Legislative history

Part 1—Preliminary

1—Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Housing Improvement Regulations 2017.

3—Interpretation

In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

Act means the Housing Improvement Act 2016; approval includes consent, permission or authorisation;

construction includes alteration;

habitable room means a room used, or intended to be used, as a bedroom, kitchen or dining or living area.

Part 2—General provisions supporting Act

4—Meaning of owner (section 4 of Act)

For the purposes of the definition of owner of land in section 4(1)(d) of the Act, land held under a lease granted to the Minister under any of the following Acts is held in prescribed circumstances:

- (a) the Aboriginal Lands Trust Act 2013;
- (b) the Anangu Pitjantjatjara Yankunytjatjara Land Rights Act 1981;
- (c) the Maralinga Tjarutja Land Rights Act 1984.

5—Recovery of costs and expenses incurred by Minister (section 18 of Act)

- (1) For the purposes of section 18(3)(a) of the Act, the prescribed rate of interest per annum on an amount recoverable by the Minister but not paid within the period fixed by the Minister is 24% calculated in respect of each month (or part of a month) for which the amount remains unpaid.
- (2) For the purposes of section 18(3)(c) of the Act, the prescribed form of notice is as set out in Schedule 1 Form 1.

6—Termination or variation of prescribed residential tenancy agreement by landlord (section 30 of Act)

For the purposes of section 30(1) of the Act—

- (a) the prescribed form for a notice of termination is as set out in Schedule 1 Form 2;
- (b) the prescribed form for a notice of variation of a prescribed kind (within the meaning of section 30(5) of the Act) is as set out in Schedule 1 Form 3.

7—Orders and notices under this Part to be declared in advertisements for sale or lease of land and in lease agreement (section 32 of Act)

For the purposes of section 32(4) of the Act, a lessee's intention not to be bound by the lease must be given to the lessor by notice in writing.

Part 3—Prescribed minimum housing standards

8—Purpose of Part

This Part establishes the prescribed minimum housing standards for the purposes of section 5 of the Act (being standards that must be met for residential premises to be considered safe and suitable for human habitation).

9—General standards

The following general standards apply to residential premises:

- (a) the residential premises and any fixtures, fittings or other facilities provided with the residential premises—
 - (i) must be in a sound condition and in good repair; and
 - (ii) must not present a health hazard;
- (b) the fixtures, fittings and facilities must be—
 - (i) properly installed; and
 - (ii) fit for the purpose for which those fixtures, fittings or facilities are intended or ordinarily used; and
 - (iii) in good working order.

10—Toilet, bathroom, kitchen and laundry areas

The following standards relating to toilet, bathroom, kitchen and laundry areas apply to residential premises:

- (a) the residential premises must be provided with the following items as reasonably required for domestic purposes:
 - (i) a toilet, bath or shower, handbasin, kitchen sink and laundry wash trough or basin;
 - (ii) space, and designated water supply outlets within immediate proximity of that space, for a washing machine;
 - (iii) a wastewater discharge pipe for a washing machine;
 - (iv) an oven and cooktop;
 - (v) adequate kitchen bench space for food preparation;
 - (vi) a food storage cupboard or pantry in or within reasonable proximity of the kitchen;
- (b) each room in the residential premises containing toilet, bathroom, kitchen or laundry facilities must be of such a size, and its facilities so configured, as to allow for ease of movement around, and reasonable access to, the facilities;
- (c) each room containing toilet or bathroom facilities must afford adequate privacy to the user;
- (d) each room containing a toilet must not open directly into a room used or intended to be used for the storage, preparation, cooking or consumption of food unless ventilated by means of an exhaust fan or similar device;
- (e) the construction of each room in the residential premises containing toilet, bathroom, kitchen or laundry facilities must comply with the following requirements in respect of waterproofing of walls and floors in such a room:

- (i) if, in the opinion of the Minister, the construction of the room occurred before the repeal of the Building Act 1971, the construction must comply with the waterproofing requirements that, in the opinion of the Minister, applied in respect of such construction under that Act immediately before its repeal;
- (ii) if, in the opinion of the Minister, the construction occurred after the repeal of the Building Act 1971—
 - (A) if the construction was the subject of a readily ascertainable approval under the Development Act 1993—the construction must comply with the waterproofing requirements under that approval; or
 - (B) in any other case—the construction must comply with the waterproofing requirements that, in the opinion of the Minister, applied in respect of such construction under the Development Act 1993 at the time of construction.

11—Water supply and sewerage

The following standards relating to water supply and sewerage apply to residential premises:

- (a) the residential premises must have a sufficient and continuously available supply of—
 - (i) hot and cold water plumbed to each bath, shower, handbasin, kitchen sink, laundry wash trough or basin and washing machine water supply outlets; and
 - (ii) cold water plumbed to each toilet;
- (b) the water must be of a suitable quality for its intended purpose and, in the case of water plumbed to a kitchen sink, must be suitable for drinking;
- (c) each toilet, bath, shower, handbasin, kitchen sink, laundry wash trough or basin and washing machine waste water discharge pipe in the residential premises must be plumbed to a drainage system that is capable of disposing of all sewage and waste water from those facilities into—
 - (i) a wastewater system within the meaning of the South Australian Public Health (Wastewater) Regulations 2013; or
 - (ii) any other sewerage infrastructure within the meaning of the Water Industry Act 2012.

12—Electricity and gas

The following standards relating to electricity and gas apply to residential premises:

- (a) the residential premises must have a sufficient and continuously available supply of electricity;
- (b) each habitable room in the residential premises and each room containing toilet, bathroom or laundry facilities must have at least 1 electric light fixture and a sufficient number of electrical power points as reasonably required for domestic purposes;

- (c) each electrical installation in the residential premises must comply with the law in force at the time of such installation (whether the Electricity Act 1996 or a corresponding previous enactment);
- (d) each alteration to, or relocation, repair or maintenance of, an electrical installation must comply with the law in force at the time of such alteration, relocation, repair or maintenance (whether the Electricity Act 1996 or a corresponding previous enactment);
- (e) each gas installation in the residential premises must comply with the law in force at the time of such installation (whether the Gas Act 1997 or a corresponding previous enactment);
- (f) each alteration to, or relocation, repair or maintenance of, a gas installation must comply with the law in force at the time of such alteration, relocation, repair or maintenance (whether the Gas Act 1997 or a corresponding previous enactment).

13—Miscellaneous

The following additional standards apply to residential premises:

- (a) each internal wall and ceiling in the residential premises must be constructed of rigid material and form a regular and durable surface;
- (b) the floor to ceiling height in each room in the residential premises must be not less than the minimum floor to ceiling height that, in the opinion of the Minister, applied in respect of such a room under the Building Act 1971 immediately before its repeal;
- (c) any stairs (including the risers and goings and any landings, balustrades and handrails) in the residential premises must—
 - (i) if the construction of the stairs was the subject of a readily ascertainable approval under the Building Act 1971, the Development Act 1993 or a corresponding previous enactment—comply with the building requirements under that approval; or
 - (ii) in any other case—comply with the building requirements that, in the opinion of the Minister, applied in respect of such construction under the law in force at the time of the construction (whether the Building Act 1971, the Development Act 1993 or a corresponding previous enactment);
- (d) each room in the residential premises must be adequately ventilated and lit and, in the case of a habitable room, must be able to be adequately lit by natural light during daylight hours;
- (e) each external door in the residential premises must be fitted with a lock;
- (f) the door to any bedroom in the residential premises occupied under a rooming house agreement within the meaning of the Residential Tenancies Act 1995 must be fitted with a lock;
- (g) each external window in the residential premises that is able to be opened or is fixed open must be fitted with a flyscreen;

- (h) each external window in the residential premises that is able to be opened must be fitted with a latch;
- (i) in order for occupants of the residential premises to safely screen visitors, the residential premises must be provided with the following items at the main point of entry to the residential premises:
 - (i) a suitably placed window, lockable screen door, peep-hole, security chain, or intercom system;
 - (ii) an external light fitting;
- (j) the residential premises must have a clothesline, clothes dryer or some other clothes drying facility;
- (k) the residential premises must be fitted with smoke alarms in accordance with regulation 76B of the Development Regulations 2008;
- (l) any swimming pool on the grounds of the residential premises must comply with the requirements relating to swimming pool safety features under section 71AA of the Development Act 1993;
- (m) the footings must provide effective structural support to the residential premises;
- (n) the residential premises must be reasonably draught proof and weatherproof;
- (o) the residential premises must be reasonably free from moisture and damp (whether caused by ground moisture, rain or other precipitation or defective plumbing or drainage);
- (p) the grounds of the residential premises must be effectively drained;
- (q) the residential premises and its grounds must be maintained to prevent—
 - (i) accumulation of rubbish; and
 - (ii) fire hazard; and
 - (iii) infestation by vermin;
- (r) the residential premises must be safely accessible to pedestrians from a public road.
