- I. For appointing any public street, road, or place or any portion of any public street, road, or place as a metered zone for the standing of vehicles and for the marking out of metered spaces within any such metered zone :
- II. For the erection and maintenance in such public streets, roads, or places of parking meters or other appliances or devices for automatically measuring and indicating the time within which a vehicle is or may be parked or stood in or at a metered space or metered zone and for regulating the use of such parking meters, appliances or other devices :

Enactment of s. 55d of principal Act—

3. The following section is enacted and inserted in the principal Act after section 55c thereof :—

Restriction on certain lettings of dwelling-houses.

55d. (1) If—

(a) pursuant to section 55c, any notice to quit is given, whether before or after the passing of the Landlord and Tenant (Control of Rents) Act Amendment Act, 1957, to any lessee of any dwelling-house on the ground that possession of the dwelling-house is required for the purpose of facilitating the sale of the dwelling-house; and

- (b) the lessee (who is hereinafter in this section referred to as "the former lessee") in consequence of the notice to quit, delivers up possession of the dwelling-house; and
- (c) the lessor, within three months after the time the lessee delivers up possession or if the lessor within the said period of three months undertakes repairs to the dwelling house within three months after the time those repairs are completed, does not sell the dwelling-house, the following provisions shall apply :—

- I. The lessor shall within seven days after the expiration of the said period, give to the former lessee notice in writing stating that the dwelling-house has not been sold and that it is available for occupation by the former lessee as the lessee thereof at the same rent and upon the same terms and conditions as applied under the lease between the lessor and the former lessee immediately prior to the time the former lessee delivered up possession :
- II. Whether notice as aforesaid is given or not, the former lessee shall be entitled to the occupation of the dwelling-house as the lessee thereof at the same rent and upon the same terms and conditions as applied under the lease between the lessor and the former lessee immediately prior to the time the former lessee delivered up possession :
- III. If within fourteen days after notice is given to the former lessee pursuant to paragraph I hereof, the former lessee does not notify the lessor that he intends, within fourteen days, to occupy the dwelling-house as the lessee thereof, the lessor may let the dwelling-house to any other person but, notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, if the lessor lets the dwelling-house to any person other than the former lessee (whether after giving notice to the former lessee as aforesaid or not), the rent payable under the lease entered into with that other person and the terms and conditions

iv. Any rent in excess of the rent provided to be paid by paragraph II or III hereof shall, notwithstanding any change in the ownership or occupation of the dwelling-house or any agreement to the contrary, be irrecoverable.

(2) If any such lessor—

(a) fails to give any notice as required by paragraph I of subsection (1) hereof ; or he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred pounds.

(3) If—

(a) after notice to quit is given in respect of any dwelling-house, as referred to in subsection (1), the lessee thereof delivers up possession of the dwelling-house and the lessor sells the dwelling-house ; and

(b) the purchaser or his successor in title within twelve months after the sale lets the dwelling-house, then, notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the rent payable under the lease shall be that fixed by the trust in accordance with the provisions of Part III. If at the time the dwelling-house is let as aforesaid, the rent thereof has not been fixed by the trust, the trust shall fix the rent as soon as may be. The rent so fixed shall be payable as from the commencement of the term of the lease. Any rent in excess of the rent provided to be paid by this subsection shall, notwithstanding any change in the ownership or occupation of the dwelling-house or any agreement to the contrary, be irrecoverable.

(4) If any lease, whether in writing or not, such as is referred to in paragraphs II or III of subsection (1) hereof or in subsection (3) hereof, does not comply with those provisions, it shall, notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the lease, be construed so as to give effect to paragraphs II or III of subsection (1) hereof or subsection (3) hereof, as the case may be.

(5) If after notice to quit is given in respect of any dwelling-house as referred to in subsection (1) hereof, the lessee thereof delivers up possession of the dwelling-house and the lessor sells the dwelling-house, the lessor shall at the time of the sale or within seven days thereafter give to the purchaser in writing full particulars of the rent at which the dwelling-house was let to the former lessee, and whether that rent was fixed by a determination of the trust and shall also give a copy of such notice to the trust together with particulars in writing of the name and address of the purchaser.

If any person fails to give any such notice he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

If any person to whom any such notice is given, lets the dwelling-house contrary to the provisions of subsection (3) hereof he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

(5) A complainant who is served with a completed form pursuant to this section shall forthwith deliver it to the clerk of the court of summary jurisdiction specified in the summons as the place of hearing of the complaint. Forthwith after receipt of the form the clerk shall file it with the court records, and both he and the complainant shall, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, endeavour to prevent the attendance of any witnesses who have been summoned or warned to attend the hearing.

(6) Any defendant who serves a form pleading guilty which complies with this section need not attend the court as directed by the summons.

(7) Where a defendant who has been served with forms of complaint and summons pursuant to this section fails to serve a form pleading guilty which complies with this section and fails to appear in obedience to the summons, the court may, subject to subsection (7) of section 62b, proceed to exercise its powers under paragraph (a) or (b) of section 62.

(8) Where a complainant uses the form of complaint and summons prescribed by rules made by the Governor under section 203 of this Act he shall be deemed to be a member of the police force within the meaning of subsection (1) hereof unless the defendant satisfies the court to the contrary.

(9) Any defendant who has been charged upon complaint with a simple offence not punishable by imprisonment either for a first or subsequent offence, and who has been served with a summons issued pursuant to section 57, may plead guilty without appearing in court in obedience to the summons by completing and serving the form prescribed by subsection (1) of this section, whereupon the provisions of this section and sections 62b and 62c shall apply.

(2) Where the completed form is apparently a genuine document purporting to be signed by the defendant before a justice of the peace, or a solicitor, or a police officer, proof of any of the signatures, or of the official capacity of any witness of the defendant's signature, shall not be required and the court may receive and act upon such document.

(3) The prosecutor may recite to the court any relevant matters alleged against the defendant in the same way as if the defendant had personally appeared and pleaded guilty.

(4) Nothing herein contained shall prejudice any application by a defendant to withdraw his plea of guilty at any time prior to the hearing and determination of the complaint made against him and the court before whom the defendant appears to answer the complaint may permit a withdrawal of the plea upon such terms as may be just.

(5) Where a defendant in a form under section 57a states matters which, if true, would indicate that he has a valid defence to the complaint, or which differ substantially in relevant particulars from the matters recited to the court by the prosecutor, the court may strike out the plea of guilty, adjourn the hearing of the complaint to a time and place appointed and order that the defendant be served with a summons as provided by section 57. Thereupon the complaint shall be dealt with as though the previous summons had not been issued, and the provisions of this section and section 57a shall no longer apply.

(6) Where a defendant who has served a form pleading guilty which complies with section 57a, is convicted, the court shall not—

(7) Where a defendant serves a form pleading guilty which complies with the provisions of section 57a with one exception, namely that the form is served less than three clear days before the date of hearing, the form shall be deemed to comply with section 57a, and the provisions of this section shall apply, except that the court may order the defendant to pay witness fees.

(8) The clerk of the court of summary jurisdiction before which a defendant is convicted under this section shall forthwith, either personally or by post, give written notice to the defendant informing him of the conviction and order as to penalty and of any fine or other sum adjudged to be paid and of the time allowed for payment of such sum. Service by post under this section may be effected by notice addressed to the defendant at the address shown on the form pleading guilty and shall be deemed to be effected at the time at which such notice would in the ordinary course of post be delivered at the address of the defendant.

(9) The provisions of section 57 of the Road Traffic Act, 1934-1956, shall not apply in relation to any complaint and summons heard and determined in the defendant's absence pursuant to this section and section 57a.

(3) If at the time and place so appointed—

(a) the defendant appears ; or

(b) the defendant fails to appear and it is proved that the notice in writing was served on him either personally or by post, the court may, according to the circumstances, order that he be imprisoned or disqualified from holding or obtaining a driving licence, or both.

(4) Service by post under this section may be effected by notice addressed to the defendant at the address shown on the summons or the form pleading guilty under section 57a and shall be deemed to be effected at the time at which such notice would in the ordinary course of post be delivered at the address of the defendant.

(5) The contents of a notice, including the date of postage and service, may be proved by the production of a document purporting to be a copy of the notice and having endorsed thereon a certificate purporting to be signed by the clerk of the court to the effect that the document is a true copy of the notice served on or posted to the defendant named therein at the address and on the day stated therein, and that in the ordinary course of post the notice would be delivered at the defendant's address on the day stated therein.

(6) If on the adjourned hearing it is impracticable for the special magistrate or justices who adjourned the complaint under subsection (1) hereof to continue the hearing of the complaint, the clerk of the court shall, with the approval of a special magistrate, convene another court which may, notwithstanding the provisions of sections 43 and 45, complete the hearing and determination of the complaint.

But no such leave shall be postponed to a day later than the thirtieth day of June, 1959, unless the worker consents.

14. Where a worker has become entitled to long service leave under this Act and before he takes such leave or receives payment in lieu thereof, he becomes subject to an industrial award or industrial agreement providing for long service leave, the employer shall not be required to grant him such leave or payment under this Act unless it was earned by a period of service not taken into account for the purpose of determining the worker's right to leave under the said award or agreement.

Prevention of double benefits.

16. (1) In this section the expression “employer's scheme” means a scheme which at the expense of an employer provides long service leave for workers of the employer but is not such as to render the employer exempt from the provisions of this Act.

(2) If before the commencement of this Act a worker has taken long service leave under an employer's scheme or has received a payment in lieu of such leave or at the time of the commencement of this Act is on long service leave under an employer's scheme or has a present vested right to such leave, and the period of service by which such leave or payment or right was earned is more than seven years, then no service before the first day of July, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, shall be taken into account in determining the rights of the worker under this Act.

(3) Where an employer who has established an employer's scheme grants long service leave to a worker under this Act, the employer may make such adjustments of the rights of the worker under the scheme as are reasonably required for the purpose of setting off the leave so granted under this Act against leave due or becoming due to the worker under the scheme.

17. (1) An employer who except pursuant to an agreement made with the worker fails in any year to grant to a worker the leave (including any postponed leave) which the worker is under this Act entitled to take in that year shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than one hundred pounds.
