Note—

- 1 See section 40(2).

Part 2—Administration

Division 1—The Registrar

5—Registrar

The Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages<sup>1</sup> is responsible, subject to the Minister's control and direction, for the administration of this Act.

Note—

- 1 This is to be a Public Service position established under the Public Sector Management Act 1995.

6—Registrar's general functions

The Registrar's general functions are to—

- (a) establish and maintain the registers<sup>1</sup> necessary for the purposes of this Act; and
- (b) administer the registration system established by this Act and ensure that it operates efficiently, effectively and economically; and
- (c) ensure that this Act is administered in the way best calculated to achieve its objects.

Note—

- 1 The registers are collectively referred to as the Register—See section 40.

7—Registrar's staff

- (1) The Registrar's staff consists of—
  - (a) one or more Deputy Registrars of Births, Deaths and Marriages<sup>1</sup>; and
  - (b) the other staff<sup>1</sup> necessary for the proper administration of this Act.
- (2) A Deputy Registrar has the powers and functions of the Registrar but is subject to direction by the Registrar<sup>2</sup>.

Notes—

- 1 These are to be Public Service positions established under the Public Sector Management Act 1995.
- 2 If necessary, a person may be appointed to act in the position of Registrar on a temporary basis under the Public Sector Management Act 1995.

8—Delegation

- (1) The Registrar may delegate powers or functions under this or any other Act.
- (2) A power or function delegated under this section may, if the instrument of delegation so provides, be further delegated.
- (3) A delegation under this section—
  - (a) must be by instrument in writing; and
  - (b) may be absolute or conditional; and
  - (c) does not derogate from the power of the delegator to act in any matter; and
  - (d) is revocable at will by the delegator.

Division 2—Execution of documents

9—The Registrar's seal

The Registrar has a seal.

10—Execution of documents

- (1) The Registrar may issue a certificate or other document under the Registrar's signature and seal, or a facsimile of the Registrar's signature and seal produced by stamp, machine imprint or some other method authorised by regulation.
- (2) If a document produced before a court or an administrative authority or official is apparently under—
  - (a) the Registrar's signature and seal; or
  - (b) a facsimile of the Registrar's signature and seal produced by stamp, machine imprint, or some other method authorised by regulation, the court, authority or official must presume, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the document was properly issued under the Registrar's authority.

Division 3—Reciprocal administrative arrangements

11—Reciprocal administrative arrangements

- (1) The Minister may enter into an arrangement with the Minister responsible for the administration of a corresponding law providing for—
  - (a) the exercise by the Registrar of powers and functions of the registering authority under the corresponding law; and
  - (b) the exercise by the registering authority under the corresponding law of powers and functions of the Registrar under this Act.

- (2) When an arrangement is in force under this section—
- (a) the Registrar may exercise, to the extent authorised by the arrangement (but subject to the conditions of the arrangement), the powers and functions of the registering authority under the corresponding law; and
  - (b) the registering authority under the corresponding law may exercise, to the extent authorised by the arrangement (but subject to the conditions of the arrangement), the powers and functions of the Registrar under this Act.
- (3) An arrangement under this section may—
- (a) establish a data base in which information is recorded for the benefit of all the participants in the arrangement; and
  - (b) provide for access to information contained in the data base; and
  - (c) provide for payments by or to participants in the arrangement for services provided under the arrangement.

Part 3—Registration of births

Division 1—Notification of births

12—Notification of births

- (1) When a child is born in the State, the responsible person must give written notice of the birth to the Registrar including the particulars required by regulation.
Maximum penalty: $1 250.
- (2) The notice must be given—
- (a) in the case of a child born alive—within 7 days after birth;
  - (b) in the case of a still-birth—within 48 hours after birth.
- (3) When notice of a still-birth is given, the responsible person must also give a doctor's certificate in a form approved by the Registrar, certifying the cause of foetal death, to—
- (a) the Registrar; and
  - (b) the funeral director or other person who will be arranging for the disposal of the human remains.
- Maximum penalty: $1 250.
- (4) The certificate must be completed by the doctor responsible for the professional care of the mother at the birth or a doctor who examined the body of the still-born child after the birth.
- (5) In this section—
- responsible person means—
- (a) in the case of a child born in a hospital or brought to a hospital within 24 hours after birth—the chief executive officer of the hospital; or
  - (b) in other cases—the doctor or midwife responsible for the professional care of the mother at the birth.

Division 2—Registration of births

13—Cases in which registration of birth is required or authorised

- (1) If a child is born in the State, the birth must be registered under this Act.
- (2) If a court (whether of this or any other State or the Commonwealth) directs the registration of a birth, the birth must be registered under this Act.
- (3) If a child is born in an aircraft during a flight or on a vessel during a voyage to a place of disembarkation in the State, the birth may be registered under this Act.
- (4) If a child is born outside the Commonwealth, but—
  - (a) the child is to become a resident of the State; or
  - (b) in the case of a still-born child—a person responsible for having the birth of the child registered is or is to become a resident of the State,the birth may be registered under this Act.
- (5) However, the Registrar must not register a birth under subsections (3) or (4) if the birth is registered under a corresponding law.

14—How to have the birth of a child registered

A person has the birth of a child registered under this Act by lodging a statement (the birth registration statement) in a form approved by the Registrar containing the information required by regulation.

15—Responsibility to have birth registered

- (1) The parents of a child are jointly responsible for having the child's birth registered under this Act (and must both sign the birth registration statement) but the Registrar may accept a birth registration statement from one of the parents if satisfied that it is impossible, impracticable or inappropriate for the other parent to join or be required to join in the application whether because of his or her death, disappearance, ill-health or unavailability or the need to avoid unwarranted distress or for some other reason.
- (2) If a child is a foundling, the person who has custody of the child is responsible for having the child's birth registered.
- (3) The Registrar may accept a birth registration statement from a person who is not responsible for having the child's birth registered if satisfied that—
  - (a) the person lodging the statement has knowledge of the relevant facts; and
  - (b) the child's parents are unable or unlikely to lodge a birth registration statement.

16—Obligation to have birth registered

- (1) A person responsible for having the birth of a child registered must ensure that a birth registration statement is lodged with the Registrar within 60 days after the date of the birth.
Maximum penalty: $1 250.
- (2) However, the Registrar must accept a birth registration statement even though it is lodged after the end of the 60 day period.

17—Registration

- (1) The Registrar registers a birth by making an entry about the birth in the Register including the particulars required by regulation.
- (2) However, if the particulars available to the Registrar are incomplete the Registrar may register a birth on the basis of incomplete particulars.

Division 3—Alteration of details of birth registration*18—Alteration of details of parentage after registration of birth

- (1) The Registrar may include registrable information about a child's parents in the Register after registration of the child's birth if—
  - (a) the father and mother of the child make a joint application for the addition of the information; or
  - (b) one parent of the child makes an application for the addition of the information and the other parent cannot join in the application because he or she is dead or cannot be found, or for some other reason.
- (2) The Registrar must include or correct registrable information about a child's parents in the Register after registration of the child's birth if a court (whether of this or any other State or the Commonwealth) directs the inclusion or correction of the information in the Register or the Registrar is advised of a finding by a court that a particular person is a parent of the child.
- (3) An application to the Registrar for the inclusion of registrable information in the Register—
  - (a) must be made in writing; and
  - (b) must include the information required by the Registrar; and
  - (c) must, if the Registrar requires verification of the information contained in the application, be accompanied by a statutory declaration verifying the information contained in the application and other evidence the Registrar may require.

Division 4—Court orders relating to registration of birth*19—Application to Court

The Court may, on application by an interested person or on its own initiative, order—

- (a) the registration under this Act of a birth that has occurred in the State; or
- (b) the inclusion or correction of registrable information about a birth or a child's parents in the Register.

20—Power to direct registration of birth etc

If a court finds—

- (a) that the birth of a person is not registered as required under this Act or a corresponding law; or

- (b) that the registrable information contained in an entry about a birth in the Register under this Act or a corresponding law is incomplete or incorrect,
- the court may direct registration of the birth, or the inclusion or correction of registrable information in the Register under this Act or the corresponding law (as the case may require).

Division 5—Child's name

21—Name of child

- (1) Subject to this section, the birth registration statement must state the name of the child.
- (2) The name is a matter of choice for the person or persons lodging the statement<sup>1</sup>, but the Registrar may assign a name to a child if—
- (a) the name stated in the birth registration statement is a prohibited name; or
  - (b) the birth registration statement is lodged by both parents of the child and they satisfy the Registrar that they are unable to agree on the child's name.
- (3) A birth registration statement relating to a still-born child need not state the name of the child.

Note—

- 1 For example, there is no requirement that the name be made up of both a surname and a given name or given names.

22—Dispute about child's name

- (1) If there is a dispute between parents about a child's name, either parent may apply to the Court for a resolution of the dispute.
- (2) On an application under subsection (1), the Court may—
- (a) resolve the dispute about the child's name as the Court considers appropriate; and
  - (b) order the Registrar to register the child's name in a form specified in the order.

Part 4—Change of name

23—Change of name by registration

A person's name may be changed by registration of the change under this Part.

24—Application to register change of adult's name

An adult person—

- (a) who is domiciled or ordinarily resident in the State; or
- (b) whose birth is registered in the State;

may apply to the Registrar, in a form approved by the Registrar, for registration of a change of the person's name.

25—Application to register change of child's name

- (1) The parents of a child—
  - (a) who is domiciled or ordinarily resident in the State; or
  - (b) whose birth is registered in the State;may apply to the Registrar, in a form approved by the Registrar, for registration of a change of the child's name.
- (2) An application for registration of a change of a child's name may be made by one parent if—
  - (a) the applicant is the sole parent named in the registration of the child's birth under this Act or any other law; or
  - (b) there is no other surviving parent of the child; or
  - (c) the Court approves the proposed change of name.
- (3) The Court may, on application by a child's parent, approve a proposed change of name for the child if satisfied that the change is in the child's best interests.
- (4) If the parents of a child are dead, cannot be found, or for some other reason cannot exercise their parental responsibilities to a child, the child's guardian may apply for registration of a change of the child's name.

26—Child's consent to change of name

A change of a child's name must not be registered unless—

- (a) the child consents to the change of name; or
- (b) the child is unable to understand the meaning and implications of the change of name.

27—Registration of change of name

- (1) Before registering a change of name under this Part, the Registrar may require the applicant to provide evidence to establish to the Registrar's satisfaction—
  - (a) the identity and age of the person whose name is to be changed; and
  - (b) that the change of name is not sought for a fraudulent or other improper purpose; and
  - (c) if the person whose name is to be changed is a child—that the child consents to the change of name or is unable to understand the meaning and implications of the change of name.
- (2) If the Registrar is satisfied that the name of a person whose birth is registered in the State has been changed under another law or by order of a court, the change of name may be registered under this Act.
- (3) The Registrar may refuse to register a change of name if, as a result of the change, the name would become a prohibited name.

28—Entries to be made in the Register

- (1) The Registrar registers a change of name by making an entry about the change of name in the Register including the particulars required by regulation.

- (2) If the applicant for registration of the change of name asks the Registrar to arrange for noting the change of name in the particulars of the person's birth, and the person's birth is registered under this Act or a corresponding law, the Registrar must—
  - (a) if the birth is registered under this Act—note the change of name in the entry relating to the birth; or
  - (b) if the birth is registered under a corresponding law—notify the relevant registering authority of the change of name.
- (3) If the change of name is noted in the Register under subsection (2), a birth certificate issued by the Registrar for the person must show the person's name as changed under this Part.

29—Change of name may still be established by repute or usage

This Part does not prevent a change of name by repute or usage.

Part 5—Registration of marriages

30—Cases in which registration of marriage is required

If a marriage is solemnised in the State, the marriage must be registered under this Act.

31—How to have marriage registered

A person may have a marriage registered by lodging with the Registrar a certificate of the marriage under the Marriage Act 1961 of the Commonwealth or, if the marriage was solemnised before the commencement of that Act, the evidence of the marriage required by the Registrar<sup>1</sup>.

Note—

- 1 Under section 50(4) of the Marriage Act 1961 of the Commonwealth the authorised celebrant is responsible for lodging the certificate of marriage with the Registrar.

32—Registration of marriage

A marriage may be registered by—

- (a) including the marriage certificate as part of the Register; or
- (b) including particulars of the marriage in the Register.

Part 6—Registration of deaths

Division 1—Cases where registration of death is required or authorised

33—Deaths to be registered under this Act

- (1) If a person dies in the State, the death must be registered under this Act.
- (2) If a court or coroner (whether of this or any other State or the Commonwealth) directs the registration of a death, the death must be registered under this Act.
- (3) If a person dies in an aircraft during a flight or on a vessel during a voyage to a place of disembarkation in the State, the death may be registered under this Act.

- (4) If a person who is domiciled or ordinarily resident in the State dies outside the Commonwealth, or a person dies outside the Commonwealth leaving property in the State, the death may be registered under this Act.
- (5) However, the Registrar is not obliged to register a death under subsection (3) or (4) if the death is registered under a corresponding law.
- (6) If a child is still-born, the child's death<sup>1</sup> is not to be registered under this Part.

Note—

- 1           ie the foetal death. A child is defined to include a still-born child.

Division 2—Court orders relating to registration of death*34—Application to Court

The Court may, on application by an interested person or on its own initiative, order—

- (a) the registration under this Act of a death that has occurred in the State; or
- (b) the inclusion or correction of registrable information about a death in the Register.

35—Power to direct registration of death etc

If a court or coroner finds—

- (a) that the death of a person is not registered as required under this Act or a corresponding law; or
- (b) that the registrable information contained in an entry about a death in the Register under this Act or a corresponding law is incomplete or incorrect, the court or coroner may direct registration of the death or the inclusion or correction of registrable information in the Register under this Act or the corresponding law (as the case may require).

Division 3—Notification of deaths*36—Notification of deaths by doctors

- (1) A doctor who was responsible for a person's medical care immediately before death, or who examines the body of a deceased person after death, must, within 48 hours after the death, give written notice of the death to the Registrar, including the particulars required by regulation.

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

- (2) However, a doctor—
  - (a) need not give a notice under this section if another doctor has given the required notice; and
  - (b) must not give a notice under this section if the State Coroner or a police officer is required to be notified of the death under the Coroners Act 2003.

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

- (3) When notice of a death is given, the doctor must also give a certificate in a form approved by the Registrar, certifying the cause of death, to—
- (a) the Registrar; and
  - (b) the funeral director or other person who will be arranging for the disposal of the human remains.

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

- (4) If a child is still-born, the child's death is not to be notified under this section<sup>1</sup>.

Note—

- <sup>1</sup> In the case of a still-birth notice must be given to the Registrar under section 12.

37—Notification by coroner

- (1) If the State Coroner is notified of a death under the Coroners Act 2003 or is inquiring into the cause of a death, the State Coroner must, as soon as practicable, notify the Registrar of that fact.
- (2) If the State Coroner authorises the disposal of human remains, or makes a finding about the cause of a death, the State Coroner must give a copy of the disposal authorisation or the finding to the Registrar.
- (3) The Registrar may register a death even though the death is subject to an inquest or other coronial inquiry and a finding has not been made about the cause of death.
- (4) A certificate by the Registrar, certifying particulars contained in an entry about a death in the Register, issued before an inquest or other coronial inquiry into the cause of death is completed must be endorsed with the words: "Incomplete registration—Cause of death subject to coronial inquiry".

38—Notification by funeral director etc

- (1) A funeral director or other person who arranges for the disposal of human remains must within 7 days after disposal of the remains give the Registrar a written statement of—
  - (a) the name and last residential address of the deceased or, in the case of a still-born child, the name and residential address of the parents of the still-born child; and
  - (b) if the death was reported to a coroner—a statement of that fact; and
  - (c) the place and manner of disposal; and
  - (d) the information required by regulation.

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

- (2) If human remains (other than cremated remains) are removed from the State, the funeral director or other person who arranges for the removal of the remains from the State must, within 28 days after the remains are disposed of outside the State, give the Registrar a written statement of where and how the remains were disposed of, and the other information required by regulation.

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

- (3) If human remains have not been disposed of within 30 days after the date of death, the funeral director or other person who has custody of the remains must give the Registrar a written statement of—
- (a) the name and last residential address of the deceased or, in the case of a still-born child, the name and residential address of the parents of the still-born child; and
  - (b) if the death was reported to a coroner—a statement of that fact; and
  - (c) the information required by regulation.

Maximum penalty: $1 250.

Division 4—Registration of death

39—Registration

- (1) The Registrar registers a death by making an entry about the death in the Register including the particulars required by regulation.
- (2) However, if the particulars available to the Registrar are incomplete the Registrar may register a death on the basis of incomplete particulars.

Part 7—The Register

Division 1—Keeping the Register

40—The Register

- (1) The Registrar must maintain a register or registers<sup>1</sup> of registrable events.
- (2) The Register—
  - (a) must contain the particulars of each registrable event required under this Act, or another law, to be included in the Register; and
  - (b) may contain further information if its inclusion is authorised under the regulations.
- (3) The Register may be wholly or partly in the form of a computer data base, in documentary form, or in another form the Registrar considers appropriate.
- (4) The Registrar must maintain the indexes to the Register that are necessary to make the information contained in the Register reasonably accessible.

Note—

- 1 A reference in this Act to the Register extends to all the registers kept under this subsection.

Division 2—Registrar's powers of inquiry

41—Registrar's powers of inquiry

- (1) The Registrar may conduct an inquiry to find out—
  - (a) whether a registrable event has happened; or
  - (b) particulars of a registrable event; or

- (c) whether particulars of a particular registrable event have been correctly recorded in the Register.
- (2) The Registrar may, by notice given to a person who may be able to provide information relevant to an inquiry under this section, require the person to answer specified questions or to provide other information within a time and in a way specified in the notice.
- (3) A person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a notice under subsection (2) is guilty of an offence.
Maximum penalty: $1 250.

Division 3—Correction of Register

42—Registrar's power to correct Register

- (1) The Registrar may correct the Register—
  - (a) to reflect a finding made on inquiry under Division 2; or
  - (b) to bring the particulars contained in an entry about a registrable event into conformity with the most reliable information available to the Registrar of the registrable event.
- (2) The Registrar corrects the Register by adding or cancelling an entry in the Register or by adding, altering or deleting particulars contained in an entry.
- (3) The Registrar's power to correct the Register under this section is in addition to any other power of the Registrar under this Act.

Division 4—Access to, and certification of, Register entries

43—Access to Register

- (1) The Registrar may, on conditions the Registrar considers appropriate—
  - (a) allow a person or organisation that has an adequate reason for wanting access to the Register, access to the Register; or
  - (b) provide a person or organisation that has an adequate reason for wanting information from the Register, with information extracted from the Register.
- (2) In deciding whether an applicant has an adequate reason for wanting access to the Register, or information extracted from the Register, the Registrar must have regard to—
  - (a) the nature of the applicant's interest; and
  - (b) the sensitivity of the information; and
  - (c) the use to be made of the information; and
  - (d) other relevant factors.
- (3) In deciding the conditions on which access to the Register, or information extracted from the Register, is to be given under this section, the Registrar must, as far as practicable, protect the persons to whom the entries in the Register relate from unjustified intrusion on their privacy.

44—Search of Register

- (1) The Registrar may, on application, search the Register for an entry about a particular registrable event.
- (2) The applicant must state the reason for the applicant's interest in the subject-matter of the search.
- (3) The Registrar may reject the application if the applicant does not show an adequate reason for wanting the information to which the application relates.
- (4) In deciding whether an applicant has an adequate reason for wanting information, the Registrar must have regard to—
  - (a) the relationship (if any) between the applicant and the person to whom the information relates; and
  - (b) the age of the entry; and
  - (c) the contents of the entry; and
  - (d) other relevant factors.

45—Protection of privacy

In providing information extracted from the Register, the Registrar must, as far as practicable, protect the persons to whom the entries in the Register relate from unjustified intrusion on their privacy.

46—Issue of certificate

- (1) On completing a search of the Register, the Registrar may issue a certificate—
  - (a) certifying particulars contained in an entry; or
  - (b) certifying that no entry was located in the Register about the relevant registrable event.
- (2) A certificate under subsection (1)(a) is admissible in legal proceedings as evidence of—
  - (a) the entry to which the certificate relates; and
  - (b) the facts recorded in the entry.

47—Access policies

- (1) The Registrar must maintain a written statement of the policies on which access to information contained in the Register is to be given or denied under this Division.
- (2) The Registrar must give a copy of the statement, on request, to any person.

48—Fees

- (1) The regulations may prescribe fees, or a basis for calculating fees, for—
  - (a) access to the Register; or
  - (b) a search of the Register; or
  - (c) the issue of a certificate following a search of the Register; or
  - (d) other services provided by the Registrar.

- (2) The regulations may allow for fees to be fixed by negotiation between the Registrar and the person who asks for the relevant services.

49—Power to remit fees

The Registrar may, in appropriate cases, remit the whole or part of a fee under this Act.

Part 8—General power of review

50—Review

- (1) A person who is dissatisfied with a decision of the Registrar made in the performance or purported performance of functions under this Act may apply to the Court for a review of the decision.
- (2) On a review, the Court may—
  - (a) confirm, vary or reverse the Registrar's decision; and
  - (b) make consequential and ancillary orders and directions.

Part 9—Miscellaneous

50A—Documents to be provided before disposal of remains

- (1) A person must not dispose of human remains or cause human remains to be disposed of unless he or she has received—
  - (a) —
    - (i) in the case of a still-birth—a doctor's certificate as to the cause of foetal death given under section 12 or a corresponding previous enactment;
    - (ii) in any other case—a doctor's certificate as to the cause of death given under section 36 or a corresponding previous enactment; or
  - (b) an authorisation for the disposal of human remains issued under the Coroners Act 2003 or a corresponding previous enactment.

Maximum penalty: $10 000 or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) Despite subsection (1), a person may dispose of human remains or cause human remains to be disposed of without the documents required under that subsection if the person has received an authorisation for disposal of human remains issued by the Registrar or the Minister.
- (3) The Registrar may not issue an authorisation under subsection (2) unless the deceased's death has been registered under this Act or a corresponding previous enactment and the Registrar is satisfied that—
  - (a) the particulars entered in the Register record that the deceased died from natural causes; or
  - (b) the State Coroner does not require the human remains for the purposes of an inquest or for determining whether an inquest is necessary or desirable under the Coroners Act 2003.

- (4) An authorisation issued by the Minister under subsection (2) may be subject to such conditions as the Minister thinks fit.
- (5) This section does not apply in relation to the disposal of human remains by cremation<sup>1</sup>.

Note—

- 1 See section 6 of the Cremation Act 2000.

51—False representation
