and that in all the circumstances of the case it is just to grant the extension of time.

(4) Where an extension of time is sought pursuant to this section in respect of the commencement of an action, the action may be instituted in the normal manner, but the process by which it is instituted must be endorsed with a statement to the effect that the plaintiff seeks an extension of time pursuant to this section.

7. Where a person to whom a proposal or counter-proposal has been made under this Act does not serve notice of his objection to the proposal or counter-proposal in accordance with this Act, he shall be deemed to have agreed to the proposal or counter-proposal.

Performance of fencing work.

8. (1) Where notice of the proposed erection of a fence, or the proposed performance of replacement, repair or maintenance work in relation to a fence has been served in accordance with this Act, the proponent may proceed with the fencing work—

(a) after the expiration of thirty days from the date of service of the notice, if he is not served with a cross-notice during that period;

or

(b) if he is served with a cross-notice during that period, after agreement has been reached upon the proposals and counter-proposals (if any) or any differences have been adjudicated upon by the court.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, no contribution shall be recoverable under the provisions of this Act in respect of fencing work performed before the proponent becomes entitled to proceed with the fencing work under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) If the proponent does not proceed with the fencing work within twenty-eight days after the day on which he becomes entitled to do so in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, or such longer period as may be agreed upon by the parties or fixed by the court, the adjoining owner may proceed with the fencing work.

(4) If the fencing work is discontinued by either party for more than twenty-eight days prior to its completion the other party may proceed to complete the work.

(5) If neither the proponent nor the adjoining owner proceeds with the fencing work for a period in excess of the prescribed period, or the work is discontinued for any such period, the agreement shall, as to the part of the work that then remains to be performed, lapse.

(6) The prescribed period referred to in subsection (5) of this section is a period agreed upon by the proponent and the adjoining owner, or determined by order of the court, or in the absence of any such agreement or order, a period of four months.

Case where fence divides land from public road and owner of land abutting upon road derives benefit from fence.

11. (1) Where a person has erected a fence dividing his land from a public road, and any other person who is the owner of land abutting upon the road derives use of, or benefit from the fence, by reason of the proximity of the fence to his own land the person by whom the fence has been erected may institute proceedings in the court for the recovery from that other person of a contribution towards the cost of erecting the fence or any further fencing work in relation to the fence.

(2) The court may order the person against whom the proceedings are taken to make such contribution as it considers just in view of the benefit that he derives in consequence of the erection of the fence or the performance of the further fencing work.

Powers of court.

12. (1) Where any difference or dispute arises in relation to fencing work, or any liability arising under this Act, any person affected by the difference or dispute may by application to the court seek a determination of the matter.

(2) Upon the hearing of an application under subsection (1) of this section the court may determine the matter in such manner as it considers just and may—

(a) make any finding, determination or order in relation to the erection of a fence, the nature of the fence to be erected, the line of fence to be adopted and the amount of compensation (if any) to be paid for loss of occupation of land as a result of the erection of a fence otherwise than upon the boundary of contiguous land;

(5) The court may upon an application under subsection (4) of this section make an order for any person to pay an amount for which he is so liable.

(6) Subject to subsection (7) of this section, any dispute as to the relative proportion in which the cost of fencing work is to be borne as between adjoining owners shall be determined according to the benefit that each of the adjoining owners derives from the performance of the fencing work, and, in the absence of proof to the contrary it shall be presumed that the adjoining owners derive equal benefit from the performance of the fencing work.

(7) If fencing work consists in the erection of an adequate fence or a fence of better quality than an adequate fence, or the conversion of an existing fence into an adequate fence or a fence of better quality than an adequate fence, then, in the absence of agreement between the adjoining owners, the contribution for which an adjoining owner is liable shall be one-half of the minimum cost of erecting an adequate fence, or converting the existing fence into an adequate fence.

16. (1) Subject to this section, where a dividing fence is damaged or destroyed, and there is an urgent need to repair or restore the fence, either of the adjoining owners may, without notice to the adjoining owner, carry out the requisite fencing work and recover one-half of the cost of the fencing work from the other adjoining owner.

(2) Where a dividing fence is damaged or destroyed as a result of a wrongful act or default on the part of any person, an adjoining owner who has properly incurred any cost or expense in repairing or restoring the fence (whether in pursuance of this Act or otherwise) may recover from that person, as a debt, the cost or expense so incurred.

(3) An adjoining owner shall not be entitled to recover contribution for any fencing work under this Act in so far as that fencing work consists in the repair of damage resulting from his own wrongful act or default.

(2) This Act—

(a) applies to goods manufactured either within or outside this State;

but

(b) does not apply in relation to goods manufactured before the commencement of this Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, goods are of merchantable quality if they are as fit for the purpose, or purposes, for which goods of the kind are ordinarily purchased as it is reasonable to expect having regard to—

(a) any description applied to the goods by the manufacturer;

(b) the price received by the manufacturer for the goods;

(c) any other relevant factors.

(3) A manufacturer of goods is not liable upon his statutory warranty as to the merchantable quality of the goods if the goods are not of merchantable quality by reason of—

(a) an express warranty;

is not complied with in relation to manufactured goods, a consumer who has lawful possession of the goods may, by action, recover against the manufacturer damages for breach of warranty in all respects as if the action were for breach of warranty under a contract between the manufacturer and the consumer.

(3) If a manufacturer purports to exclude or limit a liability under an express or statutory warranty that he is not competent to exclude or limit by reason of this section he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Right of vendor to recover against manufacturer.

(2) The principal Act, as amended by this Part, may be cited as the "Gift Duty Act, 1968-1975".

5. Section 11 of the principal Act is repealed and the following sections are enacted and inserted in its place:— Repeal of s. 11 of principal Act and enactment of sections in its place—

11. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, where the gift duty that would, apart from this section, be payable in respect of a gift is less than five dollars, no gift duty is payable in respect of the gift. Remission of gift duty under five dollars.

(2) This section does not operate to exempt a gift from gift duty if—

and

(b) the value of all other gifts given by the same donor to the same donee within eighteen months before or after the date of the gift, are such that if those gifts together constituted a single gift, gift duty of an amount of five dollars or more would be payable in respect of that single gift.

11a. (1) Where a donor makes a gift to his spouse of an interest in his matrimonial home (whether or not subsection (3) of this section applies to the gift), the donor may claim the benefit of this subsection, and if he does so, the following principles operate:— Reduction of duty in case of gift of interest in matrimonial home.

(2) Where a donor makes a gift to his spouse of an interest in his matrimonial home (being a gift to which subsection (3) of this section applies) the donor may claim the benefit of this subsection, and if he does so, the following principles operate:—

(a) the dutiable value of the gift is as follows:—

$$v = [\tfrac{1}{2}g - 20\,000] - \frac{(g - 40\,000)m}{2g}$$

where—

v represents the dutiable value of the gift

g represents the gross value of the matrimonial home

and

m represents the outstanding principal of the debt secured over the matrimonial home;

(b) the value of all relevant gifts includes, for the purpose of ascertaining the percentage rate at which gift duty is payable on that gift (but not on any other gift), the actual value of the gift;

(a) no matrimonial home has been held jointly or in common by the donor and his spouse either on the fourteenth day of July, 1975, or after that date and before the date of the gift;

(b) the gift is made on or after the fourteenth day of July, 1975, but before the fourteenth day of July, 1976;

and

(c) a return in respect of the gift is lodged under this Act with the Commissioner before the fourteenth day of July, 1976, this subsection applies to that gift.

(4) A person is not entitled to claim the benefit of a provision of this section where he has previously enjoyed the benefit of that provision, or some other provision of this section, or of a provision of this Act superseded by this section.

(5) In this section—

"matrimonial home" of a donor means a dwellinghouse (together with its curtilage) that constitutes in the opinion of the Commissioner the principal permanent home at which the donor and his spouse live together as husband and wife:

"curtilage" in relation to a dwellinghouse means an area of land, determined by the Commissioner, not exceeding 0·2 hectare in area, on which the dwellinghouse is situated:

"gross value" in relation to a matrimonial home means the value of the matrimonial home unencumbered by any mortgage.

(a) that a donor has made a gift of cash to his spouse with a view to the acquisition by the donor and his spouse in joint tenancy, or in tenancy in common in equal shares, of a matrimonial home;

(a) where an interest in a dwellinghouse is derived from the deceased person by a beneficiary of the first category and the dwellinghouse was, in the opinion of the Commissioner, the principal home of the deceased and of that beneficiary at the date of death of the deceased—an amount determined as follows:—

(i) if the aggregate value of the property derived from the deceased person by that beneficiary does not exceed $A the amount is—

(A) an amount equal to the value of the interest;

or

(B) an amount of $B,

whichever is the lesser;

(ii) if the aggregate value of the property derived from the deceased person by that beneficiary exceeds $A but does not exceed $C, the amount is—

(A) an amount equal to the value of that interest;

or

(B) an amount equal to one-half of the sum by which $C exceeds the aggregate value of the property derived,

whichever is the lesser;

(b) where property is derived from the deceased person by a beneficiary of the second category, an amount of $D less—

(i) one-half of the sum by which the aggregate value of the property derived exceeds $C;

or

(ii) an amount of $E,

whichever is the lesser;

and

(c) where property is derived from the deceased person by a beneficiary of the third category—an amount of $F.

(2) Where two or more beneficiaries derive from a deceased person interests in a dwellinghouse that attract the benefit of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section, the amount attributable to each beneficiary under that paragraph is determined as follows:—

(a) an amount is first determined as if all such interests had been derived by a single beneficiary;

and

(b) an apportionment of that amount is then made between those beneficiaries according to the proportion that the value of the interest in the dwellinghouse derived by each bears to the aggregate value of all such interests derived by beneficiaries entitled to the benefit of that paragraph.

(3) Where property is derived from a deceased person by a lawful spouse, and by a putative spouse, of the deceased, the amount attributable to each spouse under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section is determined as follows:—

(a) an amount is first determined as if all the property derived by both spouses had been derived by a single spouse;

and

(b) an apportionment is then made between the spouses according to the proportionate share of each in the total property derived by both spouses.

(4) In this section—

$A = $35 000, or where the date of death of the deceased person falls in a calendar year succeeding publication of a notice under this section, the value attributed to that symbol by the notice last preceding the commencement of that calendar year:

$B = $17 000, or where the date of death of the deceased person falls in a calendar year succeeding publication of a notice under this section, the value attributed to that symbol by the notice last preceding the commencement of that calendar year:

$C = $69 000, or where the date of death of the deceased person falls in a calendar year succeeding publication of a notice under this section, the value attributed to that symbol by the notice last preceding the commencement of that calendar year:

$D = $18 000, or where the date of death of the deceased person falls in a calendar year succeeding publication of a notice under this section, the value attributed to that symbol by the notice last preceding the commencement of that calendar year:

$E = $6 000, or where the date of death of the deceased person falls in a calendar year succeeding publication of a notice under this section, the value attributed to that symbol by the notice last preceding the commencement of that calendar year:

$F = $6 000, or where the date of death of the deceased person falls in a calendar year succeeding publication of a notice under this section, the value attributed to that symbol by the notice last preceding the commencement of that calendar year.

(5) After the thirtieth day of September but before the thirty-first day of December in 1976 and each subsequent year the Treasurer shall cause to be published in the Gazette a notice attributing values to the symbols referred to in subsection (1) of this section and the values so attributed shall be determined as follows (calculating to the nearest $1 000):—

$A = $35 000 plus the amount by which $B exceeds $17 000 and the amount by which $D exceeds $18 000:

$B = $17 000 multiplied by the factor by which, in the opinion of the Valuer-General, the average market value of residential properties in South Australia as at the thirtieth day of September, 1975, must be multiplied in order to arrive at the average market value of residential properties as at the thirtieth day of September immediately preceding publication of the notice:

$C = $69 000 plus the amount by which $D exceeds $18 000 and three times the amount by which $B exceeds $17 000:

$D = $18 000 multiplied by the factor (calculated to four decimal places) by which the consumer price index (All Groups for Adelaide) for the September quarter 1975 must be multiplied in order to arrive at the consumer price index for the September quarter last preceding publication of the notice:

$E = $D less $12 000:

$F = $6 000 multiplied by the same factor used to arrive at $D.

(6) In this section—

"beneficiary of the first category" in relation to a deceased person means—

(a) a spouse of the deceased person;

or

(b) if he has conducted that trade or business in Australia during part only of the financial year—as an employer during that lastmentioned part of the financial year.

(4) In its application to the financial year ending on the thirtieth day of June, 1976, subsection (2) of this section shall be construed as if the references therein to forty-one thousand six hundred dollars were references to twenty thousand eight hundred dollars.

(b) that employer shall, where the amount of pay-roll tax paid or payable by that employer when he made the returns relating to that financial year is less than the annual amount of pay-roll tax in relation to that employer for that financial year, pay to the Commissioner as pay-roll tax, within the period during which he is required to furnish a return under this Act in respect of the return period that is or includes the month of June in that financial year, an amount equal to the difference.

(3) Where an employer, who has ceased to pay wages or has become a member of a group, as referred to in subsection (2) of this section, in any financial year, subsequently pays or is liable to pay taxable wages or interstate wages during that financial year otherwise than as a member of a group, section 13b of this Act applies to and in respect of him as if the reference in subsection (2) of that section to the amount of pay-roll tax paid or payable by that employer included a reference to any pay-roll tax paid or payable by that employer under subsection (2) of this section.

(5) The Commissioner may, at any time, by instrument in writing, revoke a determination made under subsection (4) of this section and any such revocation shall have effect as on and from the first day of the return period specified in the instrument, whether that return period is before, but not before the date of, the determination, or after, or the return period in which, the instrument is executed by him.

(7) The Commissioner shall, as soon as practicable after making a determination under subsection (4) of this section, serve notice of the determination on the designated group employer in respect of the group concerned.
