No. 655.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Deeds of Assignment.

[Assented to, December 19th, 1896.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Parliament of South Australia, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Insolvent Act Amendment Act, 1896," and shall be incorporated with "The Insolvent Act, 1886," and read as if the provisions hereafter contained were inserted in Part XI. of the said Act. Short title and incorporation.

2. Without limiting any other powers of the Court, the Court, at any time within twelve months after the execution of a deed of assignment by a debtor, and before the granting of a certificate of the validity thereof, may, on the petition of more than one-fourth in value or one-half in number of the creditors of such debtor, declare the deed executed by such debtor to be void. Court may declare deed of assignment void.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

T. F. BUXTON, Governor.
