ANNO QUARTO

GEORGII V REGIS.

A.D. 1913.

No. 1112.

An Act to further amend the "Local Courts Act, 1886."

[Assented to, September 11th, 1913.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be cited alone as "The Local Courts Act Further Amendment Act, 1913." Short titles.

(2) The "Local Courts Act, 1886" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), all Acts heretofore passed amending that Act, and this Act, may be cited together as "The Local Courts Acts, 1886 to 1913." No. 386 of 1886.

2. This Act is incorporated with the Acts mentioned or referred to in section 1, and those Acts and this Act shall be read as one Act. Incorporation.

3. In the principal Act and all Acts amending that Act, every reference to the bailiff of a Local Court shall, where the context admits, be interpreted as including a reference to any assistant bailiff of that Court. Interpretation of word "bailiff."

4. (1) Where the party against whom a warrant of execution has been issued under the principal Act has no goods or chattels available for the purpose of the execution, that fact shall be sufficiently indicated in the return to the warrant by the words "no effects." Meaning of term "no effects" in return to writ of execution.

(2) The entry in the Record Book kept under section 26 of the principal Act, of the words "no effects" as the return to a warrant warrant of execution, shall be taken to mean that the party against whom such warrant has been issued has no goods or chattels available for the purpose of the execution.

Amendment of section
26, III., of principal Act.

Warrants, etc., forwarded by post.

5. Subsection III. of section 26 of the principal Act is amended by substituting the words "by post" for the words "through the General Post Office" in the sixth line thereof.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

DAY H. BOSANQUET, Governor.
