

3. (1) The Treasurer shall establish a trust fund in the Treasury to be called the "Parliament Buildings Trust Fund".

Parliament buildings trust fund.

(2) There shall be paid into the fund—

(a) the money given by the Honourable Sir John Langdon Bonython, as mentioned in the preamble to this Act, and any other money given to the fund by any other person; and

(b) any money voted by Parliament for the purpose of erecting additional buildings for the accommodation of Parliament as provided in section 2.

(3) The said fund shall be used for the construction of buildings under this Act and for no other purpose.

4. (1) The money given by the Honourable Sir John Langdon Bonython as mentioned in the preamble to this Act shall in no circumstances be chargeable with succession duty.

Exemption from succession duties and indemnity.

(2) If any person becomes liable to pay estate duty under any law of the Commonwealth in respect of the said money, the Treasurer shall indemnify him for any amounts so paid; and the Treasurer may without any authority other than this Act, pay out of the General Revenue of the State any money required for such indemnity.

5. The erection of buildings pursuant to this Act shall not be a public work within the meaning of the Public Works Standing Committee Act, 1927.

Non-application of Public Works
Standing Committee Act.

---

PARTITION

see Law of Property.