(2) In this schedule "employee" means a person who is employed in a permanent capacity by the trust.

PART II.

PROVISION OF SUPERANNUATION BENEFITS FOR EMPLOYEES OF THE TRUST.

2. (1) Any employee may, subject to the provisions of this schedule, apply at any time to the trust for approval to become a contributor to the fund.

(2) The trust shall consider any such application and if approved by the trust the application shall be forwarded by the trust to the board.

(3) The board shall thereupon consider the application and, if approved by the board, the employee shall become a contributor to the fund from the day fixed by the board, and shall, subject to this schedule, pay the same contributions and be entitled to the same benefits under the Superannuation Act, 1926-1942, and be subject in all respects to the provisions of that Act as if he were an employee within the meaning of that Act.

3. If any question arises whether any person is an employee within the meaning of this schedule, that question shall be determined by the board, and the decision of the board shall be final and not subject to review by any court.

4. (1) If an employee who is employed by the trust at 1st January, 1947, is over the age of forty years at that day, and is not already a contributor to the fund, makes application to become a contributor to the fund within three months after the said day and, as a result of that application, becomes a contributor to the fund, the contributions to be made by that employee for a pension not exceeding four units, shall be computed as if his age at the time of becoming a contributor were either ten years less than his actual age or forty years of age, whichever is the greater.

(2) In any such case the amount by which the contributions made by the employee is less than the contributions which would otherwise be required to be made by him pursuant to the Superannuation Act, 1926-1942, shall be paid to the board by the trust at the same time as his contributions are payable to the board by the contributor.

(3) If pursuant to section 51 of the Superannuation Act, 1926-1942, the amount of his contributions is refunded to the employee by the board, the amount to be so refunded shall, subject to subsection (1) of the said section, be the actual amount of contributions paid by the employee, and, subject as aforesaid, the amount paid to the board by the trust pursuant to this paragraph shall be refunded by the board to the trust.

6. If an employee who is a contributor to the fund ceases to be an employee of the trust and contemporaneously with the time of so ceasing becomes an employee within the meaning of the Superannuation Act, 1926-1942, he shall continue to be a contributor to the fund, and in such case—

The trust may invest any amount so set aside in any securities of the Government or the State or in any securities guaranteed by the Commonwealth or the State.

8. If any doubt or difficulty arises respecting the application to any person of this schedule or the Superannuation Act, 1926-1942, or if, in the opinion of the board, this schedule omits to make provision for any matter necessary to be provided for relating to any person, the board may, by notice in writing, make a declaration for the purpose of removing any such doubt or difficulty or determining what is to be done in the circumstances, and the provisions of any such notice shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes as if the matters therein provided for had been provided for by this schedule.

9. (1) This schedule shall be construed as if it were incorporated with the Superannuation Act, 1926-1942, and, subject to the provisions of this schedule, the provisions of the said Act shall apply to every employee being a contributor of the fund.

(2) For the purposes of the application of sections 34 and 40 of the Superannuation Act, 1926-1942, to any employee, any time of employment as an employee of the trust shall be deemed to be time during which the employee has been in the service within the meaning of the said sections.

11. The trust may from time to time set aside any of its moneys for the purpose of providing any such retiring benefits. The trust may invest any amount so set aside in any securities of the Commonwealth or the State or in any securities guaranteed by the Commonwealth or the State.
