(8) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section, the Commission shall, as far as practicable, retain the existing boundaries of Council districts ; but—

(a) where, in the opinion of the Commission, any Council district falls wholly or predominantly within the metropolitan area the boundaries of that Council district shall be adjusted and re-defined so as to incorporate those proposed Assembly districts within the metropolitan area which, in the opinion of the Commission, fall wholly or predominantly within that Council district ;

Representations to the Commission.

10. (1) Before completing its report, the Commission shall, by means of such advertisements as the Commission thinks necessary published in newspapers circulating generally throughout the State, invite representations from individuals and organizations concerning the matters to be determined by the Commission and shall by such advertisements fix a time within which such representations must be made.

(2) Representations to the Commission must, in the first instance, be made in writing as required by the Commission and must include a short summary of the matters intended to be brought to the notice of the Commission.

(3) The Commission shall consider all relevant representations made to it in accordance with this section; and may, at its discretion, hear and consider any evidence, information and arguments submitted to it in support of those representations by or on behalf of any person or organization.

24a. (1) A legal practitioner shall, out of moneys paid into his trust account pursuant to this Act (whether so paid before or after the commencement of the Legal Practitioners Act Amendment Act, 1969)—

(a) on or before the prescribed day, deposit with the Society a sum that is not less than the prescribed proportion of the lowest balance of the trust account during the period of twelve months last preceding the prescribed day;

and

(b) not later than the last day of each successive period of twelve months after the prescribed day, make such further deposits with the Society as may be necessary in order that the amount received and held on deposit on his behalf by the Society is not less than the prescribed proportion of the lowest aggregate of the amount of the balance of the trust account and the amount held on deposit on his behalf by the Society during that period.

(2) The Society shall pay the moneys deposited with it pursuant to subsection (1) of this section into a banking account or banking accounts entitled, or collectively entitled, the "Legal Practitioners Combined Trust Account".

(3) Where a legal practitioner maintains two or more trust accounts, those accounts shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be a single trust account the balance of which is the aggregate of the respective balances of each of those trust accounts but where a legal practitioner maintains, on the instructions of a client, a separate trust account for the exclusive benefit of that client, the balance of that account shall not be taken into account for the purposes of this section.

(4) If during the whole of the period of twelve months ending upon the thirtieth day of June in any year the balance of the trust account of a legal practitioner and the amount (if any) deposited by him, and then remaining on deposit, with the Society, amount in aggregate to less than two thousand dollars, the legal practitioner shall, during the succeeding period of twelve months, be exempt from the obligations of this section.

(5) If a trust account is maintained by a firm of legal practitioners, the trust account shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be the trust account of each member of the firm, and the members of the firm shall each be liable to perform the obligations imposed by this section but the discharge by one member of the firm of his obligations under this section in relation to the trust account shall be taken as a discharge by all the members of the firm of their obligations in relation to that trust account.

(6) If the Council has reasonable cause to suspect that a legal practitioner has not complied with the obligations of this section, it may, by notice in writing served personally or by post upon the legal practitioner, require him to attend before it and to produce evidence of the trust moneys received by him, the amount from time to time standing to the credit of his trust account, and such other relevant matters as may be specified in the notice.

(7) The moneys deposited with the Society shall be repaid by the Society upon the demand of the legal practitioner by whom they were paid but a legal practitioner shall not demand the repayment of the moneys so deposited except where he is required to pay or disburse the moneys in accordance with section 22 of this Act.

(8) Where moneys are repaid to a legal practitioner by the Society, the legal practitioner shall pay them forthwith into his trust account.

(5) After making such provision for the payment of the costs, charges and expenses referred to in subsection (4) of this section as the Society thinks fit, the Society shall pay the balance of the moneys comprised in the statutory interest account (excepting moneys advanced upon loan to the statutory interest account), as to one-half, to the assistance fund, and subject to subsection (6) of this section, as to one-half, to the guarantee fund.

(6) If at any time the amount of the guarantee fund (including the value of any investments in which any of its moneys have been invested) exceeds an amount calculated by multiplying the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars by the number of legal practitioners who held practising certificates on the last preceding thirtieth day of June, the Society shall hold the excess in the statutory interest account, to be paid or applied by the Society to the assistance fund, or for any purpose approved by the Attorney-General and the Society.

Immunity from liability.

24d. (1) No action at law or in equity shall lie against the Society or a legal practitioner for any action done in compliance with this Part.

(6) The Society may, in its absolute discretion, remove a member of a committee from office, and may appoint a suitable person to a vacancy on a committee howsoever arising.

Employment of legal practitioners.

24g. (1) The Society may provide legal assistance by legal practitioners engaged and employed by it at a salary whether with or without other duties.

(2) Where a legal practitioner is so employed by the Society, the legal assistance provided by him shall be confined to advice upon legal matters.

(3) A person who receives legal assistance from a legal practitioner employed by the Society under this section shall be liable to pay to the Society such costs as may be determined by the Society, and the Society may recover those costs, as a debt due to it, in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) The Society shall not provide legal assistance pursuant to this section unless it is satisfied that the assisted person is unable to afford, or without undue hardship to afford, to obtain the legal assistance otherwise than from the Society.

(5) The salary of a legal practitioner employed by the Society pursuant to this section may be paid, wholly or in part, from the assistance fund.

Panels of legal practitioners.

24h. (1) The Society may prepare and maintain panels of the legal practitioners who have notified the Society of their willingness to provide legal assistance in accordance with this Division.

(2) The panels may be arranged according to the preferences expressed by the legal practitioners for the several branches of the law, the various types of practice, and the areas of the State in which they practise.

(3) The Society may, in such manner as it thinks fit, where it has decided to arrange legal assistance for any person under this Division, select a legal practitioner from the panels and assign the legal practitioner to provide legal assistance for that person.

Provision of legal assistance.

24i. (1) A person who desires to obtain legal assistance under this Division shall make application therefor in a manner determined by the Society.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, the Society may, in its absolute discretion, arrange, or decline to arrange, legal assistance, or terminate such an arrangement previously made.

(3) The Society shall not arrange legal assistance for an applicant for legal assistance unless, in the opinion of the Society—

(a) the applicant is unable to pay in full for the legal assistance, or such payment would place an excessive financial burden upon the applicant;

and

(b) it is reasonable in all the circumstances of the case to make such an arrangement.

(4) An arrangement for the provision of legal assistance may be made upon terms that the assisted person shall make such payments to the legal practitioner to whom he is assigned, on account of costs and disbursements, as may be determined by the Society.

(5) A document purporting to be signed by the secretary or other authorized officer of the Society shall be admissible in any legal proceedings as prima facie evidence of an amount payable to a legal practitioner by an assisted person under the terms of an arrangement for the provision of legal assistance and the legal practitioner may, in respect of legal assistance provided by him, recover that amount, or so much thereof as is unsatisfied, as a debt due to him in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) The Society shall determine the amount of the costs that would ordinarily have been recoverable by a legal practitioner in respect of legal assistance provided by him if the person for whom the legal assistance was provided had not been an assisted person.

(7) The Society shall, at such times or periodic intervals as it thinks fit (being not less than twice in any year), pay to a legal practitioner who has provided legal assistance for any assisted person—

(a) the disbursements and out-of-pocket expenses (so far as those expenses are unsatisfied by payments made by or on behalf of the assisted person directly to the legal practitioner) approved by the Society;

and

(b) such proportion of the remainder of the costs determined by the Society under subsection (6) of this section as the Society thinks fit.

(8) The Society may determine that legal practitioners assigned to provide legal assistance shall be so assigned upon condition that they shall pay all moneys recovered from assisted persons, in excess of disbursements and out-of-pocket expenses, to the Society for the credit of the assistance fund, and thereafter, until the Society otherwise determines, all such assignments shall be made upon that condition.

(9) In this section the expression "disbursements and out-of-pocket expenses" does not include payments to any other legal practitioner as counsel fees, or for work undertaken as agent for the legal practitioner who was assigned to provide legal assistance for the assisted person.

Orders for costs.

24j. (1) A court or tribunal, in making an order for costs, or security for costs in favour of, or against, an assisted person, shall not take into account the fact that that person is an assisted person and is thereby relieved wholly or in part from liability to pay the costs awarded.

(2) A legal practitioner who has provided legal assistance for an assisted person shall be subrogated to the right of the assisted person to costs in respect of that legal assistance and any such costs received or recovered by the legal practitioner shall be held by him in trust, to be paid and applied at the direction of the Society, to himself, the assisted person or the Society.

Disclosure of information.

24k. (1) A legal practitioner shall disclose to the Society any fact or information relating to an assisted person that the Society may require, and may disclose any such information that the legal practitioner considers relevant to the provision of legal assistance for that person, and the assisted person shall be deemed to have waived any right or privilege that might prevent such disclosure.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the relation of legal practitioner and client, and the privileges arising therefrom, are unaffected by the fact that the client is an assisted person.

Preservation of confidence.

24l. (1) No officer or employee of the Society shall, without the consent of the Society—

(a) produce in any court any document received by the Society, or any officer or employee of the Society, in relation to an application for legal assistance whether made before or after the commencement of the Legal Practitioners Act Amendment Act, 1969 ;

or

(b) communicate or permit to be communicated to any person, or give in evidence in any court any information received by the Society, or any officer or employee of the Society, in relation to an application for legal assistance whether made before or after the commencement of the Legal Practitioners Act Amendment Act, 1969.

(2) No court shall have power to compel any such officer or employee to produce any such document or to communicate or give in evidence any such information, unless the Society has consented thereto.

Offence.

24m. (1) A person who applies to the Society for legal assistance and with intent to deceive or mislead the Society, withholds any relevant information that he is required by the Society to furnish, or makes any statement or representation that is false or misleading in any material particular, shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) If the Society has made any payment for the provision of legal assistance for a person who has been convicted of an offence against subsection (1) of this section, the Society may recover the amount of that payment, as a debt due to the Society, in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Remission of fees.

24n. (1) The Attorney-General may, by a special or general direction, reduce, remit or postpone, or provide for the conditional or unconditional reduction, remission or postponement of any fees that would, if no such direction were given, be payable to the Crown in connection with any act, transaction or matter arising in the course of legal professional work carried out for an assisted person.

(2) The Attorney-General may by a special or general direction require any officer in the employment of the State to supply, free of cost, or for such fees as the Attorney-General fixes, to the Society, or any legal practitioner acting for an assisted person, a certified or other copy of any document in the possession, custody or control of that officer, if that copy is required in connection with any legal professional work carried out for an assisted person.

(3) In this section "document" includes any transcript or notes of evidence or arguments in any court.

(4) Any general or special direction given under this section shall prevail over any other enactment or regulation inconsistent therewith.

(5) Any general or special direction in force immediately before the commencement of the Legal Practitioners Act Amendment Act, 1969, under the Poor Persons Legal Assistance Act, 1936, shall continue in force and shall be deemed to be a general or special direction given pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

Exemption from stamp duty.

24o. No stamp duty shall be chargeable on any statutory declaration made by any person in connection with an application to the Society for legal assistance.

Division IV.

The Legal Practitioners Guarantee Fund.

The guarantee fund.

24p. (1) The Society shall establish and maintain a fund entitled the "Legal Practitioners Guarantee Fund".

(2) The guarantee fund shall be held in trust by the Society for the purposes of this Division.

(3) The moneys constituting the guarantee fund shall be paid into a separate banking account entitled the "Guarantee Fund Account" which shall be operated in a manner determined by the Society.

(4) The Society may from time to time invest any of the moneys constituting, or forming part of, the guarantee fund in any manner in which trustees are authorized to invest trust funds, and may advance, upon such terms and conditions as the Society thinks fit, moneys from the guarantee fund to the statutory interest account or the assistance fund.

(5) The guarantee fund shall consist of—

(a) the moneys paid into it from the statutory interest account;

(b) all moneys recovered by the Society in the exercise of a right or power conferred on the Society under this Division;

(c) any moneys that the Society thinks fit to include in the guarantee fund;

(d) the income and accretions arising from the investment of the moneys constituting the guarantee fund;

and

(e) any moneys received by the Society in pursuance of a contract of insurance made pursuant to section 24r of this Act.

Delegation of authority.

24q. (1) The Society may delegate all or any of its powers, authorities and discretions under this Division (except this power of delegation) to a committee consisting of not less than three, nor more than five, members of the Society, a majority of whom shall be members of the Council.

(2) A decision of a committee must be concurred in by at least three members of the committee present at a meeting of the committee.

(3) A committee shall, in the exercise of any power, authority or discretion delegated to it by the Society, observe a procedure determined by the Society, and be subject to the direction of the Society.

(4) The members of the committee shall be appointed and hold office subject to such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Society.

(5) The Society may, in its absolute discretion, remove a member of the committee from office and may appoint a suitable person to a vacancy on the committee howsoever arising.

Society may insure against claims.

24r. (1) The Society may, on such terms as it thinks fit, enter into any contract with any person, or body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, carrying on the business of insurance in Australia, whereby the Society will be insured to the extent, and in the manner, provided in the contract, against liability to satisfy claims under this Division.

(2) Any such contract may be entered into in relation to legal practitioners generally, or in relation to any legal practitioner or class of legal practitioners.

Application of guarantee fund.

24s. (1) In this Division "fiduciary or professional default" means—

(a) any defalcation, misappropriation or misapplication of trust moneys in the charge of a legal practitioner or firm of legal practitioners;

or

(b) any wrongful or negligent act or omission in the course of the practice of a legal practitioner, whether committed by, or attributable to, the legal practitioner or firm of legal practitioners, his or their clerk or servant, or any other person.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Division, the guarantee fund shall be held and applied for the purpose of compensating persons who suffer pecuniary loss from a fiduciary or professional default.

(3) Where all legal or equitable claims in respect of a fiduciary or professional default committed by a partner, clerk or servant of a legal practitioner have been fully satisfied and—

(a) the legal practitioner, being under a legal or equitable obligation to do so, has made payment to any person in compensation for pecuniary loss suffered by him in consequence of the fiduciary or professional default;

and

(b) the Society is satisfied that the legal practitioner has acted honestly and reasonably in all the circumstances of the case, the Society may, if it is satisfied that it is just and reasonable so to do, accept a claim under this Division from the legal practitioner in respect of that payment.

(4) The guarantee fund shall not be applied in respect of any fiduciary or professional default occurring before the commencement of the Legal Practitioners Act Amendment Act, 1969.

Limitation upon claims.

24t. (1) The Society may by notice published in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State, fix a day, not earlier than three months after the publication of the notice, on or before which claims in respect of the fiduciary or professional default of, or in relation to, any legal practitioner must be made.

(2) A claim for compensation from the guarantee fund must be in writing and lodged with the Society on or before the day fixed by a notice under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) A claim that is not made within the time prescribed by subsection (2) of this section shall be barred unless the Society otherwise determines.

(4) No action shall lie against the Society, any officer or employee of the Society, or a publisher, in respect of the contents of a notice bona fide published under this section.

Establishment of claims.

24u. (1) Subject to this Division, the Society may allow and settle out of the guarantee fund any proper claim against the Society under this Division.

(2) If any person suffers pecuniary loss in consequence of any fiduciary or professional default, and the Society disallows his claim in whole or in part, he may take action in the Supreme Court against the Society by originating summons (in which summons the defendant shall be cited as the "Legal Practitioners Guarantee Fund" and not as the Society) to establish the validity of his claim.

(3) If the claimant satisfies the Supreme Court that he has a valid unsatisfied claim against a legal practitioner in respect of any fiduciary or professional default, and he has taken all reasonable steps to obtain satisfaction of that claim, the Supreme Court may declare the validity of the claim, and order the Society to deal with it pursuant to this Division.

(4) No proceedings shall be brought under this section, without the consent of the Society, after the expiration of three months from the day on which a notice is served by the Society, personally or by post, upon the claimant notifying him of the disallowance or partial disallowance of his claim, and informing him of the effect of this subsection or, in the case of a claimant whose whereabouts is unknown to the Society, or who has died and has no personal representative known to the Society, after the expiration of three months from the day on which such a notice is published in the Gazette.

(5) In any proceedings under this section, evidence of or relating to any admission or confession made by any person shall be admissible in evidence to prove fiduciary or professional default notwithstanding that the person by whom the admission or confession was made is not a party to the proceedings.

(6) If in any proceedings under this section the court is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that a fiduciary or professional default has been committed, it may declare the validity of a claim notwithstanding that the fiduciary or professional default constitutes a criminal offence, and that the evidence would not be sufficient to establish the guilt of a person charged with that offence.

(7) Any three Judges of the Supreme Court may make Rules of Court as to the procedure in any proceedings under this section.

Power to require production of evidence.

24v. (1) The Society may, in considering any claim made pursuant to this Division, by notice in writing served personally or by post upon any person, require that person, within the time specified in the notice, to deliver up any document in his possession or power relevant to the determination of the claim.

(2) A person shall not fail duly to comply with a notice served upon him pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

Penalty : Two hundred dollars.

Amount and apportionment of claims.

24w. (1) The amount of a claim made pursuant to this Division shall not exceed the actual pecuniary loss suffered by the claimant in consequence of the fiduciary or professional default less any amount that the claimant has received, or may reasonably be expected to receive, otherwise than from the assistance fund, in reduction of that loss.

(2) If a valid claim made pursuant to this Division has not been satisfied as provided by this Division at the expiration of twelve months from the day on which it was lodged with the Society it shall then, to the extent to which it has not been so satisfied, be increased by interest at the rate of five per centum per annum calculated from the expiration of that period.

(3) Subject to this section, the amount that may be applied by the Society towards the satisfaction of all claims made in respect of the fiduciary or professional defaults of, or relating to, a legal practitioner committed prior to the day fixed by notice under section 24t of this Act, shall not exceed five per centum of the balance of the guarantee fund, calculated to the nearest amount of one thousand dollars, as disclosed in the accounts of the guarantee fund last audited before the proposed application of moneys towards satisfaction of the claims.

(4) Where the amount available to satisfy claims made under this Division does not permit the full satisfaction of the claims, the Society shall, subject to subsection (5) of this section, apportion that amount between the various claimants in such manner as it thinks just.

(5) The Society, in apportioning payments pursuant to this Division—

(a) shall take into account the relative degrees of hardship suffered or likely to be suffered by the several claimants from the non-payment of the full amount of the claim for compensation ;

and

(b) may satisfy claims to the extent of five hundred dollars before making any payment in excess of that sum to a claimant.

(6) Where the Society makes a payment pursuant to this section for the purpose of discharging a claim under this section, the claim in respect of which the payment is made shall be discharged notwithstanding that it may not have been satisfied in full by the payment.

(7) The Society may, with the approval of the Attorney-General, make further subsequent payments to any person whose claim is not satisfied in full, or may make a payment to a person whose claim is barred, but any payment so made does not revive or re-instate a claim.

Rights of Society.

24x. Where the Society has made any payment in compensation for loss suffered by any person in consequence of a fiduciary or professional default, the Society may recover, in any court of competent jurisdiction, the amount of that payment, as a debt due to it, from the person who would be liable at law, or in equity, for that fiduciary or professional default.

28. (1) The units of pension appropriate to the salary of a contributor shall be in accordance with the following scale less a number of units equal to the number of neglected units (if any) of the contributor :—

Scale of Units of Pension

Column One.	Column Two.
Salary of Contributor.	Number of units of pension appropriate to salary.
Not exceeding $1,025	14
Exceeding $1,025 but not exceeding $2,600	14 plus 1 unit for each complete $75 in excess of $1,025
Exceeding $2,600	35 plus 1 unit for each complete $125 in excess of $2,600; or 1 unit for each $87 of total annual salary; whichever is the greater

(2) Subject to this section, a contributor may from time to time by notice in the prescribed form elect to contribute for all of the units appropriate to his salary as and when his entitlement is increased and may at any time by notice in writing in the prescribed form determine such election in respect of any such units for which he may become entitled to contribute after the date of such determination and thereupon for the purposes of this Act that election shall have no further force or effect.

(3) If a contributor elects in accordance with subsection (2) of this section he shall, as from the payment day next following the entitlement day in respect of which he became entitled to the additional units, contribute for the units for which he so elected to contribute at such rate specified in Table A, B, C or D in the second schedule to this Act as is appropriate to—

(a) the sex of the contributor ;

(b) the age of retirement of the contributor ;

and

(4) For the purposes of this Act, an election made pursuant to subsection (2) of section 24 of the repealed Act and not determined pursuant to that section shall apply and have effect as if it were an election made pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

Increase in entitlement of certain contributors.

29. (1) Where at any time after the commencement of this Act and before the first entitlement day of a contributor to whom this section applies, that contributor or the widow of that contributor becomes entitled to a pension under this Act (not being a pension on retirement or any pension first payable within the period of twelve months preceding the day on which, but for that pension so becoming payable, the contributor would have attained his age of retirement) that pension shall be calculated on the basis that on the day on which the contributor or the widow of the contributor became entitled to that pension the contributor was contributing for the number of units of pension he would have been entitled to contribute for if his entitlement day had occurred immediately before he or his widow became entitled to that pension.

(2) This section applies to a contributor—

(a) who was a contributor to the Fund immediately before the commencement of this Act ;

and

(b) in relation to whom there was in force immediately before the time he or his widow became entitled to a pension an election made pursuant to subsection (2) of section 28 of this Act.

Calculation of entitlement.

30. (1) The number of units for which a contributor is from time to time entitled to contribute shall be calculated by reference to the number of units appropriate to his salary on each of his entitlement days.

(2) Where in consequence of a reference referred to in subsection (1) of this section a contributor becomes entitled to contribute for—

or

(b) a number of units over and above the number of units for which he was previously contributing,

he shall commence contributing for those units or additional units, as the case may be, on the payment day next following the entitlement day in respect of which the reference was made.

(3) Where at any time during the period commencing on and including his entitlement day and concluding on and including his payment day next following that entitlement day a contributor, who has elected or is required by this Act to contribute for the units to which he became entitled to contribute for on that entitlement day, or the widow of that contributor becomes entitled to a pension under this Act (not being a pension on retirement or any pension first payable within the period of twelve months preceding the day on which, but for that pension becoming payable, the contributor would have attained his age of retirement) that pension shall be calculated on the basis that on the day on which the contributor or the widow of the contributor became entitled to the pension the contributor was contributing for the number of units he was entitled to contribute for on that entitlement day.

Prospective increase in entitlement.

31. (1) Where, within the period of twelve months next following his entitlement day, a contributor to whom this section applies or the widow of that contributor becomes entitled to a pension under this Act (not being a pension on retirement or any pension first payable within the period of twelve months preceding the day on which, but for that pension so becoming payable, the contributor would have attained his age of retirement) that pension shall be calculated on the basis that on the day on which the contributor or the widow of the contributor became entitled to that pension the contributor was contributing for the number of units of pension he would have been entitled to contribute for if his entitlement day had occurred immediately before he or his widow became entitled to that pension.

(2) This section applies to a contributor in relation to whom there was in force immediately before the time he or his widow became entitled to the pension there was an election made pursuant to subsection (2) of section 28 of this Act.

New entrants.

32. If during the period commencing on and including the day on which a contributor (who has elected pursuant to this Act to contribute for all of the units appropriate to his salary on his first entitlement day) is accepted by the Board as a contributor to the Fund and concluding on the entitlement day of that contributor next following, an event occurs that, had that contributor been actually contributing to the Fund, would have entitled that contributor or his widow to a pension under this Act, then that pension shall be payable and shall be calculated on the basis that the contributor was at the time the event occurred contributing for the units he would have been entitled to contribute for if his entitlement day had occurred immediately before that event.

Increase in salary in year before retirement.

33. (1) Where, within the twelve months immediately preceding the attainment of the age of retirement in respect of which the contributor was contributing, the salary of a contributor is increased to an extent which would, on his next entitlement day or on the day, which had he not retired, would have been his next entitlement day, entitle the contributor to contribute for an additional number of units—

(a) the contributor shall be entitled to receive on retirement the additional pension represented by those additional units ;

or

(b) any pension first payable to the contributor or to the widow of the contributor within that period shall be increased by the additional number of units or a widow's proportion of the additional number of units, as the case requires ;

if there is paid to the Fund a sum, in the opinion of the Board, equal to twenty-six fortnight's contributions for each such additional unit calculated on the basis that the day on which the increase of salary was payable was his payment day.

(2) Where a contributor will attain his age of retirement within the period of twelve months next following the commencement of this Act and on his entitlement day or on the day that would have been his entitlement day if he had not so attained his age of retirement the contributor became entitled or would have become entitled to contribute for an additional number of units—

(a) the contributor shall be entitled to receive on retirement the additional pension represented by those units;

or

(b) any pension first payable to the contributor or to the widow of the contributor within that period shall be increased by the additional number of units or widows proportion of the additional number of units, as the case requires,

if there is paid into the Fund a sum, in the opinion of the Board, equal to twenty-six fortnightly contributions for each such additional unit calculated on the basis that the day on which this Act commenced was his payment day.

New contributors.

34. (1) An employee, who is accepted by the Board as a contributor after the commencement of this Act, shall on and from his payment day next following his first entitlement day after he was so accepted, contribute for not less than ten units.

(2) An employee referred to in subsection (1) may, by notice delivered to the Board not later than the last day of the month next succeeding the month in which he was so accepted, elect to contribute for all of the units appropriate to his salary on his first entitlement day and subsection (2) of section 28 of this Act shall apply and have effect to and in relation to that election as if it were an election made pursuant to that subsection.

Election for additional units.

35. (1) Where the entitlement of a contributor is increased and in relation to that contributor there is not in force an election under subsection (2) of section 28 of this Act he may elect to contribute from his payment day for all or some of the additional units to which he became entitled on his entitlement day.

(2) An election pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be made not later than the last day of the month next succeeding the month in which the entitlement day, by reference to which the contributor's entitlement was increased, occurred.

(3) In this section "additional units" in relation to a contributor means the difference between the number of units appropriate to his salary before his entitlement was increased and the number of units appropriate to his salary after his entitlement was increased.

(4) Nothing in this section shall entitle any contributor to contribute for units in excess of the number appropriate to his salary.

Mode of election and effect of not making an election.

36. (1) Every election to contribute for units which may be made under this Act shall be made by a written document delivered to the Board.

(2) If an employee who has the right to make an election does not make it within the period prescribed in relation to that election or where there is no such period prescribed then within the period prescribed in relation to elections generally he shall be deemed, on the last day of whichever of the prescribed periods is appropriate, to have elected not to contribute for any of the units for which he could have elected to contribute by that election.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this section, the Board may in its absolute discretion and upon such terms and conditions as it thinks just accept an election, to contribute for units, made by a person who has failed through inadvertance to make such an election within the appropriate prescribed period, if the Board is satisfied that in all the circumstances of the case it is desirable that the election should be accepted.

Permission to contribute for neglected units.

37. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section a contributor shall not be entitled to contribute for any unit represented by a neglected unit.

(2) The Board may, in its absolute discretion and subject to such conditions as to it seems fit permit a contributor to contribute for a number of units equal to some or all of his neglected units.

(3) Any unit, for which permission has pursuant to this section been given to contribute, shall be contributed for from the payment day next following the granting of that permission at such rate specified in Table A, B, C or D in the second schedule to this Act as is appropriate to—

(a) the sex of the contributor ;

(b) the age of retirement of the contributor ;

and

(4) For the purposes of this Act a contributor's neglected units shall be reduced by a number of units equal to the number of units he contributes for pursuant to this section.

Contributions on reduction of salary.

38. (1) If the salary of a contributor is, by reason of his misconduct or default, reduced and the contributor was, before that reduction, contributing for a pension which when expressed in terms of units of two dollars per fortnight is the equivalent of a number of units greater than the number of units appropriate to his salary as reduced, the number of units for which he may contribute shall be reduced to the number appropriate to his salary as reduced.

(2) Where a reduction of salary occurs for any reason other than the misconduct or default of the contributor and the contributor was, before that reduction contributing for a pension which when expressed in terms of units of two dollars per fortnight is the equivalent of a number of units greater than the number of units appropriate to his salary as reduced then the contributor may elect to—

(a) continue to contribute for the number of units for which he was contributing before that reduction ;

4. Section 14 of the principal Act is amended by inserting after subsection (5) the following subsection :—

Price to be paid for wheat.

(5a) For the purposes of subsection (5) of this section any amounts paid or payable by the Board to a licensed receiver in connection with the administration of a law of this State or any other State, relating to the fixing of quotas, shall be deemed to be costs of administration referred to in that subsection.

Enactment of s. 14a of principal Act—

5. The following section is enacted and inserted in the principal Act immediately after section 14 thereof :—

Modification of the operation of this Act.

14a. (1) In relation to a quota season, or a season that is not a quota season but which immediately follows a quota season, section 14 of this Act shall apply and have effect as if references in that section to wheat of a season were references to wheat included in the pool for that season in accordance with this section.

(2) The pool for a quota season (in this subsection referred to as "the relevant season") consists of the following wheat delivered to the Board (whether in pursuance of this Act, an Act of the Commonwealth or an Act of any other State)—

(a) wheat (whether of the relevant season or of an earlier quota season) delivered during the relevant season or an earlier quota season and appearing from the records of the Board to be the whole or part of a quota that is applicable to a person in respect of the relevant season under the Wheat Delivery Quotas Act, 1969, or any Act of any other State providing for the fixing of quotas ;

(iii) is declared by the Board to have been sold by the Board and paid for in full during the relevant season.

(3) The pool for a season that is not a quota season but which immediately follows a quota season consists of the following wheat delivered to the Board (whether in pursuance of this Act, an Act of the Commonwealth or an Act of any other State)—

(a) wheat of that season ;

and

(b) wheat of an earlier season, being a quota season, that was not included in the pool for an earlier season.

(4) The Board may, in such manner as it considers equitable, attribute the sales of wheat referred to in a declaration under paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section, being wheat of a particular kind, to all or any of the wheat of that particular kind delivered by particular persons.

6. The following section is enacted and inserted in the principal Act immediately after section 20 thereof :— Enactment of s. 20a of principal Act—

Price of wheat for use in Australia otherwise than for human consumption.

20a. (1) Notwithstanding section 20 of this Act, the Board may sell wheat for use in Australia otherwise than in the manufacture of substances for human consumption at such prices as the Board determines, being prices less than the prices that would be applicable under that section, but no such sale shall be made at a price less than the minimum price applicable in accordance with this section.

(2) The minimum price in respect of a wholesale sale of bulk wheat of fair average quality free on rails at a port of export is the price per bushel for such a sale that corresponds with a free on board price equal to the guaranteed price of wheat of the season that was current at the beginning of the year in which the sale was made.

(3) The minimum price in respect of a sale other than a sale referred to in subsection (2) of this section is the price per bushel ascertained by adding to or deducting from the minimum price referred to in that subsection an amount that makes proper allowance for the quality of the wheat, the conditions of the sale and the place of delivery.

(4) Where the Board sells wheat for use in Australia in the manufacture of substances for human consumption and that manufacture will result in the production of substances for purposes other than human consumption, the Board may agree to allow the purchaser a rebate not exceeding the amount by which the price charged by the Board for the wheat could have been reduced in accordance with this section if the sale of so much of the wheat as is equal in weight to the weight of the substances produced, or to the estimated weight of the substances that will be produced from the wheat, for use for purposes other than human consumption, had been a sale to which subsection (1) of this section applied.

(5) In respect of every sale of wheat in accordance with subsection (1) of this section the Board shall credit to the account referred to in subsection (1) of section 21 of this Act an amount per bushel of wheat comprised in the sale equal to the amount that is, at the time of the sale, the amount per bushel by which prices are to be increased under subsection (4) of section 20 of this Act for the purposes of reimbursing the Board for the costs of shipment of wheat to the State of Tasmania and section 21 of this Act applies in relation to the amounts so credited in like manner as it applies in relation to other moneys credited to that account.

(6) In this section "year" means any period of twelve months commencing on the first day of December.

or

(6) If the Authority, by instrument under subsection (3) of this section, disputes a claim, the claim shall become a disputed claim for the purposes of this Act.

Reference to Court.

23. (1) A disputed claim may be referred by the Authority or the claimant to the Court by filing true copies of the notice of acquisition, notice of claim, and the reply.

PART IV.

Principles of compensation.

(j) allowance shall be made in favour of the Authority for any enhancement in value of land adjoining the subject land in which the claimant is interested by reason of the execution of the authorized undertaking, but in no case shall the claimant be liable to make any payment to the Authority in respect of such enhancement in value ;

and

(k) where a notice of intention to acquire land has been served upon a person interested in the land, any sales, transactions, arrangements, licences or approvals effected or obtained with respect to the land, and any improvements to the land effected, after service of the notice, shall not be taken into account unless it is proved that they were effected or obtained bona fide.

Composition of wheat delivery quotas.

22. The wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of any production unit for the quota season which commenced on the first day of October, 1969, shall be the aggregate of the amount of wheat represented by the basic quota and the amount of wheat represented by the special quota, if any, allocated in respect of that production unit.

Calculation of the basic quota.

23. (1) The portion of the wheat delivery quota in respect of a production unit represented by the basic quota shall be an amount of wheat—

(a) being the prescribed percentage of the average annual deliveries to a licensed receiver of wheat produced from that production unit during the prescribed period ;

or

(b) ascertained by reference to subsection (2) of this section, whichever is the greater.

(2) The portion of the wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of a class A, class B or class C production unit represented by the basic quota may be an amount of—

"class A production unit" means a production unit from which no wheat was delivered to a licensed receiver in respect of any of the seasons comprised in the prescribed period :

"class B production unit" means a production unit from which wheat was, during the prescribed period, delivered to a licensed receiver only in respect of one or more of the last three seasons comprised in the prescribed period where, in the opinion of the Advisory Committee, all or portion of the land comprised in the production unit was being developed for wheat growing :

"class C production unit" means a production unit (not being a class B production unit) from which wheat was, during the prescribed period, delivered to a licensed receiver only in respect of one or more of the last four seasons comprised in the prescribed period or in respect of each of the five seasons comprised in the prescribed period, where, in either case, in the opinion of the Advisory Committee all or portion of the land comprised in the production unit was being developed for wheat growing :

"the estimated yield" in relation to a production unit situated wholly within a Hundred means an amount expressed in bushels of wheat obtained by multiplying the number of acres of that production unit sown to wheat for harvesting during the season commencing on the first day of October, 1969, by a number equal to the number of bushels determined by the Advisory Committee as being the average yield of wheat expressed in bushels of wheat per acre sown in that hundred :

"the prescribed percentage" means the prescribed percentage determined by the Advisory Committee for the purposes of this section :

"traditional wheat grower" means a person who during not less than four of the seasons comprised in the prescribed period was engaged in the production of wheat either as the owner of land or as the share-farmer of land and who derived a significant portion of his income from that production.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) of this section, where a production unit is situated in more than one Hundred or where all or portion of the production unit is situated outside any Hundred the "estimated yield" in relation to that production unit means an amount expressed in bushels of wheat obtained by multiplying the number of acres sown to wheat for harvesting during the season commencing on the first day of October, 1969, by a number determined by the Advisory Committee, for the purposes of determining the estimated yield of that production unit.

Fixing of special quotas.

24. (1) The amount of a wheat delivery quota in respect of a production unit represented by the special quota shall be fixed by the Advisory Committee and in so fixing that amount the Advisory Committee—

(a) shall have regard to—

(ii) the diminution of the amount of wheat produced from the production unit as a consequence of two or more adverse seasons comprised in the prescribed period ;

(iii) the diminution of the amount of wheat produced from the production unit as a consequence of the occurrence during the prescribed period of an insurable contingency ;

(iv) the amount of wheat produced from the production unit in the prescribed period that was, with the approval of the Board, delivered to a person other than the Board ;

and

(v) the amount of wheat produced from the production unit in the prescribed period that was delivered to a licensed receiver within the meaning of an Act, relating to deliveries of wheat, of any State other than this State ;

and

(i) was not within the control of the person for the time being responsible for the production of wheat from the production unit during the prescribed period ;

and

(ii) has diminished the amount of wheat that otherwise would have been produced from that production unit during the prescribed period.

(2) In fixing the special quota referred to in subsection (1) of this section the Advisory Committee shall not have regard to—

(a) the diminution of the amount of wheat produced from the production unit as the consequence of only one adverse season comprised in the prescribed period ;

or

(b) the diminution of the amount of wheat produced from the production unit as a consequence of the occurrence during the prescribed period of—

(i) frost ;

or

(ii) any disease or pest affecting the production of wheat.

(3) For the purposes of this section an "adverse season" in relation to a production unit means a season in which by reason of abnormally high rainfall or abnormally low rainfall the amount of wheat that would otherwise be produced from that production unit has in the opinion of the Advisory Committee been substantially diminished.

Transfer of all or portion of a production unit.

25. Where after the allocation of a wheat delivery quota in respect of a production unit, the Advisory Committee has reason to believe that all or portion of the land comprised in the production unit has been transferred (whether that transfer occurred before or after that allocation) the Advisory Committee may—

(a) reduce the wheat delivery quota so allocated by such amount as it considers just having regard to the likely diminution of the production of wheat from the production unit occasioned by that transfer and for the purposes of this Act and of any proceedings under this Act the wheat delivery quota as reduced shall have effect as if it were the wheat delivery quota allocated by the Advisory Committee in respect of that production unit ;

and

(b) notwithstanding anything in section 21 of this Act upon application allocate a wheat delivery quota in respect of a production unit comprised of the lands so transferred.

PART III.

DELIVERY OF WHEAT.

Entitlement under wheat delivery quota.

45. Except as provided in subsection (2) of section 48 of this Act, and subject to this Act and the Bulk Handling of Grain Act, 1955-1969, a wheat delivery quota shall entitle the holder thereof to deliver wheat of a season produced from a production unit to the South Australian Co-operative Bulk Handling Limited or any other licensed receiver up to the quantity of wheat specified in that wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of the production unit for that season.

Delivery of wheat to be in accordance with directions.

46. Delivery of quota wheat and over-quota wheat shall be made in accordance with directions from time to time given by the South Australian Co-operative Bulk Handling Limited and not otherwise.

Non-quota wheat.

47. Except under and in accordance with a direction of the Minister, a person shall not deliver or attempt to deliver to a licensed receiver any non-quota wheat.

Penalty: One thousand dollars.

Over-quota wheat delivered to a licensed receiver.

48. (1) The Board shall treat as delivery of wheat included in a wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of a production unit for a quota season (in this section referred to as "the relevant season") the delivery to a licensed receiver of over-quota wheat of a previous quota season (not being wheat delivered during that previous season and declared by the Board to have been sold and paid for in full during that previous season) being wheat—

(a) produced from that production unit and delivered during the previous quota season or the relevant season;

or

(b) produced from the production unit in respect of which the wheat delivery quota is allocated and delivered by the holder of a wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of that production unit for that previous season while he was such a holder, to the extent that the amount of that over-quota wheat does not exceed the wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of that production unit for the relevant season less any wheat of the relevant season delivered by the holder of the wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of that production unit pursuant to section 45 of this Act before that over-quota wheat was delivered.

(2) The quantity of wheat that may be delivered by a holder of a wheat delivery quota pursuant to section 45 of this Act shall be reduced by the quantity of over-quota wheat that is, pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, treated by the Board as being included in that wheat delivery quota.

Short falls.

49. (1) Where in relation to a production unit the Advisory Committee is of the opinion that the amount of wheat that can be delivered from that production unit will be less than the amount of wheat represented by the wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of that production unit the Advisory Committee shall forthwith by notice served by post on the holder of that wheat delivery quota reduce that wheat delivery quota by an amount (in this section referred to as a "short fall") by which the amount represented by the wheat delivery quota exceeds the amount that can be delivered and the wheat delivery quota as so reduced shall for all purposes be deemed to be the wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of that production unit.

(2) The Advisory Committee or the Review Committee may deal with the amount of wheat represented by any short fall as if it were part of the contingency reserve.

(3) In the allocation of a wheat delivery quota in respect of a production unit for a quota season which follows a quota season in which the wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of that production unit was, pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, reduced, regard shall be had to the amount by which that wheat delivery quota was so reduced.

Arrangement to deliver wheat not produced from the production unit in respect of which wheat delivery quota is allocated.

50. (1) Except as provided in section 52 of this Act the holder of a wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of a production unit shall not suffer or permit any wheat not produced from that production unit to be delivered to a licensed receiver as part of that wheat delivery quota.

Penalty : One thousand dollars.

(2) Where a person is convicted of an offence that is a contravention of subsection (1) of this section, the court before which the person was so convicted may, in addition to or in lieu of inflicting any penalty, by order, cancel the wheat delivery quota in relation to which the offence was committed and upon such cancellation for all purposes the allocation of that wheat delivery quota shall be and shall be deemed always to have been void and of no effect.

Certain deliveries prohibited.

51. Except as provided in section 52 of this Act a person shall not deliver or attempt to deliver to a licensed receiver as part of a wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of a production unit wheat not produced from that production unit.

Penalty : One thousand dollars.

Certain deliveries may be approved.

52. (1) Where a person is the owner of land comprising more than one production unit and as a consequence of that ownership that person is the holder of more than one wheat delivery quota the Advisory Committee may, in its absolute discretion, in writing approve, subject to such conditions as it sees fit, a delivery or deliveries of wheat produced from any one of those production units as part of the wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of another of those production units and the Committee may by notice in writing vary or revoke any such approval.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a delivery of wheat under and in accordance with an approval for the time being in force under subsection (1) of this section as part of a wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of a production unit shall be deemed to be a delivery of wheat produced from that production unit.

PART IV.

PART IV.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Restriction of quota where wheat sold to other than a licensed receiver.

53. (1) Where the approval of the Board is obtained for the delivery of wheat to a person other than a licensed receiver and that wheat is produced or proposed to be produced from a production unit in respect of which a wheat delivery quota has been applied for or allocated, the applicant or holder, as the case may be, of that wheat delivery quota, shall not fail to forthwith inform the Advisory Committee of the amount of wheat the delivery of which was so approved.

Penalty : One thousand dollars.

(2) The Advisory Committee may, in relation to an amount of wheat the subject of an approval referred to in subsection (1) of this section and whether or not it has been informed of that approval pursuant to that subsection—

(a) if a wheat delivery quota has not been allocated in respect of a production unit, from which the amount of wheat is proposed to be produced, reduce the wheat delivery quota that would otherwise be so allocated by an amount of wheat equal to the amount of wheat the subject of that approval ;

or

(b) if a wheat delivery quota has been allocated in respect of that production unit, reduce that wheat delivery quota by the amount of wheat the subject of that approval and for all purposes the wheat delivery quota as reduced shall be deemed to be the wheat delivery quota allocated by the Advisory Committee pursuant to this Act.

Additional powers of the Advisory Committee.

54. (1) Where in the opinion of the Advisory Committee there remains in the contingency reserve an amount representing an amount of wheat that will not be required to be allocated by the Advisory Committee—

(a) to give effect to a direction of the Review Committee ;

or

(b) by way of a special quota, the Advisory Committee may by notice served by post on the holder of a wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of a production unit increase the amount of that wheat delivery quota by an amount or percentage specified in the notice and except as provided in subsection (2) of this section the wheat delivery quota as so increased shall for all purposes be the wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of that production unit by the Advisory Committee pursuant to this Act.

(2) In the allocating of a wheat delivery quota in respect of a production unit for a quota season which follows a quota season in relation to which, pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of that production unit was increased, no regard shall be had to the amount of that increase.

Rights of share-farmers

55. Where in relation to a production unit in respect of which a wheat delivery quota has been allocated there is a share-farming agreement relating to the wheat produced or proposed to be produced from that production unit or portion of that production unit then, subject to anything contained in that agreement, the share-farmer, in respect of the wheat produced from that production unit which is delivered to a licensed receiver as quota wheat or which is pursuant to section 48 of this Act subsequently treated by the Board as included in a wheat delivery quota, shall be entitled to sue for and recover from the holder of the wheat delivery quota allocated in respect of that production unit as a debt due to him from that holder the proportion of the proceeds from the sale of that wheat calculated in accordance with the following formula :—

$$a = \frac{b}{c} \times d$$

a = the amount of wheat, portion of the proceeds of the sale of which, the share-farmer shall be entitled to sue for and recover ;

b = the amount of wheat that the share-farmer is, pursuant to the share-farming agreement, entitled to retain or sell on his own behalf ;

c = the total amount of wheat produced from the production unit in the season to which the share-farming agreement applies ;

d = the amount of wheat produced from the production unit which is delivered to a licensed receiver as quota wheat or is pursuant to section 48 of this Act subsequently treated by the Board as included in a wheat delivery quota.

Effect of quotas rendered void.

56. Where the Board has, pursuant to any Act, whether an Act of this State or otherwise, made a payment in respect of any quota wheat and the allocation of the wheat delivery quota against which that wheat was delivered is subsequent to that payment rendered void and of no effect, the Board may sue for and recover, as a debt due to the Board, from the person to whom that payment was made an amount equal to the difference between the payment and the amount, if any, that would have been payable to that person in respect of that wheat if that wheat were non-quota wheat.

Evidentiary.

57. For the purposes of this Act and of any proceedings under this Act—

(a) a certificate purporting to have been issued by the Advisory Committee shall be evidence that the amount of wheat referred to in the certificate is a wheat delivery quota or, as the case may be, a portion of a wheat delivery quota allocated by the Advisory Committee ;

and

(b) a certificate purporting to be signed by the secretary to the Advisory Committee or purporting to be signed by the chairman of the Advisory Committee to the effect that—

(i) a particular wheat delivery quota has been varied in a particular manner or the allocation of a particular wheat delivery quota has been rendered void and of no effect ;

or

(ii) a particular person is or is not the holder of a wheat delivery quota or that a wheat delivery quota has or has not been allocated in respect of any particular land, shall be evidence of the facts stated therein.

(2) A certificate shall not be granted under subsection (1) of this section if the sum referred to in that subsection would amount to less than one hundred dollars.

(3) Before a certificate is granted under this section, the court must be satisfied that the person claiming to be aggrieved by reason of the alleged commission of the alleged offence has in fact sustained injury by reason of an offence committed by some person.

(3) The Master shall make such inquiry as may be necessary for the purposes of this section.

(4) Where the Treasurer, after receiving the statement of the Master, considers that in all the circumstances of the case he is justified in so doing, the Treasurer may pay to the applicant out of the general revenue of the State an amount equal to the difference between the amount referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section and the amount referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section.

Proceedings under this Act do not debar civil remedies.

9. Any proceedings relating to the recovery of compensation under this Act shall not prejudice or debar any right or claim to recover compensation or damages otherwise than in pursuance of this Act, but where compensation has been recovered under this Act by any person in respect of injury sustained by him, the amount of that compensation shall be taken into account in assessing the compensation or damages to be awarded in respect of the injury in any other proceedings.

Subrogation of rights to Treasurer.

10. (1) Where any payment is made under section 8 of this Act in pursuance of an application made under section 5 of this Act, the Treasurer shall have and may exercise the rights of the person for whose benefit the payment was made against the person convicted of the offence to the extent of that payment, and the rights of the first mentioned person shall be to that extent divested from that person and vested in the Treasurer.

(2) Any moneys paid to the Treasurer in full or partial satisfaction of his rights under subsection (1) of this section, shall be paid into the General Revenue of the State.
