Milos: see s 3. Coleman v Redapple Restaurants Pty Ltd: see s 47. In Re Kilkenny Liquidation Pty Ltd (In Liq) (1976) 13 SASR 258 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Petition: Held, the making of an order under s 30 of the Companies Act was not a "fact material to the employee's case", within the meaning of s 48. Napolitano v Coyle (1977) 15 SASR 559 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ) Action: Factors to be taken into account upon an application for an extension of time, considered and discussed. Johannessen v Miller (1977) 17 SASR 547 (SA Sup Ct FC) Question of law: An appeal against conviction under the Justices Act is not an action within the meaning of ss 47 & 48. Van Vliet v Griffiths (1978) 19 SASR 195 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Action: Held, granting an order for an extension of time, that the plaintiff had not ascertained facts material to his case until after the expiration of the limitation period. Van Vliet v Griffiths (1979) 20 SASR 524 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Application for an extension of time refused because the claim was statute-barred before amendment of the Limitation of Actions Act. R v Di Fazio; ex parte General-Motors Holdens Ltd (1979) 20 SASR 559 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the Industrial Magistrate had power under ss 47 and 48 of the Limitation of Actions Act, 1936, to extend the time in which an application under s 15(1)(e) of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1972 could be made. General Motors-Holdens Ltd v Di Fazio (1979) 141 CLR 659 (High Court of Aust): R v Di Fazio; Ex parte General Motors Holdens Ltd affirmed. Dunn v Wilkinson (1979) 22 SASR 129 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Local Court: Jurisdiction of special magistrate to extend the time limit for service of a summons, discussed. Scott Pools Pty Ltd v Corporation of the City of Salisbury (1979) 22 SASR 406 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Consideration and discussion of questions whether the Supreme Court has power under s 48 of the Limitation of Actions Act or s 26(5) of the Planning and Development Act to extend the time prescribed for the giving of notice of appeal from the Planning Appeal Board to the Supreme Court.

Mavra v Logan, Serdaridis and Pertl (1980) 24 SASR 567 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Action: Consideration and discussion of the factors to be taken into account for an extension of time to institute an action for damages for personal injuries received in a road accident where failure to institute proceedings within time was alleged to be due to delay on the part of the plaintiff's solicitor.

Johnson v State of South Australia (1980) 26 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC) Action: Circumstances in which an order should be made extending the time within which an action can be commenced, considered and discussed.

Adelaide Pistol Club Inc v District Council of Munno Para (1981) 28 SASR 186; 45 LGRA 119; 6 SAPR 240 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from Planning Appeal Board: The court has power to extend the time prescribed for the giving of notice of appeal from the Planning Appeal Board to the Supreme Court under s 48.

South Australian Meat Corporation v Kipirtoglou (1981) 48 SAIR (Pt 2) 237 (SA Ind Ct FC): Discussed, the power, under s 48, to extend the period within which an application disputing employer liability may be made.

Simpson Ltd v Rothwell (1982) 49 SAIR (Pt 2) 1 (SA Indus Ct FC): Discussed, factors to be taken into account in exercising discretion to extend the period of limitation under s 48.

Cummins Diesel Sales & Service Pty Ltd v State Government Insurance Commission (1982) 49 SAIR (Pt 2) 817 (SA Indus Ct): Discussed, factors to be taken into account in exercising discretion to extend the time for filing an appeal under s 48.

Footner v Broken Hill Associated Smelters Pty Ltd (1983) 33 SASR 58 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, the 1972 and 1975 amendments to the Act did not revive a cause of action which was statute-barred before those amendments came into effect.

The Queen v Police Appeal Board; Ex parte McGee (1984) 36 SASR 455 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the provisions of ss 47 and 48 do not apply to proceedings before the Police Appeal Board.

Kammerman v South Australian Planning Commission (1986) 42 SASR 394; 61 LGRA 99 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, the Planning Appeals Tribunal was not a "court" for the purposes of s 48.

Sola Optical Australia Pty Ltd v Mills (1987) 62 ALJR 3; 163 CLR 628 (HC):
1. Discussed, what constitutes a "fact material in the plaintiff's case" under s 48(3)(b)(i).
2. Section 48(3)(b)(i) required the material facts to be ascertained by the plaintiff personally and not by an agent.

Meverley v Commane (1987) 47 SASR 162 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, ss 47 & 48 do not apply to proceedings under s 76a of the Justices Act 1921.

Munno Para District Council v Battersby (1988) 66 LGRA 17 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the sub-provisions of s 48(1) and (2) empowered the District Court to extend the time limit prescribed by s 37 of the Planning Act for commencing proceedings under s 36 for breaches of that Act.

Blomme v Sutton (1989) 52 SASR 576 (SA Sup Ct FC): There is no reason of policy for construing the provisions in a way which would exclude the operation of s 48.

Timeny v British Airways PLC (1991) 102 ALR 565 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held:
1. Although the combined operation of s 79 of the Judiciary Act 1903 (Cth) and s 48 of the Limitation of Actions Act 1936 (SA) authorises courts exercising federal jurisdiction in South Australia to extend the time limits which are imposed by State law and which apply to actions under federal law by virtue of s 79, there is no power to extend time limits imposed directly by federal law.
2. A law which merely authorises the extension of the time prescribed for the institution of proceedings cannot operate to revive a right which has extinguished.

Timeny v British Airways PLC (1991) 102 ALR 565 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held:
1. Although the combined operation of s 79 of the Judiciary Act 1903 (Cth) and s 48 of the Limitation of Actions Act 1936 (SA) authorises courts exercising federal jurisdiction in South Australia to extend the time limits which are imposed by State law and which apply to actions under federal law by virtue of s 79, there is no power to extend time limits imposed directly by federal law.
2. A law which merely authorises the extension of the time prescribed for the institution of proceedings cannot operate to revive a right which has extinguished.

Gehan v South Australian Meat Corporation (1992). Unreported judgment No. 3294 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the ascertainment of new evidence of a fact already existing and within the plaintiff's knowledge is not enough to found an extension of time.

Danae Investment Trust PLC v MacIntosh Nominees Pty Ltd (1993) 11 ACSR 523 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held:
1. The rule of practice in Weldon v Neal (1887) 19 QBD 394 that an amendment adding a new cause of action is not allowed after the expiration of the relevant statutory time limit, has been substantially modified by this Act.
2. Section 48(3)(b) applies only to extensions of a limitation of time prescribed by the Act itself. The power to extend other time limits is conferred by s 48(1) and is not confined by the restrictive grounds imposed by s 48(3)(b).

Workcover v Mapstone: see s 36.

Robinson v Craven (1994) Aust Torts Reports 61,864 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held:
1. The references in s 48(2) to jurisdiction do not indicate an intention to modify the rule that the time limitations in the Act apply only if pleaded.
2. The purpose of s 48 is to relieve plaintiffs, whose actions are out of time, of the hardship resulting from time limitations. Its purpose is ameliorative. It would not accord with that purpose to construe the section as extinguishing causes of action that would not otherwise be extinguished.
3. The expiration of a limitation of time within which proceedings may be brought has the effect of banning the remedy but not the right. It follows that a defendant intending to rely on a statute of limitations as a bar must raise the plea by way of defence.

Baulderstone Pty Ltd v Workcover Corporation (1995) 64 SASR 519 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 48 Limitation of Actions Act may operate to extend the statutory rights of action given by s 54 Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act. An extension of time may be granted, even if jurisdiction to grant the extension has expired and even if the time limit is an element of the existence of the right.

s 19	Proceedings before the Court	Nepeor Pty Ltd v Liquor Licensing Commission (1987) 46 SASR 205 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the Court's power to inform itself of matters under s 19 did not entitle it to ignore rules of natural justice.
s 23	Appeal from orders and decisions of the Court	Mick Lucas and Son Pty Ltd v Licensing Commissioner (1987) 45 SASR 312 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, all appeals under s 23, whether fact or law, are by leave. s 38	Conditions affecting grant or removal of a retail liquor merchant's licence	Nepeor Pty Ltd v Liquor Licensing Commission (1987) 46 SASR 205 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, the requirements of s 38(1); the meaning of "public demand", "locality" and "existing facilities".
s 44	Circumstances in which general facility licence may be granted	Trop Nominees Pty Ltd v Liquor Licensing Commissioner (1987) 46 SASR 255 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discussed, what constitutes a "tourist attraction" under s 44(1)(a). David Jones (Australia) Pty Ltd v Fahey: see s 63.

s 62	Requirements as to premises	Vandeleur v Delbra Pty Ltd (1988) 48 SASR 156 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Held: 1. In determining matters required by s 62(1)(b), the court was not only concerned with such additional impact as the proposed premises might have over other uses. 2. A condition in a s 64 certificate that building approval be obtained before a licence was granted was valid. Section 62(2) requires the Licensing Court to be satisfied concerning approvals not as a pre requisite of the grant of the certificate, but as a pre-requisite of the grant of the licence. Hignett v Burnside City Corporation (1989) 68 LGRA 149 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): Held, for the purposes of s 62(2), the adequacy of any approvals, consents or exemptions required under planning law was a matter for the Licensing Court and not the Supreme Court on an application for declaratory relief.
s 63	Grant of category A licence must be justified by public need	David Jones (Australia) Pty Ltd v Fahey (1989) 50 SASR 323 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, allowing the appeal, that: 1. The Licensing Court had erred in failing to distinguish between that group of the public to which s 44(1) referred and the public in the locality referred to in s 63. 2. Those frequenting the food hall, could properly complain that to deny the licence sought was to fail to provide for the needs of the public in the locality within the meaning of s 63 of the Act.
s 64	Certificate in respect of proposed premises	Vandeleur v Delbra Pty Ltd: see s 62(2). s 128	Power to refuse entry or remove persons guilty of offensive behaviour	O'Neil v Hughes (1992) 166 LSJS 498 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, force is not necessary for removal. A request to leave must be intended as a removal, it must be clear that the person has no choice other than to be forced to leave and the fact of removal should in some way be conveyed to the person removed.

s 4	Prohibition on use of listening device	T v Medical Board (SA) (1992) 58 SASR 382 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held (by maj), a recording made on a tape-recorder by the patient of a telephone conversation she had with the appellant, was not an interception within the meaning of s 6(1) of the Telecommunications (Interception) Act 1979 (Cth) and was not therefore inadmissible pursuant to s 77 of the Commonwealth Act. The recording was, however, contrary to s 4 of the Listening Devices Act 1972 and the court had a discretion as to whether to exclude or admit the evidence.

R v Usher; Ex parte Hearn (1983) 34 SASR 124; 50 LGRA 119 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Discussed, the effect of ss 5, 51 and 105 on a determination of whether an application by a candidate to have his name enrolled on the voters' roll was sufficient to qualify him to be nominated for election as alderman. Burnside City Council v A-G (SA) (1993) 81 LGERA 167 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, (among others) there was sufficient minuted evidence that the original declaration of trust in 1888 was to hold the land "for the public use of the District as a recreation ground" and, in the absence of any prescribed procedure for the making of a declaration or the setting aside of the land as park lands in the Local Government Act, the action of the council in executing the deed of trust and its subsequent dealing with the land constituted a setting aside of the land for the use and enjoyment of the public. Accordingly, the land was "park land" within the meaning of s 5 of the Act. The council had power to sell land which is "park land" in the absence of any specific prohibition under the Act. (See also note under s 59B Trustee Act).

s 41	Delegation of powers of Council	The Corporation of the City of Henley and Grange v the State of South Australia (1977) 17 SASR 491 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Action: Requirements of publication and advertisements of proposed partitions, considered and discussed.

s 111	Voting procedure at polling booths	Raggatt v Fletcher (1990) 69 LGRA 367 (SA Sup Ct FC): The word "authenticated" in s 111(8) should be interpreted as meaning to certify to be genuine rather than in the sense of making genuine.

s 142m	Special case	R v Ward; Ex parte Bowering: see s 142k.

Mobil Oil Australia Ltd v Valuer-General (1993) 80 LGERA 255 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. Notwithstanding that the reassessment of a valuation was determined by the Valuer-General on an invalid objection under s 24 of the Valuation of Land Act 1971, the fresh valuation which resulted could form the basis of a valuation roll for the purposes of rating purposes under s 171(3) of the Local Government Act 1934. 2. The local council had power to issue an amended rate notice where the original account was in error due to an understatement of true assessment caused thereby even though it was not possible to comply strictly with the procedure in s 184(7) of the Local Government Act 1934.
s 184	Payment of rates	Mobil Oil Australia Ltd v Valuer-General: see s 171.
s 216	Special rate	Clothier and Simper v City of Mitcham (1981) 45 LGRA 179: Held, the procedures for making a separate rate under s 218 on the one hand and a special rate under s 216 on the other hand must not be interchanged or blurred.

s 709	Jurisdiction to try title to certain office, etc.	Gumeracha District Council v Harris (1995) 86 LGERA 31 (SA Sup Ct Lander J): Held, despite the lack of jurisdiction in a court of summary jurisdiction in relation to rating matters under the Local Government Act after 1989, to try the validity of a council assessment, that court does have jurisdiction to inquire into a council's adoption of a valuation when inquiring into the validity of the striking of the rate under s 709.

		Salfischberger v Copini (1988) 7 MVR 139 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Discussed, whether it is mandatory to serve an expiation notice under s 794a.
Part IXAA	Enquiries into dismissals, or reductions in status, of officers	R v Industrial Court of South Australia; Ex parte District Council of Karoonda East Murray (1980) 24 SASR 117 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, an applicant dismissed by a recently amalgamated Council, having worked for one of the Councils prior to amalgamation, had worked more than twelve months for a council. Therefore, the dismissed employee had a right of appeal or review under the Local Government Act and the Industrial Court had no jurisdiction to hear his application.

		Howie v Foulkes (1986) 61 LGRA 112 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal: Reg 8(16) did not require a sign to be placed at each end of a bus zone. One sign and road markings or one or more signs would be sufficient to denote a bus zone.
		Lindner v Scheer (1986) 61 LGRA 137 (SA Sup Ct Von Doussa J): "Applicable" in reg 8(1) meant clearly relating to the area or zone in question.
		Snodgrass v Kuhr (1986) 42 SASR 477 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): A "no standing" sign meant that a motorist could not stop his vehicle in a "no standing" area, even for a moment.
		Howie v Sutcliffe (1988) 65 LGRA 110; 6 MVR 331 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Reg 8 of the Parking Regulations imposes a strict, not an absolute liability. Therefore, the defences of honest and reasonable mistake of fact and act of a stranger are available to a defendant.
reg 13	Exemptions	Scheer v Smith (1986) 42 SASR 290; 61 LGRA 10 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Meaning of the expression "principally constructed" in order to determine whether a vehicle qualified for exempt parking in a loading zone, considered.

Act generally		Tarasenko v Boylan (1992) 58 SASR 587 (SA Sup Ct FC): The Act does not provide for the judicial composition of the Magistrates Court. The magistracy is constituted by the Magistrates Act 1983 and there are no constituent members of the Magistrates Court. s 3	Interpretation	Broken Hill Pty Co Ltd v Stevenson (1993) 50 IR 51; 60 SAIR 426 (SA Indus Ct FC): Held, where a magistrate refused an application to dismiss charges under s 19(1) of the Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Act 1986 for alleged lack of particularity that was in the nature of an interlocutory order and entitled the defendant to appeal under ss 3 & 42(1) of the Magistrates Court Act. (See also note under s 19 Occupational Health Safety and Welfare Act 1986).
s 20	Power to require attendance of witnesses and production of evidentiary material	Carter v Hayes (1994) 61 SASR 451 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the power of the Magistrates Court to issue a summons in the nature of a subpoena duces tecum contained in s 20 is a power to require the production of "evidentiary material" which is material of evidential value in some sense.
s 42	Appeals	Broken Hill Pty Co Ltd v Stevenson: see s 3.
		Burlinson v Police (1994) 75 A Crim R 258 (SA Sup Ct Nyland J): Held, the appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction under s 42 is the same as it was under s 177(1) of the Justices Act 1921. CASE ANNOTATIONS:

s 3	Interpretation	Electricity Trust of South Australia v Krone (Australia) Technique Pty Ltd (1994) 123 ALR 202 (Fed Ct of Aust, von Doussa J): Held: 1. The express limitation on the scope of the Act by reference to price in the definition of "manufactured goods" in s 3(1) indicates that the legislature was not intending that "sale by retail" would be the means by which small transactions and large commercial transactions would be excluded.

2. A large corporate business can be a "consumer" if it purchases goods that were manufactured for sale or disposal to ultimate consumers, and those goods are not of a kind excluded from the definition of "manufactured goods" by the price limitation.
3. Similarly, there is no reason why the Act should not extend to a government or semi-government instrumentality.

s 19	Costs	Beard v Wilde (1985) 41 SASR 226 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from the Medical Board of South Australia: Held, The provisions of s 10 of the Medical Practitioners Act do not cut down the general provisions of s 19 and prevent the Board from making an order for costs against the Registrar of the Board (if he lays the complaint). The Act does not contemplate that such costs should be paid personally by the Registrar. Fung v Wilde (1986) 41 SASR 232 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, a decision of the Medical Board that each party to the proceedings should bear its own cost was "an order against a party to the proceedings" within the meaning of s 19, and accordingly an appeal lay to the Supreme Court against that order. s 26	Professional misconduct	In re Phillips (1978) 18 SASR 44 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, a medical practitioner found guilty of offences against the Health Insurance Act (Cth) was also guilty of "serious misconduct in a professional respect" within the meaning of s 26 of the Act. In re Jennings (1980) 23 SASR 318 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: It is only in an unusual case that the Supreme Court will refuse to order the removal, from the register of medical practitioners, of the name of a medical practitioner who has been found guilty of a misdemeanour.
s 50	Inquiries by the Medical Board as to a medical practitioner's competency	Chan v Medical Board of South Australia (1986) 41 SASR 434 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, proceedings taken under s 50 by the Board do not preclude the same conduct from being investigated in proceedings taken under s 58 of the Act. s 58	Inquiries by the Tribunal as to unprofessional conduct	Chan v Medical Board of South Australia (1986) 41 SASR 434 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Comments as to the correct procedure to be followed by the Tribunal making an inquiry under s 58: affirmation of White J's opinion in Medical Board v Marzola (1985) 39 SASR 429, that experts conducting the Tribunal inquiry are not to substitute their expert knowledge for evidence, and if this occurs, the Tribunal inquiry will miscarry, as it did in Chan's case. s 61	Provisions as to enquiries	R v Medical Practitioners Professional Conduct Tribunal; Ex parte Medical Board (1985) 40 SASR 84 (SA Sup Ct FC) Certiorari and mandamus: Held, the Tribunal had failed to comply with its duty under s 61(1) to afford parties a reasonable opportunity to make submissions to it by dismissing the complaint without hearing submissions from the Board's counsel.

s 66	Appeal to the Supreme Court	Chan v Medical Board of South Australia (1986) 41 SASR 434 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Comments on remedies to an appeal to the Supreme Court brought under s 66 from a decision of the Tribunal on unprofessional conduct. T v Medical Board (SA) (1992) 58 SASR 382 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. The onus of proof required under s 66 of the Act is proof beyond reasonable doubt. 2. The right of appeal from the Medical Practitioners Disciplinary Tribunal to the Supreme Court under s 66 of the Act is an appeal by way of rehearing.

s 6	Removal of certain bars to rescission	JAD International Pty Ltd v International Trucks Australia Ltd (1994) 50 FCR 378 (Fed Ct of Aus FC): Held: 1. In the case of innocent misrepresentation, s 6(1)(b) keeps open a purchaser's right to rescind even after there has been an "acceptance of the goods", the subject of the contract in the sense in which that term is used in s 35 of the Sale of Goods Act 1895. 2. A party has no right, merely on proof of a misrepresentation which justifies rescission, to be restored as completely as is possible to its position prior to the contract. A party is entitled to be restored only to the extent that will achieve what is practically just between the parties. 3. A decline in the market value of the goods in question is not relevant to whether the restoration of the status quo ante remains possible. 4. The conduct of an innocent party after gaining knowledge of the true facts is an important consideration in determining whether that party will be allowed to rescind.
s 7	Damages for misrepresentation	Pavlovic v Commonwealth Bank of Australia (1992) 56 SASR 587 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): General common law principles apply to the entitlement, measurement and assessment of damages pursuant to s 7(3). Emanuele v Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SA) Inc (1994) ATPR 53,565 (Fed Ct of Aust, O'Loughlin J): Held, the nominee of the applicant was entitled to invoke the provisions of s 7 of the Act. The nominee, by its acceptance of the memorandum of transfer and the conveyance, had become a "contracting party" within s 7; the memorandum of transfer and the conveyance constituted the contract, and the company had been induced to enter into that contract by a misrepresentation that had been made "by another party to the contract".

s 5	Interpretation	Elliott v Hentschke (1984) 36 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): "Place commonly used by the public": sandhills were capable of being a place. "Road, street or thoroughfare": held that motor cycle tracks in sandhills were not a "road", "street" or "thoroughfare" within the meaning of para (a) of the definition.
		Nominal Defendant v Merritt: see s 116.
s 7	Appointment of Registrar and officers, etc.	Scotts Transport Industries v Boys: see s 140.
s 9	Duty to register	Franklin v Stacey: see s 102.
		Williams v Urie (1984) 36 SASR 173 (SA Sup Ct (In Banco) King CJ, Zelling and White JJ) Appeal from order of Cox J: Person in driver's seat of towed vehicle held to be "driving" the vehicle. s 12	Exemption of farmer's tractors and implements	McIntyre v Nominal Defendant: see s 116.
s 33	Vehicles registered for interstate trade	Scotts Transport Industries Pty Ltd v Bassell (1986) 83 FLR 392 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Appeal: The reduced registration fee offered for vehicles which are to be used exclusively for interstate trade as well as words to the effect on the registration form amounts clearly to an undertaking that the vehicle would not be used in any other way.
s 66	Use of general traders plates	Daire v O'Malley (1986) 41 SASR 583; 4 MVR 51 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: The obligation to prove that a general trader's plate was not being used for an authorized use within s 66(2), rests with the prosecutor.
s 88	Suspension of licence of person suffering from disease or disability	Registrar of Motor Vehicles (SA) v Badoui (1985) 2 MVR 255 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J) Appeal: Held, that the principles set out in Harmdorf v Riddle (1971) SASR 398 apply to an order for costs under s 88(4).
s 91	Effect of suspension and disqualification	Davis v Bates (1986) 43 SASR 149 (SA Sup Ct (In Banco) King CJ, Mohr and Von Doussa JJ) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: The offence of driving whilst suspended or disqualified is a strict liability offence. Therefore, the defence of honest and reasonable belief was open to the defendant.

		Lamshed v Rigney (1987) 48 SASR 320 (SA Sup Ct Von Doussa J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, it was open to the magistrate to dismiss a charge against s 91 at the close of the prosecution case if he considered the evidence from the prosecution witnesses as to identity to be so lacking in weight and reliability that no reasonable tribunal could safely convict.
s 98b	Points demerit scheme	Shillabeer v Linnane (1979) 22 SASR 382 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The fact that a person convicted of an offence is likely to suffer disqualification is not of itself "proper cause" for not recording or reducing the number of demerit points. Hepworth v Rowbottom (1979) 22 SASR 394 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that "proper cause" specified in s 98b (10) must relate to the circumstances of the offence itself. The fact that it will cause hardship to a convicted person is not in itself a "proper cause". Richards v Binnekamp (1983) 32 SASR 133 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Principles under which a court should act in not deducting points for a "trifling" offence, considered and discussed. Poole-Blunden v Registrar of Motor Vehicles (1984) 34 SASR 591 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from Local Court: No right of appeal exists to the Supreme Court from a local court against a notice of disqualification from holding or obtaining a driver's licence from the Registrar of Motor Vehicles, served upon someone who has twelve or more demerit points awarded against them. McCade v Chandler (1984) 37 SASR 477 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Meaning of, and the effect to be given to the expression "proper cause" considered and discussed, in light of whether it requires the court to consider hardship or the nature of the offence. Wojtasik v Newton (1988) 40 A Crim R 339 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Held, there was no proper cause for favouring an application under s 98b(10) where the offence involved exceeding the speed limit of 100 km/h by driving at 140 km/h. Newton v Larcombe (1989) 38 A Crim R 254 (SA Sup Ct White J): "Proper cause" within s 98b(10) referred to the circumstances of the particular offence and did not, of itself, encompass hardship resulting from points penalties.
s 98md	Only persons directed by police to proceed to or be present at scene of accident for purposes related to removal, wrecking or repair	Collett v Hitchcock (1986) 42 SASR 494; 4 MVR 201 (SA Sup Ct FC): An employee of a tow truck company, though off duty, was found to be unlawfully present at an accident because he made a telephone call to his employer while at the scene of the accident. s 99	Interpretation	State Government Insurance Commission v Wagner (1993) 7 ANZ Insurance Cases 78,345 (SA Sup Ct FC): Wagner was required to operate a front end loader equipped with a back hoe. After driving the loader to the work site, the operator went about preparing it for use with the back hoe. In the course of attempting to set up the back hoe for operation, Wagner was allegedly injured. An issue arose as to whether the injury was a consequence of the driving of a motor vehicle. Held, the act of driving the motor vehicle was no more than a precursor to setting up for a totally different activity. It was, in no relevant sense, the cause of that activity.
s 102	Duty to insure against third party risks	Boyd v Rowbottom (1976) 13 SASR 264 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the term "special reasons" within s 102, considered and discussed. Edwards v Wylie (1976) 14 SASR 268 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that a defendant who had difficulty in getting to work because he was disqualified from holding a licence did not possess "special reasons" sufficient to reduce the minimum period of his disqualification.

Stoakes v French (1979) 20 SASR 258 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The fact that the defendant only drove the vehicle for about one kilometre for the purpose of testing it and because he would suffer hardship from the disqualification, constituted "special reasons" within the meaning of s 102.

Irving v French (1979) 21 SASR 437 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where a defendant charged with the offence of driving an uninsured vehicle is not represented by counsel the court should inform the defendant of the provision in that section for reduction for special reasons of the minimum period of disqualification from holding a driver's licence.

Smith v Bates (1980) 25 SASR 362 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that s 102 did not offend against s 92 of the Constitution.

Franklin v Stacey (1981) 27 SASR 49 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Sections 9 and 102 impose strict liability for driving an unregistered and uninsured motor vehicle.

Saturno v Dunsmore (1981) 28 SASR 4 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observations as to the weight to be given to "special reasons" in reducing the minimum period of disqualification prescribed by s 102.

Binnekamp v Keepes; Keepes v Binnekamp (1983) 32 SASR 255 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: The period of disqualification prescribed by s 102 must run over consecutive months, ie, it cannot run over separate periods.

Barwick v Crichton (1983) 36 SASR 142 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: For the court to reduce the obligatory disqualification period on a conviction of driving an uninsured motor vehicle for "special reasons" under s 102, requires the defendant to satisfy the court that the particular case is extraordinary or atypical. One way is to show a mistaken but reasonable belief that the vehicle was insured.

Schulz v Mill (1984) 37 SASR 41 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Borrowing a fork-lift truck (seldom driven on roads), and driving it without the knowledge that it was uninsured and unregistered, constituted "special reasons" and justified mitigation. Hardship due to inability to operate one's own business also a mitigating factor.

Dunsmore v Harvey (1985) 38 SASR 383 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Evidence that an employer bore the burden to register and insure a vehicle along with evidence that the driver would suffer hardship due to loss of licence was a "special reason". This, however, was no reason for imposing a period of disqualification amounting to no disqualification.

Hayes v Chandler (1986) 40 SASR 341 (SA Sup Ct Prior J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: That the appellant, who was a citizen of the United States, had taken out private insurance, honestly believing that this satisfied the requirements of SA law, was not a "special reason" as he had not acted reasonably in failing, for 12 months, to make any inquiry.

Sullivan v Hillman (1986) 43 SASR 181 (SA Sup Ct Von Doussa J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The isolated use of an unregistered and uninsured motor vehicle in an emergency was a matter which due to the level of hardship warranted a reduction in the period of disqualification because it constituted a "special reason".

Milisits v Dunsmore (1988) 6 MVR 485 (SA Sup Ct Von Doussa J) Appeal: Loss of goodwill and expense to the plaintiff's businesses did not constitute a "special reason" to reduce the period of her licence disqualification.

		Semple v Doyle (1988) 48 SASR 357; 8 MVR 34 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, a woman convicted of having driven an unregistered and uninsured vehicle had "special reason" for a reduction of the minimum period of disqualification because she was driving her husband's car, which she rarely drove, and for which he was responsible for registering. Applications pursuant to s 102(2)(a) involved findings of fact and the exercise of judicial discretion, so that there were not, and could not be any closed category of circumstance which fell within or without the statutory provision.
		McIntyre v Nominal Defendant: see s 116.
		Hamed v Higgins (1989) 10 MVR 235 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, inadvertent driving after failure to receive a registration renewal notice does not amount to a "special reason" within s 102(2). s 104	"All liability"	Norwich Winterthur Insurance (Aust) Ltd v SGIC (1991) 6 ANZ Insurance Cases 77, 027 (SA Sup Ct FC): Interpretation of "all liability" in s 104; also considered liability to pay compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act (SA).
s 112	Liability of insurer when judgment obtained against insured	Conlin v Springgay: see s 125.
s 113	Liability of insurer where the insured is dead or cannot be found	Carslake v Guardian Assurance Company (1977) 15 SASR 378 Appeal from Local Ct: The nature of the cause of action pursuant to s 113, and the time limits applicable to the commencement of such actions, considered and discussed.
s 115	Claims against nominal defendant where vehicle not identified	Freeman v Griffiths (1976) 13 SASR 494 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Local Ct: In actions under s 115 where there is no corroboration of the plaintiff's account of the accident, there should be a more cautious approach by the Court than in ordinary actions for negligence where evidence is available.
		Griffiths v McNicol (1977) 15 SASR 419 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from Local Ct: Meaning of the requirement that sufficient notice be given to Minister, considered and discussed.
		Plesa v Griffiths (1977) 15 SASR 434 Action: Application of the term "due inquiry and search" in s 115, considered and discussed.
		Anderson v Haskins (1989) 8 MVR 425 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): In an action for proceedings against the "nominal defendant", the correct procedure is to name defendant as "the nominal defendant".
		Panopoulos v Nominal Defendant (1990) 53 SASR 491 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that the identity of a vehicle should be regarded as ascertained for the purposes of s 115, if a reasonable person acquainted with the known facts and circumstances would conclude that more likely than not, a given vehicle was the vehicle concerned.
		Venetsanos v Nominal Defendant (SA) (1992) 16 MVR 259 (SA Sup Ct FC): Consideration of "due inquiry and search" as required by s 115 of the Act. s 116	Claim against nominal defendant where vehicle uninsured	Nominal Defendant v Merritt (1988) 48 SASR 278 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from District Court: Held, that the extended definition of "road" in s 5(1) applied to a claim under s 116(2) and the words "any other place commonly used by the public" were not to be read down.
		Nominal Defendant (SA) v Merritt (1988) 5 ANZ Insurance Cases 75, 411 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: A public reserve commonly used by the public including children and persons using trail bikes was a "road" within the meaning of the Act, thus the nominal defendant was liable to pay damages.
		McIntyre v Nominal Defendant (1989) 50 SASR 518; 9 MVR 29 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): No motor vehicle had to be insured unless it was driven on a road, pursuant to s 102. Even then, in the case of a farm tractor, it did not have to be insured if it was driven on a road pursuant to s 12(2). When, but only when, it was not being so driven would it be within s 116, requiring it to be covered by a policy of insurance.

s 124	Notice of accident or claim	State Government Insurance Commission (SA) v Paneros (1988) 43 SASR 349; 5 ANZ Insurance Cases 75, 369 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ) Interlocutory application: The statutory duty to disclose in s 124 should not prevail over an equitable duty of confidence or legal professional privilege. See s 125.
s 124a	Recovery by the insurer	SGIC v Whyatt (1984) 37 SASR 454 (SA Sup Ct (In Banco) Zelling, Jacobs and Millhouse JJ): Driving whilst under the influence of alcohol constitutes a breach of a term of the policy of insurance pursuant to s 124a. SGIC v Paneros: see s 125.
s 125	Power of insurer to deal with claims against insured	SGIC v Paneros (1988) 48 SASR 349; 5 ANZ Insurance Cases 75, 369 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ): Where solicitors employed by the insurer undertake to conduct the defence of an action, a solicitor client relationship between the insured and the solicitors arises, not out of contract but created by the Act. Thus legal professional privilege attached to information provided by the insured person under s 124, preventing its use in subsequent proceedings pursuant to s 124a. Conlin v Springgay (1993) 18 MVR 257 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held, s 112 confers an absolute right on a successful plaintiff, who has obtained judgment against an insured driver, at the option of that plaintiff to recover the amount of it direct from the insurer. While the defendant may have the financial resources to meet any assessment of damages against him, that and other considerations could not operate to deny the insurer recourse to its statutory rights.
s 127	Medical examination of claimants	Wilson and Cutovic v Cutovic (1979) 23 SASR 77 (SA Sup Ct FC): A request pursuant to s 127(1) must be a reasonable request. What is reasonable is a question of fact in every case. Worker v Mapstone: see note under s 36 of the Limitation of Actions Act 1936.
s 133	Contracting out of liability for negligence	K & S Lake City Freighters Pty Ltd v Gordon & Gotch Ltd (1985) 59 ALJR 658; 60 ALR 509 (High Court of Aust, Appeal from SA Sup Ct): Question whether s 133 applied to a contract for the carriage of goods or whether it was confined by its context to cases of death or bodily injury. Held, s 133 was to be construed in its plain and ordinary meaning and thus did extend to cover damage to goods. Gordon & Gotch Ltd v K & S Lake City Freighters Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 50 affd.
s 140	Evidence of registers	Scotts Transport Industries v Boys (1978) 18 SASR 537 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Held, that a document purporting to be an extract from an entry contained in the register of motor vehicles but not signed by someone authorized to do so, was not admissible as evidence. s 143	Causing or permitting offences	Williams v Urie: see s 9. Collett v Bennett (1986) 40 SASR 426 (SA Sup Ct (In Banco) Zelling, Jacobs and Millhouse J) On appeal from Sup Ct Legoe J: Not knowing that a vehicle is unregistered and uninsured does not constitute an honest and reasonable albeit mistaken belief to the contrary.
Fourth schedule		Dawson v Stevens Bros Pty Ltd (1983) 34 SASR 338: Affirmed. SGIC v Laube (1984) 37 SASR 31 (SA Sup Ct (In Banco) King CJ, Millhouse and Prior JJ) Appeal from District Court: The mere proof of a blood alcohol level and the fact that most persons with such a level would be incapable of exercising effective control of a motor vehicle was not sufficient to prove that the insured was so much under the influence of intoxicating liquor as to be incapable of exercising effective control of the vehicle within the meaning of the Fourth Schedule. SGIC v Stevens Bros Pty ltd (1984) 52 ALR 441 (High Court of Aust) Appeal: Held, injuries sustained whilst unloading a compressor from a stationary truck arose out of the use of a motor vehicle, namely the compressor as if it was a "motor vehicle" within the meaning of the Act and it was being used in a manner for which it was designed.

Muegel v Fast Freight Pty Ltd (1987) Aust Torts Reports 68, 483 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) First instance decision: Injuries sustained whilst loading a tray top truck were injuries "arising out of the use of" the truck within para 1 of the Fourth Schedule.

SGIC v Sweeny (1989) 6 ANZ Insurance Cases 76, 231 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a passenger who grabbed the steering wheel of a car, causing an accident was driving the motor vehicle at the time of the accident.

s 2	Date of operation by proclamation	LeCornu Furniture & Carpet Centre Pty Ltd v Parsons (1990) 54 SASR 108 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that s 2(1) resulted in the unsuspended provisions coming into operation when first proclaimed and the specified suspended provisions coming into operation when later proclaimed, which then allowed for the operation of s 14c of the Acts Interpretation Act 1915.
s 19	Duty of employers	Arrowcrest Group Pty Ltd v Stevenson (1990) 57 SAIR 368 (SA Indus Ct): Held: 1. Occurrence of injury is not an element or ingredient of an offence under s 19(2). 2. The issue under s 19(1) is whether in the particular circumstances the employer has ensured so far as reasonably practicable that an employee is safe from injury. Bartos v CSR Ltd (1990) 57 SAIR 479 (SA Indus Ct): The employer's duty, in s 19, to maintain a safe working environment extended to all employees, even those who behaved in a negligent manner, except those who behaved in such a reckless manner that their actions could not have been foreseen by a reasonable employer. Stevenson v Broken Hill Associated Smelters Pty Ltd (1991) 58 SAIR 108 (SA Indus Ct): Held, mens rea was not an element of an offence alleging a breach of s 19. The objective test in the section displaced the common law presumption of mens rea. The honest and reasonable mistake defence was already incorporated in the section by the objective test applied to the employer. Pipemech Services Pty Ltd v Stevenson (1991) 58 SAIR 299 (SA Indus Ct): Relevant considerations as to whether or not a penalty imposed by an Industrial Magistrate was manifestly excessive. Stevenson v Evans Deakin Industries Ltd: see s 21.
	Duties of employers	Broken Hill Pty Co Ltd v Stevenson: see note under s 3 Magistrates Court Act. s 21	Duty of employee to take reasonable care to protect own safety	Stevenson v Minnican (1990) 57 SAIR 507 (SA Indus Ct): An implied threat of dismissal, which led a worker to breach s 21(1)(a), was insufficient to displace the worker's paramount duty to ensure his/her own safety.
	Duties of workers	Stevenson v Evans Deakin Industries Ltd (1992) 59 SAIR 441 (SA Indus Ct): Held: 1. The offence created by s 19(1) is one of negligence. 2. The offence created by reg 16 is one of strict liability. 3. The fact that a leading hand has been convicted of an offence under s 21(1)(b) is no bar to proceedings against the employer under s 19(1). Stevenson v Hardy (1994) 57 IR 348 (SA Sup Ct FC): A federal award provided that the duties and obligations of employees to employers and fellow employees in respect of occupational health and safety are regulated by the award to the exclusion of any relevant State legislative provisions. The issue before the court was whether the federal award has the effect of excluding the operation of s 21. Held, there is no direct inconsistency between the award and the Act - both can be complied with. The federal award does not comprehend duties and responsibilities to persons other than the employer and other employees. Consequently, s 21 continues to operate in respect of duties and obligations of an employer to the employee of an independent contractor.
s 64	Evidentiary provision	Stevenson v Menzel Plastic Traders Pty Ltd (1990) 57 SAIR 493 (SA Indus Ct): Re: the duty of an employer to give written notice of a notifiable work related injury after it became apparent under regulations 4 and 7 of the Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare (Notification of Work Related Injuries, Accidents and Dangerous Occurrences) Regulations, 1987. The presumption in s 64 could not apply where there was no evidence that the relevant injury had become apparent to the employer within the relevant time.

s 69	Regulations	Dynamic Cleaning Services v Director Department of Labour (1992) 59 SAIR 360 (SA Indus Ct): Held, the appeal provided by s 69(4)(a) is a hearing de novo.
Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare (Construction Safety) Regulations 1987 reg 16	Safe access to working platforms	Stevenson v Evans Deakin Industries Ltd: see s. 21.
Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare (Manual Handling) Regulations 1990
reg 6	Risk assessment	Stevenson v CSR Ltd (t/as CSR Wood Panels) (1992) 59 SAIR 775 (SA Indus Ct): Held: 1. Provided a person with sufficient authority in the employer's organisation carries out the process of identification and assessment required by reg 6 of the Manual Handling Regulations, the burden cast on the employer is discharged. 2. There is no prescription within reg 6 for any degree of formality with which the assessment has to comply. 3. An assessment which led to a wrong assessment is still an assessment.

s 19	Unauthorized entry on the lands	Gerhardy v Brown (1983) 34 SASR 452; 49 ALR 169 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Held, s 19(1) was inconsistent with s 9 of the Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Cth) rendering it inoperative and invalid. Gerhardy v Brown (1985) 57 ALR 472 (High Court FC) On appeal from SA Sup Ct: Held, s 19 was not invalid or restricted in its operation by the Racial Discrimination Act, 1975 (Cth) because it was a "special measure" within the meaning of s 8(1) of the Racial Discrimination Act and Art 1(4) of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination. Consideration of the validity of the State Act had it not been held that it was a special measure.

s 56	Priority of instruments	Mercantile Credits Ltd v ANZ Banking Group Ltd: see s 249.
s 69	Title of registered proprietor indefeasible except in cases of–	Zafiropoulos v Recchi (1978) 18 SASR 5 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Originating summons: Held, the mortgagee under a registered mortgage of land under the Real Property Act is a registered proprietor within the meaning of that Act. Palais Parking Station v Shea: see s 249. Wicklow Enterprises Pty Ltd v Doysal Pty Ltd (1987) 45 SASR 247 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Action: Discussion of what amounted to fraud and forgery within the meaning of s 69I or s 69II. Mercantile Credits Ltd v ANZ Banking Group Ltd: see s 249. Rogers v Resi-Statewide Corporation Ltd (1991) 101 ALR 377 (Fed Ct of Aust von Doussa J): Held, that the proviso of s 69II creates only "deferred indefeasibility" of title; that is to say, the proviso does not give immunity from adverse claims to a bona fide purchaser for value who claims title by the registration of a forged instrument; immunity is given only to a bona fide purchaser for value who subsequently claims through a person who obtained title by such registration.
	Title of registered proprietor indefeasible, except in certain cases	Arcadi v Whittem (1992) 59 SASR 515 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held (by maj): 1. Section 69 of the Act confers immediate indefeasibility. The scheme of s 69(I) & (II) is to defeat the interest of a fraudulent party or forger or any volunteer taking from them, but not to defeat a party acquiring an interest bona fide for value. 2. The proviso to s 69(II) is expressed in such a way as to protect a registered proprietor who acquires his title bona fide for value by means of a forged instrument or an insufficient power of attorney but, in the case of a registered proprietor who takes bona fide for value from a person under disability, there is no protection. In the latter case, indefeasibility is deferred to a registered proprietor who takes an interest bona fide for value from the person who claims title from the person under disability.
s 69I	Title of registered proprietor indefeasible except in cases of fraud	Bank of South Australia Ltd v Ferguson (1996) 66 SASR 77 @ 121 (SA Sup Ct FC): Contains a discussion of what constitutes "fraud" within s 69I.
s 69II	Title of registered proprietor indefeasible, except in cases of forgery or disability	Public Trustee v Paradiso (1995) 64 SASR 387 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that on a proper construction of s 69II immediate indefeasibility of title results from the registration of a forged instrument unless the person through whom the registered proprietor claimed title was under some legal disability.
s 70	In other cases title of registered proprietor shall prevail	Palais Parking Station v Shea: see s 249.
s 71	Saving of certain rights & powers, viz:	Palais Parking Station v Shea: see s 249.
s 77	Memorials on certificates	Mercantile Credits Ltd v ANZ Banking Group: see s 249.
s 84	Easement not binding on registered proprietor subsequently acquiring land bona fide for value unless entered on certificate of title	Golding v Tanner: see s 88.
s 85	Land to be held free of rights of way	Bond & Leitch v Delfab Investments Pty Ltd: see s 87.
s 87	Certificates heretofore issued conclusive evidence of right-of-way therein described	Bond and Leitch v Delfab Investments Pty Ltd (1980) 26 SASR 462 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Action: Held, the provisions of s 85 were applicable to a right of way not entered on a certificate of title prior to 18 Nov, 1881, but had no application to a right of way which was entered on the relevant certificate of title prior to that date and that the provisions of s 87 were applicable to such a right of way.

s 88	Entry as to easement to be made on original and duplicate certificates of title	Golding v Tanner (1991) 56 SASR 482 (SA Sup Ct FC): The terms of s 88 are wide enough to include easements arising by prescription however s 84 will preclude the presumption of a grant where the adverse use has occurred over a period where there have been successive registered proprietors.
s 97	Transferee of land subject to mortgage or encumbrance to indemnify transferor	Clem Smith Nominees Pty Ltd v Farrelly (1978) 20 SASR 227 (SA Sup Ct FC) Originating summons: The effect of s 97 considered and discussed.
s 131	Subsequent mortgages or encumbrances may redeem prior mortgages, etc.	Excel Finance Corporation Ltd v Commonwealth Bank of Australia (1988) 48 SASR 225 (SA Sup Ct Lunn A J) Application for summary judgment: Held, that s 45(1) of the Law of Property Act 1936 does not apply to preclude a second mortgagee obtaining from the first mortgagee in possession a transfer of the first mortgage pursuant to s 131 of the Real Property Act. s 132	Nature of mortgage and encumbrance and procedure in case of default	Emerald Securities Pty Ltd v Tee Zed Enterprises Pty Ltd (1981) 28 SASR 214 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Held, although the notice of sale had not complied with the requirements of the mortgage, ss 132-134 authorized the sale of the land by the mortgagees. The protection given to a purchaser upon a mortgagee's sale is not absolute. It is effectual against the mortgagor if default has not been made or that the appropriate notice given but not where some other reason exists to set aside the sale. The operation and effect of s 134 considered.
s 133	Power of sale	Emerald Securities Pty Ltd v Tee Zed Enterprises Pty Ltd: see s 132. Carretta Stud Nominees Pty Ltd v White (1982) 29 SASR 597 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J): A "mortgagee" within s 133 includes a person entitled to be registered as such and so long as the transfer of the mortgage in question is lodged for registration before the mortgagee lodges a transfer of the land the power of sale is validly exercised.
s 134	Mortgagee's receipt to discharge purchaser	Emerald Securities Pty Ltd v Tee Zed Enterprises Pty Ltd: see s 132.
s 135	Appropriation of proceeds	Mercantile Credits Ltd v ANZ Banking Group: see s 249.
s 153	Renewal or extension of mortgage, etc.	Tessari v Bais Pty Ltd (1992) 60 SASR 59 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the right to renew or extend a lease which was contained in a registered lease over land created an interest in land which ran with the land and, as such, was indefeasible. The actual registration pursuant to s 153 permitted the renewal or extension to be effected by registration but those provisions did not alter or affect the obligations of the lessee after the expiration of the original term. The obligation of a guarantor who covenanted to guarantee the obligations of the lessee also continued to run after the expiration of the original term. s 170	Transmission by bankruptcy or statutory assignment	Re Holland; Ex parte Official Trustee in Bankruptcy (1985) 5 FCR 165 (Fed Ct of Aust Fisher J): The bankruptcy of a joint tenant constitutes a disposition of her/his interest and severs the joint tenancy. The Bankruptcy Act does not affect this result even in the context of the Real Property Act ss 170, 171 and 180.
s 171	Transmission to be entered in Register Book	Re Holland: see s 170.
s 180	Person registered in place of deceased, bankrupt, or assigning proprietor, to be proprietor of land for purpose of dealing	Re Holland: see s 170.
s 191	Caveats	Van Reesma v Giameos (No 2) (1978) 17 SASR 390 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motions and Summons: Section 191 does not authorize an extension of time for removal of the caveat beyond that already ordered by a court. Whallin v Bailbart Investments Pty Ltd (1987) 47 SASR 198 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Application referred by master: Held, a caveator may apply for an interim extension of time for removal of the caveat, pending trial, by showing that he/she was justified in lodging the caveat. It is not necessary for the caveator to obtain an interlocutory injunction restraining the caveatee from dealing with the land before applying for such an extension of time.

s 192	Summons to give up possession	Southern Cross Petroleum Sales (SA) Pty Ltd v Jagt (1987) 45 SASR 241 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal: Crown leasehold land is "land under the Real Property Act 1886" within the meaning of s 192 of that Act. s 195	Orders on appearance to summons	Corporation of the Town of Moonta v Rodgers and Rodgers (1980) 26 SASR 143 (SA Sup Ct FC) Originating summons: A dispute regarding an application for an order of possession could only be satisfactorily resolved by proceedings in the ordinary jurisdiction of the court not by the summary procedure under s 195 of the Real Property Act.
s 223lh	List of requirements to be furnished by council or Commission	Rialto Estates Pty Ltd v Salisbury City Corporation (1988) 5 BCL 219 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, a council did not have power to extend beyond the nominated time the period within which the requirements of the council, furnished pursuant to the provisions of s 223lh had to be satisfied.
s 233lk	Other Offences	Edwards v District Council of Minlaton (1985) 15 APA 282: Discussion of complexities and desire for law reform arising from dual subdivisional control under the Planning Act 1982 and the Real Property Act 1886.
	Appeal to Planning Appeal Tribunal	Banister v S.A. Planning Commission (1987) 33 APA 133 (SA Planning App Trib): Power of the Planning Appeal Tribunal on appeal to impose conditions or vary revoke or substitute requirements considered.
s 249	Equities not abolished	Palais Parking Station v Shea (1980) 24 SASR 425 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Held, that although a purported acquisition of land by the Director General of Medical Services was unlawful and void the entry of the endorsement by the Registrar-General gave the Director General an indefeasible title to the land. Mercantile Credits Ltd v ANZ Banking Group Ltd (1988) 48 SASR 407 (SA Sup Ct FC) Special case stated to the Full Court: Held, the rule that a prior mortgagee with notice of a subsequent mortgage has priority only in respect of the amount owing at the date of receipt of such notice applies under the Real Property Act. Charmar Electrical Pty Ltd v Minda Inc (1990) 55 SASR 112 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. The contract to assign was effective in equity as an assignment of lease, perfected by notice to the lessee. 2. Section 249 did not operate to deprive the purchaser of its contractual rights against the unregistered lessee. 3. The fact that the purchaser could in law consider the unregistered lease as not binding does not preclude the lease from binding the lessee, because the purchaser in this case contracted to be bound by the lease. s 267	Before whom instruments may be executed	Arnold v State Bank of South Australia (1992) 38 FCR 484 (Fed Ct of Aus FC): Held, non-compliance with the witnessing requirements of s 267 of the Act does not render the registration of a mortgage void.
Real Property Act (Land Division) Regulations
reg 46	Construction of Roads, Bridges and Drains	City of Salisbury v Blaess Enterprises Builders Pty Ltd (1988) 65 LGRA 322 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Reg 46 does not empower the relevant authority to require an applicant for a certificate approving a subdivision of land to make a financial contribution towards works beyond the boundaries of the subdivision.

		Samuels v Gardner (1980) 23 SASR 119 Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Upon proof that the defendant used a motor vehicle recently taken from the owner without his consent the inference may properly be drawn that he/she was knowingly using it without the consent of the owner.

Richards v Schutt (1978) 18 SASR 421 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that provided a breath testing apparatus was calibrated in "grams in a hundred millimetres" it was not necessary that those words appear on the fact of the apparatus.

Samuels v Young (1978) 19 SASR 406 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: If there is a charge under s 47 or 47b and no separate charge for bad driving the defendant cannot subsequently be convicted on a charge relating to that bad driving.

Petersen v Samuels (1979) 20 SASR 474 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Because a breath test was not based on reasonable grounds and because the Senior Constable had wrongly informed the defendant that the test was compulsory, evidence of the result of the test should have been excluded.

Mehesz v Redman (1979) 21 SASR 569 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal: Consideration and discussion of the evidence required to render admissible auto-lab blood analysis, and the admissibility of computer generated evidence. See s 47.

Day v Conn (1979) 22 SASR 372 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The factors to be taken into account when determining disqualification from holding or obtaining a driver's licence to be ordered upon conviction for an offence against s 47b considered and discussed.

Samuels v McKenzie (1979) 23 SASR 595 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Case stated: For a penalty to be a subsequent offence the subsequent offence must be committed after conviction for the first offence otherwise it must be treated as a first offence.

Berry v Lowcock (1980) 27 SASR 108 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the admissibility in evidence of the result of a breath analysis test where the prosecution has proved the driving of a motor vehicle by the person subjected to the test but not that the driving took place within the two hours preceding the test.

Forbes v Langley (1981) 27 SASR 95 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observations as to the principles to be applied in determining the penalty for a second offence contrary to s 47b.

Bassell v McGuinness (1981) 29 SASR 508 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: A person sitting in the driver's seat of a towed vehicle is driving the vehicle within the meaning of ss 47b, 74 and 119 of the Act.

Gagliardi v Medwell (1983) 35 SASR 124 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: An offence against the Road Traffic Act cannot be regarded as "trifling" within the meaning of s 47b(3)(b) if it is within the usual cases that come before the court.

Hele v Semple (1986) 42 SASR 295 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where the driver of a vehicle in 1981 committed a second offence against s 47b of the Road Traffic Act the penalty to be applied upon conviction in 1986 was that in force at the time of conviction. It was Parliament's intention that it be retrospective.

Lamshed v Rigney: see s 175.

Murton v Bates (1988) 50 SASR 92 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that s 47b must be regarded as indicative of a legislative intent that in the ordinary case a period of licence disqualification would be imposed.

Cresswell v Bates (1989) 9 MVR 176 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, that the minimum period of licence disqualification for a breach of s 47b(1) of the Road Traffic Act cannot be ameliorated by the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act s 16 and may only be ameliorated in accordance with s 47b(3)(b).

Marr v Rowbottom (1989) 39 ACR 113 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Upon a conviction of driving with an excessive blood alcohol concentration contrary to s 47b, the court's inquiry is not limited to whether the case is rare and exceptional. The broader question is whether it is "expedient" to exercise the power conferred by s 4 of the Offenders Probation Act 1913.

Philp v Bonney (1989) 50 SASR 531 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): On the repeal of the Offenders Probation Act there was no discretionary power in a magistrate to refrain from imposing a mandatory licence disqualification by not recording a conviction or otherwise reducing or mitigating the minimum penalties prescribed by s 47b(3)(a).

Janz v Woolvern (1990) 49 A Crim R 284 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that although the powers contained in Pt V of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988 may be exercised to mitigate the penalties of fine and imprisonment provided for in ss 47 and 47b of the Road Traffic Act, the power not to record a conviction may not be used to avoid the penalty of mandatory licence disqualification.

Delurant v Macklin (1990) 49 A Crim R 288 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the presumption created by s 47b(2) is that the blood alcohol concentration is greater than the legal limit and not that it was the specific concentration by the test. The presumption relating to the specific concentration is contained in another section and is logically and legally reached after the presumption in relation to the legal limit operates.

Tann v Schild: see s 47f.

Campbell v Fuss (1991) 55 SASR 355 (SA Sup Ct, Olssen J): Held, making a minor adjustment to the parking position of a vehicle adjacent to the kerb constituted a "trifling" offence despite the offender having a relative high blood alcohol reading.

Campbell v Fuss: see s 47a.

s 47da Breath testing stations

Rejman v Dunsmore (1983) 32 SASR 151 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: It is not necessary for the Commissioner of Police in an authorization given pursuant to s 47da(1) to specify by name the members of the police force authorized to conduct breath tests and establish a breath testing station.

Dunsmore v Smith (1984) 35 SASR 437; 1 MVR 121 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the provisions of s 47da(3), as to members of the police force conducting breath tests being in uniform, are directory, not mandatory, and that non-compliance does not render the resultant evidence inadmissible.

Burgess v Hall: see s 47e.

		Plunkett v Liddy (1991) 15 MVR 389 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held: 1. The failure of the Commissioner of Police to attend to matters mentioned in s 47da(2) & (4) of the Act does not result in a breath testing station not being established. That failure does not invalidate the requirement to submit to an alcotest. 2. The breath testing station was set up by police officers in accordance with s 47da of the Act and the facilities and procedures employed complied with the purposes of the legislation.
s 47E	Police may require alcotest or breath analysis	Cotton v Ramm (1977) 16 SASR 107 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The "reasonable grounds" test enabling police officers to ask drivers to submit to blood alcohol tests discussed and considered. Hinton v Samuels (1979) 20 SASR 591 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Police evidence indicating that there was reasonable grounds on which to administer a breath test rejected, due to evidence of possible maltreatment of the defendant by police. Peterson v Samuels: see s 47b. Schiller v Fingleton (No. 2) (1979) 24 SASR 599 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observations upon the circumstances in which a member of the police force may properly form a belief that a person's ability to drive a motor vehicle may have been impaired within the meaning of s 47e. Lajos v Samuels (1980) 26 SASR 514 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that it is not necessary that the alcotest or breath test should be administered by the member of the police force who entertains the belief specified in the section. Daire v Rollins (1982) 30 SASR 156 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: What constitutes "good cause" in refusing a breath analysis test considered and discussed. Bottomley v Symons (1982) 31 SASR 18 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, the belief by a defendant that insulin in his blood which would affect the results of an alcotest is not "good cause" to refuse to submit to that test. Williams v Bache (1982) 31 SASR 25 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The member of the police force referred to in s 47e(1) need not necessarily be the member of the police force who administers the breath analysis test. Ladlow v Hayes (1983) 8 ACR 377 (SA Sup Ct Waters J): A police officer who requires a defendant to submit to a breath test must have a reasonable belief that the defendant's driving brings her/him within the criteria that justify a test within s 47e(1). Rejman v Dunsmore (1983) 32 SASR 151 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: S 47e(3) creates not two, but one offence of non-compliance with the directions of a member of the police force. Dunsmore v Smith: see s 47da. O'Leary v Daire (1984) 13 A Crim R 404 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal: Discussion as to whether there needs to be a prior offence before there can be a valid direction under s 47e(3). Scott v Fauser (1984) 36 SASR 15 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal: Walking away contrary to the direction from a police officer to wait for a breathalyser constitutes an offence under s 47e(3) and (4)(b). Cox v Crichton (1985) 37 SASR 577 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: It is not necessary for a person to have been at fault under s 47e to be "involved in an accident". Coldwell v Bormann (1985) 37 SASR 588 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The direction of a police officer to exhale into a breath analysis instrument immediately is a reasonable one. Bormann v Coldwell (1986) 43 SASR 297; 4 MVR 447 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J): Meaning of "good cause" considered and discussed. Ellis v Dunsmore (1987) 5 MVR 280 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J): "Accident" and what constitutes a reasonable belief discussed and considered.

		Burgess v Hall (1988) 48 SASR 394; 7 MVR 517 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, the appellant before he turned into a side street was "the driver of a motor vehicle that approaches a breath testing station". Accordingly, the officer in the side street was authorized to require the appellant to submit to an alcotest.
		Galic v Talbot (1991) 56 SASR 264 (SA Sup Ct, White J): Held, a refusal to comply with a lawful direction not to smoke and a refusal to exhale constituted offences under s 47e(3). The onus of proving the lawfulness of a direction rests on the prosecution and the onus of establishing "good cause" within s 47e(4)(b) rests on the defendant.
		Brain v Froude (1992) 63 A Crim R 9 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the failure of a police officer to comply in all respects with the provisions of s 47e(1) of the Act, and his request to the driver to submit to a breath analysis test, did not necessarily render the evidence of the result of that test inadmissible in a prosecution under s 47b of the Act. The court has a discretion whether to exclude that evidence.
		R v Chaousis (1995) 76 A Crim R 257 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held, it was not a "good cause" within s 47E(4)(b) to refuse to take a breath test on religious grounds where the person concerned had only a personal assessment unsupported by a more general religious doctrine, and which was not reasonably founded in terms of the religion concerned.
		SA Police v Saxon (1994) 20 MVR 350 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, when s 47E(1) authorises an alcotest and breath analysis where a member of the police force "believes" certain things, there must be a "belief" in the mind of a member of the police force in SA. A belief in the mind of anyone else will not suffice.
s 47f	Right of person to request blood test	French v Scarman (1979) 20 SASR 333 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Discretion of court of summary jurisdiction to exclude evidence which did not comply with s 47f discussed.
		Moore v Pope (1981) 29 SASR 122 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Although a medical practitioner fails to comply with the statutory direction that the sample must be placed in a sealed container the Court has discretion to admit in evidence the result of the breath analysis.
		Taylor v Daire: see s 47g.
		Coldwell v Siggins (1984) 37 SASR 202 (SA Sup Ct Prior J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where a driver requested a blood sample but none was taken despite the best efforts of the police officers that did not constitute an unfair or unlawful act upon which the court could refuse the results of a breath analysis test.
		Ujvary v Medwell (1985) 39 SASR 418; 3 MVR 203 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Olsson J): Generally, police conduct which deters a suspect from requesting a blood sample, will render it unfair to admit evidence of the result of a breath test conducted by police.
		Pacillo v Hentschke (1988) 47 SASR 261; 7 MVR 244 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): Duties of police officers imposed by s 47f(2) considered and discussed.
		Tann v Schild (1990) 54 SASR 523 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Observations on obligation of police under s 47f(2).
		Burgess v Owen (1992) 15 MVR 487 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Consideration of "all things reasonably necessary to facilitate the taking of a sample". Section 47f(2) does not stipulate a time limit for the taking of a blood sample by an available doctor. s 47g	Evidence etc	Richards v Schutt (1978) 18 SASR 421 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observations as to the effect of the requirement in s 47g that "as soon as practicable" after a person has submitted to an analysis of his breath the person operating the instrument shall deliver the test results to her/him.
		Fingleton v Richardson (1980) 23 SASR 297 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, evidence of a scientist is inadmissible in rebuttal of the presumption created by s 47g(1a) of the Act.

Richardson v Fingleton (1980) 24 SASR 511 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeals from order of Cox J: The meaning of the word "indicated" in s 47g(1), and the inadmissibility of scientific evidence to rebut breath analysis tests considered and discussed.

Taylor v Daire (1982) 30 SASR 453 Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the duties of police officers pursuant to s 47(f) and (g). Also the interpretation of "at his expense" in s 47(f).

Weerts v Daire (1982) 32 SASR 270 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Discussion of the "requirements and procedures" which, under s 47g(1), have to be complied with for the presumption to operate.

Golding v Liddy (1983) 33 SASR 116 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the procedure to be adopted when the defendant wishes to submit their own blood sample as evidence. The only evidence which may be adduced by the defendant in rebuttal of the presumption created by s 47g(1) is evidence of the concentration of alcohol in his/her blood as indicated by analysis of the sample.

Gray v Liddy (1984) 34 SASR 569 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: There is a presumption of regularity in favour of accepting a certificate, authorizing the conducting of breath tests, signed by "A/Commissioner" (it being presumed to mean Acting Commissioner), where the statute empowered the Commissioner to issue such certificates.

Porter v Ettridge (1984) 36 SASR 175 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: Section 47g(3c) enables both the Commissioner and Acting Commissioner of Police to give a certificate authorizing members of the police force to undertake breath testing.

Camerotto v McDonald (1985) 38 SASR 588; 2 MVR 464 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Evidence of the consumption of alcohol after the time of driving but before a breath analysis test is not admissible in rebuttal of the presumption created by s 47g(1) of the Act.

Evans v Benson (1986) 4 MVR 257 (SA Sup Ct FC): The presumption created by s 47g(1) was not that the concentration of alcohol in the blood was 0.08 per cent or more but that the concentration was that indicated by the breath analysing instrument.

Foster v Bates (1986) 40 SASR 353 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A defendant was precluded from offering evidence that a breath analysis operator used a finger to adjust the machine to rebut the presumption in s 47g.

Shearer v Hills (1989) 51 SASR 243 (SA Sup Ct FC): A warning in terms that the court "may accept the breath analysis....as being....correct" was sufficient to comply with s 47g(2a). The warning prior to the relevant breath analysis substantially complied, thus the result was admissible. The breathalyser reading is not admissible unless the required warning is given. Section 47g(1) does not render the result admissible as evidence of the concentration of alcohol in the blood irrespective of compliance with the requirements and procedures.

Hammond v Medwell (1990) 11 MVR 130 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, that a medical practitioner who takes blood pursuant to s 47g is under no duty to warn a person from whom he takes it of the purpose for which the blood is being taken or the use to which the sample can be put. Section 47i(9) does not impose such a duty, nor can such a duty be spelt out of s 47i(9).

Eubel v Martin (1992) 57 SASR 290 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held, the obligation to "inform" means to thoroughly and correctly inform.

		Heinze v Burnley (1992) 57 SASR 452 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. The police were entitled to direct a driver of a motor vehicle who had consumed alcohol before and after the accident to submit to a breath analysis and, having done so, to avail themselves of the irrebuttable presumption arising from the production of the s 47g certificate. 2. It was not incumbent upon the police to advise the plaintiff of his potential defence of "good cause" for refusing to undergo the breath analysis.
		Magain v Roberts (1991) 14 MVR 313 (SA Sup Ct Duggan J): Held, a copy of the certificate given to the appellant under s 47g(2) should be tendered as secondary evidence and not primary evidence.
s 47h	Approval of apparatus for the purposes of breath analysis & alcotests	Taylor v Daire (1982) 30 SASR 453 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Powers of Governor in relation to the approval of apparatus of a specified kind as breath analysing instruments considered and discussed.
		Delurant v Macklin (1990) 49 ACR 288 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the notice complied with the requirements of s 47h as that section must envisage an inchoate act of approval in Executive Council which is rendered operative when notified in the Gazette and the fact the notice was "by command" must have been the command of the Governor to the Premier.
s 47i	Compulsory blood tests	McKechnie v Jones (1976) 13 SASR 184 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Meaning of the expression "retained on behalf of" in s 47i, considered.
		R v Little (1976) 14 SASR 556 (SA Sup Ct FC): Since s 47i was not complied with because a container of the blood had not been delivered to the accused, evidence of the analysis of the blood sample could not be admitted.
		Mazinski v Bakka (1978) 20 SASR 350 (SA Sup Ct FC): Discretion of a judge in allowing or refusing admission of evidence which does not comply with all the requirements of s 47i considered and discussed.
		Mehesz v Redman (1979) 21 SASR 569 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Mehesz v Redman (No. 2) (1980) 26 SASR 244 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the evidentiary provision in s 47i(13) in relation to a certificate of the result of a computer generated blood analysis test.
		Angelin v Security and General Insurance Co Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 254 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) Appeal from Local Court: The admissibility in evidence and probative value of a certificate issued pursuant to s 47i(13) considered and discussed.

		Brown v Lehmann (1985) 40 SASR 52 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: It is not necessary that the request to submit to the taking of a blood sample be formal; it is sufficient that such request is made clear to the patient.
		Ouwerkerk v Whalan (1986) 41 SASR 287; 23 ACR 168 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the expressions "injury" and "for the purpose of receiving treatment" discussed and considered.
		Dunsmore v Krasser (1987) 5 MVR 253 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J): A notice regarding a blood alcohol reading for an accident which occurred on 14 June was inadmissible as evidence since it was completed on 19 or 20 June.
		Nixon v Hewes (1992) 164 LSJS 116; 16 MVR 45 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, non-compliance with any of the s 47i requirements renders the evidence of the blood sample results inadmissible.
s 47j	Recurrent offenders	Bassell v Greenhill (1980) 24 SASR 493 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: The meaning of the word "alcoholism" considered and discussed.

		Lynch v Hall (1988) 48 SASR 149 (SA Sup Ct Prior J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: There is an evidential onus on the defendant to cast doubt upon the correctness of a report before the complainant need call evidence in support of the conclusions of a report of an assessment under s 47j.
s 49	Special speed limits	Hearn v McCann (1982) 29 SASR 448 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The offence of exceeding the speed limit is an offence of absolute liability to which honest and reasonable belief is not a defence.
s 53a	Traffic speed analysers	Ellul v Fauser (1981) 28 SASR 300 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A notice by the Governor, published in the Government Gazette, sufficiently specified the approved traffic speed analysers. Effect of a certificate of accuracy of a traffic speed analyser, pursuant to s 175(3)(ba), discussed.
s 54	Duty to keep to the left	Rowbottom v Nicolitsi (1986) 41 SASR 576; 4 MVR 35 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The provision of s 54(2) that s 54(1) should not apply when the driver of the vehicle was making or about to make a right hand turn was an exception to the Justices Act and the onus of proof was on the defendant to prove on the balance of probabilities.
s 58	Passing vehicles	Inat v Martin (1985) 38 SASR 11; 2 MVR 187 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Action: The expression "signal of intention to turn his vehicle to the right" in s 58(4) of the Act means a signal of intention as prescribed in the regulations made under the Act.
s 63	Giving way at intersections and junctions	Luckett v Baskerville (1976) 13 SASR 362 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, that the offence of failing to give way to the right at an intersection was not one which called for disqualification. Schmalkuche v Williams (1987) 47 SASR 355; 6 MVR 274 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal and Cross Appeal: Section 63(1b) creates a broad and universal obligation on the turning driver to give way to an oncoming vehicle.

s 75	Duties at traffic lights	Lamshed v Rigney: see s 175.
s 79B	Provisions applying where certain offences are detected by photographic detection devices	All v South Australian Police (1994) 62 SASR 591 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Under s 79B(2)(c)(ii) the statutory defence afforded to a registered owner of a motor vehicle involved in the commission of an offence detected by a photographic detection device requires the exercise of "reasonable diligence" to ascertain the identity of the driver. The section clearly contemplates that the owner will embark on all the inquiries which, in the circumstances, appear reasonably likely to throw light on the question of who was the driver at the relevant time. s 83a	Restriction on sale of goods on roads	Skaventzos v Gage (No. 2) (1979) 21 SASR 432 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that parking a truck partly on private property and partly on the verge between the property and the edge of the bitumen strip was exposing flowers for sale on the carriageway of a road.

McGeary v Mancini (1979) 22 SASR 330 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Circumstances in which a reduction in fine should be ordered considered and discussed.

		Kett v Mancini (1979) 22 SASR 334 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, in each case there were mitigating circumstances and that the fines should be reduced.
s 147	Mass of towed vehicle must not exceed mass of towing vehicle	Mancini v Philp (1981) 28 SASR 29 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the prescribed methods of ascertaining the mass of motor vehicles by the use of Hi-way loado-meters and of the evidentiary value of certificates of result in making out a prima facie case against the section.
		Mancini v Vallelonga (1981) 28 SASR 236 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that deliberately trying to overload a vehicle was not a trifling offence.
		Kosovich v Mancini (1982) 31 SASR 272 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): The "foremost axle" within s 147(3) of the Act is the front axle of the vehicle.
		Burnett v L F Jeffries Nominees Pty Ltd (1983) 33 SASR 124 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Upon a charge of an offence against s 147 (5)(a) the defendant may raise the defence of honest and reasonable mistake of fact.
		Dann v Tarabini (1987) 48 SASR 485 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: In determining the mass of a vehicle, it was not necessary for it to be on a horizontal plane prior to weighing.
s 149	Measurement of distance between axles	Davies v White (1991) 53 ACR 92 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, that s 149(1) does not provide that the measurement of the distance between axles requires measurements to be taken from both sides of the vehicle or combination of vehicles. Schedule I requires the measurement to be from the foremost to the rearmost.
s 152	Directions to driver etc	Dann v Ballantyne (1989) 51 SASR 75; 9 MVR 87 (SA Sup Ct Prior J): Held, that a direction given by an inspector to a truck driver to position his vehicle in the centre of the road for weighing was a valid direction within s 152 and the place was within that section a particular place convenient for using an instrument.
		Dann v Ballantyne (1989) 10 MVR 280 (SA Sup Ct FC): A direction under s 152(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1961 must be bona fides. Discussion of what is a convenient place for determining mass of a vehicle.

s 162ab	Wearing of seat belts is compulsory	Richardson v Schultz (1980) 25 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct Williams J): If it were not for the provisions of s 162ab(5) the plaintiff would have been held guilty of contributory negligence for her failure to wear a seat belt. However, due to the operation of that section the defendant was wholly liable to the plaintiff for their negligent driving.
		Carroll v Lewitzke (1991) 56 SASR 18 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a vehicle whilst stationary and awaiting a break in traffic is not "in motion" for the purposes of the section. s 168	Power of court to disqualify	McDonald v Mather (1976) 13 SASR 438 (SA Sup Ct Walters J): Held, that an accused who held up the bonnet to attempt to hide dishonest conduct had used his motor vehicle to promote the commission of an offence, thus empowering the court to disqualify him from holding or obtaining a driver's licence.
		Keynes v Kowald (1976) 13 SASR 354 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ): The defendant, who was a passenger in a car that stopped near some young girls, and who represented to them that he was a police officer, was not using a motor vehicle in the commission of an offence, hence a disqualification order was not authorised under s 168.
		Bailey v Nielson (1976) 13 SASR 388 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Held, the commission of an offence involving the stealing of petrol was facilitated by the use of a motor vehicle within the meaning of s 168 and thus the court was empowered to make an order for disqualification.
		Draper v Linnane (1977) 17 SASR 51: Failing to truly answer questions asked by a police officer for the purpose of identifying the rider of a motor cycle constitutes an offence "relating to motor vehicles".

		Feeney v Devine (1980) 23 SASR 274 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, the stealing of hub caps from one vehicle and driving away in another vehicle was an offence facilitated by the use of a motor vehicle within the meaning of s 168(1)(b). Porter v Prestwood (1983) 33 SASR 75 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction. An order for disqualification made under s 168(1) forms part of the penalty imposed for the offence. Learwood v Drinkwater (1986) 43 SASR 547 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: In considering disqualification under s 168 great care should be taken to avoid double counting and clear distinctions needed to be drawn as to the significance of the use of the vehicle in question. Where the offender was a passenger there was little justification for disqualification.
s 169a	Power to postpone commencement of disqualification	Duelberg v Sciberras (1979) 23 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where a court of summary jurisdiction has convicted a defendant of two or more offences against the Road Traffic Act the court has power to order cumulative periods of disqualification from holding a driver's licence. Boehm v Milham (1980) 24 SASR 98 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, where a defendant has been convicted of more than one offence the Court has power to make a period of disqualification commence at the expiration of another disqualification period.
s 175	Evidence	Barton v Fuss (1979) 25 SASR 61 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a certificate of accuracy was not admissible in evidence as the certificate did not show that the speed analyser had been tested by comparison with an accurate speedometer. Jamieson v Conn (1979) 25 SASR 65 (SA Sup Ct Williams A J): Held, a certificate of accuracy was not admissible in evidence as the certificate did not show that the speed analyser had been tested by comparison with an accurate speedometer. Dunsmore v Elliott (1981) 26 SASR 496 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration and discussion of the admissibility in evidence of readings of speeds of motor vehicles recorded on a radar unit and of the proof required in relation to the accuracy of the radar unit to render such readings admissible in evidence. Mancini v Moore (1981) 31 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Evidentiary value of certificates of accuracy and of result of weighing the vehicle considered and discussed. Ellul v Fauser: see s 53a. Mancini v McCallum (1983) 33 SASR 582 (SA Sup Ct White J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Circumstances under which prosecution can rely upon the statutory presumption in s 175(1)(f) considered and discussed. Pereth v Linnane (1983) 33 SASR 442 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Degree of accuracy required for police speedometer to be used in establishing the offence of driving over the speed limit considered and discussed. Kosovich v Mancini (1983) 34 SASR 321 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Millhouse J): A traffic inspector, who used a private weighbridge, was not "the person in charge" within the meaning of s 175(3), thus the certificate as to the mass of the vehicle was inadmissible. Baddams v Thomas (1983) 34 SASR 420 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where it is necessary to establish that a defendant was driving to prove an offence under the Road Traffic Act and the prosecution fails to establish this fact it is precluded from relying for proof on the provisions of s 175(1)(f) of the Act. O'Leary v Daire (1984) 13 ACR 404 (SA Sup Ct White J): Certificates of accuracy of a radar unit will constitute proof of the accuracy of a recorded speed in the absence of evidence to the contrary. Sworn evidence that the speed was less will not set aside the presumption.

Lamshed v Rigney (1987) 48 SASR 320 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J): The statutory presumption arising from the provisions of s 175(1)(f) would apply to an averment that a defendant was the driver of a vehicle in respect of offences under ss 75 and 47a but not s 38–the averments, due to s 175(1)(f) proved that fact in the absence of proof to the contrary.

Dann v Stirzaker (1988) 48 SASR 418 (SA Sup Ct Perry J) Appeal from a court of summary jurisdiction: In determining the gross combination mass for the purposes of this Act it is mandatory that the provisions of the regulations as to weighing be strictly complied with and overloading of a vehicle is not capable of proof by any other means.

Dann v Stirzaker (1988) 50 SASR 190; 8 MVR 193 (SA Sup Ct Fc): Held, that the expression person in charge in s 175(3) was not restricted to the person who actually tested the weighbridge or was present at the weighing; it was enough that the person who made the statement had the general supervision of the weighbridge and was responsible for complying with the Act.

Cazzol v Fuss (1988) 6 MVR 350 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J): A defendant is not required to prove that the radar unit was malfunctioning, but was required to prove, on the balance of probabilities, that he/she was not driving in excess of the speed limit.

Road Traffic Regulations 1974

reg 3.01	Failure to driver turning right to give way	Schmalkuche v Williams (1987) 47 SASR 355; 6 MVR 274 (SA Sup Ct FC): The effect of the interaction of ss 62 and 63 is that a driver turning right at a controlled intersection might have to give way even when an oncoming vehicle was not lawfully within the meaning of reg 3.01(2)(a).
reg 3.06	Duties of drivers of long vehicles	Pischettola v Nominal Defendant (1984) 37 SASR 74; 1 MVR 449 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgment of Zelling J: Reg 3.06 of the Road Traffic Regulations prescribing a distance of 60 metres between long vehicles was of general application and a breach of that regulation amounted to negligence.
reg 10.05	Method of weighing vehicles	Dann v Tarabini (1987) 6 MVR 106 (SA Sup Ct FC): Reg 10.05(3)(c) does not require that vehicles are weighed on a horizontal plane, since it allows weighing on cambered roads.

s 9	Acts or proceedings of commission not liable to be reviewed or restrained	Georgetown D.C. v Minister of Local Government (1988) 48 SASR 440 (SA Sup Ct FC) Action: Obiter, the Act prevented the plaintiff, a council recommended for amalgamation, from challenging the recommendation of the Commission. Discussion of the characterisation and validity of resolutions amending or revoking a resolution and the effect thereon of reg 43 of the Local Government (Proceedings of Councils) Regulations 1934 (SA). Aboriginal Legal Rights Movement Inc. v S.A. [No. 3] (1995) 64 SASR 566 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, s 9 of the Act ousted the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court to review rulings made by a Royal Commissioner as to the operation of s 35 of the Aboriginal Heritage Act 1988 (Cth). While the rulings appeared to have been made within jurisdiction, even if they had been made in excess of jurisdiction, the ouster provision in s 9 was sufficiently widely drafted to protect the rulings from being challenged.

s 20	Penalty for not duly stamping	Iannotti v Corsaro (1984) 36 SASR 127; 15 ATR 592; 84 ATC 4269 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from District Court: Failure to stamp an agreement may lead to penalties under ss 19 to 22 but does not necessarily render an unstamped document illegal and void.
s 23	Assessment of duty	Commissioner of Stamps v Telegraph Investment Co Pty Ltd: see s 24.
s 24	Objections to, and appeal against, assessments	Corfu Clothing Co. The provision of a stated case by the Commissioner is an essential prerequisite for the conduct of an appeal pursuant to s 24. Telegraph Investment Co Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Stamps (SA) (1994) 94 ATC 4,467 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, in the case of stamp duty appeals, if the court was bound to accept statements of fact contained in the case stated (by the Commissioner), a most unsatisfactory result would follow. The court was not so limited. It should allow an appropriate procedure suited to the circumstances of the case for the determination of any factual disputes, and for the presentation of evidence by either party on any factual matter relevant to a reconsideration of the assessment Commissioner of Stamps v Telegraph Investment Co Pty Ltd (1995) 70 ALJR 155 (HC): On appeal to the High Court against the grant of leave. Held, where the Commissioner expresses an opinion for the purposes of s 23 without being required to do so, the procedure on appeal is not limited to that by way of case stated under s 24(4); and the right to appeal, given independently in s 24, is not confined to the case stated procedure.

Brion v Commissioner of Stamps (SA) (1990) 21 ATR 808 (SA Sup Ct Duggan J). Held a binding contract specified in s 31(1) comes into existence immediately upon execution of the agreement. CASE ANNOTATIONS:

		Jellyn Pty Ltd v State Bank of South Australia (1995) 129 ALR 521 (Q Sup Ct CA): The legislative intention with respect to the State Bank's entitlement to the immunity of the Crown is to be derived from the whole of the statute. Indications of the legislative intention were to be found in the executive government's control of the Bank by its capacity to appoint and remove directions, the obligation of consultation with the Treasurer and the close connection between the executive government and the bank in respect of its finances. Overall, its appeared that the Bank was the Crown in right of the State of South Australia.
s 29	Immunity of Directors and officers	S.A. v Marcus Clark (1996) 19 ACSR 606 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, there will be cases where the failure to discharge the duty of care required of the director in question is of such a nature that it could not be said that the director is acting in "good faith" for the purposes of s 29.

s 4	Interpretation	Semple v Carson (1984) 35 SASR 589 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that demonstrators who had entered upon leased land leading to the site of a mine had not loitered in a "public place" within the meaning of s 4.
s 6	Assaulting and hindering police	Hallion v Samuels (1978) 17 SASR 558 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: When a defendant is charged with resisting and assaulting a police officer, and the acts alleged to constitute both offences are the one act, a conviction on one charge is a bar to conviction on the other. Morse v Ashton (1978) 18 SASR 221 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Upon a charge of hindering a police officer, after a request to cease loitering, it is not necessary for the prosecution to prove that the defendant knew or believed that the person hindered was a police officer. Cavanagh v Galkowski (1979) 20 SASR 322 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Failing to answer questions put by a police officer is not hindering a police officer in the execution of his/her duty.

		Jones v Daire (1983) 32 SASR 369 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Meaning of "hindering" within s 6 considered and discussed.
		Panos v Hayes (1987) 44 SASR 148 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Police are entitled to investigate into the nature of private domestic or civil disputes on private premises. Where they reasonably apprehend a breach of the peace they are entitled to exercise their powers to restrain or prevent injury to persons or damage to property.
s 7	Disorderly and offensive conduct and language	Hughes v Fingleton (1977) 17 SASR 433 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that the partial enclosure of portion of a plaza did not prevent that portion of the plaza from being a "public place", within the meaning of s 7.
		Campbell v Samuels (1980) 23 SASR 389 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that taking hold of a woman's arms and moving her body without excessive force, because she was blocking access to the street, and pushing against a police officer, constituted disorderly conduct within the meaning of s 7 of the Act.
		Khan v Bazeley (1986) 40 SASR 481 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The wearing of a T-shirt inscribed with an offensive slogan held to be offensive behaviour within the meaning of s 7.
		Stone v Ford (1993) 59 SASR 444 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): Held: 1. The word "offensive" in s 7 of the Act is used objectively and includes any behaviour capable of annoying or giving offence. 2. The prosecution must prove beyond reasonable doubt that the defendant intended to act in an offensive manner. s 11	Refusal to pay for liquor, meals, etc.	Goldsmith v S (1985) 37 SASR 472 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from Children's Court: It is no defence to a charge under s 11, that the person who refused to pay for liquor supplied was an infant. s 12	Begging alms	Begg v Daire (1986) 40 SASR 375 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: What distinguished begging from non-begging was a whole complex of factors. For example, the existence of an offer to repay must be viewed in the general context.
s 13	Consorting	Jan v Fingleton (1983) 32 SASR 379 (SA Sup Ct FC): Upon a charge of habitually consorting with reputed thieves, it is not necessary for the prosecution to prove that on each occasion of consorting the defendant should have consorted with more than one person.
s 15	Offensive weapons, drugs and articles of disguise	Holmes v Hatton (1978) 18 SASR 412 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal: Whether or not a person was carrying an offensive weapon "without lawful excuse" is to be assessed on a combination of all the reasons for it being carried. An unlawful reason may be so insignificant as to leave the person with a lawful excuse, if indeed they initially had one.
		Waters v Hayes (1981) 26 SASR 455 (Sup Ct Mr Commissioner McCarthy) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, the provisions of this section are not restricted in their application to the carrying of an offensive weapon in a public place, but are equally applicable to the carrying of such a weapon on private premises.
		Sandaeu v Forster (1983) 35 SASR 38 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeals from court of summary jurisdiction: An imitation pistol found to be an offensive weapon, since it could easily be mistaken for a pistol, and the accused pointed it with reckless indifference to the fear it caused.
		Coleman v Zanker (1991) 58 SASR 7 (SA Sup Ct Olssen J): Held, a knife found in the appellant's motor vehicle does not constitute "carrying" for the purposes of s 15. "Carrying" implies the weapon be immediately ready for use.
		Freundt v Hayes (1992) 59 A Crim R 430 (SA Sup Ct Olssen J): Held, "lawful excuse" does not equate to lawful purpose or lawful authority. It connotes having a reasonable and innocent explanation of a lawful nature.

s 17	Being on premises for an unlawful purpose	Varney v Kowald (1976) 14 SASR 12 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A person who is on premises for the purpose of behaving as a "Peeping Tom" is on the premises without lawful excuse within the meaning of s 17.
s 17a	Trespassers on premises	Semple v Mant (1985) 39 SASR 282 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeals: Demonstrators failed to leave premises when asked by an authorized person, but distributed leaflets instead. Held, that the nature of the trespass was such as to interfere with the enjoyment of the premises by the occupier, within the meaning of s 17a.
s 18	Lying or loitering in a public place	Power v Huffa (1976) 14 SASR 337 (SA Sup Ct FC): The question whether or not a person may be under a duty or obligation to remain in a public place of such gravity as to amount to a legal justification for remaining in a public place causing a person to loiter, considered and discussed. Morse v Ashton (1978) 18 SASR 221 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Upon a charge of failing to cease loitering in a public place, it is not a defence that the defendant had a lawful reason for remaining in the public place after the request had been made. Del Col v Urie (1978) 19 SASR 399 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgment of Bright J: Meaning of the word loitering, considered and discussed. Rice v Daire (1982) 30 SASR 560 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Moving slowly along a mall chanting, dancing and playing musical instruments is not "loitering" within the meaning of s 18. Millbanks v Ford (1984) 35 SASR 389 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): The meaning of the term "loitering", in s 18, considered. Semple v Carson (1984) 35 SASR 589 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Demonstrators who had entered upon leased land leading to a mine site had not loitered in a "public place" within the meaning of s 18(2). Taylor v Beames (1985) 37 SASR 592 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Observation as to the new penalty to be imposed for the offence of failing to cease loitering after being requested by a member of the police force to cease loitering. Semple v Howes (1985) 38 SASR 34 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where a defendant is charged with loitering in a public place on what was in fact private land, the prosecution could only succeed if the land was found, in evidence led, to be a public place.
	Loitering in a public place	Walker v Hayes (1986) 44 SASR 250 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Consideration of whether a charge of loitering in a public place is made out when the person charged had a lawful duty or obligation, as opposed to merely a lawful purpose, for being there.
s 18a	Loitering on opal claims	Caric v Rowett (1980) 26 SASR 328 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the words "loitered" and "defined", considered.
s 24	Urinating in a public place	Morris v Beck (1990) 54 SASR 540 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, the offence of urinating in a public place under s 24, where it is a deliberate offence, is not a trifling offence for the purpose of s 16 of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988 (SA).
s 25	Soliciting	Fingleton v Bryson (1980) 26 SASR 208 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the word "solicit" in s 25, considered.
s 27	Interpretation	Adams v Daire: see s 28. Daire v Ellis (1984) 37 SASR 56; 15 A Crim R 192 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: In respect of a charge of receiving money paid in a brothel in respect of prostitution, it must be established that the premises in which the money is received are a brothel as defined in s 27. Page v L (1986) 41 SASR 139 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Evidence demonstrated that an occupier/lessee of a motel prima facie used the premises as a brothel.

s 28	Keeping and managing brothels	Samuels v Warland (1977) 16 SASR 41 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The question of the elements necessary to establish a receipt of money within the meaning of the Police Offences Act, considered and discussed. Atkinson v Samuels (1977) 17 SASR 129 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A woman who waited for customers, supplied the services required and collected fees from customers, though she was not the lessee of the premises, was charged with keeping a brothel contrary to s 28. Oldfield v Samuels (1978) 18 SASR 156 (SA Sup Ct FC) Special Case: On the question of whether a person working in a brothel had actually "received" money and whether or not it had actually been "paid" in respect of prostitution, when it was handed to the worker by a police officer acting as agent provocateur, considered. Held, that the money had been so received if and only if, the worker had the intention of exercising exclusive control over it. Consideration and discussion of wording of s 28. Samuels v von Stroheim (1978) 19 SASR 297 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Receiving money from a police officer acting as an agent provocateur constituted receiving money paid in a brothel in respect of prostitution. Samuels v Flannery (1980) 24 SASR 384 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: A person who receives money paid in a brothel in respect of prostitution is guilty of an offence against s 28 notwithstanding that the money was received in respect of his or her own prostitution. Adams v Daire (1983) 33 SASR 315 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Meaning of term "brothel" in ss 27 and 28 considered and discussed. Scott v Killian (1985) 40 SASR 37; 19 A Crim R 187 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Bollen J: Evidence from a customer of a brothel regarding prostitution requires corroboration. McDonald v Samoilenko (1989) 51 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that a prostitute who receives money paid by a customer in a brothel in respect of prostitution is guilty of an offence, the offence is not restricted to a third party who subsequently receives money so paid. Neilson v South Australian Police (1994) 62 SASR 583 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held: 1. The offering of a woman of herself for a fee as a participant in physical acts of indecency for the sexual gratification of a man constitutes "prostitution" for the purposes of s 28(1)(b). 2. The activity must be judged objectively. 3. A massage conducted by a masseuse with her body coming into contact with a male customer while both are naked for a fee constituted an act of prostitution.
s 33	Possession of indecent matter for sale	Devine v Solomijczuk (1983) 32 SASR 538 (SA Sup Ct FC): Where the prosecution proved that a publication was of a sadistic nature it was not necessary for the prosecution to prove in addition that the material was sexually offensive to the ordinary citizen.
	Interpretation	Phillips v Police (1994) 75 A Crim R 480 (SA Sup Ct FC): P appealed against a conviction of being in possession of child pornography contrary to s 33 on the basis that he videotaped (without their knowledge or consent) men and boys urinating in public lavatories and changing in public areas. Held, the Act precludes consideration of the circumstances in which the material exists or was brought into existence. These films, viewed as a whole, may have been indecent but were not child pornography within the meaning of the Act.
s 38	Fraud other than false pretences	Fingleton v Zollo (1979) 22 SASR 241 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The necessity for proof of a contemporaneous fraudulent intention upon a charge of obtaining a benefit or advantage by fraud, considered and discussed.

s 40	Fortune telling, palmistry, etc.	Hartridge v Samuels (1976) 14 SASR 209 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, that upon a charge of having for personal gain pretended to tell fortunes, a genuine belief on the part of the defendant of her/his ability to tell fortunes is not a defence to the charge. s 41	Unlawful possession of personal property	Klemenko v Huffa (1978) 17 SASR 549 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ): It is essential to a conviction for an offence that the Court should be satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that at the relevant time the defendant was in possession of the goods. Lloyd v Hayes (1986) 40 SASR 401 (SA Sup Ct Prior J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Where a person had possession of money paid in respect of prostitution she/he had not obtained possession of the money "honestly" within s 41(2) and was rightly convicted of an offence under s 41. Tepper v Kelly (1988) 47 SASR 271 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal to the Full Court: The court should require that a police officer had an actual suspicion and that the suspicion must be reasonable. A suspicion is either reasonable or unreasonable and cannot be graded by reference to standards of proof.
s 43	Wilful damage to property	Taylor v Pope (1979) 21 SASR 468 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: The meaning of the expression "wilfully destroys or damages any property", in s 43, considered.
s 51	Use of firearms	Rowe v Manevski (1994) 62 SASR 468 (SA Sup Ct FC): The onus of establishing the existence of "reasonable cause" within s 51(1) rests on the offender to establish that when he discharged the firearm he did so with reasonable cause. An offender may prove reasonable cause even where he is guilty of failure to exercise reasonable care, as the level of misconduct required is criminal culpability.
s 61	Bribery	R v Debelis (1984) 36 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal Appeal: Although it is a rule of practice that where two or more defendants are charged with jointly committing a substantive offence, they are not charged with conspiracy to commit the same, the rule rests upon the identity of the offence. In the case of perversion of justice, which is not an element of the offence created by s 61, it was not an abuse of process for the accused to be charged with conspiracy to pervert the course of justice under s 270(2) of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act.
s 67	General search warrants	R v Romeo (1982) 30 SASR 243 (SA Sup Ct FC): Meaning of the term "misdemeanour" as used in s 67 considered and discussed. R v Trotter: see s 79. R v Carbone (1995) 82 A Crim R 1 (SA Sup Ct Legoe AJ): Held, s 67 is a valid law of SA Parliament which does not infringe any implied prohibitions arising from the system of representative government for which the Cth Constitution makes provision.
s 68	Power to search suspected vehicles, vessels, and persons	Gibson v Ellis (1992) 59 SASR 420 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. The search power in s 68 of the Act is not limited to stolen goods and will apply to search and seizure of material suspected to be related to a drug offence. 2. Section 68 of the Act must be read as being (where appropriate) subject to the provisions of s 52 of the Controlled Substances Act 1984. 3. s 27	Service of summons	Plenty v Dillon (1991) 65 ALJR 231 (HC): Held, a police officer has no right under the law of South Australia, whether common law or statutory, to enter a private property in order to serve the summons without the consent of the person in or entitled to possession of the land, and without any implied leave or licence. Section 27 was merely facultative, giving the process server an option as to the manner of service. It conferred no relevant power, and no power to do a thing prohibited at common law.
s 28	Proof of affidavit of service of process, handwriting etc.	South Australian Co-operative Bulk Handling v Donhardt (1979) 46 SAIR (Pt 2) 563 (SA Ind Ct Layton J) Appeal from Industrial Magistrate: Held, the combined reading of ss 62 and 28 require that there must be evidence given or tendered before the court of service of the summons and such evidence had to be before the court before it had power to proceed ex parte. The court held the view that ss 64, 62 and 28 were appropriate to be followed. It was also considered that the application of s 62(ba) was limited to members of the Police Force or public officers.
s 40	Suspension or mitigation of forfeiture	Elsom v Bassell (1979) 23 SASR 101 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal from order of Special Magistrate: Held, when a Special Magistrate or Justice of the Peace hears and decides an application under s 40 for the remission or reduction of a forfeited recognizance or security, they are not acting as a court of summary jurisdiction, and there is no right of appeal to the Supreme Court.

s 52	Limitation of time for laying	Purvis v West (1979) 22 SASR 313 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, section 52 applies to proceedings for a breach of recognizance which must therefore be commenced within six months from the time when the matter of complaint arose.

s 56	Exceptions or exemptions need not be specified or disproved by complainant	Douglass v Ninnes (1976) 14 SASR 377 Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, upon the charge of failing to vote, the onus is on the elector to satisfy the Court, on the balance of probabilities, that he has a valid and sufficient reason for failing to vote, and that no proof was required from the prosecution from the matter. Baronian v Potter Constructions Pty Ltd (1979) 22 SASR 215 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, it was sufficient, to make out a prima facie case, for the complainant to prove that the company agreed to construct a building and that it was not the holder of a general licence. The onus was then on the company to call evidence that it came within the exemption or exclusion contained in s 21(1) of the Builders' Licensing Act. Butson v Barclay (1981) 27 SASR 100 (SA Sup Ct Mr Commissioner Duggan) Appeal from court of summary jurisdiction: Held, upon a complaint for the offence of flying an aircraft at a lesser height than prescribed in the Air Navigation Regulations, the prosecution is not required to prove that the area flown over was not excepted under regulation 117, but the onus is on the defendant to establish that fact. The obligation imposed by s 104(1)(a)(iv) of the Act to file relevant and admissible material does not include material relevant to a witness's credit nor evidence distrusted by the prosecution in relation to its veracity or reliability. 2. While the need to investigate the circumstances surrounding a change by the witness to his story and the grant of immunity to the witness may have amounted to a "special reason" within s 106 of the Act, it could not be said to be so unreasonable or unintelligible as to warrant an order for judicial review.
s 106	Receipt of evidence upon preliminary examination	R v Byczko (No 1) (1977) 16 SASR 506 (SA Sup Ct FC) Criminal appeal: The effect and application of s 106(6)(a), considered and discussed. Shannon v Ackland (1990) 55 SASR 125 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): Held: 1. An order of committal for trial may be the subject of judicial review. 2. The provisions of s 106(6) require substantial compliance. A failure to not substantially comply with s 106(6) does not in all cases invalidate an order of committal. The legislation is not intended to prevent or delay committal proceedings when some unforeseen occurrence prevents strict compliance with s 106(6).
	Taking of evidence at preliminary examination	Goldsmith v Newman: see s 104. S v Metanomski (1993) 65 A Crim R 352 (SA Sup Ct FC): The plaintiff, a medical practitioner charged with procuring sexual intercourse by intimidation, was refused leave under s 106(1)(b)(ii) to cross-examine the victim in respect of the dates and occasions of the offences. Plaintiff sought judicial review. Held, dismissing the action, that the fact that the plaintiff had established that the refusal of leave was an erroneous decision on the merits did not justify the court interfering as the decision was not so unreasonable that it could have been arrived at only as a result of an erroneous understanding of the legal test.

Beshara v Metro Meat Ltd (1988) 91 FLR 232; 36 A Crim R 129 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, an offence contrary to s 7 of the Crimes Act (Cth), charged and determined in a summary way was an "indictable offence" under s 127 which precluded the making of an order for costs against the informant upon the dismissal of the offence.

s 133	Proceedings to be a bar to further prosecution	Walker v Baehnk (No 1) (1987) 44 SASR 376 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal: Held, that the ruling of a magistrate refusing to release a defendant from an information pursuant to s 133 was an order or adjudication from which an appeal lay to the Supreme Court under s 163. Walker v Baehnk (No 2) (1987) 44 SASR 380 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Held, section 133 does not entitle a defendant to a certificate of release under s 133 where the dismissal was ordered as a procedural strategy (upon want of prosecution evidence), rather, the dismissal must be as a result of a decision on the merits.
s 162	Points of law may be reserved for the consideration of the Supreme Court or Industrial Court	Samuels v Peter F Burns Pty Ltd (1976) 14 SASR 88 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Held, the offence of entering into a transaction for the purpose of defeating or evading the operation of the Urban Land (Price Control) Act could be dealt with summarily as a minor indictable offence and that the Special Magistrate therefore had power to state the case for consideration of the Supreme Court under s 162 of that Act. McCaffrey v Trembath (1984) 35 SASR 382 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J): Held, the Special Magistrate had no power in the course of a preliminary examination, to state a special case under s 162, and the Supreme Court therefore had no jurisdiction to proceed to a determination of the case stated.

Sweatman v Le Griffin (1988) 50 SASR 379; A Crim R 133 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, a forfeiture order made for the purposes of s 162 took the same character as an earlier order, so that there was power to state a case.

Walker v Tugend (1981) 28 SASR 194 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Action: Circumstances to be taken into account in deciding whether a declaratory judgment should be given pursuant to s 30b, considered and discussed. Held, that a case where a person was injured severely in an accident and suffered reduced life expectancy, the extent of which was unknown, was one in which a declaratory judgment was the proper decision.

FF Seeley Nominees Pty Ltd v El Ar Initiations (UK) Pty Ltd and Anor (No 4) (1992) 163 LSJS 271 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J): Held, equitable damages available to a plaintiff as a result of the defendants disobeying orders are not within the scope of s 30b and do not arise out of a determination as to damages at the original hearing.

s 30c Power to award interest

Marziale v Hathazi (1976) 13 SASR 150 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J): Neither the plaintiff's delay in instituting proceedings or his failure to mitigate was a reason for refusing interest on the judgment.

Solomon v Irving (1977) 15 SASR 595 (SA Sup Ct King J) Action: Held, that interest should be allowed on the amount of general damages awarded, undiminished by any sums received by way of worker's compensation.

Christopoulos v Steel Mains Pty Ltd (1978) 21 SASR 463 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Action: Held, that in calculating interest upon the damages awarded, the amounts received as workmen's compensation should be excluded from the sum upon which interest was calculated.

Guley v Sabbadin (1979) 21 SASR 139 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Action: Held, in allowing interest upon damages awarded for personal injury, the amounts received as workmen's compensation were not to be excluded from the sum upon which interest should be calculated.

Thompson v Favaonio (1979) 24 ALR 1 (Privy Council) Appeal from Full Court of the Supreme Court of SA: Interest, under s 30c, on damages awarded for personal injury, should only be calculated on amounts awarded for loss occurring prior and up to the date of judgment of the court of first instance. Revising part of Favaonio v Thompson (1978) 19 SASR 56.

Vincent v Faehrmann (1979) 21 SASR 503: Hewitt v Bernhardt (1979) 21 SASR 510 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Paull v Gloede (1979) 21 SASR 526 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgment of Newman AJ: In an action for damages for personal injuries, interest should not be allowed upon damages assessed for future loss of earning capacity or other losses not yet suffered by the plaintiff.

Wheeler v Page (1982) 31 SASR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: Judicial discretion when assessing interest on a damages claim, considered and discussed.

Dimond v Metcalf (1982) 32 SASR 73 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Action: Notwithstanding that a tort giving rise to an action was committed in New South Wales, interest on the damages awarded should be assessed in accordance with s 30c of the Supreme Court Act.

Legal and General Assurance Society Ltd v Stateliner Pty Ltd (1982) 31 SASR 157 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Appeal: On appeal of a damages claim, the defendant is under no liability to the plaintiff until the Full Court pronounced its judgment.

Meddick v Cutten and Harvey (1984) 36 SASR 542 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgment of White J: Section 30c deals not with the interest which a judgment will bear after it is entered but with interest to be awarded as a component part of the judgment debt.

A.J. Thompson Pty Ltd v K.L.K. Manufacturing Pty Ltd (1986) ATPR 47, 875 (Fed Ct of Aust Fisher J): Held, that the Federal Court of Australia is not empowered by s 79 of the Judiciary Act to include in a judgment an award of interest under s 30c(1) of the Supreme Court Act (SA).

s 31	Declaratory relief	JN Taylor Holdings Ltd (In liquidation) v Bond (1993) 59 SASR 432 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, there is no jurisdictional limit to the power of the court to grant declaratory relief.
s 35	Power to arrest debtors about to leave the State	Southern Drug Co v Lagos (1980) 24 SASR 590 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Action: Consideration and discussion of the circumstances in which an order can be made under s 35.
s 39	Restriction on institution of vexatious actions	A/G v Van Reesma (1986) 43 SASR 170 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Motion: Held, that the expression "legal proceedings" in s 39(1) includes both civil and criminal proceedings for the purpose of determining whether vexatious legal proceedings had been instituted.
s 40	Power of court with regard to costs	Copping v ANZ McCaughan: see s 50.
s 49	Cases or points of law reserved for Full Court	R v Parry (1980) 23 SASR 187 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: The right of a Judge to state a case for consideration of the Full Court, considered and discussed. R v Millhouse (1980) 24 SASR 555 (SA Sup Ct FC) Case stated: That the power given to any Judge of the Court to reserve a case, or any point in a case, for the consideration of the Full Court does not authorize a Judge to reserve for the Full Court's consideration a point of law arising in the course of a criminal trial was discussed but not decided..
s 50	Appeals against decisions of judges and masters	Road Chalets Pty Ltd v Thornton Motors Pty Ltd (1986) 47 SASR 532 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: A mortgagee does not require leave as is normal under s 50(1) and (2)(b), to appeal against an order for costs awarded in the mortgagor's favour because there is a common law practice that a mortgagee is entitled to costs in a suit of redemption, unless guilty of misconduct. Legal Practitioners Complaints Committee v A Practitioner (1987) 46 SASR 126 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Consideration of the meaning of "judgment" and "order" and of the distinction between those concepts and incidental rulings which are not subject to appeal. Remm Construction (SA) Pty Ltd v Allco Newsteel Pty Ltd (1992) 57 SASR 180 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, an adjournment sine die of applications that issues as to liability of plaintiffs and defendant be heard and determined separately is an appealable order within s 50(1). Copping v ANZ McCaughan (1995) 63 SASR 523 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. The discretion conferred by s 40 cannot be fettered by r 101.02(1) of the Supreme Court Rules. 2. Where an appeal is made from an order "as to costs only", leave to appeal is required due to s 50(2). s 59	Change of venue	R v Webb (1992) 64 A Crim R 38 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): Held, the test in determining whether a court should order a change of venue under s 59 of the Act is whether there are grounds on which a court is reasonably satisfied that there is a reasonable possibility that the applicant will not have a fair and impartial trial. The basic considerations when exercising this discretionary power are the interests of justice.
s 72	Rules of court	Rigney v Rigney (1987) 48 SASR 291 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Rule 56.06(d) of the Supreme Court Rules is to be regarded as a rule relating to practice and procedure. It therefore falls within the rule-making power of s 72 of the Supreme Court Act. R v S (1988) 50 SASR 161 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ) Application to set aside a subpoena in the Criminal Court: Discussion of the relationship between the Supreme Court Rules, 1987 made under s 72 of the Supreme Court Act, and special rules of the Supreme Court often made under separate legislation. In this case the Rules of Supreme Court (Criminal Jurisdiction) 1981 were considered. Hellaby v State Bank of South Australia: see r 60.01.

		State Bank of South Australia v Hellaby (1992) 59 SASR 304 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 72(4) would not operate to confer validity on a rule that went completely outside the province of the Supreme Court to make rules that regulate the practice and procedure of the Court so that the rule could not be said to have been made "in pursuance of" s 72 of the Supreme Court Act 1935. However, other than in such an extreme case, s 72(4) of the Act does operate to confer validity on an otherwise invalid rule. Rule 60.01 is a valid exercise of the rule-making power conferred on the Supreme Court.
s 114	Interest on judgment debts	Meddick v Cutten and Harvey (1984) 36 SASR 542 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgment of White J: Section 114 prescribes the rate of interest which a judgment is to bear and hence is not affected by s 30c where interest is awarded as part of the judgment debt. s 131	Accessibility of evidence, etc.	South Australian Telecasters Ltd v DPP (1995) 64 SASR 123 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 131 directs the court to provide access to information and copies of materials but it also confers a wide discretion to refuse access.
Supreme Court Admission Rules
rule 5	Rules governing admission as legal practitioner	In Re Everingham (1976) 13 SASR 488 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Held, that to interfere with a finding of The Board of Examiners that an applicant for admission as a practitioner did not possess an adequate knowledge of SA law and practice, the Court must be satisfied either that The Board acted on some erroneous principle of law or misapprehension or fact, or that its conclusion was one which no reasonable body could have reached.
rule 5	That applicants must have adequate knowledge of SA law and practice	In re Goldberg (1981) 28 SASR 472 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from finding by The Board of Examiners: The principles to be applied in determining whether an applicant for admission as a practitioner in the Supreme Court possess an adequate knowledge of South Australian law and practice, considered and discussed.
rule 5	Admission to practice (SA)	Re Bellman (1985) 39 SASR 222 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from decision of Board of Examiners: Meaning of the words "carried on practice as a barrister or solicitor" considered and discussed.
rule 28	Absolute admission as a practitioner on grounds that an applicant "has not pursued any occupation other than the proper business of a legal practitioner"	In re Hunt (1976) 14 SASR 197 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, working in the Australian Legal Aid Office constituted the "proper business of a legal practitioner" within the meaning of rule 28(2).
rule 45		In re Prescott (1976) 13 SASR 390 (SA Sup Ct FC) Application for exemption from Sup Ct Admission Rules: Held, the special circumstances enabling the court to grant exemption from compliance with the rules must be unusual, abnormal or atypical.
Supreme Court Rules 1987
r 10.03	Issue of summonses	Leslie v F.S. Evans and Sons Pty Ltd (1988) 65 LGRA 168 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): The court has unfettered discretion to permit renewal for "proper cause shown" implying that the court is to decide each application on the merit. It does not require the applicant to show exceptional reasons.
r 18.02	Cases in which a summons may be served out of Australia	Saltram Wine Estates Pty Ltd v Independent Stave Co (1992) 57 SASR 156 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): Held, the use of the words "is or relates to" in r 18.02(a) does not demonstrate an intention to change the effect of O. 11. Claims for damages for breach of contract do not come within O. 11.
r 22	Submission to the jurisdiction	Danae Investment Trust PLC v MacIntosh Nominees Pty Ltd (1993) 10 ACSR 1; 11 ACLR 273 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held: 1. Rule 22 requires a defendant who seeks to challenge the propriety of proceedings either for want of jurisdiction or because the pleadings disclose no justiciable cause of action, to expressly plead that assertion. 2. Rule 22 is a complete code as to the matters referred to in the rule. r 27	Joinder of parties	AMP Fire & General Insurance Co Ltd v Balfour (1993) 61 SASR 492 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): The plaintiff, a jockey, sued another jockey and his trainer. The plaintiff sought to join the trainer's insurer under r 27. The trainer denied he was vicariously liable. Held, the discretion to grant leave to join the insurer as a party had not miscarried.

r 38.01	Experts' Reports and Paternity Tests	Wilson v Porter (1988) 46 SASR 547 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of Bolton J: The power of the court to order a party to deliver a report of an expert witness to another party does not extend to material not included in the report but relied upon in its compilation. Sorre v Ingman (1992) 57 SASR 469 (SA Sup Ct Mohr J) Held: 1. An expert report must be prepared by the expert "in his capacity as an expert". 2. Communications of a defendant medical practitioner with his legal advisers are not communications in his capacity as an expert but as a client. 3. Rule 38.01 does not abrogate from a party's right to claim legal professional privilege. Robinson v Adelaide International Raceway Pty Ltd (1993) 61 SASR 279 (SA Sup Ct Olsson J): Held, proofs of witnesses, referred to in a medical report supplied under r 38.01, which would normally attract legal privilege, do not lose that protection because they formed the basis of the expert report which itself would have been privileged but for r 38.01. State Bank of South Australia v Ferguson: see r 56.
r 40.07	Offers To Consent to Judgment	Stevens v Chandler (1988) 46 SASR 541 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from order of von Doussa J: The respective purposes of s 42 of the Local and District Criminal Courts Act and rule 40.07 of the Supreme Court rules, distinguished and discussed. Lacey v Schneider (No. 2) (1988) 46 SASR 519 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Discussion of the history of rule 40.07 and O. 22 r6A.
	Pleadings Generally	Rupcic v A W Baulderstone Pty Ltd (1987) 46 SASR 99 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal: Consideration of the effects on pleading of rr 46 and 47 of the Supreme Court Rules 1987.
r 41		Whitehead v Maas (1991) 56 SASR 362 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the criteria that the defendant unreasonably failed to accept the filed offer is to be determined objectively. The offer remains open until judgment. The purpose of the rule is penal.
r 46.12	A defence and a subsequent pleading is to specifically admit or deny including particular	Duke Group (In Liq) v Arthur Young (Reg) & Peat Marwick Hungerfords (Third Party) (No 13) (1991) 5 ACSR 212 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that: 1. The court is not bound by the plea that a party "does not know and cannot admit a fact" if there are proper grounds to do so. 2. Generally speaking a Company should not stand on a different footing from a natural person in that respect, and if a company is admittedly a party to various transactions, it could hardly be allowed to plead ignorance of what it had taken part in. 3. A company in liquidation must comply with r 46.12 and other pleading rules in the same fashion as might be expected of an ordinary limited company not in liquidation. Duty of liquidator, discussed.
r 46.12		Duke Group Ltd (In Liq) v Arthur Young (Reg) & Peat Marwick Hungerfords (Third Party) (No. 13) (1991) 5 ACSR 212 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that if a plaintiff wishes to rely upon facts in answer to those set out in the defence other than facts which he has set out in his statement of claim, he has no alternative but to file a reply, in which event it must comply with r 46.12(1) Supreme Court Rules (SA).
r 46.18	Striking out pleadings	Duke Group Ltd (In Liq) v Arthur Young (Reg) & Peat Marwick Hungerfords: see r 46.12.
r 47.04	Defences	Duke Group (In Liq) v Arthur Young (Reg) & Peat Marwick Hungerfords (Third Party) (No. 13) (1991) 5 ACSR 212 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Held, that a negative pregnant should be regarded as raising a positive allegation of fact. Although r 47.04 only proscribes any "evasive denial or negative pregnant" in a defence, a negative pregnant should not normally be tolerated in any reply.
r 53.01	Amendments	Brook v Flinders University of South Australia (1988) 47 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J): Application may be made under the general power to amend a writ of summons, and the plaintiff will generally be granted leave to amend so that the merits of the claim can be resolved.
r 53.03	Power to allow amendment where limitation period has expired	Brook v Flinders University of South Australia (1988) 47 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J): The scheme of r 53.03 is primarily related to a new cause of action and is independent of the Statute of Limitations.

		Swietlick v Central Linen Service (1991) 56 SASR 569 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Discussion of what constitutes a "new cause of action".
r 56		State Bank of South Australia v Ferguson (1995) 64 SASR 232 (SA Sup Ct Legoe AJ): Held, r 38.01 does not require delivery of expert reports which are obtained for the purposes of carrying out the requirements of r 56, the pre-trial conference rule, because they are not reports which are obtained "in the action" within r 38.01. This is true even though the reports may well relate to a "matter in issue in the action".
r 56.06	Pretrial Conferences	Rigney v Rigney (1987) 45 SASR 464 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): In an action for damages for personal injury, rule 56.06(d) empowers the court to require the defendant to give details of the component part of a lump sum offer to the plaintiff.
r 58.04	Discovery	Ammerlaan v Distillers Co (Bio-Chemicals) Ltd (1992) 58 SASR 164 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, on a proper construction of r 58.04, in a case in which an order for preliminary trial of certain discrete issues is properly made, processes of discovery should usually be limited to matters relating to those issues.
r 60.01	Orders for discovery against a nonparty and before action	Hellaby v State Bank of South Australia (1992) Unreported Judgment No 3686 (SA Sup Ct FC): A rule that is not for the purpose of regulating proceedings of the court may be completely outside power and is therefore reviewable. Rule 60.01 is within power and not disproportionate to the purpose of the grant of power.
	Discovery against a person not a party and before action	State Bank of SA v Hellaby: see s 72.
r 63.02	Summons for the determination of questions on a statute, statutory instrument, by-law or rule	WorkCover Corporation v James (1992) 57 SASR 365 (SA Sup Ct FC): The purposes of R 63.02 discussed.
r 84.12	Judgments And Orders	Commonwealth Bank of Australia v Forsham (1990) 55 SASR 247 (SA Sup Ct FC): Ambit of r 84.12 considered.
r 95.15	Appeals to the Full Court from decisions of single judges	Spargo v Greatorex (1992) 59 SASR 1; 16 MVR 1 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, this was an appropriate situation in which to exercise discretion to admit evidence of the premature death pursuant to r 95.15(b). r 97.03	Appeals against Masters and others to which R 97.02 does not apply to go to single Judges	George v Dowling (1992) 57 SASR 579 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held, whilst an appeal from a Master is by way of rehearing, it is limited to whether the decision ought to be affirmed or overturned in light of the material before the Master. Where it involved the exercise of discretion some error must be established. Evidence may only be adduced if the fresh evidence tests are satisfied.
r 100	Security for costs	North Groongal Pty Ltd v ANZ McCaughan Ltd (1993) 61 SASR 302 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): Plaintiff company claimed damages and other relief in respect of alleged breaches of fiduciary and other duties. The first defendant applied for an order that the plaintiff provide security for its costs under s 1335 of the Corporations Law and r 100 Supreme Court Rules. Plaintiff had no assets aside from the present action. Held, dismissing the application: 1. The plaintiff company was not a nominal plaintiff but was the contracting party and brought the action for its own benefit. 2. An application under s 1335 Corporations Law is not to be approached with a predisposition in favour of the defendant party. 3. The mere fact that a plaintiff which has brought a bona fide claim is impecunious is not, in itself, a sufficient basis on which the plaintiff should be ordered to pay security for costs.
r 100.03	Action stayed till security is given	Remm Construction (SA) Pty Ltd v Allco Newsteel Pty Ltd (1992) 57 SASR 180 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, r 100.03 does not preclude the statutory right of appeal given by s 50 of the Supreme Court Act 1935.
Supreme Court, Rules prior to 1987
O. 2 rule 1	Commencement of action	Benzija v Adriatic Fisheries Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 545 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Originating summons: O. 2, rule 1 obliges a litigant to commence proceedings by way of a writ of summons unless authorised to commence by originating summons. The Trustee Act s 90 authorises the use of an originating summons.

O. 3 rule 3	Evidence–power to call expert witnesses	McCutcheon v Grimmond (No. 1) (1986) 40 SASR 404 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Action: It is the duty of the court to limit the number of expert witnesses called.
O. 8 rule 1	Renewal of writ	Middleton v Geary (1980) 24 SASR 239 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Appeal from order of Deputy Master: Held, mere failure by the solicitor for a party to cause a writ to be served within twelve months does not, of itself, constitute a good reason for the renewal of the writ.
O. 10	Summons for immediate relief	Taylor v District Council of Munno Para (1984) 57 LGRA 438 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): On a summons for immediate relief under SCR 0. 10 the proceedings must be resolved by the normal adversial method and in accordance with the usual procedures.
O. 16, rule 2	Substitution or correction of misnomer	La Compagnie Financiere de la Mediteranee SA v Peter & Son Pty Ltd (1985) 38 SASR 550 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Appeal from order of a Master: The Master has jurisdiction to correct an error where a party is wrongly named, but such order should not be by way of substitution of another plaintiff.
O. 16 rule 7	Claims for indemnity & contribution between co-defendants	Eggleston v Marley Engineers Pty Ltd (1979) 21 SASR 51 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Action: Where the claimant wishes to rely upon facts which have not been pleaded by the plaintiff against the co-defendant, an order for third party directions under O. 16, rule 7 of the Supreme Court Rules is necessary.
O. 16 rule 11	Application to be joined as a defendant	Gilbertson v The State of South Australia (1976) 15 SASR 66 (SA Sup Ct FC) Action: The right to apply for the joinder of additional parties is not restricted to the existing parties to the action.
O. 16 rule 16	Proceedings by mental defective in own name or by best friend	Hutchinson v Gaitazis and Gobell (1980) 25 SASR 30 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Action: Although the rule permits a mental defective to sue by best friend, it does not require that course to be followed, and a mental defective may validly commence proceedings in his/her own name.
O. 16A rules 3 & 12	Third party notice	Roufos Jewellers of Adelaide Pty Ltd v Malltown Pty Ltd (1980) 27 SASR 270 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, a third party became party to an action from the time of service of the third party notice on said party.
O. 19 rule 17	Rules of pleading	Rupcic v A W Baulderstone Pty Ltd (1987) 46 SASR 99 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Appeal: Consideration of the principles and techniques of pleading under the new Rules of Court.
O. 20 rule 2	Amendment of writ after expiration of limitation period	Brook v Flinders University of South Australia (1988) 47 SASR 119 (SA Sup Ct von Doussa J) Appeal from a Master: The latitude accorded to a plaintiff by O. 20, rule 2 did not extend to causes of action in libel, contract and negligence.
O. 21 rule 9	Right of counter claim under O. 21, rule 9	Santos Ltd v American Home Assurance Co (1986) 4 ANZ Insurance Cases 74, 863 (SA Sup Ct White J): The right of counterclaim was not available where the issues were unrelated to the principal case.
O. 22 rule 1	Costs–variation	Cretazzo v Lombardi (1975) 13 SASR 4 (SA Sup Ct FC) Action: The making of an offer to consent to judgment for a sum less than the amount awarded is a factor to be taken into consideration in the exercise of the Court's discretion in making an order for costs.
O. 24 rules 1, 3 & 4	Matters Arising Pending Action	Maney v Minister of Agriculture (1976) 14 SASR 333 (SA Sup Ct Hogarth J) Action: Held, the provisions of the Supreme Court Rules applicable to the filing of pleadings subsequent to a defence are equally applicable to the filing of a further defence. Consequently, it was not open to the plaintiffs to file a further defence after the expiration of seven days from the filing and delivery of the further defence.
O. 25 rule 2	Order that a point of law be disposed of before trial of the action	Rogers v Baillieu Bullock Wilkinson Pty Ltd (1981) 28 SASR 594 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Action: An order pursuant to O. 25, rule 2, should be made only where the objection in point of law raises a question which, if decided in favour of the objecting party, would dispense with any further trial of some substantial issue in the action.
O. 25 rule 4	No reasonable cause of action	Egan v The Commonwealth Minister for Transport (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from the order of Walters J: Circumstances in which a statement of claim will be struck out, pursuant to O. 25, rule 4, as disclosing no reasonable cause of action, considered and discussed.

O. 28 rule 1	Amendment of writ or pleading	Karasaridis v Kastoria Fur Products (1984) 37 SASR 345 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Assuming that an amendment to a damages claim for personal injury introduced a new cause of action, the court had power to allow such amendment.
O. 31 rule 1	Discovery–in what proceedings	R v City of Tea Tree Gully; Ex parte Concrete Systems Pty Ltd (No. 1) (1986) 65 LGRA 56 (SA Sup Ct FC): O. 31, rule 1, applies to all forms of potential proceedings before the court regardless of their nature.
O. 31 rule 31	Disclosure of documents	Williams Aviation Pty Ltd v Santos Ltd (1985) 40 SASR 272 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Action: Circumstances in which an order for disclosure of documents by a stranger to the proceedings should be allowed, considered and discussed.
O. 31 rule 31	Documents–in "possession, custody or power".	Wee v Gerard Industries Pty Ltd (1986) 40 SASR 329 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Appeal from order of Master: Consideration of the meaning of the words "possession, custody or power" and of what documents must be disclosed under that rule. Consideration of the meaning to be attributed to the expression "likely to be a party" to subsequent proceedings. Where there is a dispute as to the facts the court is not required to decide the issues between the parties. The court must ask whether the defendant "may" or "may well be made" a party to subsequent proceedings.
O. 36 rule 8	Entry for Trial and Notice	Crack v Broken Hill Pty Ltd (1985) 39 SASR 216 (SA Sup Ct Lunn AJ) Action: Leave to hear an interlocutory application after the time for lodging such application has expired will only be granted if it is established that some special circumstance makes it just to do so.
O. 37	Number of expert witnesses to be called	McCutcheon v Grimmond (No. 1) (1986) 40 SASR 404 (SA Sup Ct Cox J) Action: It is the duty of the court to exercise the power given by RSC O. 30 rule 3(3)(e) and O. 37 to limit the number of expert witnesses called in routine and uncomplicated claims for damages for personal injury.
O. 37 rule 4	Judges powers with respect to examination of witnesses	In re Co-Operative Development Funds of Australia Ltd and Others (No. 1) (1977) 19 SASR 105 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Petitions: The Supreme Court of South Australia cannot sit outside of South Australia but under O. 37, rule 4 a Judge of the Supreme Court may be appointed a special examiner for the purposes of examining witnesses outside South Australia.
O. 39 rule 2	Jurisdiction of Supreme court	General Motors-Holdens Ltd v The Ship "Northern Highway" (1982) 29 SASR 138 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Appeal from order of Master: Held, the service of a writ "in rem" cannot be effected out of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.
O. 54 rule 20	Jurisdiction of Master to make order nisi in a criminal matter	R v Manos; Ex parte Samuels (1981) 28 SASR 262 (SA Sup Ct FC) Mandamus: A Master has jurisdiction to make an order nisi for mandamus in a criminal matter where the question of the jurisdiction of the court to make such an order is not in dispute.
O. 58 rule 14	Substitution of higher damages by Supreme Court	Rendell v Paul & Earle (1979) 22 SASR 459 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgment of Hogarth J: Even though there is no appeal or cross appeal by the plaintiff, on appeal by the defendant upon the ground that the damages awarded were excessive the Full Court is empowered to substitute, in its discretion, a greater award of damages in lieu of the award made in the judgment appealed from.

s 36	Power of the court to appoint new trustees	Benzija v Adriatic Fisheries Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 545 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Originating summons: The court has power to remove a trustee and appoint another where it is considered expedient to do so and may exercise that power even though the trustee may not wish to go.

s 59B	Advantageous dealings	City of Burnside v Attorney-General of SA: see s 69b. Burnside City Council v A-G (SA) (1993) 81 LGERA 167 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. Where property was subject to the terms of a charitable trust (and the secondary evidence available supported that a valid and enforceable trust for (private) charitable purposes had been created), the powers under s 59B were not available. 2. The power under s 69 to approve a cy-pres scheme includes power to make a declaration for the purposes of authorising a scheme to sell land held under a charitable trust, and the matter should be referred back to the trial judge for determination under s 69. (See note under s 5 Local Government Act). s 59c	Power of court to authorize variations of trust	Benzija v Adriatic Fisheries Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 545 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Originating summons: The power to revoke a trust requires weighty reasons; even if they exist the court must consider, pursuant to s 59c(3), the interests of the beneficiaries, the security of the trust property and satisfactory execution of the trusts by the trustee. s 69	Powers of Supreme Court may be exercised by a single Judge	Burnside City Council v A-G (SA): see s 59B.
s 69a	Inclusion of non-charitable and invalid purposes not to invalidate a trust	In the Estate of Cole (1980) 25 SASR 489 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J) Originating summons: Held, the establishment of a Foundation which included both charitable and non-charitable purposes, was to be construed as if no provision had been made requiring or permitting the application of the trust property for purposes that were non charitable.
s 69b	Application of trust property cy-pres	City of Burnside v Attorney-General of SA (1992) 75 LGRA 145 (SA Sup Ct Debelle J): An application to sell the very subject of the trust falls outside s 59b. An application for a cy-pres scheme could be made under s 69b. Where the trustee is a local council the court cannot authorise the sale of parklands under s 69b as this is impliedly prohibited under the Local Government Act 1934 Pt XXII.
s 84a	Interpretation	In the Estate of Webb (1992) 57 SASR 193 (SA Sup Ct FC): The term "any trust" grants the South Australian Supreme Court jurisdiction over the administration of a trust connected with South Australia.
s 90	Parties entitled may apply to the Court by summons or petition	Benzija v Adriatic Fisheries Pty Ltd (1984) 37 SASR 545 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J) Originating summons: Section 90 authorizes the use of an originating summons for an application for an order under the Trustee Act. However, when there are disputed facts a writ of summons is to be preferred.

s 5	Interpretation	CSR Limited v Valuer-General (1977) 17 SASR 446 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Where it is unlikely that there will be much competition over a particular piece of land, in making the valuation of that land the owner of the land should be treated as potential buyer. Goode v Valuer-General (1979) 22 SASR 247 (SA Sup Ct Walters J) Appeal from Valuer-General: Meaning of the word "improvement" in s 4, considered and discussed. Beiler v Valuer-General: see s 16.
s 11	General valuations	McEwin v Valuer-General (1993) 80 LGERA 12 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held: 1. Restrictions caused by a State heritage listing under the South Australian Heritage Act 1978 must be taken into account when determining the site value of a property under s 11 of the Valuation of Land Act 1971 due to the provisions of s 22b(1) & (2). 2. Transferable floor area cannot exist independently of a heritage building; it cannot be regarded as part of the site value and there is no warrant within s 22b(2) to include it. However, it should be included in the determination of capital value under s 11.

s 16	Valuation may be separate or conjoint	Beiler v Valuer-General (1980) 23 SASR 385 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Appeal from valuation of Valuer-General: In ascertaining the capital value of land of a Crown Lease Perpetual of two or more sections of land, the lease should be considered as if it were one piece of land held in fee simple comprising two or more allotments.
s 22b	Heritage land	McEwin v Valuer-General: see s 11.
s 24	Objection to valuation	Mobil Oil Australia Ltd v Valuer-General and Anor (1992) 77 LGRA 313 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): The Local Government Act and Valuation of Land Act operate as complementary. A council may object to a valuation under s 24 except where a council has adopted the valuer-general's valuation and in that situation it cannot object. Mobil Oil Australia Ltd v Valuer-General (1993) 80 LGERA 255 (SA Sup Ct FC): see ss 171 & 184 Local Government Act. s 25b	Review of valuation	Coventry v Valuer-General: see s 25c.
s 25c	Right of appeal	Fenton Nominees Pty Ltd v Valuer-General (1981) 27 SASR 258 Appeal against valuation of Valuer-General: The status of, and the weight to be given to, a valuation of the Valuer-General upon an appeal to the Supreme Court against valuation, considered and discussed. Coventry v Valuer-General (1987) 63 LGRA 105 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J): The court had no power to consider whether a determination to make a separate valuation of a portion of land under s 16 should have been made.

s 8	Requirements as to writing and execution of will	Elder's Trustee & Executor Company Ltd v Walker (1976) 15 SASR 62 (SA Sup Ct Bray CJ): A testator's signature on the third page of the will could be regarded as appearing at the foot or end of the will. Probate granted on the first three pages of the will. In Estate of Radziszewski; Lalic v South Australia (1982) 29 SASR 256 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Action: Wills not signed at the foot or end can be validated by s 12(2) if, as here, the deceased indicated acceptance of the will.
s 9	When signature to a will to be deemed valid	Elder's Trustee & Executor Company Ltd v Walker: see s 8.
s 12	Validity of will	In the Estate of Graham (1978) 20 SASR 198 (SA Sup Ct Jacobs J) Motion: A will, signed but not validly witnessed, admitted to probate because on the facts there was no reasonable doubt that the deceased intended the document to constitute her will. Baumanis v Praulin (1980) 25 SASR 423 (SA Sup Ct Mitchell J): Held, that s 12(2) has no application to a document which, although embodying the testamentary intentions of a deceased person, has not been executed at all by that person. In the Estate of Kurmis (1981) 26 SASR 449 (SA Sup Ct Sangster J) Motion: Held, a testator who added an extra legacy to the body of a properly executed will, had an intention that this should form part of the will. In the Estate of Kolodnicky (1981) 27 SASR 374 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Motion: Held, the provisions of s 12(2) were applicable notwithstanding that the document had been executed prior to the enactment of that provision. In the Estate of Radziszewski; Lalic v South Australia (1982) 29 SASR 256 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Action: Held, s 12(2) applied to a will which would have been signed by the deceased, had he the strength to do so. In the Estate of Standley (1982) 29 SASR 490 Motion: 1. Section 12(2) of the Wills Act applies to wills executed before the enactment of the subsection. 2. Section 12(2) can apply to parts of a will, like alterations, not only to a whole document. In the Estate of Crocker (1982) 30 SASR 321 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Motion: Held, the provisions of s 12(2) were applicable, even though the will had been executed before the enactment of the section. In the Estate of Blakely (1983) 32 SASR 473 (SA Sup Ct White J) Motion: A husband's will inadvertently signed by his wife admitted to probate. There was no reasonable doubt that he intended the document to constitute his will.

		In the Estate of Williams (1984) 36 SASR 423 (SA Sup Ct FC) Motion: Held, the provisions of 12(2) extended to a document signed by the witnesses but inadvertently not signed by the testatrix. In the Estate of Lynch (1985) 39 SASR 131 (SA Sup Ct Matheson J) Motion: A will revoked by marriage but subsequently altered by the testatrix who amended her surname, admitted to probate under s 12(2). In the Estate of Ryan (1986) 40 SASR 305 (SA Sup Ct O'Loughlin J) Motion: Held, s 12(2) extended to an unsigned addition to a properly executed will. In Estate of Kraehe (1986) 40 SASR 347 (Sa Sup Ct Matheson J) Motion: A testator failed to sign the last page of what purported to be his will. Document admitted to probate under s 12(2). In the Estate of Richardson (1986) 40 SASR 594 (SA Sup Ct Johnston J) Motion: A document with a suicide note referring to it and entitled Last Will and Testament but which was not signed or witnessed, admitted to probate under s 12(2). In the Estate of Gwynne (1988) 48 SASR 209 (SA Sup Ct White J): Held, the evidence established that a carbon copy of a will was the last will of the deceased, and would be admitted to probate. In the Estate of Greenslade (1988) 48 SASR 414 (SA Sup Ct White J) Application: Held, that a duly executed will which was subsequently amended so that it didn't comply with the requirements for a valid will, should be admitted to probate. In the Estate of Kirs (1990) 55 SASR 61 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): Unattested alterations, obliterations and additions to an otherwise properly executed will, were non-operative as per s 24, and cannot be admitted to probate pursuant to s 12(2). The proviso to r18 of the Rules of Supreme Court (Administration and Probate Act) and the fact that the alterations were of no practical importance, ensured that the original will could be admitted to probate.
s 24	Alterations in wills	In the Estate of Kirs: see s 12.
s 25	How revoked will is to be revived	In the Estate of Jones (1979) 21 SASR 46 (SA Sup Ct Wells J) Motion: Whether a testator intended to revive a revoked will by making a codicil to that will, is a question to be decided on the facts of the case. s 28	What a residuary devise includes	In the Estate of Cole (1980) 25 SASR 489: Held, a failed gift of land fell into the testator's residuary estate.

s 3 Interpretation

Barton v City of Henley and Grange (1989) 51 SASR 290 (SA Sup Ct FC): The definition of "journey" in s 3 of the Act legitimated a deviation by way of return for the temporary and necessary purpose of fixing a deflated tyre.

Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Corporation v Ascione (1989) 52 SASR 122 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, a congenital defect leading to a cerebral rupture was not a "disease" within the meaning of s 3 of the Act Frith v Medical Review Panel (1989) 1 WCATR 124 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Determination of claims–medical provisions–medical Boards and Referees–functions–Medical Review Panel–"medical question" involving determination of incapacity–validity of reference.

Burford v Review Officer: see s 30.

Woodville City Corp v Smith (1989) 1 WCATR 135 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Injury followed by reactive arthritis–exacerbation of reactive arthritis–whether compensable.

Workers Rehabilitation & Compensation Corporation v Corney: see s 43.

Zappia v WorkCover Corporation (1993) 5 WACTR 30 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Consideration of whether a prisoner (allegedly injured while serving a sentence of imprisonment) is a worker within the meaning of the Act. Held, actions adopted by prison management cannot alter legal requirements or convert arrangements made between prisoners and management into contract of service.

Workers Rehabilitation & Compensation Corporation v Spiel [No 2] (1993) 61 SASR 83 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held:
1. The definition of "dependent" in s 3 requires that the expenditure be of a type which can fairly be regarded to be within the limits of ordinary living for the generality of Australian families. Questions of degree are for the tribunal of fact.
2. Dependency, by virtue of the definition of "dependent", is measured by the contribution which the dependent received from the deceased's earnings towards the ordinary necessities of life. That is a question of fact which involves a consideration of the actual extent of that contribution.

s 4 Average weekly earnings

WorkCover Corporation (Spastic Centres South Australia Inc) v Ellis (1992) 4 WCATR 113 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Consideration of amount worker "could reasonably be expected to have earned".

WorkCover Corporation v Harle (1992) 4 WCATR 268 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, to determine the worker's average weekly earnings, the utilisation of both the worker's immediate past earnings and his expected earnings for a period was correct, as the purpose of s 4 of the Act was to establish a weekly amount which the worker could reasonably have been expected to earn during the period of disability, given the particular pattern of the worker's employment. (Per curiam) The methods for determining average weekly earnings in ss 4(2)(b)(i) & 4(2)(b)(ii) are not disjunctive.

		WorkCover Corporation v Ashford (1992) 4 WCATR 358 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, the provisions of s 4(8) of the Act are concerned with that component of the worker's earnings treated as overtime for the compilation of the wage. Therefore the award determined what was to be paid as overtime, irregardless of what hours were ordinarily worked. Mitsubishi Motors Australia Ltd v Love (1992) 59 SASR 339 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, where a worker's overtime partly fulfilled the pattern requirements of s 4(8) of the Act, but other parts of the overtime did not, then the identifiable part which fulfilled the statutory requirements was to be included in the calculation of average weekly earnings and the balance was to be disregarded. WorkCover Corporation v Harle (1994) 61 SASR 507 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. "Overtime" as defined in any award governing the worker's contract of employment, is totally irrelevant to the determination of the average weekly earnings of a worker under s 4(8)(a). "Overtime", for the purposes of the Act, means the time spent working beyond a worker's normal hours of work. 2. Accordingly, where a worker was engaged to work 84 hours a week, none of those hours could be categorised as "overtime" within s 4(8)(a). s 6	Territorial application of this Act	Buckby v Lloyd Aviation Jet Charter Pty Ltd (1992) 58 SASR 269 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, ss 6 & 54 of the Act create a local conflicts rule that, to the extent of any inconsistency, supersedes the common law of SA.
s 26	Rehabilitation programmes	South Australia v Bush: see s 32. Independent Holdings Ltd v Falco: see s 35.
s 30	Compensability of disabilities	Barton v City of Henley and Grange (1989) 51 SASR 290 (SA Sup Ct FC per White J): The provisions of s 30(6)(b) did not operate to cause a worker's journey to terminate when he recrossed the boundary of his home to effect repairs, as that provision operated to terminate a journey between the place of employment and the worker's residence. Burford v Review Officer (1989) 1 WCATR 61 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Onus of proof–myocardial infarction whilst shearing–a secondary disability arising in the course of employment. Levi Strauss (Australia) Pty Ltd v Lloyd (1992) 4 WCATR 88 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Consideration of whether injury arose out of or in the course of employment.
s 31	Evidentiary provision	CSR Softwoods v Foulds (1992) 4 WCATR 242 (SA Workers Comp App Trib) Involved trauma before and after appointed day. Held, loss occurred on date notice given (consideration of ss. 31, 92 92a & 113). BHP Long Products v Mikic: see s 113.
s 32	Compensation for medical expenses, etc.	WorkCover Corporation v Rice (1989) 1 WCATR 170 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Assessment–special payments–medical and hospital treatment–reasonable and necessary costs–travelling expenses–rate–relevant considerations. South Australia v Bush (1992) 4 WCATR 323 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, section 32(2) is not a general "catch-all" provision - s 32(2)(i) of the Act vests in the Corporation the power to add other costs deemed appropriate by the Corporation to those specified general costs of general application to all cases.
s 35	Weekly payments	Kelvinator v Jezior (1988) 49 SASR 592 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal: Held, allowing the appeal, the provisions of s 35(2) imported the same element of mutuality in the contract of employment as existed in the repealed statute. Francese v Adelaide City Corporation (1989) 51 SASR 522 (SA Sup Ct FC): A worker was entitled to compensation equal to his/her notional weekly earning, as defined by s 3 which for present purposes was average weekly earnings, including overtime where it was worked on a regular and established pattern. T O'Connor & Sons Pty Ltd v Review Officer (1989) 1 WCATR 160 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Review of award–application to reduce–"incapacity"–changes in working conditions–"rates of remuneration"–method of calculation.

		Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Corporation v James (1992) 57 SASR 365 (SA Sup Ct FC): "Reasonable prospect of obtaining employment" means that to reduce payments the Corporation must show that suitable work is immediately available to the worker and it is reasonable for the worker to undertake such work. Smith v WorkCover Corporation (Howard Nominees Pty Ltd) (1992) 4 WCATR 9 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Consideration of s 35 and the right of a worker to receive an adjusted amount of weekly payment if there is an increase in the relevant award following the statutory reduction in weekly payments. General Motors-Holden's Automotive Ltd v Wilkes (1992) 4 WCATR 72 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, the matter of mutuality was one of fact and perhaps degree. It required the worker being either unwilling for reasons unconnected with the work disability to do the work or unable for reasons unrelated to her incapacity. Morris v WorkCover Corporation (1992) 4 WCATR 294 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, there was no requirement for the purposes of s 35 of the Act that an offer of suitable work by an employer and a refusal of work by a worker be necessary ingredients in determining whether there had been a want of mutuality on a worker's part. Ultimately, the question was simply one of fact. Independent Holdings Ltd v Falco (1993) 5 WACTR 160 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, when a partially incapacitated worker resigned from employment, went overseas and subsequently wrote, through her solicitors, offering to carry out suitable light duties with the employer, the failure of the employer to provide her with such suitable light work entitled her to have her continuing partial incapacity treated as total.
s 36	Discontinuance of weekly payments	Simpson Ltd v Piwinski (1989) WCATR 227 (SA Workers Comp App Tribunal). Cessation of payments–return to work on light duties at less than full-time employment. Wills v WorkCover Corp (1989) 1 WCATR 243 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Cessation of payments procedure–mandatory requirements as to notice–whether a defective notice curable. WorkCover Corp v Phillips: see s 97. Thuy Thi Vu v Review Officer: see s 106. WorkCover Corporation v Bee (1992) 4 WCATR 280 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, s 36(2)(bb) ensures that the amount of weekly payments to the worker reflects what he could reasonably have expected to earn during disability, thus maintaining the worker in a position no better or worse than he would have had but for his disability. WorkCover Corporation v Ashford: see s 4.
s 38	Review of weekly payments	T O'Connor & Sons Pty Ltd v Review Officer: see s 35.
s 39	Economic adjustments to weekly payments	T O'Connor & Sons Pty Ltd v Review Officer: see s 35. Smith v WorkCover Corporation (Howard Nominees Pty Ltd): see s 35.
s 42	Commutation of liability to make weekly payments	Howe v State of South Australia (1992) 166 LSJS 270 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J): The fact that a worker is left with an inability to work in his previous employment amounts to a "permanent incapacity". Pink v WorkCover Corporation (1992) 4 WCATR 205 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, the onus is on a worker seeking commutation pursuant to s 42 of the Act to establish not only the fact of permanent incapacity and the matters referred to in s 42(b) & (c) but also the capitalised value of the weekly payments for which the Corporation was liable.
s 43	Lump sum compensation	WorkCover Corporation v Phillips (1991) 56 SASR 72 (SA Sup Ct FC): "Normal life" means the life which the individual would have been capable of leading and would have been expected to lead, if he or she had not suffered the disability. WorkCover Corporation (Fire-Fighting Enterprises) v Marafiote (1992) 4 WCATR 124 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, in determining a percentage loss under s 43(4) of the Act, a Review Officer is limited to the essentially objective exercise of considering the percentage of full efficient use of the relevant faculty lost by the worker.

		WorkCover Corporation (APM Containers) v Herbert (1992) 4 WCATR 142 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, total in the sense employed in the Third Schedule was referable to the ability to work and not to the extent the mental capacity had been diminished by the condition. Howe v South Australia (1992) 58 SASR 310 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the disability of post-traumatic stress disorder and anxiety which rendered a worker incapable of returning to employment as a correctional services officer but did not prevent the worker obtaining other employment was "permanent" disability within s 43 of the Act. Workers Rehabilitation & Compensation Corporation v Corney (1993) 59 SASR 451 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the expression "non-economic loss" used in s 43 of the Act and defined in s 3 of the Act, includes loss of the amenities of life and any other loss or detriment of a non-economic nature. A person's inability to pursue his calling or to obtain regular work may affect him in a non-economic way, and there is no provision in the Act to limit a concept of non-economic loss.
s 44	Compensation payable on death	Workers Rehabilitation & Compensation Corporation v Shute (1993) 61 SASR 11 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the power of the WorkCover Corporation to grant or refuse a request to commute its liability to make payments of income maintenance under s 44 does not vest an absolute power in the Corporation to accept or reject any such request as it thinks fit.
s 46	Incidence of liability	Workers Rehabilitation & Compensation Corporation v Commonwealth (1993) 62 SASR 325 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the Corporation's liability under s 46(1) is primary and not as an insurer or a form of vicarious responsibility for a liability of a non-exempt employer. s 52	Claim for compensation	Arrowcrest Group Pty Ltd v Vo (1989) 1 WCATR 215 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Proceedings for compensation–sufficiency–failure to comply with formalities–mandatory requests–failure to reject claim as defective.
s 53	Determination of claim	Robbins v Harbord (1994) 62 SASR 229 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the obligation under s 53(5) & (6) is to furnish to the worker a statement of the grounds of rejection. The statement must indicate distinctly, specifically and with reasonable particularity the grounds on which the claim is rejected, but there is no obligation to state the evidence relied on.
s 54	Limitation of employer's liability	Broken Hill Pty Co Ltd v Lorenz (1990) 535 SASR 244 (SA Sup Ct FC): Pursuant to s 54(1), an employer must answer to any liability imposed upon him by the Act, and in addition, a liability at common law limited to "non-economic loss or solatium". Alsafe Safety Industries Pty Ltd v Workers Rehab & Compensation Corporation (1990) 54 SASR 320 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the jurisdiction of the Industrial Court to hear a claim under s 54 is not subject to a condition precedent that liability to pay damages has been established in a prior action. The provisions of s 54(7)(g) when read in their natural sense permit the Industrial Court to determine all the issues that have to be resolved to determine the claim for indemnity. Mundy v Pav (1992) 57 SASR 526 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held (by majority) damages to be awarded against a tort feasor for services voluntarily rendered to an injured person by a third person are not a liability for non-economic loss within s 54. Buckby v Lloyd Aviation Jet Charger Pty Ltd: see s 6.

		Andrews v Ziersch (1994) 61 SASR 521 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held: 1. Section 54(4b) of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act precludes a claim for contribution either by a co-defendant (not being the employer) where the employer is also a defendant or by a third party claim by a defendant who is not the employer, against an employer who is not joined as a defendant. 2. If the employer is sued for common law damages and if liability at common law is established, the employer will be liable to pay damages to the maximum sum under s 54(4). If a person other than the employer is sued as co-defendant, or if sued alone, that person will be liable for the whole of the damages at common law, subject to a reduction by any amount recovered by the worker at common law from the employer. 3. Where a person other than the employer is sued at common law, that person's right of contribution under s 25(1) of the Wrongs Act 1936 is extinguished by reason of the operation of the words "the other person has no right to recover contribution from the employer" in s 54(4b) of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act. 4. The words "person other than the employer" in s 54(4b) have the same meaning as in s 54(5). s 58	Certain sporting injuries not to be compensable	Kompo v Riedel Investigation Services Pty Ltd: see s 31 of Industrial Relations Act (SA) 1972.
s 59	Registration of employers	Western Underwriters Insurance Ltd v Carey (1990) 57 SAIR 246 (SA Ind Ct): Offences–unregistered employer entering contract of service–continuing offence–time limitation for prosecution–penalty.
s 60	Exempt employers	Santos Ltd v Saunders (1988) 49 SASR 556 (SA Sup Ct FC): "Matters" that the corporation should have regard to, so as to exclude matters personal to the applicant, considered and discussed.
s 67	Adjustment of levy in relation to individual employers	Australian National Railways Commission v Commission for Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation of Commonwealth Employees (1992) 35 FCR 344 (Fed Ct of Aust von Doussa J): Held, the mere resignation by a worker from employment does not necessarily preclude the worker from benefiting under s 67(1). Consideration of what constitutes a breach of s 67.
s 88	Principles relating to reviews	Wills v WorkCover Corp: see s 36.
s 90	Powers of Review Authority	Moir v Review Officer (1988) 1 WCATR 30 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Determination of claims–evidence–legal professional privilege–summons to produce documents–whether right to privilege abrogated by statute. s 92	Representation	Evans v Gen Motors-Holden Automotive Ltd: see s 102. Frank v CSR Ltd (t/a Ready Mix) (1992) 4 WCATR 19 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, ss 92 & 92a of the Act do not expressly give the Review Authority the power to award costs and should not be interpreted to give the Review Authority that power. s 92a	Costs	Frank v CSR Ltd: see s 92. Righetti v WorkCover Corporation (John Galligan & Co Pty Ltd) (1992) 4 WCATR 101 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, a Review Authority has implicit power to make an order for costs pursuant to s 92a.
s 95	Application for review	Evans v General Motors-Holden Automotive Ltd: see s 102. Re Litchfield (1989) 51 SASR 87 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that s 47(2)(d) of the Limitation of Actions Act has application to the time limit prescribed by s 95 of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986, with the result that the general extension made by s 47 cannot apply to the time limit under s 95. Local Govt Assoc (SA) v Sutton: see s 96.
s 96	Review by Review Officer	Santos Ltd v Saunders (1988) 49 SASR 556 (SA Sup Ct FC): The defendant's obligation in reviewing the decision under s 96 was to make a fresh judgment of the matter. Local Govt Assoc (SA) v Sutton (1989) 1 WCATR 237 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Refusal of worker to undergo remedial treatment–suspension of payments by employer–Review by Review Officer–hearing de novo. Advertiser Newspaper v Despoja: see s 97.

		Spiel v Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Corporation (1992) 58 SASR 45 (SA Sup Ct FC): Consideration of responsibilities of Review Officer and role of Workers Compensation Appeal Tribunal. Wiechmann v Lovering (1992) 59 SASR 203 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the jurisdiction of a Review Officer contemplated by s 96 of the Act is a restricted right of review limited to reviewing the specific decision that is impugned. Cristea v WorkCover Corporation (1993) 61 SASR 487 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, the jurisdiction of the Review Officer under s 96 to review a Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Corporation's decision and make a fresh determination, entitles the Review Officer to determine the worker's entitlement to income maintenance and in so doing to consider whether the claimed disability had resulted in incapacity for work and the period of that incapacity.
s 97	Appeals to the Tribunal	WorkCover Corp v Phillips (1989) 1 WCATR 69 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): 1. Appeal from Review Officer to Tribunal–person dissatisfied with decision–whether power of Corp delegated to exempt employer. 2. Cessation of payments–right of employer–effect of application by worker for review–where payments discontinued before application made. Advertiser Newspaper v Despoja (1989) 1 WCATR 178 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Determination of claims–evidence–matters not contained in formal claim–admissibility–powers of Review Officer–relevant considerations. Soldo v Review Officer (1989) 1 WCATR 144 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Hearing and orders made–nature of appeal–appeal from Review Officer to Tribunal–admission of further evidence–hearing de novo. Spiel v Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Corporation: see s 96. Pica v Local Government Association (1992) 58 SASR 460 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held (by maj): 1. Where a Review Officer made an adverse finding on the worker's credibility due to his demeanour, adequate reasons had been provided within s 93 of the Act for the decision to be reviewed by the Workers Compensation Appeal Tribunal. 2. Since a hearing before the Tribunal under s 97 was not a hearing de novo, it was only in exceptional cases that witnesses should be called to give evidence. 3. The common law rule audi alteram partem did not apply to the Tribunal because s 97 of the Act clearly indicated that the stage at which the parties should call all their evidence was before the Review Officer pursuant to ss 88 & 96 of the Act. Linou v Mason (1992) 59 SASR 117 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, there is no power under s 97 of the Act for the Workers Compensation Appeal Tribunal to remit a case for further hearing by a Review Officer. The Tribunal has ample powers to hear evidence and it is bound by law to hear and determine the appeal to it. Cameron v WorkCover Corporation: see s 102.
s 98	Decisions of Medical Review Panel	Urban v Mitsubishi Motors (1989) 1 WCATR 269 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Hearing and orders made–appeal from Medical Review Panel to Tribunal–appeal on record. s 100	Appeals to Supreme Court	Workers' Rehabilitation & Compensation Corporation v Thuy Thi Vu (1988) 49 SASR 585 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, that the word "decision" in s 100 of the Act should not be construed so as to confine the availability of an appeal to decisions of the Workers' Compensation Appeal Tribunal which finally disposed of the issues between the parties.
s 102	Special jurisdiction of Review Officer	Evans v Gen Motors-Holden Automotive Ltd (1988) 1 WCATR 45 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): 1. Determination of claims–costs–Tribunal declining jurisdiction–Appeal from Review Officer–Review Officer without jurisdiction. 2. Jurisdiction of Workers Comp App Tribunal–Discontinuance of weekly payments–sufficiency of claim.

		Cameron v WorkCover Corporation (1993) 62 SASR 21 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, WorkCover Corporation is not a "person who is directly affected by a decision" within s 95(1). The personal decision of a Review Officer under s 102(3)(b) is subject to an appeal which can be instituted by the Corporation pursuant to its statutory right under s 97(1) and (2)(c). s 106	Payment of interim benefits	Thuy Thi Vu v Review Officer (1989) 1 WCATR 15, 21, 27 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Cessation of payments–procedure–notice to worker–weekly or interim payments–effect of failure to give notice. s 113	Disabilities that develop gradually	CSR Softwoods v Foulds: see s 31.
s 120	Dishonesty	Weinel v Rojas (1993) 60 SAIR 357; 5 WCATR 229 (SA Indus Ct FC): Held, a worker who by making a false representation that he was partially incapacitated for work and was thereby provided with suitable light work by the exempt employer obtains "a benefit under this Act" within the meaning of s 120 of the Act and may be guilty of an offence against that section.
Sched 1 cl 2	Transitional Provisions Application of repealed Act	Caltex Oil (Australia) Pty Ltd v WorkCover Corporation (1992) 59 SAIR 295; 4 WCATR 167 (SA Indus Ct FC): Held (by maj): 1. The "antecedent rights" referred to in cl 2 of the First Schedule of the Act include rights which the worker may have to damages at common law and the Corporation has the power to determine the worker's common law rights against the employer and the quantum of damages payable. 2. Subrogation occurs when the Corporation makes a determination under cl 2(5) of the First Schedule. United Yellow Cab Services Pty Ltd v WorkCover (1993) 60 SAIR 389; 5 WCATR 242 (SA Indus Ct FC): Held: 1. The First Schedule, cl 2(1) of the Act is to be understood as "Subject to this clause, the repealed Act continues to apply in respect of an injury that is attributable to an event or series of events that occurred before the appointed day." 2. The word "trauma" where it first appears in cl 2(2) must relate to an event or series of events that occurred before the appointed day, and caused injury under the repealed Act. Where it secondly appears in that subclause, it refers to an event or series of events that occurred on or after the appointed day. 3. An injury sustained by the worker before the appointed day is embraced by cl 2(1). The word "trauma" where it first appears in cl 2(2) is intended to refer to an event or series of events which caused injury under the repealed Act.
Sched 3	Lump Sum Compensation	WorkCover Corporation (APM Container) v Herbert: see Sched 3. Munno Para City Corporation v Sherwood (1992) 4 WCATR 216 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Shoulder injury to be assessed as arm injury.

reg 3	"Worker"	Wheeler v Review Officer: see reg 4.
reg 4	"Employ"	Wheeler v Review Officer (1989) 1 WCATR 90 (SA Workers Comp App Trib): Held, a worker assisted by an unpaid volunteer was not an employer, thus his injury was compensable.

s 6	Privilege of newspaper, radio or television reports of legal proceedings	Bunker v James and Downland Publications Ltd (1980) 26 SASR 286 (SA Sup Ct Zelling J) Action: The meaning of the word "contemporaneously", in s 6, considered and discussed. Held, that a newspaper report of proceedings in Victoria was too one-sided to be a fair and accurate report of proceedings within the meaning of s 6.
s 20	Effect and mode of bringing action, awarding of damages for funeral expenses, etc.	Wright v Johnston (1980) 25 SASR 595 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgment of Wells J: In an action for damages following the death of a wife and mother, damages must be apportioned between the husband and children.
s 25	Proceedings against and contribution between joint and several tortfeasors	Hanson v Matthew Brothers (Contractors Ltd (1990) 55 SASR 183 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Duty of care of third party to plaintiff discussed. Bakker v Joppich and Bitumax Pty Ltd: see s 26. Thompson v Henderson & Partners Pty Ltd (1990) 58 SASR 548 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, on the facts, the provisions of ss 25 & 26 of the Act concerning contribution between joint tortfeasers did not apply. Saccardo Constructions Pty Ltd v Gammon: see s 26.
s 26	Extent of contribution	Bakker v Joppich and Bitumax Pty Ltd (1980) 25 SASR 468 (SA Sup Ct Wells J): Held, that the defendant (an employee), having made accord and satisfaction with the plaintiff, became a "tort feasor" liable for the damage to the plaintiff (within the meaning of s 25(1)(c)) and therefore entitled to recover contribution from the employer. The court could reduce the amount of contribution by the employer, per s 26, if the defendant/employee had been negligent.

		Thompson v Henderson & Partners Pty Ltd: see s 25.
		Saccardo Constructions Pty Ltd v Gammon [No. 2] (1994) 63 SASR 333 (SA Sup Ct FC): A defendant can recover in contribution proceedings under ss 25 & 26 against a third party and joint tortfeasor on the basis of the full amount of any consent judgment between him and the plaintiff, only if the settlement reached between the plaintiff and the defendant is reasonable and therefore a "just and equitable" contribution. s 27a	Apportionment of liability in cases of contributory negligence	Watt v Bretag (1981) 27 SASR 301 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgment of Mohr J: Consideration and discussion of the question whether, in apportioning responsibility for the collision, the fact that the defendant was appreciably affected by intoxicating liquor should be taken into account.
		Christie v Bridgestone Australia Pty Ltd (1983) 33 SASR 377 (SA Sup Ct FC) Appeal from judgment of Zelling J: In the absence of a plea of contributory negligence s 27a(3) imposes no power or duty on the judge to apportion liability between the parties.
		Walker v Hungerfords (1987) ATR 68,780 (SA Sup Ct Bollen J): A plea of contributory negligence is available where a breach of conduct was a breach caused by negligent conduct, i.e. it is available to claims in both contract and tort.
		Martin v Stratman (1992) Aust Torts Reports 61,732 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, workers compensation payments are not "damages" within the meaning of the Wrongs Act. s 34	Damages where injured spouse participated in a business	Chorlton v Walker (1983) 35 SASR 47 (SA Sup Ct Legoe J) Action: Meaning of the expression "engaged in the conduct of a business", considered and discussed.
		Lott v Cameron (1983) 35 SASA 61 (SA Sup Ct FC) Action: A wife carried on publicity and promotion work in her husband's theatrical and booking agency. Held, the husband and wife were "engaged in the conduct of a business".
		Cole v Ellis (1992) Aust Torts Reports 61,630 (SA Sup Ct Mullighan J): Held, s 34 of the Act should not be interpreted as providing a limitation on the right to compensation by the plaintiff or to the way in which his loss of earning capacity is to be measured.
		Rolton v Dalgety Farmers Ltd (1992) 58 SASR 581 (SA Sup Ct FC): Held, s 34(1) of the Act creating rights, as between spouses who are partners, to recover for economic loss suffered as a result of injury to one of them, is the limit of the right given to business partners to claim for economic loss where a partner is injured by a third party.
s 35a	"Significantly impaired"	SGIC v Fiorenti (1991) ATR 69, 052 (SA Sup Ct FC): Interpretation of "significantly impaired" under s 35a(1)(a)(i). s 35A	Motor accidents	Andary v Burford (1994) Aust Torts Reports 61,726 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): Held, it is still open since the enactment of s 35A to award exemplary damages.
		Martin v Kelly (1995) 22 MVR 115 (Vic Sup Ct FC): It was submitted by the defendant in proceedings taken in Vic for injuries sustained in a motor vehicle accident occurring in SA that damages for non-economic loss should be assessed under s 35A. Held, the character of legislation is a matter to be determined by resource to and reliance on established canons of construction. There is no necessity for a court to accept the designation by parliament of an enactment as substantive rather than procedural. Section 35A is expressed in terms of intended application only; an invitation to foreign jurisdictions to apply the provisions of s 35A. Section 35A must be characterised as procedural for the present purpose.

		Clyne v Gulbin (1995) 65 SASR 397 (SA Sup Ct Millhouse J): The plaintiff (P) sustained injuries when a motor vehicle driven by him on a country road at night collided with a cow which had escaped from a nearby paddock, the property of the defendant (D). D was found negligent and no contributory negligence was found on the part of P. Damages were assessed at common law. On appeal, held: dismissing the appeal: 1. The incident constituted a "motor accident" as defined in s 35A(6) in that it was "an accident in which injury ... arises out of the use of a motor vehicle". 2. The injury was "not a consequence of the driving of a motor vehicle" for the purposes of s 35A(5). 3. P was not guilty of contributory negligence. Had P been guilty of contributory negligence it would probably follow that the injury would be held to be a consequence of the driving of a motor vehicle.

s 17	Proceedings on the charge	South Australian Police v W (1995) 64 SASR 408 (SA Sup Ct Cox J): Held, the typical occasion for use by a court of the provisions of s 17(2) is where the particular wrongdoer answers the requirement of paras (a) to (d) of the definition of "minor offence" in s 4. The question whether the matter should be referred to a family conference does not arise at the normal stage. It was not intended that the section provide an additional sentencing option for a court that is hearing a charge against a youth.
s 28	Power to disqualify from holding driver's licence	SA Police v L: see s 46 Road Traffic Act 1961.
s 63	Transfer of youths in detention to other training centre or prison	R v Smith (1994) 74 A Crim R 309 (SA Sup Ct Perry J): A youth serving a period of detention in a training centre, who was transferred to a prison for the remainder of his detention, under s 63(4), did not then become a prisoner "serving a sentence of imprisonment" within s 32(3) of the Criminal Law (Sentencing) Act 1988. Thus he was not entitled to apply to a court for an order fixing a non-parole period.
