(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, where the hearing of any proceedings against a child is adjourned by a juvenile court or referred by one court to another under any provision of this Act and the child is not allowed to go at large and not released on bail, any juvenile court may, from time to time, order that the child be remanded to an institution or other suitable place (not being a prison) or in the temporary custody of a suitable person for a period not exceeding in each case, twenty-one days.

(2) The court which makes an order under subsection (1) of this section, or the Adelaide Juvenile Court, may at any time revoke the order and in lieu thereof make another order remanding the child to an institution or other suitable place (not being a prison) or in the temporary custody of a suitable person for a period not exceeding twenty-one days.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1) or subsection (2) of this section, the court referred to in either of those subsections, if constituted of a special magistrate, may, with the consent of the child or of the parent or guardian of the child, order that the child be remanded for a period exceeding twenty-one days but not exceeding thirty-five days.

(2) The justice shall, if the child is of or over the age of ten years, take the deposition on oath.

Admission of deposition in evidence.
cf. 13, 1941, s. 20.

22. Where, in any proceedings in any court in respect of an offence against a child, the court is satisfied—

(a) by the evidence of a legally qualified medical practitioner that the attendance before the court of the child would involve serious danger to his life or health ; or any deposition of the child taken pursuant to section 21 of this Act shall be admissible in evidence either for or against the accused person without further proof thereof if it purports to be signed by the justice by or before whom it purports to have been taken ; but the deposition shall not be admissible in evidence against the accused person unless it is proved that reasonable notice of the intention to take the deposition has been served upon him and that he or his counsel or solicitor had, or might have had, if he had chosen to be present, an opportunity of cross-examining the child making the deposition.

(b) that the child is dead,

PART IV.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE HEARING AND DETERMINATION OF CHARGES, ETC.

Application of Justices Act.

25. Subject to this Act, the provisions of the Justices Act, 1921-1965, shall apply to and in relation to the hearing of any information, complaint or charge or other proceedings before a juvenile court and a juvenile court shall, in relation to such hearing, have all the powers of a court of summary jurisdiction.

Duty of court to explain charge, etc.
cf. 13, 1941, s. 17.

26. Where a child charged with an offence is not represented by counsel or solicitor, the court—

(a) shall satisfy itself that the child understands the charge and shall, if necessary, explain to him in simple language the nature of the allegations against him, including their legal implications, such as the intention to commit the offence, but no particular form of words shall be necessary; and

(b) may ask the child questions to elicit his version of the facts and may cross-examine any witnesses, but no order or adjudication of a court shall be regarded as invalid or defective on the ground only of failure to comply with this section.

Power of juvenile court to take plea of guilty to an indictable offence by child.
cf. 57, 1956, s. 13 (1).

27. (1) Where a child is charged before a juvenile court with any indictable offence or offences (other than homicide), the child at any stage of the proceedings, and whether any statement has been taken from any witness or not, may plead guilty to the charge or any of the charges laid against him.

(2) The court shall, at the commencement of the proceedings, inform the child and his parent or guardian (if present) of the child's right so to plead, and may, if it thinks fit, make a statement explaining the procedure under this section.

(3) Where a child pleads guilty pursuant to this section, the procedure of the court shall, subject to this Act, be the same as the procedure of a court of summary jurisdiction, and the provisions of the Justices Act, 1921-1965, shall, so far as they are applicable and not inconsistent with this Act, apply to and in relation to the hearing and determination of the charge.

(4) If, after the child has so pleaded guilty, the court, after consideration of any facts stated by the prosecutor or given in evidence, is of the opinion that the time for taking the plea should be postponed, it may order that the plea of guilty be withdrawn; and thereupon all further proceedings in respect of the offence shall, subject to this Act, be conducted in accordance with this Act and the Justices Act, 1921-1965, as if the child had not so pleaded guilty.

(5) If any such further proceedings are taken, the child shall not, by reason of his plea of guilty be entitled to plead autrefois convict.

Procedure where child charged with indictable offence does not plead guilty.
cf. 1479, 1921 s. 161.

28. (1) Where a child appears before a juvenile court constituted of a special magistrate on an information charging the child with an indictable offence (other than homicide) to which the child does not plead guilty, the court may, subject to this Act, hear and determine the matter before the court in a summary way or proceed to hold the preliminary examination and the provisions of Part V of the Justices Act, 1921-1965, shall, so far as they are applicable, apply to and in relation to the preliminary examination.

(2) Before exercising his discretion under subsection (1) of this section, the special magistrate constituting the court shall—

(a) explain to the child and his parent or guardian (if present) the relative implications of the matter being dealt with in a summary way and of committing the child for trial before the Supreme Court and give them an opportunity of making representations for the consideration of the magistrate; and

(b) have regard to the nature of the charge, the age of the child, the circumstances of the case and the representations made by or on behalf of the child or his parent or guardian or by the prosecutor or an officer of the department.

(3) The matter shall be heard and determined in a summary way unless the special magistrate is satisfied, having regard to all the facts and circumstances known to the court, that it is desirable, in the interests of the administration of justice, to commit the child for trial to the Supreme Court.

(4) Where a child appears before a juvenile court constituted of justices on an information charging the child with an indictable offence (other than homicide) to which the child does not plead guilty, the justices shall desist from further proceeding with the hearing and shall, by memorandum, refer the proceedings for hearing before a juvenile court constituted of a special magistrate upon a date and at a time which shall be specified in the memorandum and notified to the parties.

(5) The court so referring the proceedings shall have the same powers as it would have if it were referring the proceedings under section 14 of this Act.

Procedure and powers of juvenile court on summary trial.
cf. 1479, 1921, s. 161.

29. (1) Where any proceedings against a child in a juvenile court are heard and determined in a summary way, the procedure and powers of the court shall, subject to this Act, be the same as the procedure and powers of a court of summary jurisdiction under the Justices Act, 1921-1965, and the provisions of that Act shall apply to and in relation to the hearing and determination of the proceedings accordingly.

(2) Where an information charging a child with an indictable offence is heard and determined in a summary way by a juvenile court and, if that offence were tried before the Supreme Court, that court would have power to record an alternative verdict to the offence charged, the juvenile court may record an alternative verdict to the offence with which the child is charged.

Procedure on committal for trial.

30. Where—

(a) a child charged on information with an indictable offence before a juvenile court does not plead guilty of that offence; and

(b) the court does not decide to hear and determine the proceedings in a summary way, the court shall hold the preliminary examination and the provisions of Part V of the Justices Act, 1921-1965, shall, so far as they are applicable, apply to and in relation to the preliminary examination.

Power of juvenile court to sentence child for indictable offence or commit to Supreme Court for sentence.

31. (1) Subject to this section, a juvenile court constituted of a special magistrate which has found a child guilty of an indictable offence (other than homicide) following a plea of guilty or a summary hearing and determination may sentence the child in accordance with the powers of the court under this Act, or may commit the child to the Supreme Court for sentence in which case the provisions of Part V of the Justices Act, 1921-1965, shall, subject to this section, apply with necessary adaptations, so far as the same are applicable.

(2) Before exercising his discretion under subsection (1) of this section, the special magistrate constituting the court shall—

(a) explain to the child and his parent or guardian (if present) the nature of the discretion vested in the court and the relative implications of the child being sentenced in accordance with the powers of the juvenile court under this Act and of committing the child to the Supreme Court for sentence and give them an opportunity of making representations for the consideration of the magistrate; and

(b) have regard to the nature of the charge, the age of the child, the circumstances of the case and the representations made by or on behalf of the child or his parent or guardian or by the prosecutor or an officer of the department.

(3) The juvenile court shall sentence the child in accordance with the powers of the court under this Act unless the special magistrate is satisfied, having regard to all the facts and circumstances known to the court, that it is desirable, in the interests of the administration of justice, to commit him to the Supreme Court for sentence.

(4) Where a child who has pleaded guilty before a juvenile court to an indictable offence is committed to the Supreme Court for sentence—

(a) the juvenile court shall make written notes of the facts stated by the prosecutor and of any statement made by the defendant in contradiction or explanation of the facts stated by the prosecutor, and shall forward those notes to the Attorney-General together with the statements (if any) of witnesses tendered by the prosecutor to the court; and

(b) the Attorney-General shall cause the notes and the statements of witnesses to be delivered to the proper officer of the Supreme Court at the place where the child is to appear for sentence, before or at the opening of that court on the first sitting thereof, or at such other time as the Judge who is to preside in such court may order.

(5) Where a child who has been found guilty of an indictable offence following a summary hearing and determination is committed to the Supreme Court for sentence—

(a) the juvenile court shall forthwith forward the record of the case, or cause the same to be delivered, to the Attorney-General together with the information, evidence, a statement of the finding by the court and other relevant documents (if any); and

(b) the Attorney-General shall cause the record, information, evidence, statement and other relevant documents (if any) to be delivered to the proper officer of the Supreme Court at the place where the child is to appear for sentence, before or at the opening of that court on the first sitting thereof, or at such other time as the Judge who is to preside in such court may order.

(6) Upon the appearance of the child for sentence before the Supreme Court, that court may pass sentence or otherwise deal with him as if he had been committed for trial to that court and had pleaded guilty or been found guilty (as the case may be) in that court, and all the same consequences shall ensue as if he had been so committed and had so pleaded guilty or been found guilty; but if, for any reason, it appears to the Judge of that court that the plea of guilty, if any, should be withdrawn, he may advise the child, and allow him, to withdraw such plea and, if the same be thereupon withdrawn, the child shall be deemed to have been committed for trial, and may forthwith, or after adjournment, and notwithstanding that no information has been filed in that court, be arraigned, and the case shall proceed in the usual course.

Remand on committal.

32. Where a child is committed by a juvenile court to the Supreme Court for trial or sentence, the juvenile court may release the child on bail or remand him to an institution or to any other suitable place (not being a prison) to be there detained until he is released or delivered in due course of law.

Examination of child offenders. cf. 13, 1941, s. 13.

33. (1) When a child has pleaded guilty before a juvenile court or the court has found that the offence with which a child is charged or other matter alleged against a child is proved, the court may order that the child be examined by a physician, psychiatrist or psychologist directed by the court to conduct such examination.

(2) The court may consider and act upon any report on the child prepared under subsection (1) of this section and any other report on the child's character, conduct, upbringing, physical condition and past history, if such report is prepared by a person to whom such matters are personally known or who has personally investigated those matters; but, subject to subsection (3) of this section, before passing any sentence on the child—

(a) so much of the contents of any such report as is detrimental to the child shall be made known to the child or his parent, guardian, counsel or solicitor if the child, parent, guardian, counsel or solicitor so requests ;

(b) the child or his parent, guardian, counsel or solicitor shall, if he so requests, be given an opportunity of cross-examining the person who prepared the report on the matters dealt with therein ; and

(c) the court shall, if so required by the child, or his parent, guardian, counsel or solicitor, procure the attendance of such person before the court for cross-examination.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (2) of this section, the court, if it is of the opinion that the report contains material which, if disclosed to the child, may be prejudicial to the welfare of the child, may in its discretion order that the whole or any part of any such report shall not be made known to the child.

(4) Pending the examination of the child or the procuring of any report upon him, the court or a justice may, from time to time, adjourn the case.

(5) For the purposes of enabling a child to be examined as provided in this section, the court may order that the child be taken to an appropriate institution or other suitable place (not being an institution as defined in the Mental Health Act, 1935-1965, or a prison) and that the child submit himself to such examination.

(a) apply the provisions of the Offenders Probation Act, 1913-1963 ; or (b) order the payment by the child of a fine not exceeding fifty pounds or, if a lesser maximum penalty is prescribed for the offence, a fine not exceeding that maximum.

(2) Without recording a conviction against a child, the court may exercise its powers under subsection (1) of this section or may impose such other penalty upon, or make such other order or adjudication in respect of, the child as it could have done if it had convicted him of the offence.

(3) The court shall, before dealing with a child under this section, have regard to all the facts and circumstances relating to the child and the offence or the matter alleged against him that are known to the court and the court may exercise its discretion on the question of penalty as provided in this section without being bound by the minimum penalty (if any) prescribed in any Act for the offence alleged against the child.

Power to commit child to institution. cf. 1780, 1926 s. 113.

35. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, where a child is committed to a reformative institution or placed under the control of the Minister, the order committing him to a reformative institution or placing him under the control of the Minister, shall, if it does not in fact so provide, be deemed to provide, as the case may be, that the child shall be detained in such reformative institution or that the child shall remain under the control of the Minister, subject to the provisions of the Social Welfare Act, until he attains the age of eighteen years.

(2) If any child at the time of being committed to a reformative institution or placed under the control of the Minister is upwards of sixteen years of age, such child may be ordered by the court to be committed to a reformative institution or placed under the control of the Minister, as the case may be—

(a) until he attains the age of eighteen years; or

(b) for any period not less than one year nor more than two years, provided that such period does not expire before the child attains the age of eighteen years.

Juvenile court constituted of justices not to commit child to prison or institution.

37. A juvenile court constituted of justices, which finds a charge brought against a child for an offence punishable by imprisonment proved, shall not sentence the child to imprisonment nor make an order that the child be committed to a reformative institution; but, if the court is of the opinion that the child ought to be committed to a reformative institution the court shall, by memorandum, refer the case to the Adelaide Juvenile Court as provided by section 18 of this Act or to some other convenient juvenile court constituted of a special magistrate in which case the provisions of section 18 of this Act shall apply and have effect as if that other juvenile court were the Adelaide Juvenile Court.

38. (1) In addition to the powers of a court of summary jurisdiction contained in the Road Traffic Act, 1961-1964, or any other Act, to make an order disqualifying a person from holding or obtaining a licence to drive a motor vehicle, a juvenile court may, in addition to any other order it may make upon a charge for any offence being proved against a child, make an order disqualifying the child from holding or obtaining a licence to drive a motor vehicle—

(a) as from a day or time specified in the order; and

(b) either for a period specified in the order or until further order, if the court is satisfied, having regard to all the facts and circumstances before the court, that the child is not a fit and proper person to hold or obtain such a licence.

(2) The powers of the court under subsection (1) of this section may be exercised upon the charge being proved and with or without a conviction being recorded.

(3) An order made under this section shall have the same force and effect as if it were an order made by the court under section 168 of the Road Traffic Act, 1961-1964.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not be construed as derogating from the application or meaning of subsection (2) of section 34 of this Act.

40. (1) In addition to or in lieu of exercising any other powers of a juvenile court, any juvenile court may, subject to this section, on the application of the prosecutor, order a child against whom any charge for an offence before that court has been proved or the parent or guardian of such child or any two or more of such persons to pay compensation or make restitution in respect of any damage or loss occasioned by the offence to any person who has suffered such damage or loss.

(2) The amount which the court may order any child or person to pay under this section shall not exceed the sum of two hundred pounds.

(3) Before making an order under this section, the court may require proof of the amount of loss or damage occasioned by the offence.

(4) If the court, after hearing evidence, is of the opinion that the evidence is not sufficient to enable it to determine the amount of the damage or loss, it may decline to make an order.

(5) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, an order under this section may direct the child, parent or guardian to pay such sum as the court thinks reasonable either as one payment or by instalments, and when making the order, the court shall have regard to the means of the child, parent or guardian against whom the order is made and, in the case of the parent or guardian, the extent, if any, to which the parent or guardian has, by his conduct or neglect or otherwise, conduced to the commission of the offence.

(6) Any order under this section may be enforced against the person against whom it is made in the same manner as if it were an order for the payment of money made by justices upon summary conviction of that person.

(7) An order under this section may be made against a child, parent or guardian present at the hearing in question, or against any parent or guardian who, having been required to attend the court during the hearing pursuant to an order served on him under section 19 of this Act, has failed to do so ; but, save as aforesaid, no such order shall be made without giving the child, parent or guardian an opportunity of being heard.

(8) An order under this section shall not be a bar to any other proceedings by or on behalf of the person who suffered the damage or loss, but such person shall not be entitled to recover, in respect of such damage or loss, a greater amount than the amount of the damage or loss suffered by him.

(9) The powers of a juvenile court under this section may be exercised upon the relevant charge being proved and with or without a conviction being recorded against the child.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, where a child is committed to an institution or placed under the control of the Minister, the order committing him to an institution or placing him under the control of the Minister shall, if it does not in fact so provide, be deemed to provide, as the case may be, that the child shall be detained in such institution or that the child shall remain under the control of the Minister, subject to the provisions of the Social Welfare Act, until he attains the age of eighteen years.

(3) If any child at the time of being so committed to an institution or placed under the control of the Minister is upwards of sixteen years of age, such child may be ordered by the court to be committed to the institution or placed under the control of the Minister, as the case may be—

(a) until he attains the age of eighteen years ; or

(b) for any period not less than one year nor more than two years, provided that such period does not expire before the child attains the age of eighteen years.

(4) Before making an order under this section committing a child to an institution the court shall have regard to the welfare of the child and the desirability or otherwise of removing him from unsuitable surroundings and making proper provision for his care, training and control.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (2) or subsection (3) of this section, the court, upon finding that the complaint charging a child with being a neglected child or an uncontrolled child is proved, may adjourn the hearing of the case for a period not exceeding three months and for the period of the adjournment may by order remand the child in custody to an appropriate institution or place the child under the control of the Minister.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (5) of this section the court may on the application of an officer of the department, order that the child be brought before the court at any time during the period of the adjournment and the child shall be brought before the court accordingly.

(9) Such notice shall be deemed to be sufficiently served if served personally on such parent or guardian, or posted addressed to him at his last known place of abode or business a reasonable time before the date of hearing of the complaint.

45. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act, a complaint (whether laid before or after the commencement of this Act) charging a child with being a neglected child or an uncontrolled child shall be deemed not to be a complaint charging the child with committing an offence within the meaning of this Act or any other Act, and any child in respect of whom such a complaint is proved shall be deemed not to be guilty or convicted of an offence in respect of that complaint.

(2) When hearing a complaint charging a child with being a neglected child or an uncontrolled child—

(a) the court shall not be bound by the laws or rules of evidence and may admit any evidence which, in the opinion of the court, will assist it to determine the complaint in a manner which appears to the court to be in the best interests of the child; and

(b) the court shall determine the complaint in the manner which appears to the court to be in the best interests of the child.

Restrictions on powers of committing neglected and uncontrolled children to institutions. cf. 1780, 1926, ss. 111, 112.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1) of this section or in the Social Welfare Act, if any child found by a juvenile court constituted of a special magistrate to be an uncontrolled child ought, in the opinion of the court, to be sent to a reformative institution, such court may order the child to be committed to such an institution accordingly.

47. (1) A juvenile court constituted of justices which finds a complaint charging a child with being an uncontrolled child proved shall not order that the child be committed to a reformative institution.

7. The following sections are enacted and inserted in the principal Act after section 15 thereof :—

15a. (1) In this section—

"house" includes part of a house :

"purchaser" means person referred to in subsection (2) of this section, and, where the purchaser has died (whether before or after an application is made under this section) includes—

(a) the widow of the purchaser who was residing with him at the time of his death ; or

(b) if the purchaser died intestate without leaving a widow or if the purchaser was a woman—such member of the purchaser's family who was so residing at the time of the purchaser's death and had been so residing for not less than six months immediately preceding the death as, in default of agreement, the local court determines to be a purchaser for the purposes of this section.

(2) Where, pursuant to an agreement in writing whereby a person has agreed to buy from the owner thereof a house declared to be substandard pursuant to a declaration in force under Part VII of the Housing Improvement Act, 1940-1961, such person has entered into and remained in such house but has not yet become entitled to be registered as a proprietor in fee simple thereof, such person, or the South Australian Housing Trust acting on his behalf, may before the expiration of two years after the making of the agreement apply to the local court for an order granting relief from his obligations under that agreement in accordance with this section. (b) that the agreement is harsh or unconscionable or is such that a court of equity would give relief to the purchaser, the court may, by order, set aside the agreement on such terms and conditions as the court thinks fit and may take an account between the purchaser and the owner.

Statutory tenancy.

(4) Without limiting the generality of subsection (3) of this section but subject to subsection (5) of this section, the court may further order—court determines and that, during such period of occupation, both the purchaser and the owner shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the court in the circumstances of the case thinks proper to make ; and

(b) that, where the order does not provide for any such periodic payments to be made by the purchaser as is provided for in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the owner shall pay to the purchaser upon the expiration of his occupation of the house an amount which is the excess of the amount which the purchaser has paid to the owner pursuant to the agreement over an amount which the court determines to be a fair rent for the period of his occupation whether in pursuance of the agreement or the order.

(5) The purchaser shall not, by virtue of an order under this section, be entitled to continue in occupation of the house for any period longer than the period for which he would have remained in occupation before being required under the terms of the agreement to complete the purchase of the house.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (4) of this section, section 8 of this Act shall apply, with such adaptations and modifications as are necessary, to any proceedings under this section as if the agreement were a letting agreement as defined by this Act, and the application of section 19 of this Act shall extend to such agreement accordingly.

Variation of order.

(8) Where, by virtue of an order under this section, the purchaser remains and continues in occupation of the house and, since the making of the order—the local court may, upon application by the purchaser or the owner, vary any provision of the order.

In this subsection, references to the agreement shall be read as including references to the agreement as varied by any order under this section.

(9) Upon any application under this section the local court may do all such acts, matters and things relating thereto and in the same manner and to the same extent that it is empowered to do in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction.

(10) The decision of the local court upon any application under this section shall be final and conclusive.

(11) Any person who fails to comply with any terms or conditions of any order made under subsection (3) or subsection (4) of this section shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty : One hundred pounds.

No costs to be awarded.

15b. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, no costs shall be allowed in any application under this Act unless it appears to the court that the conduct of a party in bringing or resisting the application or in relation to the subject-matter thereof has been unreasonable, vexatious or oppressive.

(2) The costs of any appeal to the Supreme Court from a decision of a local court under this Act shall be in the discretion of the Supreme Court.

Penalty : One hundred pounds.

Landlord to comply with order.

(2) Where the landlord or any agent or servant of the landlord has been convicted of an offence under subsection (1) of this section the local court may order the landlord to do such things as are necessary to enable the tenant to resume the ordinary use or enjoyment of the premises, furniture, goods, conveniences, or service, and if the landlord fails to comply with the provisions of the order he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty : One hundred pounds.

Meaning of interference or restrictions.

(3) For the purposes of this section, conveniences shall be deemed to be usually available to the tenant where, prior to the use of conveniences having been interfered with or restricted without his consent, he has been allowed, at all times during the tenancy to use those conveniences as he desired or he has been allowed to use those conveniences at times permitted by the landlord.

PART III.

PART III.
FORMAL VALIDITY OF WILLS.

Interpretation and application.

25a. (1) In this Part—

"country" means any place or group of places having its own law of nationality (including the Commonwealth of Australia and its territories) :

"internal law" in relation to any country or place means the law which would apply in a case where no question of the law in force in any other country or place arose :

"place" means any territory (including a State or Territory of the Commonwealth of Australia).

(2) Where under this Act the internal law in force in any country or place is to be applied in the case of a will, but there are in force in that country or place two or more systems of internal law relating to the formal validity of wills, the system to be applied shall be ascertained as follows :—

(a) If there is in force throughout the country or place a rule indicating which of those systems can properly be applied in the case in question, that rule shall be followed ; or

(b) If there is no such rule, the system shall be that with which the testator was most closely connected at the relevant time and for this purpose the relevant time is the time of the testator's death where the matter is to be determined by reference to circumstances prevailing at his death and the time of execution of the will in any other case.

(3) In determining for the purposes of this Act whether or not the execution of a will conformed to a particular law, regard shall be had to the formal requirements of that law at the time of execution, but this shall not prevent account being taken of an alteration of law affecting wills executed at that time if the alteration enables the will to be treated as properly executed.

(4) This Part shall not apply to a will of a testator who died before the commencement of the Wills Act Amendment Act, 1965-1966, and shall apply to a will of a testator who dies after such commencement whether the will was executed before or after such commencement.

Certain requirements to be treated as formal.

(5) Where (whether in pursuance of this Act or not) a law in force outside the State falls to be applied in relation to a will, any requirement of that law whereby special formalities are to be observed by testators answering a particular description, or witnesses to the execution of a will are to possess certain qualifications, shall be treated, notwithstanding any rule of that law to the contrary, as a formal requirement only.

General rule as to formal validity.

25b. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, a will shall be treated as properly executed for the purpose of being admitted in the State to probate if its execution conformed to the internal law in force in the place where it was executed, or in the place where, at the time of its execution or of the testator's death, he was domiciled or had his habitual residence, or in a country of which, at either of those times, he was a national.

Additional rules.

25c. (1) Without limiting the generality of section 25b of this Act, the following wills shall be treated as properly executed for the purpose of being admitted in the State to probate :—

(a) A will executed on board a vessel or aircraft of any description, if the execution of the will conformed to the internal law in force in the place with which, having regard to its registration (if any) and other relevant circumstances, the vessel or aircraft may be taken to have been most closely connected ;

(b) A will so far as it disposes of immovable property if its execution conformed to the internal law in force in the country or place where the property was situated ;

(c) A will so far as it revokes a will which under this Act would be treated as properly executed or revokes a provision which under this Act would be treated as comprised in a properly executed will if the execution of the later will conformed to any law by reference to which the revoked will or provision would be so treated ;

(d) A will so far as it exercises a power or appointment if the execution of the will conformed to the law governing the essential validity of the power.

(2) A will so far as it exercises a power of appointment shall not be treated as improperly executed by reason only that its execution was not in accordance with any formal requirements contained in the instrument creating the power.

Saving of section 23 of Administration and Probate Act, 1919-1960.

25d. Nothing in this Part shall be held to restrict the operation of section 23 of the Administration and Probate Act, 1919-1960.

Heading to Part IV of principal Act.

10. The principal Act is amended by striking out the heading—

Construction of Wills.

immediately before section 26 thereof and inserting in lieu of that heading the following heading :—
