Legislative history

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Criminal Law Consolidation (Medical Termination of Pregnancy) Regulations 1996.

2—Commencement

These regulations will come into operation on 1 September 1996.

3—Revocation

The Abortion Regulations 1970 (see Gazette 8.1.1970 p4), as varied, are revoked.

4—Interpretation

In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

Act means the Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935;

Director-General means the Director-General of Medical Services;

doctor means a legally qualified medical practitioner.

5—Doctor's certificates and notice

- (1) Before any treatment for the termination of a pregnancy in accordance with section 82A(1)(a) of the Act is commenced, the doctor who will be performing the termination and the other doctor referred to in that paragraph must complete a certificate in accordance with the instructions contained in Part A of Schedule 1 (including all other information required by Part A of that Schedule).
- (2) As soon as practicable after a pregnancy is terminated in accordance with section 82A(1)(b) of the Act, the doctor who performed the termination must complete a certificate in accordance with the instructions contained in Part A of Schedule 1 (including all other information required by Part A of that Schedule).
- (3) As soon as practicable after a pregnancy has been terminated under paragraph (a) or (b) of section 82A(1), the doctor who performed the termination must complete a notice in the form set out in Part B of Schedule 1 (including all other information required by Part B of that Schedule).
- (4) The doctor who performed the termination must ensure that a certificate and notice completed under this regulation in relation to the termination is delivered or posted to the Director-General within 14 days of the termination.
- (5) A copy of a certificate and notice completed under this section must be retained by the doctor who performed the termination for a period of three years commencing on the date of the termination.

6—Monthly notification

The chief executive officer of a hospital at which a pregnancy has been terminated during any calendar month must, within 20 days of the end of that month, deliver or post to the Director-General a duly completed notice in the form set out in Schedule 2.

7—Disclosure of information

- (1) A person must not produce a certificate or notice given under these regulations, or disclose any information contained in such a certificate or notice, except—
  - (a) for the purposes of performing official duties—to an officer or employee of the Department of the Minister to whom the administration of the South Australian Health Commission Act 1976 has been committed; or
  - (b) as required by law; or
  - (c) for the purposes of investigating or prosecuting an alleged offence—to a member of a law enforcement or prosecution authority of the State; or
  - (d) for the purposes of any legal proceedings—to the Court or other tribunal dealing with the proceedings; or
  - (e) to the Medical Board of South Australia for the purpose of enabling the Board to discharge its functions according to law; or
  - (f) to the doctor who terminated the pregnancy; or
  - (g) to any other doctor with the consent, in writing, of the woman whose pregnancy was terminated.

- (2) A person who has been requested to produce a certificate or notice in accordance with paragraphs (f) or (g) of subsection (1) may require the person making the request to complete a statutory declaration verifying the grounds on which the request is made.
- (3) Nothing in this regulation prevents the disclosure by the Director-General of statistics, provided that such disclosure does not reveal the identity of any woman who has had a pregnancy terminated or any doctor who has performed a termination.

8—Prescribed hospitals

The hospitals listed in Schedule 3 are declared to be prescribed hospitals for the purposes of section 82A of the Act.

9—Offences

A person who—

- (a) contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of these regulations; or
- (b) knowingly makes a statement or provides information that is false or misleading in, or in connection with, a certificate or notice given under these regulations, is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $200.

Schedule 1—Doctor's certificates and notice

A copy of this form must be retained by the doctor who performed the termination for a period of three years commencing on the date of the termination. The original form is to be delivered or posted in a sealed envelope within 14 days of the termination of the pregnancy to the Director-General of Medical Services, c/Pregnancy Outcome Unit, Department of Human Services, P.O. Box 6, Rundle Mall, Adelaide, S.A., 5000. The envelope must be clearly marked with the words "STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL".
