

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO QUINTO ET QUADRAGESIMO
SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1882.

No. 278.

An Act to amend “The Constitution Act,” “The Constitution Act Further Amendment Act, 1881,” and an Act, No. 27 of 1872, and to define the Electoral Districts for the Election of Members to serve in the Parliament of South Australia, and for other purposes.

[Reserved, November 17th, 1882.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend “The Constitution Act,” Preamble.
“The Constitution Act Further Amendment Act, 1881,” and an Act, No. 27 of 1872, and to increase the number of members of the House of Assembly of the Province of South Australia to fifty-two, and to define the Electoral Districts for the election of members to serve in the Parliament of South Australia, and for other purposes—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as “The Constitution Short title.
Act Further Amendment Act, 1882.”

2. This Act shall be incorporated with, and, so far as is consistent Incorporation.
with the tenor thereof, shall be construed as one with “The Constitution Act,” and with any Acts amending the same.

3. This Act shall, subject to the provision of the ninth Commencement of Act.
section, come into operation from and after a day to be fixed by the Governor

The Constitution Act Further Amendment Act.—1882.

Governor by Proclamation in the South Australian Government Gazette.

House of Assembly
to consist of 52
members.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained in the fourteenth section of "The Constitution Act," or in any Act amending the same, from and after the dissolution by the Governor, or the expiry by effluxion of time, of the House of Assembly existing at the time this Act shall come into operation, the House of Assembly shall consist of fifty-two members.

Electoral districts for the election of members of the Council.

5. The four electoral districts for the election of members to serve in the Legislative Council into which the province is divided by "The Constitution Act Further Amendment Act, 1881," shall comprise twenty-six electoral divisions, the names of which, and of the four electoral districts within which such divisions respectively are included, being specified in the First Schedule hereto.

Electoral districts for members of
House of Assembly and number of members for each district.

6. The said province shall be divided into twenty-six electoral districts for the election of members to serve in the House of Assembly of the said province, which districts shall have the names and boundaries specified and defined in the Second Schedule hereto, and shall each return two members; and each electoral district so specified and defined as aforesaid shall form a corresponding electoral division for the election of members to serve in the Legislative Council.

Places of nomination and polling-places.

7. There shall be such places of nomination for the Legislative Council and for the House of Assembly respectively as are mentioned in the Third and Fourth Schedules hereto; and for each of the electoral districts and divisions referred to in the last preceding section, there shall be such polling-places as are designated in the said Fourth Schedule, and such other polling-places as the Governor may, in accordance with an address from the Legislative Council and the House of Assembly, by Proclamation in the South Australian Government Gazette, appoint: Provided that the Governor may, upon the like addresses, declare that any of the polling-places mentioned in the Fourth Schedule, or which may hereafter be appointed as aforesaid, shall cease to be polling-places, and may, by Proclamation, direct at which other polling-places electors entitled to vote thereat are to record their votes, and thereupon the rolls shall be altered accordingly.

Qualification of voters for the Northern Territory.

8. Notwithstanding anything contained in "The Constitution Act," or in "The Electoral Act, 1879," no person brought into the Northern Territory of the Province of South Australia under the provisions of the Northern Territory Indian Immigration Act, 1882, shall be qualified to vote in the election of members to serve in the Parliament of the said province, and no person residing in such Northern Territory shall be qualified to vote unless he be a natural born subject of Her Majesty, or a naturalised subject of Her Majesty

The Constitution Act Further Amendment Act.—1882.

Majesty of European nationality, or a citizen of the United States of America naturalised as a subject of Her Majesty.

9. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to the election of any member to serve in the Parliament of the said Province until the House of Assembly existing at the time when the said Act shall come into operation shall be dissolved by the said Governor, or by effluxion of time; but, until such period, the election of any such member shall be holden and carried out in the same manner in all respects as heretofore, and as if this Act had not been passed, and for the purposes of any such election the electoral rolls of the several divisions and districts in force at the time of this Act coming into operation shall be the electoral rolls of such divisions and districts respectively.

Act not to come in force until dissolution of House of Assembly.

I reserve this Bill for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS, Governor.
