Interpretation.

18. (1) Subject to this section, in this Division—

"service" means full-time service in the teaching service.

(2) The Minister may determine in such manner as he considers just any question as to whether service constitutes full-time service for the purposes of this Division, and his determination shall be final.

(4) Every day occurring after the commencement of leave granted under this Division shall count as a day of that leave.

(5) Subject to this Act the continuity of service of an officer shall not be regarded as broken by leave of absence and—

(a) leave of absence in respect of which an officer is paid a full salary shall count as service for the purposes of this Division;

(b) the Minister may determine to what extent (if any) leave of absence taken without salary or at a reduced salary shall be counted as service for the purposes of this Division and any such determination shall have effect according to its terms.

(6) Any long service leave to which an officer is entitled under this Division shall be taken by that person at such time and in such periods, as may, in the opinion of the Director-General, be convenient to the Department.

(7) For the purposes of this Division where an officer commences duty at the opening of an academic year, his service shall be considered to commence on the first day of February in that year.

(8) Subject to this Act, where the employment of an officer who is entitled to long service leave under this Division is terminated for any cause before the officer has been granted that leave, the officer shall be entitled to the salary that he would have received if he had taken that leave.

(9) The Minister may apply any amount to which an officer is entitled under subsection (8) of this section in satisfaction of any claim that the Government of the State may have against that officer.

Payment for long service leave on death.

21. (1) Where an officer who has had not less than five years continuous service dies before he is entitled to leave under this Division, the Minister may pay to the dependants or personal representative of the officer the monetary equivalent of the officer's salary for nine consecutive calendar days for each continuous year of service of that officer prior to his death.

(2) Where an officer who is entitled to leave under this Division dies without having taken all the leave to which he is entitled, the Minister shall pay to the dependants or personal representative of the officer the monetary equivalent of the salary that he would have received in respect of the leave if he had been granted that leave on the day he died.

(3) Any question under this section as to—

(a) whether an officer had any dependants and the identity of the dependants;

(b) to which dependants any monetary amount should be paid under this section, shall be determined by the Minister as he considers proper.

(4) In this section "dependants" means persons who are wholly or in part dependent upon the earnings of the officer at the time of his death.

(2) Where the service of an officer is interrupted otherwise than by resignation, or dismissal for misconduct, and he is subsequently appointed as an officer of the teaching service within two years after the date of that interruption, his service before the interruption and his service after the interruption shall, for the purposes of this Division (except to the extent to which he has received long service leave or payment in lieu thereof in respect of any such period of service) be taken into account as though the service were continuous.

(3) Where either before or after the commencement of this Act the service of an officer was interrupted otherwise than by resignation or dismissal for misconduct for a period exceeding two years, the Minister may grant a certificate under this section.

(4) Where the Minister grants a certificate under subsection (3) of this section the service of the officer shall be regarded as continuous notwithstanding the interruption, but the period of the interruption shall not be taken into account in determining the period of the officer's service.

Transfer of teachers to other Government employment.

23. (1) If an officer is transferred to any other employment in the Government of the State, and his service in that employment is continuous with his service as an officer his service as an officer shall be taken into account for the purpose of computing long service leave to which he may be entitled in respect of that other employment.

(5) Where there is an interval of more than six weeks between the conclusion of service in the prescribed employment and the commencement of service in the teaching service the Minister may, if he thinks special reasons exist for so doing, declare that that interval shall not disrupt the continuity of service and the declaration shall have effect according to its terms.

THE FIRST SCHEDULE

THIS INDENTURE made the twenty-ninth day of July, 1976, BETWEEN: THE STATE OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA (hereinafter referred to as "the State") of the one part AND MOBIL OIL AUSTRALIA LIMITED a company incorporated in the State of Victoria and having its registered office at No. 2 City Road, Melbourne, in the State of Victoria (hereinafter with its successors and assigns referred to as "Mobil") of the other part.

WHEREAS Mobil proposes with the approval of the State to construct a lubricating oil refinery on portion of the land comprising the refinery site as defined in the Oil Refinery (Hundred of Noarlunga) Indenture Act, 1958-1967, and the Indenture set forth in the Schedule to that Act.

AND WHEREAS the State has agreed subject to the ratification of this Indenture by the Parliament of South Australia to assist Mobil as herein set forth to enable the said lubricating oil refinery to be constructed and operated.

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH that the State and Mobil HEREBY COVENANT AND AGREE WITH EACH OTHER as follows:—

1. (1) In this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"lube refinery feedstock" means any petroleum substance used as a feedstock by and in the manufacturing process carried out in the lube refinery;

"the original Indenture" means the Indenture set forth in the Schedule to the Act;

"the lube refinery" means the refinery established on the lube refinery site including any additions and changes made thereto from time to time;

"the lube refinery site" means that piece of land situated in the Hundred of Noarlunga County of Adelaide being the land comprised in Certificate of Title Register Book Volume 3948 Folio 4;

"P.R.A." means the Company as defined in the original Indenture and which is now named Petroleum Refineries (Australia) Pty. Limited;

"Port Adelaide" means the lands, foreshore, sea bed, and waters which for the time being, pursuant to the Harbors Act, and the proclamations thereunder, constitute the harbor of Port Adelaide.

(2) This Indenture shall be interpreted according to the laws for the time being in force in the State.

2. (1) The Government of the State will, as soon as practicable after the execution of this Indenture, introduce a Bill into the Parliament of South Australia to approve and ratify this Indenture and to provide for carrying it into effect.

(2) If such a Bill is not passed before the 31st day of December, 1977, the clauses of this Indenture other than this clause shall not come into operation.

3. (1) This Indenture is made subject to Mobil having already completed, or within such period as the State may allow, completing the construction on the lube refinery site of a lubricating oil refinery having a designed production capacity of not less than 3 000 barrels of lubricating oil per day.

(2) Until such time as the said lubricating oil refinery is constructed and commences to operate, the clauses of this Indenture, other than Clauses 1, 2 and 3, shall not commence to operate and if the lubricating oil refinery is not constructed as provided in Clause 3 (1), the clauses of this Indenture other than Clauses 1, 2 and 3 shall have no effect.

(3) Mobil shall in the design, erection, equipment and operation of the lube refinery, comply with accepted modern oil refinery practice and standards.

4. (1) Inward wharfage on lube refinery feedstock unshipped by means of the marine installations shall be payable only on the volume of such feedstock equal to the volume of petroleum products manufactured at the lube refinery from such feedstock and distributed for use only in South Australia by land to any place in that State or by ship to Port Adelaide. Such wharfage shall be payable in each month on the basis of petroleum products distributed in the previous month. Mobil shall make available to the Minister of Marine customs or audited figures for the purpose of calculating the amount payable.

(2) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause, the rate of inward wharfage on lube refinery feedstock chargeable under sub-clause (1) of this clause shall be 50·45322 cents per kilolitre.

(3) If during the operation of this Indenture the rate of inward wharfage payable at Port Adelaide on goods falling under the heading "Goods (not otherwise specified)" in the prescribed Schedule of Wharfage Rates is increased or decreased, the rates fixed by sub-clause (2) of this clause shall be increased or decreased by the percentage of such increase or decrease.

5. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Indenture or in the original Indenture, for the purpose of calculating the amount of inward wharfage on lube refinery feedstock unshipped by means of the marine installations except as mentioned in Clause 5 (2) petroleum products shall be understood not to be distributed whilst they are inside or on the way to either the lube refinery site, the P.R.A. site or any other site owned by Mobil in which petroleum products may lawfully be kept or stored or temporarily placed and being within five kilometres of the nearest boundary of the lube refinery site.

(2) The exception is where petroleum products are passed from one such site to another such site and are consumed there other than as refinery feedstock.

6. (1) Subject to this clause, where, for any year ending on the anniversary of the first day of the month following the day on which the lube refinery comes into operation, the total amount of inward wharfage applicable to lube refinery feedstock and crude oil unshipped by means of the marine installations paid for that year in respect of—

(a) lube refinery feedstock; and

(b) crude oil used as feedstock for the P.R.A. refinery to the extent that it is calculated on the volume of Mobil owned petroleum products manufactured at the P.R.A. refinery and distributed by Mobil (which shall include distribution by P.R.A. of such petroleum products by means of P.R.A.'s pipeline to Mobil's Birkenhead Terminal), exceeds $476 000, the State shall pay to Mobil, as soon as practicable, the amount of the excess.

(2) In calculating any amount to be paid by the State pursuant to sub-clause (1) of this clause, no account shall be taken, in any such year, of any amount paid as inward wharfage based on any excess portion of the volume of Mobil owned petroleum products manufactured at the P.R.A. refinery in respect of which inward wharfage is calculated, if such Mobil owned volume exceeds, in any such year:—

(i) 76% (seventy six per cent) of the maximum yearly production capacity of the P.R.A. refinery at the time the lube refinery comes into operation plus

(ii) a volume equal to any increase in Mobil's share of the maximum yearly production capacity of the P.R.A. refinery beyond that calculated in accordance with Clause 6 (2) (i), which increase results from an expansion of the P.R.A. refinery after the time the lube refinery comes into operation.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (i) and (ii) of sub-clause (2) of this clause, the maximum yearly production capacity of the P.R.A. refinery shall be such capacity as certified by P.R.A. and approved by the Treasurer of the State of South Australia.

(4) This Clause 6 shall apply only during the period of 10 years from the last day of the month in which the lube refinery comes into operation.

7. Outward wharfage shall not be chargeable upon petroleum products produced at the lube refinery and shipped from the marine installations.

8. (1) Petroleum products produced at the lube refinery and transported by sea to Port Adelaide will not be chargeable with inward wharfage at that port unless harbor works and facilities additional to those in existence at the time of the execution of this Indenture are provided at that port by the Minister of Marine and are used for unshipping or landing such products.
If such facilities are so used, wharfage charges appropriate to the amount expended by the Minister of Marine on the provision of such additional facilities will be payable.

(2) Petroleum products produced at the lube refinery and transported by sea to Port Pirie, Port Lincoln or any other South Australian port (except Port Adelaide) shall be chargeable with inward wharfage at that port at the rate for the time being in force.

(3) Petroleum products produced at the lube refinery and transported by pipeline or by any other means of land transport to Port Adelaide and therefrom shipped and subsequently unloaded at any wharf in South Australia under the control of the Minister of Marine will not be chargeable with outward wharfage at Port Adelaide but will be chargeable with inward wharfage at the wharf in South Australia at which such products are subsequently unloaded, at the rate for the time being in force.

9. Except as expressly provided in this Indenture, this Indenture shall not be deemed to confer any exemption from wharfage, conservancy dues, tonnage rates, pilotage, pilotage rates, or other port charges.

10. The State in purchasing stores for use by the Government and Governmental authorities shall in accordance with the policy of the Government to give preference to goods manufactured within the State give preference to products of the lube refinery offered for sale by Mobil.

11. Mobil will charge for products of the lube refinery delivered at the lube refinery for consumption in South Australia prices not higher than the delivered price at Adelaide, including wharfage and import duties (where relevant) of comparable products available to Mobil.

12. (1) With the written consent of the State, Mobil may assign or otherwise dispose of, to any person, any right, power, benefit, or privilege conferred on Mobil by this Indenture.

(2) A person to whom any right, power, benefit or privilege is so assigned or disposed of may, with the written consent of the State, further assign or dispose of it.

(3) Mobil may with the written consent of the State cause any of its obligations or duties under this Indenture to be performed by any other Company, but notwithstanding such consent Mobil shall remain liable for any failure to perform such obligations or duties.

(4) No consent shall be required for the assignment of any right, power, benefit or privilege conferred on Mobil by this Indenture to, or for the performance of Mobil's obligations or duties under this Indenture by, a company more than 50 per cent of the issued shares of which are owned directly or indirectly by Mobil Oil Corporation, a company incorporated in the State of New York, U.S.A.

(5) The State shall not arbitrarily or unreasonably withhold consent to any assignment or disposition under this clause.

13. Any consent or permission to be given by the State under this Indenture shall be deemed to be duly given if given by notice in writing to Mobil signed by the Premier or Acting Premier of the State.

14. (1)—(a) Mobil may, subject to the consent of P.R.A. use and occupy the foreshore adjacent to the refinery site and the marine installations and the Bill referred to in Clause 2 of this Indenture shall provide for the amendment of Sections 6 and 7 of the Act to such extent as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this paragraph.

(b) Mobil may, subject to the consent of P.R.A. use the facilities constructed and provided or to be provided in accordance with paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) of Clause 5 of the original Indenture but the State shall not be obliged to construct, maintain or arrange for any such facilities to any greater extent than the original Indenture provides.

(c) Mobil may draw water from the sea as provided for in paragraph (c) of sub-clause (1) of Clause 6 of the original Indenture.

(d) Mobil shall be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of Clause 8 of the original Indenture.

(2) It is confirmed that the expression "the refinery" as used in the Act and the original Indenture has the same meaning as "the P.R.A. refinery" as herein defined.

(3) Except as is expressly provided by this Indenture, nothing herein contained shall affect any of the provisions of the original Indenture nor impose any obligation upon the State or the Government of the State to introduce any Bill into the Parliament of South Australia to vary the original Indenture or to amend any provisions of the Act.

IN WITNESS whereof the parties hereto have executed these presents the day and year first hereinbefore written.

TABLE OF PUBLIC GENERAL ACTS AFFECTED BY AMENDMENT OR JUDICIAL DECISION

The Acts contained in this Table fall into two categories:—

A. Those of the Acts from Abattoirs to Constitution published in the new edition of the South Australian Statutes, 1837-1975, Volumes 1 and 2, that have been amended by Acts passed or coming into operation since the 6th February, 1976.

B. Those of the Acts from Consumer Credit to Wrongs that have been amended by Acts passed since the publication in April, 1937, of the South Australian Statutes, 1837-1936.

Acts which have been repealed since April, 1937, are shown in the Table of Acts Repealed. (Note that Acts repealed by Acts that will come into operation after the 10th February, 1977, have not been deleted from this Table of Amendments and Cases).

This table also contains notes, placed against references to the appropriate sections of the Acts affected, of the reported decisions of the Privy Council, the High Court of Australia, the Supreme Court of South Australia, and the Industrial Court of South Australia, relating to the interpretation of those sections. The cases so noted are those comprised in reports published since 1st April, 1937, and include the cases reported up to the end of 1975 Appeal Cases, up to the end of 131 Commonwealth Law Reports, up to the end of 11 South Australian State Reports, and up to the end of 40, Volume 1, and 41, Volume 1, South Australian Industrial Reports.
