DIVISION II—JURISDICTION AND POWERS OF COMMISSION

Jurisdiction of Commission.

25. (1) In addition to and not in derogation from the jurisdiction elsewhere conferred on the Commission by this Act the Commission shall, subject to this Act, have jurisdiction to hear and determine—

(a) any matter or thing arising from or relating to any industrial matter;

and

(b) any question as to the rights of employees in a specified occupation or calling or in specified occupations or callings to do certain work or a certain kind of work to the exclusion of all other employees or to the exclusion of employees in all or some specified occupations or callings, but except as provided in this Act the Commission shall not have jurisdiction over any matter or thing that is within the jurisdiction of a Committee.

(2) In the exercise of its jurisdiction under this Act, the Commission shall, at all times, make all such suggestions and do all such things as to it appear to be right and proper for effecting conciliation between parties, for preventing and settling disputes and for settling claims by amicable agreement between parties.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section the Commission shall not, except as is provided in this Act, have jurisdiction over any industrial matter concerning any industry for which, at the time, a Committee is or is in the course of being constituted, and as to which matter such Committee has or will have jurisdiction, but the alteration of the area of the State within which a Committee shall have jurisdiction or the constitution of a new Committee shall not affect the validity of an award or order of the Commission in operation at the time when such alteration or constitution becomes effective and every such award or order shall continue in force, subject to the provisions of section 32 of this Act, until a Committee makes an award dealing with the same matter or, if the Committee makes an award dealing with some only of such matters, every such award or order of the Commission shall continue in force as regards matters not dealt with by that Committee.

Mediation.

26. (1) Where it appears to a Presidential Member or a Commissioner that—

(a) mediation in an industrial matter is desirable in the public interest;

and

(b) the matter or thing in relation to which mediation is desirable would be, if submitted to the Commission, within the jurisdiction of the Commission, then the Presidential Member or Commissioner may act as a mediator to deal with that industrial matter and for that purpose may call a voluntary conference of the parties involved.

(2) Any person who attends a voluntary conference called under subsection (1) of this section and who makes application to the Registrar shall on application be entitled to be paid out of the general revenue of the State, which is hereby to the necessary extent appropriated accordingly, such recompense as the Presidential Member or Commissioner presiding over the conference certifies to be reasonable, having regard to the conduct of the person in relation to the matter of the conference both before and at the conference and to the expenses and loss of time incurred by the person.

Compulsory conference.

27. (1) The Commission constituted of a Presidential Member, shall, for the purposes of the jurisdiction conferred on the Commission elsewhere in this Act have power on its own motion or on application by a registered association, to convene a compulsory conference presided over by a Presidential Member or a Commissioner by summoning any person to attend such a conference at a time and place specified in the summons.

(2) The Presidential Member or Commissioner presiding over a conference referred to in subsection (1) of this section may summon any person to attend at the conference.

(3) Any person may be summoned under this section notwithstanding that he is not a party to or directly involved in the matter the subject of the conference if the Presidential Member or Commissioner presiding over the conference, considers that the presence of that first mentioned person is likely to assist in dealing with or settling the matter.

(4) A conference referred to in subsection (1) of this section may be held in public or in private or partly in public and partly in private, at the discretion of the Presidential Member or Commissioner presiding over the conference.

(5) Any person who is summoned under this section, who attends pursuant to that summons and who continues his attendance as directed by the Presidential Member or Commissioner presiding over the conference and who makes application to the Registrar shall, on application, be entitled to be paid out of the general revenue of the State, which is hereby to the necessary extent appropriated accordingly, such recompense as the Presidential Member or Commissioner presiding over the conference certifies to be reasonable, having regard to the conduct of the person in relation to the matter of the conference both before and at the conference and to the expenses and loss of time incurred by the person.

(6) A person summoned under this section shall not, without reasonable excuse (proof of which shall lie upon him), refuse or fail to attend the conference in obedience to the summons and continue in his attendance as directed by the Presidential Member or Commissioner presiding over the conference.

Penalty: Five hundred dollars.

(7) It shall be a defence to proceedings for an offence that is a contravention of subsection (6) of this section for the defendant to prove that the summons was not brought to his attention.

(8) A person shall be deemed to have been summoned under this section if—

(a) he is served with a copy of the summons in any manner provided for the service of documents under this Act;

(b) the substance of the summons is contained in a telegram sent to that person at his place of residence or business last known to the Commission;

(c) a copy of the summons is sent by certified mail to the person at his place of residence or business last known to the Commission.

(9) Whenever in the opinion of the Presidential Member or Commissioner presiding over the conference it is desirable to do so, he may refer the matter of the conference to the Commission constituted of himself and thereupon the Commission as so constituted may of its own motion and without any application being made hear and determine any industrial matter or thing arising out of the conference notwithstanding that the industrial matter or thing would, but for this subsection, be within the jurisdiction of a Committee.

(10) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, an order, made by the Commission in the exercise of the power conferred on it by subsection (9) of this section, shall be binding only on those persons represented before the Commission or summoned to appear at the conference.

General powers of the Commission.

28. (1) The Commission shall, as regards any matter within its jurisdiction, have power—

(5) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, in any other law or in any practice to the contrary—

(a) the Commission, in the exercise of any jurisdiction, duty, power or function conferred or imposed by or under this Act, shall be governed in its procedure and in its judgments, awards, orders and decisions by equity, good conscience, and the substantial merits of the case, without regard to the technicalities or legal forms or the practice of courts;

and

(b) the Commission, in the exercise of any such jurisdiction, duty, power, or function, shall not be bound by any rules or practice as to evidence, but may inform its mind on any matter in such manner as it thinks just.

Further powers of Commission.

29. (1) In the exercise of its powers the Commission may—

(f) direct with due regard to local circumstances within what limits of area (if any) and subject to what conditions and exceptions (if any), an award shall be binding upon the persons engaged in an industry whether as employers or employees but, except as is provided by section 110 of this Act, no such award shall be made binding on any employers or employees who are for the time being subject to an industrial agreement;

(g) direct that an award shall have effect on and from a day that occurred before the day on which the award was made being a day not earlier than the day on which the application in respect of which the award was made was lodged with the Commission.

(2) An award referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section shall only provide for preference in employment to members of a registered association of employees in circumstances where and to the extent that all factors relevant to the employment of such members and the other person or persons affected or likely to be affected by the award, are otherwise equal.

(2) The Commission shall not deal with any matter the subject of an application before it until it is satisfied that the substance of the application and the day and time on which it is to be heard has been advertised in the manner prescribed by the Rules or has been communicated to representatives of all persons likely to be bound by the award.

Living wage to be secured.

31. The Commission shall not in any award fix wages or rates in respect of adult employees which do not secure the payment of the living wage, for the time being in force to those employees.

Form, operation and continuance of award.

32. (1) Any award of the Commission, not being an order of the Commission, in any matter shall—

and

(f) be settled and signed by the Registrar.

(2) After the expiration of the period referred to in paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of this section, an award shall, unless the Commission otherwise orders, continue in force until a new award has been made with respect to any of the employees covered by the award, in which case the former award shall cease to have any effect as regards those employees.

DIVISION III

DIVISION III—LIVING WAGE

Living wage inquiry.

35. (1) The Full Commission, of its own motion, or upon application made to it by the Minister, the South Australian Chamber of Manufactures Incorporated, the South Australian Employers' Federation Incorporated, The United Trades and Labor Council of South Australia, or any registered association by leave of the President, may make a determination declaring the living wage to be paid to adult male employees, and the living wage to be paid to adult female employees.

(2) In making any such determination the Full Commission may to such extent and in such manner as it thinks fit take into consideration any decision of the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Commission (whether made upon the basis of economic considerations or otherwise) affecting or likely to affect wages payable generally to employees subject to its awards in this State.

(3) In making such a determination the Full Commission shall have power to fix different rates to be paid in different areas.

(4) Every living wage so declared shall be a weekly living wage.

(5) No new determination shall be made until the expiration of at least six months from the date of the previous determination.

(6) When the Full Commission makes a determination under this section, a copy of the determination shall be forwarded to the Minister who shall publish it in the Gazette and the determination shall come into force as from the day or days determined by the Full Commission.

Alteration of awards.

36. (1) Where the Full Commission is satisfied that, having regard to any decision of the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Commission affecting or likely to affect the wages or other remuneration payable generally to employees subject to its awards in this State, any variation (which variation may include provision for a minimum wage in excess of the living wage) should be made in the wages or other remuneration payable generally to employees under awards, the Full Commission may order that any such variation be made, and such a variation shall come into force as from a day or days determined by the Full Commission.

(2) An award declared to be a common rule pursuant to the provisions of the Industrial Code, 1967-1972, shall, notwithstanding any variation in the award under this section, continue, as amended, to be a common rule.

(3) An order may be made under subsection (1) of this section by the Full Commission of its own motion, or upon application by the Minister, the South Australian Chamber of Manufactures Incorporated, the South Australian Employers' Federation Incorporated, The United Trades and Labor Council of South Australia, or any registered association by leave of the President.

Power of Governor to declare living wage.

37. (1) Subject to this section the Governor may by proclamation declare any one or more of the following living wages:—

(a) the living wage for adult male employees throughout the whole State;

(b) the living wage for adult male employees in any part or parts of the State specified in the proclamation;

(c) the living wage for adult female employees throughout the whole State;

(d) the living wage for adult female employees in any part or parts of the State specified in the proclamation.

(2) A proclamation shall not be made under subsection (1) of this section unless—

(a) the Minister is satisfied that the proclamation is desirable in order to avoid unjustifiable differences between comparable rates of wages fixed under Commonwealth and State laws respectively;

and

(b) the President has recommended that the proclamation be made.

(3) When a proclamation made under subsection (1) of this section is published in the Gazette it shall be deemed to be and shall have the same effect in all respects as if it were a determination of a living wage by the Full Commission published in the Gazette pursuant to this Act but any such proclamation may specify the day on which the living wage thereby declared shall come into force, and that living wage shall come into force accordingly.

(4) A living wage declared under this section shall remain in force until another living wage in lieu thereof is declared by proclamation under this section or is determined by the Full Commission under this Part, and comes into force.

(5) Neither this section nor any proclamation in force under this section shall take away any power of the Full Commission to declare a living wage but the Full Commission shall not make a determination of a living wage for any employees for whom a living wage has been declared by proclamation and is in force, until the expiration of at least six months after the day when the living wage so declared by proclamation came into force.

(6) If the Full Commission declares a living wage for any employees while such a proclamation is in force but after the expiration of the period mentioned in subsection (5) of this section, that living wage shall, notwithstanding the proclamation previously in force, but subject to any proclamation made under subsection (1) of this section after the declaration, be the living wage in relation to employees to whom it applies.

(7) Any reference in this Act to a variation or an increase or decrease in the living wage occurring by reason of a determination of the Full Commission shall be construed so as to include any increase or decrease occurring in the living wage as a result of a proclamation made under this section.

Variations of awards with variations in living wages.

38. (1) When a variation occurs in the living wage (or wages) for adult male or adult female employees or both the following consequences shall ensue as regards awards operative in the area for which such living wage (or wages) was (or were) declared and which awards were based on such living wage (or wages) as last previously declared:—

(a) every weekly wage prescribed by such awards for adult male or adult female employees shall be increased or decreased by the amount of the increase or decrease in the appropriate weekly living wage and every wage so prescribed for any other period shall be increased or decreased by an amount which bears the same proportion to the amount of the increase or decrease in the appropriate weekly living wage as the period for which such wage is prescribed bears to the normal working week in the particular industry and every annual salary prescribed shall be increased or decreased by fifty-two and one-sixth times the amount of the increase or decrease in the weekly living wage;

(b) every wage prescribed by such awards for employees under twenty-one years of age shall be increased or decreased as nearly as practicable by an amount bearing the same ratio to that wage as the amount of the increase or decrease in the living wage bears to the living wage prior to the increase or decrease, but such amount shall not be greater than the amount prescribed by paragraph (a) of this subsection for adult male or adult female employees, as the case may be, but notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, where a wage mentioned in this paragraph is expressed as a percentage of a rate for adult employees the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply and such award shall be construed as meaning that such wage shall be the percentage of the adult rate as varied in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection;

(c) notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, where an annual salary, if increased or decreased in accordance with any of the preceding paragraphs of this subsection, would be an amount ending with a fraction of a dollar not exceeding forty-nine cents such salary shall be increased or decreased to that amount omitting that fraction, and where a weekly wage if so increased or decreased would be an amount other than a multiple of ten cents, that wage shall be increased or decreased to the nearest multiple of ten cents but where an annual salary if so increased or decreased would be an amount ending with a fraction of a dollar exceeding forty-nine cents such salary shall be increased or decreased to the multiple of one dollar next above that amount and where a weekly wage, if so increased or decreased, would be an amount exceeding a multiple of ten cents by more than five cents, that wage shall be increased or decreased to the multiple of ten cents next above that amount;

and

(d) each award shall be read and construed for all purposes as if it had been altered by the Commission or a Committee, as the case may be, in accordance with the preceding paragraphs of this subsection and the increased or decreased rates shall be payable as from the day when the increase or decrease comes into force until a different living wage comes into force or until the award is otherwise altered, or ceases to operate and the appropriate common rule order, if any, shall be deemed to have been varied accordingly.

(2) The provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding any other provision of this Act.

(3) Where a variation occurs in the living wage (or wages) for adult employees in the metropolitan area the wages prescribed by awards in force in other areas for which no living wage (or wages) has (or have) been declared shall be varied in the same manner as prescribed by subsection (1) of this section.

(4) For the purposes of this section an award shall be taken to be based on the living wage as last previously declared if—

(a) that award was made during the currency of that living wage or of a previous living wage of the same amount;

or

(b) that award has been varied as to wages either by the Commission or a Committee or by the operation of this Act during the currency of that living wage.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as in any way limiting the power or discretion of the Full Commission to declare different living wages for different defined areas or the power or discretion of the Commission or a Committee to prescribe different rates of pay for different areas.

Publication of amended awards.

39. (1) The Registrar shall as soon as practicable after any alteration is made—

(a) in the living wage;

or

(b) pursuant to subsection (1) of section 36 of this Act, publish in the Gazette a copy of every award affected by the alteration amended in accordance with that alteration.

(2) A copy of the Gazette containing an award published under this section shall be prima facie evidence of the terms of the award as so altered.

(a) a retired employee;

(b) a person who is undergoing a course of training to enable him to be an employee;

(c) a person employed by the Government of the Commonwealth or an instrumentality or agency of that Government;

and

(d) a person or a person of a class prescribed as being an employee or a class of employees for the purpose of this Part.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be held or construed as making or purporting to make an award or order binding on or applicable to any person, referred to in paragraph (c) of the definition of employee in subsection (1) of this section, in his capacity as such.

Registration of associations.

115. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part any association consisting—

(a) in the case of employers, of two or more employers, who, in the aggregate, employ not less than twenty employees;

or

(b) in the case of employees, of not less than twenty employees, together with such other persons (if any), whether employers or employees or not as have been appointed officers of the association and admitted as members thereof may, on compliance with the prescribed conditions, be registered under this Part.

(2) Where the membership of an association consists in part of persons referred to in the definition of "employee" in subsection (1) of section 114 of this Act, those persons shall not be counted in determining whether the association is an association of not less than twenty employees, and the registration shall not be refused solely on the ground that such persons are members of the association and such persons may continue to be, or may become, members of such association and the registration of a registered association shall not be cancelled under this Act solely on the ground that any such person was at or after the time at which that association was registered, whether that association was registered under this Act or under any corresponding previous enactment, a member of that registered association.

(3) The Governor may, by regulation, prescribe model rules for associations and the adoption of any such model rules by an association shall be sufficient compliance with such of the conditions prescribed as are dealt with by the adopted rules.

Method of dealing with application for registration.

116. (1) Upon receipt of an application by any association to be registered under this Part, the Registrar shall—

(a) publish notice of the application once at least in the Gazette and once at least in one or more daily newspapers circulating in the metropolitan area;

(2) The Registrar shall, whether or not an objection has been made by any registered association, unless in all the circumstances he thinks it undesirable to do so, refuse an application to register an association where, in the same locality and connected with the same industry, there exists a registered association to which, in his opinion, the members of the association applying for registration (hereafter in this section referred to as "the applicant association") might conveniently belong, but if such registered association is registered under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1972 of the Commonwealth or is a branch of or forms part of an organization so registered and the applicant association is registered under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1972 of the Commonwealth or is a branch of or forms part of an organization so registered the Registrar shall not refuse to register the applicant association merely on the ground that its members might conveniently belong to such registered association.

(3) Subject to this section, the Registrar shall, on being satisfied that the association is qualified to be registered under this Part and that the precribed conditions have been complied with register, without fee, the association and issue a certificate of registration.

(4) When any applicant association is registered under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1972 of the Commonwealth or is a branch, or forms part, of any organization so registered, the Registrar may dispense with compliance by any such association with any condition relating to its rules.

(5) An association shall not be registered—

(a) if its name is identical with that of any other registered association or of any organization registered under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1972 of the Commonwealth or so nearly resembles any such name as to be likely to deceive members of any such registered association or the public;

(b) until all objections have been finally dealt with;

and

(c) if, on appeal, the Full Commission has directed that it shall not be registered.

(6) An association aggrieved may, in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time, object to the Registrar to the proposed registration of an association under this Part.

Power for registered association to change name.

119. (1) Any registered association which has changed its name in the manner prescribed by its rules, or if it has no rules relating to change of name, pursuant to a resolution passed by a majority of the members present and voting at a meeting of the association specially called for the purpose, of which meeting not less than fourteen days notice was given to all the members, may apply to the Registrar to register the change of name.

(5) No association shall change its name so that the name when changed is identical with that of any other registered association or an organization registered under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1972 of the Commonwealth or so nearly resembles any such name as to be likely to deceive members of any such registered association or organization or the public.

Branch may be treated as distinct association.

(3) The Registrar shall, upon application made to him for the purpose in manner prescribed, and on being satisfied that all the prescribed conditions and requirements have been complied with, register any addition to, alteration or rescission of the rules of any association or any change in the constitution of an association, but the Registrar shall not be required to register any such addition, alteration, rescission or change which, in his opinion, would prejudicially affect the members of the applicant association or of any other association.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (3) of this section, the Registrar may register any addition to, alteration or rescission of the rules of, or any change of constitution of, an association notwithstanding that the addition, alteration, rescission or change may prejudicially affect the members of the applicant association, or any other association, if the applicant association is a branch of or forms part of an organization registered under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1972 of the Commonwealth and the effect of the addition to, alteration or rescission of the rules or any change of constitution of the applicant association is to bring those rules or that constitution into substantial conformity with the rules or constitution of the organization, registered under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904-1972 of the Commonwealth, of which the applicant association is a branch or, as the case may be, forms part.

(5) The Registrar may, if the applicant association so agrees, adjourn an application to register an addition to, alteration or rescission of a rule or rules, including any rule or rules which contains or contain the constitution of the association, for the purpose of enabling the applicant association to amend that rule or those rules, and the Registrar may treat the application so adjourned as if it were the original application.

(6) The Rules may prescribe the person or persons of a class who may object to the Registrar to the proposed registration of an addition to, alteration or rescission of a rule or rules under this section and the Rules may prescribe the manner in and the time within which an objection may be made.

PART II

PART II

CONSUMER TRANSACTIONS

DIVISION I

DIVISION I—CONSUMER CONTRACTS GENERALLY

Contract conditional upon credit.

7. (1) Where a consumer makes it known to a supplier that he intends to seek credit for the purposes of performing his obligations under a consumer contract that he proposes to enter into with the supplier, or circumstances exist from which that intention should be inferred by the supplier, the contract shall be subject to a condition that if the consumer, after taking all reasonable steps to obtain the requisite credit, is unsuccessful in doing so—

(a) the consumer may by notice in writing served on the supplier rescind the contract;

and

(b) in that event, the goods shall be returned to the supplier, and the consumer will be entitled to recover from the supplier any consideration or the value thereof, paid or given in pursuance of the contract.

(2) Any information communicated by a consumer to an employee of a supplier shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to have been communicated to the supplier.

(3) In the circumstances referred to in subsection (1) of this section, the supplier may contract with the consumer upon terms that the consumer will indemnify the supplier for any loss (in excess of any loss resulting from the normal use of goods) suffered by him in the event of the consumer not obtaining the requisite credit.

(4) A supplier shall not be entitled to recover any moneys in pursuance of an indemnity under subsection (3) of this section unless he has specifically drawn to the attention of the consumer the fact that the contract contains that indemnity.

Conditions and warranties to be implied in consumer contracts.

8. (1) In every consumer contract for the sale of goods there shall be—

(a) an implied condition on the part of the supplier that in the case of a sale he has a right to sell the goods, and that in the case of an agreement to sell he will have a right to sell the goods at the time when the property is to pass;

and

(b) an implied warranty that the goods will be free from any charge or encumbrance in favour of any third party not declared or known to the consumer before or at the time when the contract is made.

(2) In every consumer contract for the sale or supply of goods there shall be an implied warranty that the consumer shall have and enjoy quiet possession of the goods for so long as he is not in default under the contract.

(3) Where there is a consumer contract for the sale or supply of goods by description there shall be an implied condition that the goods shall correspond with the description, and if the contract is made by reference to sample as well as description, it is not sufficient that the bulk of the goods corresponds with the sample if the goods do not also correspond with the description.

(4) In every consumer contract for the sale or supply of goods there shall be an implied condition that the goods shall be of merchantable quality but no such condition shall be implied—

(a) as regards defects in goods of which the supplier or an agent of the supplier could not reasonably have been aware at the time the contract was made;

or

(b) where the consumer has examined the goods or a sample thereof, as regards defects that the examination ought to have revealed.

(5) For the purposes of this section goods are of merchantable quality if they are as fit for the purpose for which goods of that description are ordinarily used as is reasonable to expect having regard to the following considerations:—

(a) the price of the goods and the terms and conditions of the relevant consumer contract and the circumstances surrounding the formation of the contract;

(b) the apparent condition of the goods.

(6) Where the consumer expressly, or by implication, makes known to the supplier, or a servant or agent of the supplier the particular purpose for which the goods are required, so as to show that he relies on the supplier's skill or judgment and the goods are of a description which it is in the course of the supplier's business to supply, there shall be an implied condition in the consumer contract that the goods shall be reasonably fit for that purpose.

(7) Subsections (3), (4), (5) and (6) of this section do not apply to a consumer contract for the sale of a second-hand vehicle within the meaning of the Second-Hand Motor Vehicles Act, 1971.

Implied warranty in consumer contract for the provision of services.

9. (1) There shall be an implied warranty in every consumer contract for the provision of services that the services will be rendered with due care and skill and that any materials supplied in connection with those services shall be reasonably fit for the purpose for which they are supplied.

(2) Where the consumer expressly, or by implication, makes known to the supplier, or a servant or agent of the supplier, the particular purpose for which the services are required, or the result that he desires the services to achieve, so as to show that he relies on the supplier's skill and judgment and the services are of a description that it is in the course of the supplier's business to provide, there shall be an implied warranty in a consumer contract for the provision of the services that the services and any materials supplied in connection therewith shall be reasonably fit for that purpose or of such a nature and quality that they might reasonably be expected to achieve that result.

Exclusion, etc. of implied terms.

10. (1) The conditions and warranties to be implied in a consumer contract pursuant to the provisions of this Part may not be excluded, limited or modified by agreement.

(2) Any other condition or warranty to be implied in a consumer contract may (subject to any other enactment or rule of law) be excluded, limited or modified by agreement.

(3) In any legal proceedings, any purported exclusion, limitation or modification of a condition or warranty that is capable of exclusion, limitation or modification shall be regarded as ineffectual unless it is proved that before the formation of the contract the attention of the consumer was drawn specifically to that exclusion, limitation or modification.

Affect of this Act on other laws applicable to consumer contracts.

11. This Act does not affect the operation of the Sale of Goods Act, 1895-1972, or of any other Act or law in relation to consumer contracts except to the extent that this Act is inconsistent with the provisions of the Sale of Goods Act, or the other Act or law.

Joint and several liability of suppliers.

12. Where two or more persons are suppliers under or in respect of a consumer contract those suppliers shall be jointly and severally liable to the consumer in respect of any liability that he may establish against either of them under or in respect of the consumer contract.

Recovery of damages from supplier or credit provider.

13. (1) Where a consumer is entitled to recover damages against a supplier under or in respect of a consumer contract or any breach thereof, or any representation or warranty made in the course of, or in connection with, negotiations leading to the formation of the contract, he shall be entitled to recover those damages from—

(a) the supplier;

(b) subject to this section a linked credit provider (not being a supplier in respect of the consumer contract) who provided credit in respect of the consumer contract.

(2) Where judgment is sought against a credit provider for the recovery of damages in pursuance of this section, the action must be brought against the supplier and the credit provider unless the supplier is insolvent, or there is no reasonable prospect of serving process upon him, in which event the action may be brought against the credit provider alone.

(3) A judgment shall not be given against a credit provider under this section for an amount exceeding the amount of the principal advanced under the consumer credit contract and of the costs (if any) awarded against the credit provider.

(4) Where judgment is given in favour of the plaintiff in an action in which the supplier and the credit provider are joined as parties, the plaintiff shall not proceed to enforce the judgment against the credit provider unless he has by notice in writing served upon the supplier demanded satisfaction of the judgment and the supplier has not, at the expiration of thirty days from the date of service of the notice, satisfied the judgment.

(5) A credit provider against whom any amount has been recovered under this section, may recover that amount, as a debt due to him, from the supplier.

Representations, etc.

14. Any statement or representation made in relation to goods and services that are, or subsequently become, subject to a consumer contract by an employee or a person acting on behalf, of a supplier shall be deemed to be a statement or representation made by the supplier.

Rescission of consumer contract.

15. (1) A consumer shall be entitled, within a reasonable time (not exceeding seven days) after the delivery of goods in pursuance of a consumer contract, to rescind the contract on the ground of any breach of condition on the part of the supplier.

(2) The contract may be rescinded by notice in writing served upon the supplier.

(3) Where the property in the goods has passed to a consumer in pursuance of a contract, and the contract has been rescinded under this section, the property in the goods shall forthwith re-vest in the supplier with whom the contract was made, and the consumer shall return the goods to that supplier.

(4) In the event of recission under this section, the consumer may recover from the supplier, as a debt, the amount or value of any consideration paid or provided by him under the consumer contract.

(5) Where—

(a) the goods are not returned to the supplier within a reasonable time after rescission;

(b) the goods have been rendered unmerchantable after delivery to the consumer;

(c) the goods have been damaged by abnormal use after delivery to the consumer;

or

(d) the Tribunal on the application of the supplier made within fourteen days of the date of the purported rescission declares the rescission invalid on the ground that rescission is not an appropriate remedy in view of the nature of the goods, the conduct of the parties, or any other circumstances of the transaction, any purported rescission of a consumer contract under this section shall be void.

(6) There shall be no appeal against a declaration of the Tribunal under this section.

(7) The right of rescission conferred by this section shall be in addition to, and shall not derogate from, a right of rescission under any other act or law.

Rescission of credit contract.

16. (1) Where a consumer rescinds a consumer contract (either in pursuance of this Act, or any other Act or law)—

(a) a consumer credit contract made in respect of the consumer contract by the supplier under that contract;

or

(b) a linked consumer credit contract made in respect of the consumer contract, shall, by force of this section, be rescinded.

(2) Upon rescission of a consumer credit contract under this section—

(a) the consumer may recover, as a debt, from the credit provider any amount paid by the consumer under that consumer credit contract;

(b) the credit provider may recover, as a debt, from the supplier any amount paid by him to the supplier under the credit contract, and, in addition, the amount of any loss incurred by him as a result of the rescission.

and

(c) the credit provider may recover, as a debt, from the consumer, any amount paid to the consumer under the credit contract.

Obligations of parties where goods are subject to consumer mortgage.

17. (1) The fact that goods to which a consumer contract relates are subject to a consumer mortgage shall not prevent the rescission of the consumer contract either under this Act or under any other Act or law.

(2) Where a consumer contract is rescinded—

(a) the supplier under that contract shall assume and be bound by the obligation of the consumer to repay any principal amount secured by the mortgage (and the repayment of that amount shall fall due immediately upon return of the goods to the supplier);

and

(b) the amount (if any) that the consumer is entitled to recover back from the supplier upon rescission of the contract shall be reduced by the extent of the supplier's liability under paragraph (a) of this subsection.

Powers of Tribunal in the event of rescission.

18. (1) In any dispute arising out of the rescission of a consumer contract, consumer credit contract or consumer mortgage the Tribunal may, upon the application of a consumer, supplier, credit provider or mortgagee make such orders as may be necessary—

(a) to give effect to, or to enforce any rights or liabilities consequent upon the rescission arising under this Act;

or

(b) subject to any such rights or liabilities, to restore the parties as nearly as practicable to their respective positions prior to the formation of the consumer contract, consumer credit contract or consumer mortgage.

(2) The jurisdiction conferred by this section is in addition to, and does not derogate from, the jurisdiction of any court.

Proposal made to credit provider to be revocable until accepted.

19. Any offer or application under which credit is sought by a consumer from a credit provider for the purpose of enabling or assisting him to discharge his obligations under a consumer contract shall be revocable at the option of the consumer until the offer or application has been accepted by the credit provider.

DIVISION II

DIVISION II—CONSUMER LEASES

Information to be included in a consumer lease.

20. (1) A consumer lease must be in writing and signed by the consumer and must contain the following information:—

(a) a brief description or identification of the goods to which the lease applies;

(b) the amount or value of any consideration to be paid or provided by the consumer prior to the delivery of the goods subject to the lease;

(c) the amount of any stamp duty or other impost payable in respect of the lease;

(d) the amount of any other charges not included in the rental payable under the lease, and a brief description of those charges;

(e) the amount of each payment to be made by the consumer under the lease, the date on which the first payment is due and either—

(i) the dates upon which the subsequent payments are due:

or

(ii) the interval between payments;

(f) the number of periodic payments to be made by the consumer, and the total amount payable under the lease;

(g) a statement of the conditions upon which the consumer may terminate the lease;

and

(h) a statement of the liabilities (if any) of the consumer upon termination of the lease.

(2) The supplier shall, within fourteen days of the formation of a consumer lease, serve upon the consumer a copy of the lease together with a notice in the prescribed form setting out relevant provisions of this Act that afford protection to the consumer.

Penalty: Five hundred dollars.

(3) If a consumer lease does not comply with the provisions of this section, the supplier shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars.

(4) A consumer lease shall be deemed to comply with this section notwithstanding that in the lease there is an omission or incorrect or insufficient description or misdescription in respect of the particulars to be contained in the lease, if the Tribunal or court, before which the lease is in question, is satisfied that the omission, incorrect or insufficient description or misdescription is not of such a nature as to mislead the consumer to his prejudice or disadvantage.

(5) A consumer lease that is not in writing shall not be enforceable by the supplier against the consumer.

Notice of repossession.

21. (1) A supplier with whom a consumer has entered into a consumer lease shall not exercise any right under the lease to take possession of the goods subject to the lease (other than such a right arising under a lease granted for a fixed term at the expiration of that term) unless he has, at least seven days before he takes possession of the goods served upon the consumer a notice in writing in the prescribed form of his intention to exercise that right.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply if—

(a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that the goods comprised in the lease will be, or have been, removed or concealed by the consumer contrary to the provisions of the lease;

or

(b) the supplier has been authorized by the Tribunal to take possession of the goods notwithstanding that the provisions of subsection (1) of this section have not been duly complied with.

Rights of consumer in respect of lease.

22. (1) The Tribunal may, upon the application of a consumer, avoid or modify any term or condition of a consumer lease that is harsh or unconscionable, or such that a Court of Equity would give relief.

(2) Where a consumer lease is granted for a fixed term, the consumer may at any time before the expiration of that term, terminate the lease by returning the goods subject thereto to the supplier at his place of business at any place fixed by agreement between the consumer and the supplier, or fixed on the application of the consumer by the Tribunal.

Amount payable on termination of lease.

23. The amount payable by the consumer upon termination of a consumer lease prior to the expiry of its term (by reason of breach of the provisions of the lease or otherwise) shall be—

(a) the amount that is in accordance with the terms of the lease to be paid in that event;

or

(b) the amount arrived at by the application of the principles established by regulation for the purposes of this section, whichever is the lesser.

DIVISION III

DIVISION III—ABOLITION OF HIRE-PURCHASE IN CONSUMER TRANSACTIONS

Abolition of Hire-Purchase.

24. (1) The property in any goods subject to a contract that constitutes, or to contracts that together constitute, a hire-purchase agreement, shall pass to the consumer upon delivery of the goods to him.

(2) Any provision of any such contract or contracts by virtue of which the supplier is empowered to take possession, or dispose of, the goods to which the contract or contracts relate shall be void.

(3) The rights of the supplier under any such contract or contracts shall be secured by a mortgage in terms prescribed by regulation.

(4) A hire-purchase agreement shall be deemed to be a sale by instalment within the meaning of the Consumer Credit Act, 1972, and the provisions of that Act shall apply in relation to any such agreement accordingly.

PART III

CONSUMER MORTGAGES

Interpretation.

25. Where the obligations whose performance is secured by a consumer mortgage are contained in a consumer credit contract that is separate from the mortgage, then, unless the contrary intention appears, a reference in this Part to a "consumer mortgage" or "mortgage" includes that separate consumer credit contract.

Discharge of consumer liabilities under consumer mortgage.

26. (1) Subject to this section, a consumer may, if he has given notice in writing to the mortgagee of his intention to do so, on or before the day specified for that purpose in the notice, discharge his obligations under a consumer mortgage by tendering to the mortgagee the net balance due to him under the mortgage.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the net balance due shall be the balance payable under the mortgage after deducting any amounts paid, by or on behalf of the consumer under the mortgage less—

(a) the statutory rebate for the credit charge;

(b) if the consumer requires the mortgagee to cancel any contract of insurance entered into by him in respect of the goods subject to the mortgage, the statutory rebate for insurance;

and

(c) if the consumer requires the mortgagee to cancel any contract entered into by the mortgagee for the maintenance, servicing or repair of the goods subject to the mortgage, the statutory rebate for maintenance.

(3) Where the mortgagee has taken possession of the goods in pursuance of the mortgage, the consumer must tender, in addition to the net balance due—

(a) the reasonable costs incurred by the mortgagee in taking possession of the goods and in incidental expenditure;

and

(b) any amount properly expended by the mortgagee upon storage, repair or maintenance of the goods.

(4) Where a mortgagee has taken possession of goods in pursuance of a consumer mortgage, and has served upon the consumer the notice that he is required, by this Act, so to serve upon or after taking possession of the goods, the rights conferred by this section shall not be exercisable by the consumer after the expiration of twenty-one days from the day on which that notice was served.

Notice to be given to consumer when goods repossessed.

27. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, a mortgagee shall not exercise any right or power to take possession of the goods comprised in a consumer mortgage unless he has served on the consumer a notice in writing in the prescribed form, and the period fixed by the notice (being a period of not less than seven days from the service of the notice) has expired.

(2) A mortgagee shall not be required to comply with subsection (1) of this section if—

(a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that the goods comprised in the mortgage will be, or have been, removed or concealed by the consumer contrary to the provisions of the mortgage, (but the onus of proving the existence of such grounds shall lie upon the mortgagee);

or

(b) the mortgage has been authorized by the Commissioner or the Tribunal to take possession of the goods notwithstanding that the provisions of subsection (1) of this section have not been complied with.

(3) The mortgagee shall upon, or within twenty-one days after, taking possession of the goods in pursuance of a consumer mortgage, serve on the consumer, and every guarantor, a notice, in writing, in the prescribed form setting forth the rights of the consumer, or the guarantor, as the case may be, under this Act.

(4) If the notice required by subsection (3) of this section is not served on the consumer, the mortgagee shall not exercise any right or power to sell, dispose of, or part with his possession of the goods otherwise than—

(a) with the consent in writing of the consumer;

or

(b) with the authority of the Commissioner or the Tribunal.

(5) If the notice required by subsection (3) of this section is not served on a guarantor, the mortgagee shall not be entitled to enforce the guarantee.

(6) There shall be no appeal against a decision of the Tribunal to grant its authority for the purposes of subsection (2) or subsection (4) of this section.

Possession of goods to be retained for certain period.

28. (1) Where a mortgagee has taken possession of any goods in pursuance of a consumer mortgage he shall not, without the consent in writing of the consumer or the authority of the Tribunal, sell or dispose of the goods, or part with possession of the goods—

(a) until after the expiration of twenty-one days from the date of service on the consumer of notice in the prescribed form setting forth the rights of the consumer under this Act;

(b) where the consumer has given the mortgagee a notice pursuant to the provisions of this Part requiring him to re-deliver the goods, until after the time for payment or tender pursuant to that notice has expired;

or

(c) where the consumer has made an application for relief under Part VI of this Act until the application has been disposed of by the Commissioner, or if he has referred the application to the Tribunal, until the application has been disposed of by the Tribunal.

(2) There shall be no appeal against a decision of the Tribunal to grant its authority for the sale or disposal of goods under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) This section does not apply where the consumer has voluntarily returned goods to a mortgagee pursuant to the provisions of this Part.

As to consumer's rights and immunities when goods re-possessed.

29. (1) Where a mortagee has taken possession of any goods comprised in a consumer mortage—

(a) the consumer may, before or within twenty-one days of the service on him of the notice setting forth his rights under this Act—

(i) by notice in writing served upon the mortgagee, require the mortgagee to re-deliver to or to the order of the consumer (subject to compliance by the consumer with the provisions of subsection (4) of this section) the goods that have been re-possessed;

(b) the amount or value of the commission or benefit (or where separate commissions or benefits have been paid or conferred, the aggregate amount or value thereof) exceeds twenty per centum of the total amount payable by way of premium or premiums under the contract of insurance,

Powers of court or Tribunal in relation to prescribed contracts of insurance.

41. (1) In any proceedings in respect of a prescribed contract of insurance if it appears to the court that a breach of, or failure to observe or perform, a term or condition of the contract of insurance may reasonably be excused on the ground that the insurer was not prejudiced by the breach or failure, the court may order that the failure be excused.

(2) Where a difference or dispute has arisen out of a prescribed contract of insurance, a party to the contract, or other interested person may apply to the Tribunal for an order that a breach of, or failure to observe or perform, a term or condition of the contract

(c) providing that arbitration is a condition precedent to any right of action or suit upon such a contract;

or

(d) otherwise imposing by reference to arbitration or to an award made in arbitration proceedings any limitation on the right of any person to bring or maintain any action or suit upon such a contract, shall be void.

(1) Where a motor vehicle is involved in any accident, and within eight hours after the accident a person, apparently of or above the age of fourteen years, who suffered injury in accident attends at, or is admitted into, a hospital for the purpose of receiving treatment for that injury, it shall, subject to this section, be the duty of any legally qualified medical practitioner by whom that patient it attended, to take as soon as practicable a sample of that patient's blood (notwithstanding that the patient may be unconscious) in accordance with this section. Compulsory blood tests.

(2) A medical practitioner shall not take a sample of blood under this section where, in his opinion, it would be injurious to the medical condition of his patient to do so.

(3) A medical practitioner shall not be obliged to take a sample of blood under this section where the patient objects to the taking of the sample of blood and persists in that objection after the medical practitioner has informed him that unless his objection is made upon genuine medical grounds, it may constitute an offence against this section.

(4) Where a motor vehicle is involved in any accident, and a person, apparently of or above the age of fourteen years, who suffered injury in the accident, is dead on arrival at the hospital or dies before a sample of blood has been taken in accordance with this section and within eight hours after admission to the hospital, it shall be the duty of a medical practitioner who certifies the cause of death, or reports the death to a coroner—

(a) to take a sample of blood from the body of the deceased in accordance with this section;

and

(b) shall cause the other container to be delivered to, or retained on behalf of, the person from whom the sample of blood was taken, or if he is dead, a relative or personal representative of the deceased.

(8) Each container must contain a sufficient quantity of blood to enable an accurate evaluation to be made on any concentration of alcohol present in the blood and the sample of blood taken by the medical practitioner must be such as to furnish two such quantities of blood.

(9) It shall be the duty of the medical practitioner by whom the sample of blood is taken to take such measures as are reasonably practicable in the circumstances to ensure that the blood is not adulterated and does not deteriorate so as to prevent a proper assessment of the concentration of alcohol present in the blood of the person from whom the sample was taken.

(10) The notice referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (7) of this section must be in the prescribed form and—

(a) must be signed by the medical practitioner by whom the sample of blood was taken and endorsed by him with the following information:—

(a) to the Commissioner of Police;

(b) to the medical practitioner by whom the sample of blood was taken;

and

(c) to the person from whom the sample of blood was taken, or if he is dead, a relative or personal representative of the deceased.

(12) If—

(a) the whereabouts of the person from whom the sample of blood was taken is unknown to the Minister;

or

(b) that person is dead and the identity or whereabouts of a relative or personal representative of the deceased is unknown to the Minister, the Minister shall not be required to comply with paragraph (c) of subsection (11) of this section but shall, at any time within three years after his receipt of the notice, provide a copy of the notice to any person who satisfies the Minister that he is a person to whom a copy of the notice should, but for this subsection, have been sent.

(13) An apparently genuine document purporting to be a notice or a copy of a notice under this section shall (subject to the discretion of a court to exclude the document from evidence on the ground that it is not relevant to the proceedings or that its probative value is slight and outweighed by the prejudice that it would cause to the defendant) be admissible in proceedings before a court as evidence of any fact stated in the notice.

(14) Any person who, upon being requested to submit to the taking of a sample of blood under this section, refuses or fails to comply with that request and who—

(a) fails to assign any reason based upon genuine medical grounds for that refusal or failure;

(b) assigns a reason for that refusal or failure that is false or misleading;

or

(c) makes any other false or misleading statement in response to the request, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

(15) Where a medical practitioner fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a provision of this section, or to perform any duty arising thereunder, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.

(16) No proceedings shall be commenced against a medical practitioner for an offence against subsection (15) of this section unless those proceedings have been authorized by the Attorney-General.

(17) An apparently genuine document purporting to be under the hand of the Attorney-General and to authorize proceedings against a medical practitioner for an offence under subsection (15) of this section shall, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be accepted by any court as proof that those proceedings have been authorized by the Attorney-General.

(18) No proceedings shall lie against a medical practitioner in respect of anything done by him in good faith and in compliance, or purported compliance, with the provisions of this section.

(19) In this section—

"accident" includes a collision caused either intentionally or unintentionally:

(3) The South-Eastern Drainage Act, 1931-1971, is hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act".

Commencement.

2. This Act shall be deemed to have come into operation on the first day of June, 1972.

Amendment of principal Act, s. 6—Definitions.

3. Section 6 of the principal Act is amended by inserting after the definition of "private drainage work" the following definition:—

"proportionate rebate" in relation to drainage rates means a proportionate rebate determined under section 53 of this Act:.

Repeal of s. 49 of principal Act and enactment of section in its place—
Liability to drainage rates.

4. Section 49 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section is enacted and inserted in its place:—

49. (1) Drainage rates shall be payable upon all ratable land in the South-East.

(2) In this section—

"ratable land" means all land—

(a) that has, in the opinion of the Board, been benefited by the construction of drains and drainage works;

and

(b) that is delineated on a plan prepared by, or under the direction of, the Board and deposited in the Central Plan Office of the Department of Lands, but does not include land declared by the appeal board not to be ratable land for the purposes of this Act if the declaration is for the time being in force.

(3) The Board may from time to time alter and revise the plan referred to in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The amount of the drainage rates to be paid upon any ratable land by a landholder for any financial year shall be—

(a) an amount calculated on the basis of the unimproved value of that ratable land as determined under the Valuation of Land Act, 1971-1972, in determinations of unimproved value in force at the commencement of the financial year;

(b) the amount of the proportionate rebate (if any) of drainage rates applicable to that ratable land.

(5) A determination of unimproved value shall be deemed to be in force at the time referred to in subsection (4) of this section if it is in force as at that time under the Valuation of Land Act, 1971-1972, whether the determination is actually made before or after that time.

(6) Where a determination of unimproved value in force at the time referred to in subsection (4) of this section is subsequently corrected or amended pursuant to the provisions of the Valuation of Land Act, 1971-1972, (whether in pursuance of an objection or appeal under that Act or otherwise), the determination of value, as corrected or amended, shall be deemed to have been in force at the time referred to in subsection (4) of this section.

(7) The right of the Board to recover drainage rates under this Act shall not be suspended or delayed by any objection to or appeal against, a determination of value under the Valuation of Land Act, 1971-1972, and the Board may recover drainage rates on the assumption that the determination of value is correct but if any alteration to a determination of value affecting the amount of the drainage rates payable in respect of any land is made under the Valuation of Land Act, 1971-1972, (whether in consequence of an objection or appeal, or otherwise) the Board shall refund to the landholder any excess amount recovered as drainage rates, or may recover any additional amount, recoverable on the basis of an altered determination of value, as arrears.

(8) The Valuer-General shall, at the request of the Board, determine in accordance with the Valuation of Land Act, 1971-1972, the unimproved value of any land in respect of which such a determination is required for the purpose of levying drainage rates under this Act.

5. Section 53 of the principal Act is amended— Amendment of principal Act, s. 53— Appeal.

(a) by striking out paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) and inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraphs:—

(a) that the appellant is not the landholder in respect of the landholding, or is the landholder in respect of only part of that landholding;

or

(b) that the landholding, or any of the land comprised therein, has received no direct or indirect benefit from the construction of the drains or drainage works.;

(b) by striking out subsection (5) and inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections:—

(5) Upon the hearing of an appeal, the appeal board may—

(a) if satisfied that the appellant is not the landholder in respect of the landholding, or any part thereof, make a declaration of that fact;

(b) if satisfied that none of the land comprised in the landholding, or in a separate part of the landholding, has received any direct or indirect benefit from the construction of the drains or drainage works, declare that the land comprised in the landholding, or that part of the landholding, is not ratable land for the purposes of this Act;

or

(c) if satisfied that a part of the land comprised in the landholding has received no direct or indirect benefit from the construction of the drains or drainage works, and that that part of the landholding does not constitute a separate part of the landholding, make a determination describing or delineating, with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified, the land that has received no direct or indirect benefit from the construction of the drains or drainage works.

(5a) Where the appeal board has made a determination under paragraph (c) of subsection (5) of this section, the South-Eastern Drainage Board shall cause the Valuer-General to make an assessment of the unimproved value of the land, identified in the determination of the appeal board as having received no direct or indirect benefit from the construction of the drains and drainage works, and the unimproved value of the whole of the ratable land comprised in the landholding.

(5b) Where a determination has been made under paragraph (c) of subsection (5) of this section in respect of any ratable land, there shall, subject to this section, be a proportionate rebate of the drainage rates payable upon that ratable land for the financial year commencing on the first day of July, 1972, and each subsequent financial year.

(5c) The proportionate rebate shall be the proportion of the drainage rates that would, but for the determination of the appeal board, be payable upon the ratable land that the unimproved value of the part of the ratable land that has, in the opinion of the appeal board, received no direct or indirect benefit from the construction of the drains or drainage rates bears to the unimproved value of the whole of the ratable land.

(5d) The unimproved values upon which the proportionate rebate is based shall be those determined by the Valuer-General under subsection (5a) of this section and the proportionate rebate shall be unaffected by any subsequent change in unimproved values.

(5e) Where ratable land to which a proportionate rebate applies is divided into separate portions subject to separate tenure, the South-Eastern Drainage Board shall determine the proportionate rebate (if any) applicable to each portion of the ratable land, and that determination shall not be subject to appeal.

(5f) Where a declaration or determination has been made by the appeal board under this section and it is, in the opinion of the South-Eastern Drainage Board, just that the declaration or determination be varied or revoked by reason of the construction of drains or drainage works after the date of the declaration or determination, the South-Eastern Drainage Board may by notice in writing served personally or by post on the landholder, revoke or vary the declaration or determination.

(5g) The landholder may appeal to the appeal board against the revocation or variation of a declaration or determination under subsection (5f) of this section, and the appeal board may, upon the hearing of any such appeal, vary or revoke the determination of the South-Eastern Drainage Board.;

and

(c) by inserting after subsection (7) the following subsection:—

(8) In this section—

"landholding" means the whole of the land referred to in a notice served under section 50 of this Act:

"separate part" of a landholding means—

(a) a part of the landholding that is not contiguous with any other part of the landholding;

or

(b) a part of the landholding that is described as a section, part section or block in a certificate of title, agreement or lease under which the land is held.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.
