No. 73 of 1987

An Act to provide for the granting of long service leave to workers; to repeal the Long Service Leave Act, 1967; and for other purposes.

[Assented to 5 November 1987]

The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Long Service Leave Act, 1987".

Commencement.

2. This Act will come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

Interpretation.

3. (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

"agreement" means—

(a) an industrial agreement within the meaning of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1972;

or

(b) an industrial agreement filed in the office of the Industrial Registrar under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904 of the Commonwealth:

"award" includes—

(a) an award or order of the Industrial Commission;

(b) an award of a conciliation committee;

(c) an award or order of the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Commission:

"corresponding law" means a law—

(a) of the Commonwealth;

(b) of a State (other than this State) or a Territory of the Commonwealth;

or

(c) of another country,

that confers long service leave entitlements:

"employer" means a person by whom a worker is employed:

"the Industrial Commission" means the Industrial Commission of South Australia:

"the Industrial Court" means the Industrial Court of South Australia:

"inspector" means an inspector appointed under the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1972:

"long service leave entitlement" means an entitlement to long service leave or payment in lieu of long service leave:

"registered association" means—

(a) an association registered under Part IX of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1972;

(b) an association registered under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904 of the Commonwealth:

"related corporations" means corporations—

(a) that are related corporations for the purposes of the Companies (South Australia) Code;

or

(b) that have substantially the same directors or are under substantially the same management:

"the relevant date" means the day on which long service leave is commenced or an entitlement to payment in lieu of long service leave arises:

"service" means continuous service with the same employer or with related employers under a contract of service or a series of contracts of service:

"worker" means a person employed under a contract of service.

(2) A reference in this Act to a worker's ordinary weekly rate of pay is a reference to the worker's weekly rate of pay as at the relevant date exclusive of overtime, shift premiums and penalty rates but this definition is subject to the following qualifications—

(a) if the worker is employed on commission or on any other system of payment by result, the worker's ordinary weekly rate of pay will be ascertained by averaging the worker's weekly earnings over the 12 months immediately preceding the relevant date;

(b) if at some time during the period of three years immediately preceding the relevant date—

(i) the worker was employed on an hourly basis at an hourly rate of pay;

or

(ii) the workers ordinary hours of work per week were varied and consequently the worker's weekly rate of pay was varied, the worker's ordinary weekly rate of pay will be ascertained by averaging the number of hours worked per week in that period of three years (disregarding weeks when the worker was on paid leave) and multiplying that result by the worker's rate of pay per hour as at the relevant date, exclusive of overtime, shift premiums and penalty rates (and for the purposes of this paragraph a person who is employed on a casual basis is not to be regarded as being paid at a penalty rate);

and

(c) if the worker's employer provides accommodation during his or her employment but not while the worker is on leave, the worker's ordinary weekly rate of pay will be increased by an amount representing the weekly value of that accommodation (that value being determined, where possible, by reference to an award or agreement and, where there is no applicable award or agreement, by reference to the fair and reasonable monetary value of that accommodation).

(3) Employers are related for the purposes of this Act if—

(a) one takes over or otherwise acquires the business or part of the business of the other;

(b) they are related corporations;

or

(c) a series of relationships can be traced between them under paragraph (a) or (b).

Territorial application of Act.

4. (1) Subject to this section, a worker's long service leave entitlement accrues under this Act in respect of—

(a) service in the State;

(b) service outside the State where the worker is predominantly employed in the State;

(c) service outside the State in pursuance of a contract of employment of which South Australia law is the proper law.

(2) Where a worker would, but for this subsection, have a long service leave entitlement both under this Act and a corresponding law, the worker may elect to take the entitlement under this Act or under the corresponding law, but not under both.

Long service leave entitlement.

5. (1) Subject to this Act, a worker who has 10 years or more service is entitled to the following long service leave—

(a) 13 weeks leave in respect of the first 10 years of service;

and

(b) 1.3 weeks leave in respect of each subsequent year of service.

(2) Where the service of a worker who is entitled to long service leave is terminated, the worker is entitled to a payment in lieu of long service leave.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a worker who has completed seven years service (but less than 10 years service) is, on termination of the worker's service, entitled to a payment equal to the monetary equivalent of 1.3 weeks leave in respect of each completed year of service.

(4) A worker is not entitled to a payment under subsection (3) if—

(a) the worker's contract of service is terminated on the ground of serious and wilful misconduct on the part of the worker;

or

(b) the contract of service is unlawfully terminated by the worker.

(5) Where a worker's service is terminated by the worker's death, the worker's entitlement under this section vests in his or her personal representative.

(6) Where long service leave has been taken by a worker or a payment in lieu of long service leave has been made to a worker, the worker's long service leave entitlement is reduced accordingly.

(7) An entitlement under this section only arises in respect of completed years of service.

Continuity of service.

6. (1) A worker's continuity of service is not affected by—

(a) subject to an order of the Court or the Industrial Commission to the contrary, a break in the worker's service brought about by the employer where the worker is re-employed pursuant to an order of a Court or the Industrial Commission;

(b) a break in the worker's service brought about by the employer in an attempt to avoid an obligation or liability imposed on the employer by this Act or by an award, agreement or scheme relating to long service leave;

(c) absence of the worker from work in accordance with the contract of service;

(d) absence of the worker from work on account of illness or injury;

(e) absence of the worker from work on account of long service leave or annual leave;

(f) absence of the worker from work on any other kind of leave;

(g) the standing down of the worker by the employer on account of slackness in trade where the worker is subsequently re-employed by the employer;

(h) a break in the worker's service arising directly or indirectly from an industrial dispute where the worker returns to work in accordance with the terms of settlement of the dispute or is re-employed by the employer when the dispute is settled;

(i) any other break in the worker's service brought about by the employer where the worker returns to work or is re-employed by the employer within two months.

(2) Where a worker's continuity of service with an employer is preserved under subsection (1) (f), (g), (h) or (i), the period of absence or the duration of the break from work is not to be taken into account in calculating the period of the worker's service with the employer.

(3) Where a worker enters into a contract of service with an employer within 12 months after the completion of an apprenticeship with the employer, the period of apprenticeship will be taken into account for the purpose of calculating the worker's period of service.

(4) Where a worker enters into service as a member of the Armed Forces of the Commonwealth (not being service as a member of the Permanent Forces), that period of service will be regarded as service with the employer by whom the worker was last employed.

Taking of leave.

7. (1) Long service leave should be granted by an employer to a worker as soon as practicable (taking into consideration the needs of the employer's business or undertaking) after the worker becomes entitled to the leave.

(2) Long service leave should be taken in one continuous period.

(3) The employer should give a worker at least 60 days notice of the date from which leave is to be taken.

(4) Notwithstanding the preceding subsections, an employer and a worker may agree—

(a) on the deferral of long service leave;

(b) that the worker take leave in separate periods of at least two weeks;

or

(c) that leave be granted and taken on less than 60 days notice.

(5) Long service leave may, by agreement between the employer and the worker, be taken in anticipation of the entitlement to leave accruing to the worker.

(6) If—

(a) a worker takes long service leave in anticipation of the entitlement to that leave accruing to the worker;

and

(b) before the entitlement to that leave accrues, the service of the worker is terminated (for any reason), the employer may deduct from any remuneration payable to the worker on the termination of service the difference between the amount paid to the worker in respect of the long service leave taken and the amount of payment in lieu of long service leave (if any) to which the worker would have been entitled on the termination of service if the worker had not taken leave in anticipation of the entitlement accruing.

(7) Every day occurring after the commencement of a period of long service leave (including public holidays and days on which the worker would not normally have been required to work) will be counted as a day of that leave.

Payment in respect of long service leave.

8. (1) Subject to this section, a worker who is on long service leave is entitled to be paid at his or her ordinary weekly rate of pay.

(2) Payment for a period of long service leave must be made in one of the following ways—

(a) in advance for the whole period of leave;

(b) on the same days as payment of wages would have been made if the worker remained at work (in which case payment must, at the written request of the worker, be made by cheque posted to an address specified by the worker);

or

(c) in some other way agreed between the employer and the worker.

(3) If a variation in a worker's rate of pay occurs while the worker is on leave, that variation must be reflected in the payment for the leave and if payment has been made in advance, the employer must, on the worker's return to work, make any adjustment necessary to give effect to the variation.

(4) A payment in lieu of long service leave made under this Act on the termination of a worker's service—

(a) will be calculated at the worker's ordinary weekly rate of pay applicable immediately before the termination;

and

(b) must be made to the worker immediately on the termination or, if the worker has died, to the personal representative of the worker on request.

Exemptions.

9. (1) Subject to this section, the Industrial Commission may on the application of—

(a) an employer;

(b) a party to an award, agreement or scheme relating to long service leave;

or

(c) a registered association that has a proper interest in the matter, determine that the long service leave entitlements of a particular class of workers will be determined by reference to a particular award, agreement or scheme rather than by reference to this Act.

(2) An application may be made under subsection (1) in anticipation of the making of an award, agreement or scheme.

(3) A determination under subsection (1) has effect in accordance with its terms.

(4) A determination will not be made under this section if the determination would disadvantage any class of present or future workers.

(5) Long service leave entitlements arising under an award, agreement or scheme to which a determination under this section relates are enforceable as if they had arisen under this Act.

(6) The Industrial Commission may revoke a determination under this Section if it is satisfied—

(a) that the employer has failed to grant long service leave or make payments in accordance with the award, agreement or scheme to which the determination relates;

or

(b) that it is for some other reason inappropriate that the determination should continue to have effect.

Records.

10. (1) An employer must, in respect of each worker, keep a record of—

(a) the worker's—

(i) date of commencement of service;

(ii) occupation or duties;

(iii) rate of pay;

(iv) number of hours worked per week (insofar as may be relevant to the worker's entitlement under this Act);

(v) entitlement to long service leave;

(b) any long service leave taken by the worker;

and

(c) when the service of the worker is terminated—

(i) the manner of termination;

and

(ii) any payment made to the worker in lieu of long service leave.

Penalty: $1 000.

(2) The record required to be kept under subsection (1)—

(a) must be in a form that complies with the regulations;

(b) must contain any additional particulars required by the regulations;

and

(c) must be kept throughout the period of the worker's service and for at least three years after the termination of that service.

(3) An employer must in respect of each worker, at intervals of 12 months, determine the average number of hours per week worked by the worker over the preceding period of 12 months.

(4) Where there is a change in a worker's employment from one related employer to another—

(a) the former employer must transmit to the other employer all records kept under subsection (1) relating to that worker;

and

(b) the other employer must retain those records in accordance with this Act (but otherwise is not responsible for any deficiency in a record that relates to a period of service before the change in employment).

Penalty: $1 000.

(5) A worker is entitled during normal office hours to inspect any record relating to the worker kept by his or her employer under this section.

(6) Where a worker has been granted long service leave, the employer must, before the leave is taken, give to the worker a statement in the prescribed form setting out the number of days of leave to be taken and the number of days of leave (if any) that will remain due to the worker at the conclusion of the leave.

Penalty: $200.

Powers of inspection.

11. (1) For the purposes of this Act, an inspector may at any reasonable time—

(a) enter any premises where the inspector has reasonable cause to believe that a worker is employed;

(b) require an employer to produce any records relating to long service leave;

(c) examine and copy or take extracts from such records or require an employer to provide a copy of any such records;

(d) require any person to answer, to the best of that person's knowledge, information and belief, any question relevant to the administration or enforcement of this Act.

(2) An inspector may, in the exercise of powers under this section—

(a) be accompanied by such assistants as may be necessary or desirable in the circumstances;

(b) ask any question through an interpreter.

(3) A person must not—

(a) hinder or obstruct an inspector or a person assisting an inspector in the exercise of a power under this section;

or

(b) refuse or fail, without lawful excuse, to comply with a requirement under this section.

Penalty: $5 000.

(4) A person is not required to answer a question under this section if the answer would tend to incriminate him or her.

Inspector may direct employer to grant long service leave.

12. (1) If it appears to an inspector that an employer has improperly refused to grant a worker long service leave or to make a payment in lieu of long service leave to which the worker is entitled under this Act, the inspector may, by notice in writing, direct the employer to grant the long service leave or to make the payment within a period (not being less than 14 days) stated in the notice.

(2) An employer who receives a notice under subsection (1) may apply to the Industrial Court for a review of the notice.

(3) An application under subsection (2) must be made within 14 days of the receipt of the notice by the employer.

(4) Pending the determination of an application for review, the operation of the notice to which the application relates is suspended.

(5) The Industrial Court may, on an application for review—

(a) confirm the notice to which the review relates;

(b) confirm the notice with such modifications as it thinks fit;

or

(c) cancel the notice.

(6) If an employer—

(a) fails to comply with a notice under subsection (1) (the employer not having made an application for review under subsection (2));

or

(b) having made an application for review under subsection (2), fails to comply with a notice confirmed by the Industrial Court within a period specified by the Court, the employer is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $5 000.

(7) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (6) (a) to prove that the worker is not entitled to the long service leave or the payment to which the notice relates.

Failure to grant leave.

13. (1) Subject to this section, where—

(a) a worker is not granted long service leave in accordance with this Act;

or

(b) a worker, or the personal representative of a deceased worker, does not receive a payment to which he or she is entitled under this Act, the Industrial Court may, on application under this section, order the employer (or former employer) of the worker to grant the leave or make the payment.

(2) An application under subsection (1) may be made by—

(a) the worker;

(b) if the worker is dead—the worker's personal representative;

(c) with the consent of the worker—a registered association of which the worker is a member;

or

(d) if the employer has been found guilty of failing to comply with the notice of an inspector directing that leave be granted or a payment be made—the complainant in those proceedings or a person appearing on behalf of the complainant.

(3) If in proceedings under this section it appears that the employer has not kept proper records relating to long service leave as required by this Act and—

(a) the period of the worker's service is in issue;

or

(b) the average number of hours worked per week by the worker over any period is in issue, the Court may, if it considers that in fairness to the worker it should do so, rule that an allegation made by or on behalf of the worker as to the period of the worker's service or the average number of hours worked per week over a particular period will be accepted as proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.

(4) An order cannot be made under this section if the service of the worker was terminated more than three years before the date of the application.

(5) The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1972, applies in relation to an application under this section as if the application were a claim under that Act for a sum due under a contract of service.

Employment during leave.

14. (1) A worker must not, while on long service leave, engage in any other employment in place of the employment in relation to which the right to leave accrued.

Penalty: $1 000.

(2) An employer must not, knowing that a worker is on long service leave, engage a worker in employment so that the worker commits a breach of subsection (1).

Penalty: $1 000.

Offences and proceedings.

15. (1) Offences against this Act are summary offences.

(2) A prosecution for an offence against this Act must be commenced within three years after the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

Act not to apply in relation to certain workers.

16. This Act does not apply in relation to workers who have a long service leave entitlement—

(a) under some other Act;

or

(b) under an award made under the Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1904 of the Commonwealth.

Regulations.

17. (1) The Governor may make such regulations as are contemplated by this Act or as are necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The regulations may prescribe penalties not exceeding $500 for contravention of, or non-compliance with, a regulation.

REPEAL OF LONG SERVICE LEAVE ACT, 1967, AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. The Long Service Leave Act, 1967, is repealed. Repeal of Long Service Leave Act, 1967.

2. (1) Subject to this clause, this Act applies in respect of service before the commencement of this Act if the service continues after the commencement of this Act. Transitional provisions.

(2) If a worker's service commenced before 1 January 1972, a date falling after that date on which an entitlement to 13 weeks or a multiple of 13 weeks long service leave accrued to the worker will be taken to be the date on which the worker completed 10 years or a corresponding multiple of 10 years service and the length of the worker's service will be calculated accordingly.

(3) This Act does not increase or diminish a long service leave entitlement that accrued before the repeal of the Long Service Leave Act, 1967.

(4) Long service leave granted, or a payment made in lieu of long service leave, before the commencement of this Act will, in respect of the period or entitlement to which it related, be presumed to have been granted or made under this Act.

(5) An exemption in force under the repealed Act immediately before the commencement of this Act continues in force as if it were a determination under section 9.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

PART III

LONG SERVICE LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

Effective service entitlement.

14. (1) Subject to this Act, a building worker's entitlement to long service leave, or payment on account of long service leave, is determined according to his or her aggregate effective service entitlement.

(2) Whenever a person works as a building worker, an effective service entitlement, calculated in accordance with the following formula, accrues in respect of the period of service:

$$E = \frac{TH}{OH} \times \frac{12}{52}$$

where—

E is the effective service entitlement (expressed in months)

TH is the sum of the total number of hours worked as a building worker during the period of service (disregarding any hours worked in any week in excess of ordinary hours) and the total number of ordinary hours for which the person was absent from that work during that period as a result of allowable absences

OH is the ordinary hours in relation to the period of service.

(3) Where—

(a) a building worker who has an effective service entitlement of less than 120 months is dismissed from employment as a building worker;

and

(b) the Board is satisfied, after affording the former building worker and his or her former employer an opportunity to be heard, that the building worker was properly dismissed on the ground of serious and wilful misconduct, any effective service entitlement of the worker accrued in that employment is cancelled.

(4) Where—

(a) a building worker has an effective service entitlement of less than 84 months;

(b) the building worker—

(i) has not previously had an effective service entitlement of 120 months or more;

or

(ii) has not received, or become entitled to receive, long service leave under the Long Service Leave Act, 1987 (or a corresponding previous enactment) for service including service as a building worker;

and

(c) the building worker ceases to be employed as such for a continuous period of 36 months or more for some reason other than physical or mental disability and no right to preservation of the effective service entitlement arises under this Act, the effective service entitlement will be cancelled (but the subsection does not apply where the building worker continues in employment by the person in whose employment the entitlement accrued (either wholly or in part)).

(5) Where a person takes long service leave, or receives a payment on account of long service leave, the person's effective service entitlement is reduced accordingly.

Crediting effective service under this Act and the Long Service Leave Act.

15. (1) Where a person employed as a building worker commences work in some other capacity in the service of the same employer, the person's continuity of service is preserved and any period of effective service credited under this Act will be credited to the person under the Long Service Leave Act, 1987 (and cancelled under this Act).

(2) Where a person employed in some capacity other than as a building worker commences work as a building worker in the service of the same employer, the person's continuity of service is preserved and the period of that person's service (expressed in months) calculated in accordance with the Long Service Leave Act, 1987, up to the point of the change in the nature of the employment, will be credited as effective service entitlement for the purposes of this Act.

(3) Where—

(a) a person's service under the Long Service Leave Act, 1987, includes a period of effective service credited under subsection (1);

and

(b) the person becomes entitled to long service leave, or to a payment in lieu of long service leave, under that Act, the Board must pay to the person's employer an amount calculated as follows:

$$A = \frac{OWP \times N \times E}{CS}$$

where—

A is the amount payable

OWP is the person's ordinary weekly rate of pay applicable under the Long Service Leave Act, 1987

N is the number of weeks leave required to be granted, or the number of weeks in respect of which the payment in lieu of long service leave is made, under the Long Service Leave Act, 1987

E is the effective service entitlement of the person as a building worker under this Act

CS is the person's period of continuous service for the purposes of the Long Service Leave Act, 1987, expressed in months to one decimal place.

(4) Where—

(a) a person's effective service entitlement under this Act includes a period of service credited under subsection (2);

and

(b) the person becomes entitled to long service leave, or to a payment on account of long service leave, under this Act, the Board may recover from the person's employer (being the employer referred to in subsection (2)) an amount calculated as follows:

$$A = \frac{OWP \times N \times CS}{E}$$

where—

A is the amount recoverable

OWP is the person's ordinary weekly pay applicable to the person under this Act

N is the number of weeks leave required to be granted, or the number of weeks in respect of which the payment on account of long service leave is made, under this Act

CS is the person's period of continuous service accrued under the Long Service Leave Act, 1987, at the time that the person commenced work as a building worker, expressed in months to one decimal place

(5) An amount recoverable under this section may be recovered as a debt.

16. (1) Subject to this Act, a building worker who has an effective service entitlement of 120 months is entitled to 13 weeks long service leave.

(2) Long service leave must be granted by the employer by whom the building worker is employed when the entitlement arises as soon as practicable (taking into account the needs of the employer) after the person becomes entitled to the leave.

(3) Where—

(a) a building worker takes long service leave;

or

(b) the building worker's employment by the employer referred to in subsection (2) is terminated before he or she takes accrued long service leave, the Board must pay to the person on account of that leave an amount equal to 13 times the ordinary weekly pay for work of the kind last performed by the person as a building worker.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), ordinary weekly pay will be determined at the time of payment unless the payment is made more than 12 months after the effective service entitlement of 120 months was reached, in which case it will be determined by reference to rates of pay prevailing at the expiration of that 12 month period, or at such later time as the Board, on the application of the building worker or the employer, determines.

(5) If a person dies, any entitlement of the person under this section vests in his or her personal representative.

Pro-rata payments for effective service of less than 120 months.

17. (1) Where, on application to the Board in a form approved by the Board, the Board is satisfied that—

or

(ii) a building worker has attained an effective service entitlement of less than 84 months and—— has previously had an effective service entitlement of 120 months or more;

or

— has received, or become entitled to receive, long service leave under the Long Service Leave Act, 1987 (or a corresponding previous enactment) for service including service as a building worker;

and

(b) the building worker has—

(i) died;

(ii) ceased to work as a building worker and has attained the prescribed retiring age;

(iii) ceased to work as a building worker because of a physical or mental disability that will prevent him or her from working as a building worker for a continuous period of 12 months or more;

or

(iv) ceased to work as a building worker and will not be working as a building worker for a continuous period of 12 months or more (from the time when he or she ceased to work as a building worker), the Board must pay to the person (or his or her personal representative) an amount calculated as follows:

$$A = \frac{OWP \times E \times 13}{120}$$

where—

A is the amount payable OWP is the ordinary weekly pay for work of the kind last performed as a building worker as at—

— in relation to an application under paragraph (b) (i)—the day on which the person died;

— in relation to an application under paragraph (b) (ii)—the day on which the person ceased to be a building worker or attained the prescribed retiring age, whichever last occurred;

— in relation to an application under paragraph (b) (iii)—the day on which the application was made;

— in relation to an application under paragraph (b) (iv)—

— — if the person has not worked as a building worker for a continuous period of 12 months or more—the day on which that period of 12 months expired;

— — in any other case—the day on which the person ceased to work as a building worker.

E is the effective service entitlement.

(2) If the Board rejects an application under subsection (1), the Board must give the applicant written notice of its decision (setting out a brief statement of the Board's reasons for making its decision).

Preservation of entitlements in certain cases.

18. (1) Where—

(a) a person who has an effective service entitlement ceases to be employed as a building worker;

(b) the person is not entitled to long service leave or a payment for pro rata long service leave;

(c) the person commences work as a self-employed contractor in the building industry within 36 months after cessation of his or her employment as a building worker;

and

(d) the person provides notice of his or her work as a contractor to the Board in accordance with the regulations, the effective service entitlement is preserved.

(2) Where the person, or his or her personal representative, satisfies the Board that the aggregate period of work in the building industry (as a building worker and subsequently as a contractor) totals 84 months or more, the Board must pay to the person (or his or her personal representative) an amount calculated as follows:

$$A = \frac{OWP \times E \times 13}{120}$$

4. (1) Subject to this Act, if a person is alleged to have committed an expiable offence, or a number of expiable offences arising out of the same incident, then, before a prosecution is commenced, an expiation notice may be given to the alleged offender stating that the offence or offences may be expiated by payment of the expiation fee or fees to a specified officer of the State before the expiration of 60 days from the date of the notice.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), two of more offences arise out of the same incident if they are committed contemporaneously, or in succession, one following immediately upon another.

(3) An expiation notice—

(a) must be in a form approved by the Minister;

(b) may relate to no more than three offences;

(c) may not be given to a child;

and

(b) the alleged offender expiates one or more of those offences but not all of them,

(a) the authority is of the opinion that the notice should not have been given;

TABLE OF ACTS AFFECTED BY AMENDMENT OR JUDICIAL DECISION

TABLE OF PUBLIC GENERAL ACTS AFFECTED BY AMENDMENT OR JUDICIAL DECISION

The Acts contained in this Table are those published in the new edition of the South Australian Statutes, 1837-1975, and Acts which have come into force since the publication of the new edition, which have been amended by Acts passed since the 3rd February, 1976, but before the 1st January, 1988.

Acts which have been repealed since April, 1937, are shown in the Table of Acts Repealed. Acts repealed by Acts that had not come into operation before the 1st January, 1988, have not been deleted from this Table of Amendments and Cases. The amendment or repeal of individual provisions is shown, whether or not the amending or repealing Act had come into operation at that date. Acts listed in the Table of Public General Acts had come into operation at 1st January, 1988, unless that Table indicates otherwise.

This Table also contains notes, placed against references to the appropriate sections of the Acts affected, of the reported decisions of the Privy Council, the High Court of Australia, the Supreme Court of South Australia, and the Industrial Court of South Australia, relating to the interpretation of those sections. The cases so noted are those comprised in reports published since 1st April, 1937, and include the cases reported up to the end of 161 Commonwealth Law Reports, up to the end of 43 South Australian State Reports, and up to the end of 49 South Australian Industrial Reports. Volume 13 of the South Australian Statutes, 1837-1975, contains notes of reported cases relating to the provisions of the Acts contained in that work and published prior to 3rd February, 1976.
